OF THE SILVER SEIGNORAGE.

A Great Big Axe of Retrenchment

APPLIED TO THE APPROPRIATIONS.

Immense Reductions Made All Around.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Bland presented a report on the bill to coin the silver seignorage bullion in the treasury, and gave notice that he would call it up at the first opportunity. Sayers presented the sundry civil appropriations bill. The bill as reported appropriates $32,291,332 for fiscal year 1895.

Bill for 1894 carried appropriations of $41,716,311. Estimates submitted to the committee for 1895 amounted to $38,381,002. The greatest saving is in the item of rivers and harbors. The sum recommended being $3,300,000, against 6,166,153 in 1894. From public buildings and grounds the appropriation drops from $1,077,500 to $647,000; for artificial limbs for soldiers from $647,000 to $196,000. The claims for back pay and bounty from $760,000 to $440,000. The Hawaiian debate was then resumed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—No information has been received at the Indian Bureau concerning the reported outbreak of Indians from the Apache reservation, in the face of the fact that the bureau has direct telegraph communication with the agency and both military posts mentioned in the telegraphic reports of the outbreak. The Indian office thinks facts have been exaggerated.

The Bond Statement.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Secretary Carlisle authorized the following statement: The secretary considered the proposals submitted for the new five per cent loan and accepted all the bids, naming a higher figure than 117,223. The proposals submitted at upset price have been scaled down 5.3327 per cent, and the amount of bonds allotted under this reduction, together with the subscriptions allotted in full, is fifty million dollars. This statement adds accrued interest to date of the deposit of the money in payment of principal and premium at the rate of interest realized by the subscriber to be added by assistant treasurer with whom the deposits were made. Each subscriber to be notified when the bonds will be ready to deliver.

N. P. Rates.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 3.—The Northern Pacific announced a rate of $65.50 to Portland and return to those attending the sessions of the Cumberland Presbyterian general assembly to be held in Eugene, Or., in May and the general assembly of the United Presbyterian church to be held in Albany, Or., the same month, also the Travelers Protective association meeting to be held at Portland, Or., in June.

Trouble in Mines.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 3.—After some trouble at the Acme mines last night, in which the men at work resisted the men from Montgomery, who sought to drive them out and in which a boy was fatally wounded, the invaders gave the job up and were taken back on flat cars.

BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Sold by all Druggists. ATLANTA, GA.

Henry F. Jackson and Daniel Follet were arrested here yesterday evening by Deputy U. S. Marshal George Humphreys of Portland, upon a charge of cutting timber on government land. They were taken to Portland for a hearing. Mr. Jackson had squatted on a piece of unsurveyed public lands and in cleaning up the land had cut some saw logs, and it is supposed that present trouble is the outgrowth of spilework.

A LINN COUNTY OFFICIAL

Short in His Accounts—He Was One of Boss Cowan's Men.

ALBANY, Or., Feb. 3.—A little over one week ago County School Superintendent G. F. Russell left this city ostensibly on a trip to San Francisco. The county officials discovered today that he has been guilty of systematic robbery of the school fund and that he took with him considerable county school money.

It has been customary for the school superintendent to draw money for school districts from the treasurer and send it to the clerks as an accommodation. In some cases he forged the names of clerks of school districts and in others gave fictitious names of clerks of school districts having no existence.

The full amount of his embezzlement is not known. Over $1,000 is known to be stolen and perhaps much more. When last heard of Russell was in Omaha. He telegraphed his wife here asking if she would come to him. She refused and returned to her parents at Sheddia. Russell is aged about 35 and had heretofore been considered honest. Russell was one of Cowan's men and issued instructions to all school treasurers in the county to deposit in Cowan's banks.

PERSONALS.

Miss Cleaver, of this city, has music pupils at Turner.

T. J. Buford Siletz, was in the city yesterday.

Eugene Breynnan and R. P. Boise, jr., were in Portland yesterday, returning last night.

Mrs. C. D. Combs, of Eugene returned home this evening, after spending two weeks with her sister Mrs. Kinzie, F. S. Barzee, of Ashland, who has been spending a few days among old time Marion and Polk county friends, returned home today.

Chas. Riely left last evening for a visit at San Francisco, where his better half is studying elocution. They will return in the early spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Prentice Holmes, of Clinton, Iowa, arrived in the city today, and are guests of Damon Bros. They are making a tour of the Pacific coast.

Prize Fighting at Salem.

Following telegram was sent to Portland and eastern papers yesterday:

SALEM, Or., Feb. 2.—At a secret meeting held by prominent people here it was decided to offer $40,000 for the Corbett-Jackson contest. It is the intention, if the fight is secured, to construct a mammoth amphitheater which will accommodate about $15,000 people.

Inquiry here shows that some solid citizens are behind this step, undoubtedly taken to advertise the capital city in the east. As it is morally certain that the fight will be held in England, and if held on the American continent it would come off in the east, the telegram can do no harm. It is well understood, however, that Governor Pennoyer would not seriously interfere, as he recently pardoned the prize-fighters convicted at Portland.

Song Writers

Keller Bros. of this city appear from this day before the public as successful English song writers. They have just had published "Why do I Doubt?" Clyde L. Keller is the author of the music, and Harry P. Keller is author of the words. There is a rumor that a very romantic experience of Harry P. caused this song to be written, but this he denies. The Kellers have four other songs in preparation to be printed. A limited number has been received and is on sale at Wylie B. Allen's. Price 40 cts. Frank Harding, Pub., New York.

LITTLE LOCALS.

Dr. Lamieux, now of Gervais, was in the city today. Prof. L. Barzee, of Jefferson, was a Salem visitor this morning. Mrs. R. A. Miller today returned to Oregon City. Mrs. A. N. Moores was a passenger for Portland this afternoon. E. K. Shaw, of Brooks, was today granted a commission as a rotary public.

A verdict was rendered in favor of John Doyle for $6,000, for the loss of one eye, against the Lackawanna R. R., at Morristown N. J.

RIOTERS CLUBBED BY POLICE

Important News of the Rio Situation.

DEATH OF A NOTED PHILADELPHIAN

Geo. W. Childs, the Printer—Editor, Dead.

English Unemployed.

LONDON, Feb. 3.—This afternoon a procession of German Jewish unemployed gave it out that they would hold a meeting in the historic St. Paul's church, in order to call attention to their grievances, and started toward the church for that purpose. The police met them and clubbed them vigorously, the procession then went to Trafalgar square, and held an excited meeting, at which fiery speeches were made. A strong force of police is guarding St. Paul's and will remain on duty all night.

Advices from Rio.

LONDON, Feb. 1.—The Times has received advices from Rio de Janeiro. In an interview Da Gama said: "We can continue here, as things are now, for several weeks. We expect reinforcements of troops next week. Our force then will probably be sufficient to enable us to effect a landing and take up a position on shore and there await the advance of the Southern army."

The admiral said the supply of ammunition was short, but sufficient for all present needs. The insurgent officers, who attended the conference called by Da Gama, on Monday, were most emphatic in their expressions of loyalty to him, and gave him no reason to doubt they placed entire confidence in his judgment; they told him they would abide by any action he might decide upon. Many volunteers are joining Da Gama. Advices from Desterre says it is reported a government fleet is now ready to proceed to Rio. The fleet consists of the Nietheroy, Britannia, Aurora and Parahyba and seven torpedo boats. These vessels are now anchored at Bahia. Admiral Goncalles is in command of the squadron.

The minister of finances called a meeting of the managers of the leading banks and stated that the government wished to raise the rate of exchange. He set forth the position of the government and asked if the banks would lend assistance to tide over the temporary embarrassment. No direct answer has been made to the minister.

Foreign diplomats have held a conference to discuss the question of the rights of the insurgents to be recognized as belligerents. No actual decision has been reached, but the feeling is distinctly favorable to such recognition, except on the part of American representatives. Brazilians on both sides are adverse to the action of the American fleet. There is much dissatisfaction among the ministers of Peixoto's cabinet, and a number threaten to resign, the complaint being that the government does not show sufficient activity in the present crisis. Martial law has been prolonged to Feb. 25th.

Da Gama's Dilemma.

MONTREVIDE, Feb. 3.—Admiral Da Gama's written proposition has been submitted to Rear Admiral Benham, commanding the American fleet. The government's propositions were completed yesterday and were in the hands of Gen. Carvallo last night to be delivered to Admiral Benham today.

G. M. Rollins has been Admiral Da Gama's agent in the negotiations. He says his chief is anxious for a peaceful settlement. The government is willing to make a compromise, despite all warlike reports. The trouble over discharging the cargoes of American vessels interrupted the negotiations but did not stop them permanently.

The spectacle of the American fleet ready for action yesterday was magnificent. All the Americans in the city are rejoicing over Admiral Benham's decisive action in behalf of United States commerce. The British minister called 2000 words concerning the incident to the London foreign office. Persons sympathizing with the insurgents are bitter toward the American commander. They say he acts solely in the interests of Peixoto and have otherwise misrepresented his action.

Admiral Da Gama's position in the harbor grows worse daily. Three desperate attacks on Arnico have failed, while the government has mounted several new seven inch guns at that point.

Rear Admiral Benham said yesterday: "Admiral Da Gama will not be able to leave the harbor, unless he acts soon, but he can surrender and obtain an asylum with us at any time."

GEO. W. CHILDS DEAD.

The Philadelphia Millionaire Passes Away.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 2.—3:30 a. m.—Mr. Childs is dead. Childs' last illness began with a fainting spell which seized him while in his office in the Ledger building, on January 19th. He became unconscious and Dr. Daosta was hastily summoned. Restoratives were applied with the result that in an hour the patient was able to walk, with assistance, to his carriage. On the following Sunday night his physicians reluctantly admitted that paralysis of the lower limbs had accompanied the attack. There is but little reason to doubt the immediate cause of the attack was overwork, and the anxiety attendant upon his efforts to see that the memory of his life long friend, the late A. J. Drexel, was properly honored.

The day upon which came the attack was spent by Childs in preparing for the Drexel memorial services held in Drexel institute on Saturday, January 20th.

Geo. W. Childs was probably as widely known as any man in the United States and there can be no doubt he was by far the best known resident of Philadelphia.

His popularity in this city was wonderful. He was a familiar figure on Chestnut street from the fact that when in the city he always walked to and from the Ledger office and so regular was he in his habits that if he did not appear on the street at about his regular time, people began to inquire whether he was ill.

To all appearances Childs was a robust man, yet his constitution was very delicate. He was of a highly nervous temperament and with the attack, which proved the beginning of his last illness, came almost complete nervous prostration.

THE COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Special report for THE JOURNAL.

CORVALLIS, Or., Feb. 1. Upon the convening of the Circuit Court for the state of Oregon, for the county of Benton, in an adjourned sitting, and upon the calling of the case of the Farmers' Loan and Trust Co., vs. the Oregon Pacific Railroad company, et al, the following proceedings were had, to-wit:

Mr. J. C. Bryson:

On the fifth of January we hoped to be able to ask the court to make a new order of sale of the property now in the hands of the receiver, and addressed a letter to the Farmers' Loan and Trust company, and Turner, McClure & Ralston, asking them to confer with the bondholders committee and agree upon an order of sale to be entered at this time which would be satisfactory to them. I received an answer to that letter only last Monday; it perhaps reached here on Saturday, but I did not receive it until Monday. It stated that they were considering the matter of making an order of sale, and as soon as they could arrive at some conclusion they would write me fully. No further communication has reached me, but I am expecting such a letter very soon. Without their agreeing upon an order of sale it will be useless to proceed; useless for the court to make an order of sale. I will therefore have to ask that your Honor fix another time for making this order. It would be perfectly useless to go ahead and order a re-sale of the property, for, so far as I know these parties are the only persons whom we can depend upon as purchasers. There may be other prospective purchasers, and there may be others, but our only information are circulating rumors, while there is some indication that these people will bid upon the property when it is sold again—they are the only people that we can depend upon. And it would simply be a waste of time and deceive ourselves and the people who are interested. I therefore think it the proper thing to do to fix another time to make this order of sale—say the first of March, I think that by that time they
