THE PATRIOTIC ORDERS. Devoted to the Fraternal Societies of the Department of Oregon.

Colonel Emil Frey, editor of the Basler Nachrichten, has just been elected president of the Swiss Republic, to take office January first, 1894.

The camp at Ashland, Or., has suffered a severe loss in the removal of Capt. Geo. R. Anderson to Southern California for permanent residence.

Col. E. D. Baker camp of Oregon City, has a Ladies' Aid Society, most of the boys have uniforms, and a set of uniforms has been adopted providing for $5.00 a week sick benefit to members.

Iowa State Register: President Cleveland says in his message: "I desire to urge with all the earnestness at my command that congressional legislation be so limited by strict economy as to exhibit an appreciation of the condition of the treasury and sympathy with the strained condition of our fellow citizens."

Grand Army men would like to see Past Commander Henry H. Northrup, of Portland, made the Republican nominee for governor of Oregon.

The foolish lies which some Populist and Democratic papers are printing, that the editor of this paper, who is also Commander of the Oregon Division Sons of Veterans, was born in Germany, would not be noticed but for the fact that it might be used to the detriment of the order.

General order No. 10 shows 1348 camps in go d standing with a total of 37,360 members.

336 mustered and 437 applications received for the month of November, 1894. Cash in hand of camps on December 1, 1894, $45,000.

San. Gen. A. Custer camp of Eugene, which did not report last quarter has met, elected officers, and reports several new recruits. It will be a vigorous number of the Oregon Division hereafter.

work should not drag as it will be impossible for the Division encampment to meet there in May unless the order is represented there.

Assistant Adjutant General D. H. Turner of Portland, is a faithful friend of the order and reports a movement for a new camp at Dallas, if the Dallas Sons of Veterans take hold look out for the crack camp of Oregon.

An effort is making to reinstate the camp at Albany. There is no good reason why Albany, so strong in other fraternal respects, should not have a good camp.

Capt. elect J. Wm. Wilson of Sherman camp, has an engagement to go to McMinnville and organize a new camp there Saturday, Dec. 30. McMinnville is the home of Department Commander J. C. Cooper, Department of Oregon G. A. R., who is taking a commendable interest in promoting the order.

Comrade J. B. Dimick of Hubbard, has just organized a post there and is working up a camp of Sons of Veterans there. It is material for a good camp there.

The Constitution, Rules and Regulations of the Sons of Veterans, edition of 1893, revised at Cincinnati, Ohio, published by the Commandry in Chief, is now ready for distribution. Camps should at once order a liberal supply. Price $2.00 a hundred and postage added.

Col. E. D. Baker camp of Oregon City, has a Ladies' Aid Society, most of the boys have uniforms, and a set of uniforms has been adopted providing for $5.00 a week sick benefit to members.

Jemima's Beau. Jemima, once she had a beau. He didn't mind her name, you know, and she didn't mind his name, you know. She had a beau, and he had a beau, and they were all in a row.

At the far end of Naples lies the little church of Santa Maria Annunziata, which, once a year, on the "Day of Our Lady," wakes up into a brief life and excitement. In a silent row before the high altar kneel 30 girls, all in black garments, with folded hands and eyes fixed on the picture of the madonna before them.

THE SHUT EYE TRAIN. Come, my little one, with me! There are wondrous sights to see As the evening shadows fall; In your pretty cap and gown, Don't forget!

Over hill and over plain, Soon will we see the eye train! Through the blue where bloom the stars And the Mother Moon looks down, We'll away!

Swifter than a wild bird's flight Through the realms of fairy light, We shall speed and speed away, Let the night in envy frown—What care we!

Heavy are your eyes, my sweet, Weary are your little feet, Nestle closer up to me In your pretty cap and gown! Don't forget!

German newspaper man, evidently jealous of the Irishman's reputation as a maker of bulls, took the troublesome years ago to look up the German record in this line. Among others he found in the published works of certain Teutonic writers the following curious examples:

Accomplishments of a Montana Girl. Paul Van Cleve, a member of the Montana legislature, owns a big sheep ranch in that state. His daughter Helen, aged 14 years, is his constant companion in his rides about the ranch and is reputed to be one of the most accomplished riders in that part of the country.

The Editor's Reward. Editor (at the gate of heaven)—Can I come in? St. Peter—What was your business on earth? "I was the editor of a New York daily paper, but I never once claimed that my circulation was greater than that of all the other daily papers combined."
