DR. IRVINE'S CASE .-- An unsuccess ful attempt was made yesterday to have a prominent medical man of this city committed to the Insane asylum. Three calem newspapers have three different accounts of the matter and all are wrong. Dr. E. L. Irvine, of Gervals, was formerly second physician at the State Iusane a-ylum, under Supt. Lane. He was brought to Salem, accompanied by his wife and before County Judge Hubbard, Drs. Jessup an i Cartwright, passed a very critical examination upon him, and he was discharged. All the officials at the court house agreed in pronouncing him perfectly same, E. J. Harding never made the complaint, as has been stated. Hon. H. O. Irvine, of Albany, the father of the doctor, is a paralytic, and day night in the Y. M. C. A. hall. at present in a very feeble condition.
