NEWS NOTES.

The Masonic order of Gold beach will build a temple.

The Indian war veterans reunion will be held at McMinnville on February 23.

Seattle courts have convicted several "repeaters" at a school election in that city.

The ravages of the grippe are killing off British Columbia coast Indians at a lively rate.

The state road convention of Washington, meets today at the state Capitol building.

There will be a new bridge put in at Windhuck, Curry, Co. The last storms destroying the old one.

The Crawford Mining & Milling Company has incorporated at Spokane, capitalized at $125,000.

The Tacoma street cars have stopped taking mail carriers free, and deliveries are accordingly slower.

The corrected net increase of the state's taxable property for the year, according to the county rolls, is $38,697,897.

Albert Richardson has been awarded $10,000 damages for injuries sustained in an accident at Carbon Hill, Wash., coal mines.

The Eugene public schools are making a collection of clothing and edibles for the benefit of those who are in needy circumstances.

The flour mill at Long Creek has ground up all the wheat in Northern Grant county and has closed down until next spring.

The ringing of the fire bell in Athena, Wash., by some practical joker, one night last week, made a raving maniac of a lady of that town.

The new rock crusher at The Dalles is turning out good material for their streets which have heretofore been almost impassable.

The German ship Carl Friedrich, Captain Haak, from New York for Hong Kong, with 74,256 cases of refined petroleum, has been abandoned on Luconia reef, near Borneo.

Councilman Wright, of Tacoma, reports that for $1600 spent by the street department of that city for manual labor, $1100 were required to pay superintendents and bosses.

At a mass meeting in Eugene a committee was appointed to see if the government could be induced to assist in protecting the city from invasion by the new channel of the river.

The second round up of cattle in Okanogan county this season took place last week, and 400 head of fine-conditioned animals are now en route to Seattle from that section.

Twelve inches of snow have fallen in Colville valley, Wash. Mercury fell to 16 below, Monday. It is feared stockmen will have to feed hay earlier than usual and that hay will be very dear.

About $1800 in gold has been cleaned up from the placers at Warm Springs, on the Snake river, since last June, with two rockers. Water for the rockers is raised from the river by two 17 foot wheels.

Only about 120,000 bushels of wheat were delivered at the Grant's ferry landing this season, as compared to 280,000 last year, says the Goldendale Courier. When it is understood that there was more grain sown and a heavier yield per acre than ever before in Klickitat county, it will be seen that the loss by damaged grain has been enormous.

Samuel I. Silverman and Dick Sherwood each owned a half interest in a valuable gold claim in Okanogan county, Wash., says the Spokane Review. They decided Saturday that there wasn't room for two in its management, and hit upon a true western expedient for settling their business difficulties. Sherwood won and the mine will in the future be called the "Monte Carlo."

John Crook and Jerry Coolins came up the Curry county beach road last Sunday on horseback. When a few miles below Gold Beach, near Frank Daniels' ranch, they noticed two panthers in the brush fighting. Having no weapons, they dismounted, and, securing rocks, charged on the "varmints." The animals quit their family quarrel and charged on the intruders who were compelled to mount their horses and fly, the panthers pursuing for some distance.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Local Correspondence from Towns in the Valley.

FROM NORTH HOWELL PRAIRIE. Isaac Stevens has improved somewhat since our last notes.

Mrs. McIlwain, who has been sick, is better.

Geo. Weeks and family are happy over the arrival of a young son last week. Geo. says it will be a "Populist."

School closed last Friday until after New Year. Several visitors were in attendance, among them W. Jefferson of the school board.

E. B. Fletcher will spend a portion of the holiday season with relatives and friends in Umatilla county.

Ernest Wiesner is home on a vacation from teaching.

The literary society is largely attended and seems to be flourishing.

Some of our Old Fellows were present at the organization of a lodge at Scott's Mills last week and tell of having a pleasant trip in spite of muddy roads.

Milton Jones of Klatsburg, Ill., who has come to Oregon to locate, paid a visit to his friends and relatives at North Howell last week.

Fall into Line.

Join the great process of it marches to victory! It knows no defeat! Inscrutable its banners is the inspiring battle cry, "Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery." Its line of march extends across the continent and around the world. A happy illustration of the popularity and success of this world-famed remedy. It is everywhere relieving pain, inspiring hope, curing disease. For all blood disorders it is acknowledged the safest, the most thorough, the best. The liver and kidneys respond at once to the invigorating touch; through them the whole system is cleansed and built up anew.

If you are sick, indisposed, debilitated, weak, suffering from malaria or other poisons, you'll find the "Golden Medical Discovery" the remedy to restore you.

A Potato Swindle.

Last week marketers were rather surprised to see displayed at the stands what purported to be new potatoes selling at 10 cents a small measure, the measure containing not over a dozen small potatoes. The obliging attendants at the stands, upon inquiry, relieved themselves of the information that the potatoes came from the Bermuda islands. The customer accepted these statements and purchased lavishly of the delicacy.

"Where are your new potatoes?" asked a reporter of one of the stand proprietors whose display was conspicuous by the absence of the new potatoes.

"New potatoes" he ejaculated. "There is none in the market at this time of year."

"But all the other stands have them."

"Oh, I understand what you mean. A man came to me the other day and wanted to sell me a supply of new potatoes, I laughed at him. He then told me that he had a process of taking old potatoes and making them appear as new, and the public would never know the difference."

"He said that he picked out the smaller and less salable of the old potatoes and buried them for a few days. During this time, the eyes began to sprout and the covering became fresh looking, and when washed resembled new potatoes. When he had completed his story, I told him that I respected my customers and would handle none of his goods."—St. Louis Republic.

A New Gunpowder.

The first experiments in public with the new gunpowder invented by M. Fabbe Schindelin and which has been patented under the name of "Schnebelite," have just been conducted by the abbé at the rifle pits at Nunhead. Firing with a government rifle and a government bullet at a range of 100 yards, the inventor penetrated 30 inches of timber, then a bismarck steel plate one-eighth inch in thickness, backed by four inches of wood and lastly a quarter inch bismarck plate.

Very little smoke was produced, and that little was almost immediately dissipated. As a test of nonexplosiveness, some of the granulated powder was subjected to the friction of a pulverizing mill. For concussion, it was spread upon an anvil and beaten with a hammer, and when a lighted match was cast into some of it the powder merely burned rapidly in a small blue flame. By the aid of a spirit lamp and small kettles the abbé manufactured some of the powder on the field in a little over five minutes, and after the compound was dried it was fired with every satisfaction. The cost of production is averred to be as little as fourpence per pound.—Cardiff Western Mail.

FIGS AND THISTLES.

This world is too small to show just how big a good man is.

Love is doubted when it leaves the cost mark on the present.

When the devil fishes for men, he does not let them see him bait the hook.

It will not help your own crop any to throw stones at your neighbor's truck patch.

When you pray for God to bless other people, don't insist that he shall do it in your way.

One reason why some men do not have better wives is because they are such poor husbands.

The man who has a kind word for everybody will not need a brass band to draw mourners to his funeral.

It is about as wise to sit on the limb of a tree and saw it off as it is to worry about things we cannot help.—Ram's Horn.

A SPIRITUALISTIC SURPRISE.

An Alleged Remarkable Case of Materialization and Dematerialization.

"Talking about wonderful experiences in investigating spirit phenomena," said Dr. Bell of Allegheny, "the most extraordinary I ever saw occurred to me a short time ago. It is something that is unexplainable. I've tried to reason it, but without success. The incident I refer to occurred at a seance given for me by a celebrated medium. Several forms had come out of the cabinet, but there was nothing extraordinary about them. At last the form of a girl about 12 years of age came out. She was dressed in white and had extremely short hair.

"I noticed the hair as soon as she appeared and suggested to her in a kindly manner that it would improve her appearance if it was longer. She looked at me a minute, then turning her back said, 'I'll make it grow longer for you, so that you can see how I look.' I was surprised at this reply and watched her closely.

Shortly the hair got longer and longer until it reached nearly to the floor. It seemed impossible that such a thing could be, and I stood gazing at her puzzled. She then said: "You look as though you do not believe what you see. It's all true. To make sure, won't you cut off a piece of my hair?" I hadn't anything but a small pocketknife with me, so I took this out, and taking hold of the lower part of the hair sawed away until I had a nice lock cut off. There I had the hair in my hand. It was soft, silky and of a beautiful color. I looked at it awhile and then thought it would be a convincing thing to show to my skeptic friends. I took a small piece of paper lying on the table by me and wrapped up the lock carefully. I then put it in my vest pocket.

"The figure was still there and asked me to take hold of her hand. I did this, and the form seemed to dissolve, sinking down into the floor until nothing but the head was left. It remained there looking up at me, smiling, when suddenly it was transformed into the face of an old man, and the hand which I still held was changed from the soft small hand of the girl into the large hard hand of the man. The figure then rose out of the floor until it stood before me fully 6 feet high. I conversed with the old man until he disappeared in the same manner.

"When I came home, I was anxious to tell my friends of my wonderful experience. I still had the little package which I thought contained the hair in my pocket. On taking it out to assure some of my doubting friends I found the paper empty—no hair or sign of hair being there at all. The hair had dematerialized as soon as I had gone from the seance."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

The Astor Millions.

How well the Astor girls have been drilled in the hard lesson that it doesn't pay to be a girl in the Astor family! And yet Mrs. William Astor has four of them and only one boy.

Mrs. Rosie Roosevelt's will is just like all others made by members of the family. The money left her in trust by her father is left to her son outright, while the daughter's money is left to her for life only, with no power of willing it away.

The Astors are determined to hold on to all they've got, and leave no loophole whatever for any of it to leak out of the family.—Cholly Kucklerbocker in New York Recorder.

DR. MILES' MEDICAL CO., ELKHART, IND.

Gentlemen: I take pleasure in informing you of the very beneficial results which have followed the use of Dr. Miles' RESTORATIVE NERVE Tonic in the case of my wife. For a year I was subject to a distressing pain at the base of the brain and upper portion of the spinal cord. I lost flesh and was greatly troubled with sleeplessness. My Nerve Tonic was highly recommended to me. My case had been an obstinate one. Yet as a last resort I consented to give it a trial. Much to my surprise, I experienced marked benefit; my sleeplessness disappeared; my headache was removed; my spirit and general health greatly improved.
