THE WHEEL OF POLITICS. Begins to Revolve for Another Week.

FIGHTING THE SUGAR BOUNTY

The President Nominates a New Judge.

AN ANTI-SNAPPER IS CHOSEN.

More Communications About the Hawaiian Islands.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The fight to amend the sugar schedule of the Wilson bill began today. It opened at once upon the agreement of Friday, setting apart three hours for that purpose. McRae, Democrat of Arkansas, offered an amendment to abolish the sugar bounty, but leaving it on the free list. He thought it was no time to be paying bounties when the treasury was bankrupt and we were borrowing money at 5 per cent.

INTERNAL REVENUE. The internal revenue bill, including the income tax, was submitted to the ways and means committee this morning. Calkins offered an amendment to the first section, but pending consideration of it, a recess was taken.

NOMINATIONS. The president today sent to the senate the nomination of Wheeler H. Peckman, of New York, to be associate justice of the supreme court of the United States, in the place for which Hornblower was rejected. Judge Peckman is president of the state bar association that made the fight on Maynard who was defeated at the polls last November. He is an anti-snapper in state politics.

Boutelle and the Speaker. WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—In the house today Boutelle desired to call up his Hawaiian resolution. The speaker refused. Hot words between Boutelle and the speaker followed. Hatch asked that Boutelle's words be taken down and Boutelle was ordered to take his seat. He refused to do so and the sergeant at-arms was called upon to support the speaker's authority. Great excitement followed. The rule was read, then the speaker recognized a motion to resume consideration of the bill. On division Boutelle made the point of no quorum. A bare quorum was got together and sugar debate continued.

HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The President transmitted to the House additional Hawaiian papers from Willis. They announce the retirement of Vice President Hatch and election of W. C. Wilder to succeed him. The executive council has been increased from four persons to five, a minister of foreign affairs being added, the duties of which have heretofore been discharged by the president. A petition and memorial addressed to President Cleveland by the Hawaiian patriotic league, claiming to represent eight thousand voters, was enclosed by Willis without comment. The memorial alleges conspiracy of Minister Stevens and the men in the present provisional government and deny that the present government represents the people of Hawaii.

Wilson Breaks Down. WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Chairman Wilson, of the ways and means committee, has broken down under the strain of preparing the tariff bill. His friends do not believe he will be able to take further part in the tariff fight.

Cyclone in Texas. CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—A special to the Times from Dallas, Texas, says: A cyclone yesterday, attended with thunder, lightning and rain, struck Oak Cliff from the southwest and traversed Dallas and East Dallas, demolishing or damaging over 100 buildings and killing Royal Heats an orphan boy adopted into the family of J. T. Mixer, who was sleeping with Seatte, was seriously injured. Robert Scott whose bank on Main street was injured to the extent.

THE ROTTEN RECEIVERSHIPS.

The Oregon Pacific Robbers Exposed.

THE ROTTEN RECEIVERSHIPS.

How the Property is Fleeced—Demand for Judge Fullerton's Removal.

How he Pays Political Debts. The People Should Act Promptly and Vigorously.

Further robbing and wrecking of the Oregon Pacific Railroad property should be stopped. Close observers must be satisfied that no honest attempt has been made so far under the receivership of Hogg or Hadley, or at present under Clarke, to conduct the road economically or pay the laborers what is due them. The receivers under Judge Fullerton were expected to not do any more robbing. They were expected to honestly apply the revenues of the road to paying its laborers and its debts for labor and material. That was not done. Enormous bills have been allowed attorneys Gest and Fay, Receiver Hadley and Supt. Mulcahey and their friends, while the workmen along the road have performed their labor on empty stomachs and with their families on short rations.

Fire in Washington.

FAIRHAVEN, Jan. 22.—The Waldron block, a fine four-story brick structure, was gutted by fire this evening. The two upper stories were in an unfinished condition, the fourth story having recently been added and alterations made in the third. The fire originated in the rear of the third, supposedly from fire started there yesterday to dry out some newly putted sash.

Damage by High Water.

STOCKTON, Cal. Jan. 22.—The town of Farmington was washed by a freshet last night caused by the overflow of Little John's creek. The water ran through the principal streets from 10 to 12, when it subsided. The country to the westward as far as this city is all inundated. Mormon channel and the Salaveres river rose steadily until this morning and a flood was imminent for a time. The water was at a standstill at noon today and the danger of inundation is now thought to be over.

Coal at Yaquina Bay.

YAQUINA, Or. Jan. 22.—The steamer Del Norte has arrived from San Francisco to run in connection with the Oregon Pacific railroad.

Strike Troubles.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn. Jan. 22.—The striking street car men made no disturbance this morning, and the company is not trying to run its cars. The tracks are covered with obstructions, and if any attempt is made to remove them, no doubt trouble would follow.

WHAT HAS BEEN DONE.

The court in the past has, as we are reliably informed, issued blank orders, allowing the receiver and the superintendent, and their attorneys to pay themselves what they pleased. W. S. McFadden who was Hadley's attorney is now appointed by the court as Receiver Clark's attorney. McFadden is the man who made the fight to defeat Judge Pipes and nominated and elected Fullerton. He even wrote the newspaper articles, as common report at Corvallis has it, that elected Fullerton. His selection as attorney of the receiver looks very much like payment of a political debt out of this railroad property. The JOURNAL is on track of the inside history of this matter and will at an early day lay it before the public. If it is not a corrupt political and corporation deal we are very much mistaken.

WHAT SHOULD BE DONE.

We believe matters have gone too far to expect any good results, real relief or honest management at the hands of Judge Fullerton. He should be removed. An honest judge, one who would give the interested parties and the people an impartial disinterested administration of the Oregon Pacific property, should be appointed. An honest judge should appoint an honest receiver, not one to represent the interests of any faction of eastern bondholders, but a receiver of the property who would represent the defrauded laborers, the defrauded communities, the defrauded material men, and the interests of the state of Oregon. The judge having done this should order that the receiver, after giving proper bonds, submit to the court the payroll of the road, including his own salary, which he intends to pay and the court should see that no enormous salaries are paid and no unnecessary men are put on the payroll. Next an honest judge should appoint an honest attorney for the receiver to advise him, and the court should fix his pay. If many complicated matters were coming up and had to be heard an honest referee could be appointed to hear them and lay them before the court with his findings. This is the way an honest judge could secure an honest administration of that property and in no other way. This is the law of receiverships, and is well understood by all who have any knowledge of law at all.

Health in old age.

Edward Collinson, Queens, N. Y. says: "I commenced using BRANDETH'S PILLS over fifty-five years ago. I first bought them in London, and have continued using them since I came to this country in 1836. I am now over seventy-five years old, hale and hearty and attribute my wonderful health to the persistent use of BRANDETH'S PILLS. Occasionally I have had a bad cold or severe attack of rheumatism, indigestion or biliousness, but four or five doses of BRANDETH'S PILLS always cure me. Whenever my children have been sick with scarlet fever, measles, acid stomach, disordered digestion or constipation, a few doses of BRANDETH'S PILLS restored their health at once."

The case comes before Judge Fullerton the first day of next month, when a new sale will be ordered some time next June or July. In the meantime the road should be run under an honest and economical management. Judge Fullerton as the representative of the state should insure an honest management of this property or resign. He can secure that for the people in the manner above indicated. He cannot secure it in the manner he has been doing. He should be removed for the way he has allowed the Oregon Pacific property to be robbed, wrecked and stripped by a handful of legal sharks and corporation dudes, while the laborers and material men have had to stand back and see the money stolen, wasted and the business of the road ruined.

THE JOURNAL suggests that Governor Penney take steps to remove Judge Fullerton. Judge Fullerton should remove Lawyer McFadden, who holds a political club over Fullerton. The robbers, strippers and wreckers have had control of the revenues. The lawyers and ornamental officials have had "carte blanche" to do as they pleased and helped themselves.

THE BIG PRIZE FIGHT GOES.

The Last Remnant of a Fake Has Been Removed.

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 22.—When last evening the referee and stakeholder returned from Corbett's training quarters he brought joy to the crowd of sports who anxiously awaited his return, for he announced that it had finally been agreed by the club managers, with whom he had made the trip to Corbett, that all restrictions shall be taken off that much discussed $30,000 check. The opinion of the most knowing ones here is that this agreement ends all doubt as to the fight coming off. The understanding is that a representative of each of the principals will meet Referee Kelly and a club representative in this city tomorrow evening, when the stakes will be put in some form, which will include no possible kind of a string by which the purse can be pulled back after Corbett and Mitchell have stripped inside the ring. There had been considerable reluctance on the part of the club to remove the restrictions on the check, but when it became plain to them that until this was done the greatly desired stream of the possible ticket buyers would not flow with any torrent-like rapidity from the North, no matter how many brave manifests the club issued, that argument carried the day. The fact of the stake being altered in character from a certified check to cash in the bank, payable to the referee's order, in accordance with the terms of his decision, at any time after the fighters have put up their hands in the ring, will go a long way toward removing a very lively apprehension that some sort of a bluff was being played.

Burned at the Stake.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 22.—Advices are received from Monett, Mo., to the effect that a negro rapist was burned to death at the stake, near Verona last evening.

Bimetallism Will Do It.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—Sir William Henry Houldsworth, member of parliament for Manchester, conservative, speaking at Dundee, declared that until bimetallism was adopted by all countries commerce would not receive any permanent benefit. England, he added, was the only country in Europe which refused to adopt bimetallism. He expressed the hope this government would co-operate with other governments in an effort to secure a more permanent system.

POPULIST MEETING.

S.S.S. CURES MALARIAL POISON

Nature should be assisted to throw off impurities of the blood. Nothing does it so well, so safely or so promptly as Swift's Specific.

LIFE HAD NO CHIRMS.

For three years I was troubled with malarial poisons, which caused my appetite to fail, and I was greatly distressed in both, and for just as long. I had tried every kind of medicine, but it was all to no purpose. I got better, I then tried S.S.S. and it cured me in a few days. I feel like a new man now, and I can do my duty better than ever. J.
