OREGON PACIFIC COMPANY. By T. E. Hoog, President.

Attorney Weatherford alse gave notice that the Giant Powder Co. held a lein against the last fifteen miles of the in Salem road built, for the amount of $7,806.98.

Now Sheriff Osburn Invited bids for the Oregon Pacific railroad and the other properties when F. M. Clark, candles at S. L. Jones' on State street. with Mr. Hughes, both attorneys from The freshest and best candies for the New York, represented the Blair-Wharton committee, made a bid of $200,000. This was the only bid offered and to Mr. Clarke was the road knocked off, It was a great surprise to almost everyone of the many people who were present at the sale that the road did not bring more, and they wonder how the indebtedness of the company will be paid off with $200,000 when the preferred claims amount to at least four times as much, so we have been informed. But may the affairs of the will company now be satisfactorily settled what Hood's Sarsaparilla does that tells with all interested.

Mrs. N. J. Damon Dead.

The sad news which has been looked for from day to day was received yesterday. Mrs. Damon passed away at Pasadena, Cal., at 2 o'clock p. m. in the presence of her husbaud and the two youngest children. The remains will be brought to Salem and the funeral will probably be held from the residence Friday afternoon.

Fannie Gage was born at De Witt. Iowa, in 1858, where she was married to N. J. Damon in 1875, and continued to live in that county, until removing to Oregon, less than four years ago.
