A McKINLEY REPUBLICAN.

A farmer from Jefferson was in this week and renewed for two copies of th JOURNAL. He pays $300 a year taxiand beartily endorses all we have said about tax reform. Unless reduction of taxes is pledged in county and state af fairs and men nominated who are consistently recorded and pledged to reductions he proposes to vote an independent ticket. That is, he will make up his own ticket of such men as he thinkwill promote tax reduction, and reducexpenses of government in state and county. He says he was obliged to pay all his road tax in cash this year and cannot see the slightest improvment in roads. But he adds: "You may set me down as a McKinley Re publican first, last and always. I be lieve McKinley is an honest man. He also expressed himself in favor of a new deal in our state government and committing our new board of state officials to be chosen next June to reduction of a state taxes. That is the way a great many farmers are talking.

THE COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

It was understood that the meeting the Marion county assessment. As a washing its feet in buttermilk. result of the labors of the committee appointed it is rather an endorsement of Coffey, a signal victory for that gentleman. Following is the report of the committee:

To the honorable state board of equalization:
