The Pollard-Breckenridge Scandal in Court.

Indian Lands.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The question of ratifying the contract made by the Modoc and Klamath Indian tribes and Yabos and a band of Snake Indians, of Oregon, and their agents, is pending action by interior department. The contract stipulates for services to be rendered by the latter in prosecuting claims of Indians against the United States arising from an alleged error in the survey of the out-boundaries of the Klamath reservation in Oregon. It is provided that one agent be given a commission of twelve per cent. of the lands, which are valued at $200,000 to $400,000. Commissioner of Indian Affairs Browning recently recommended a reduction of the commission to five per cent. The out-boundaries were established by a survey made in 1871, and as a result of contention which once threatened to end in a serious conflict between the Indians and the settlers, the land commissioner recommended a re-survey. The case will be decided in a few days.

The Pollard Scandal.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Hearing of the Pollard-Breckenridge suit was resumed in the district court this morning. The attorney for plaintiff, in his opening statement said his client did not claim to be devoid of fault or blame, but there was a breach of promise, which was the issue.

Mrs. Julia G. Blackburn, widow of the late Governor Blackburn, of Kentucky, was the first witness. She testified that Colonel Breckenridge brought Miss Pollard to her, and asked her kind care and protection for the young lady, and said he intended to marry her. Mrs. Blackburn related how Miss Pollard once, in her presence, urged Breckenridge to fix the day, but he put her off, saying he would fix it later.

DETAILS OF THE TARIFF.

The Bill as Submitted by the Democrats

TO THE SENATE FINANCE COMMITTEE.

Estimated to Produce Revenues of $470,000,000.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The proceedings of the senate committee on finance were in the main, informal. Copies of the bill were handed all the members and some discussion as to time for consideration of the bill by the full committee was had, republican members saying they would desire a reasonable period, and the democratic members expressed themselves as willing to grant that without cavil. Saturday next at 10 a. m. is set for the next meeting, when the republicans will probably be able to say what they will require. It is considered probable they will ask for the entire week after the next meeting day, and possibly more. Democratic members say whatever delay may occur hereafter will be chargeable to the republicans and they must assume the responsibility. Senator Jones of Arkansas, chairman of the tariff sub-committee, is of the opinion the bill as reported, would produce a revenue of about $470,000,000 or $480,000,000, without taking into account the increased amount which would be a result of the reduction in tariff rates. Senator Hill declined to say anything on the bill; he made no speech. The Pacific coast senators, generally, expressed themselves against that feature of the bill which abrogates the treaty with Hawaii, because so many people of the coast have large investments in Hawaiian sugar plantations, and the commerce of the coast has been greatly aided by the sugar industry.

MORE DETAILS.

The senate bill makes collectors of internal revenue the officers in charge of the collection of income taxes, instead of deputy collectors, as provided in the Wilson bill. The right of appeal against the imposition of unjust taxes is retained, but the final decision rests with the commissioner of taxes ETAOI with the commissioner of internal revenue, and not with the secretary of the treasury, as provided in the house bill.

The following exceptions to the tax are inserted: "Provided, dividends or interests accruing to states, counties or municipalities, and dividends, interest or annuities accruing to corporations or associations organized solely for charitable, religious or educational purposes, or to any trustees or other judiciary, on stocks, shares, funds or securities, held solely for charitable, religious or educational purposes, or salaries due state, county or municipal officers, shall not be subject to such tax or deduction."

In taxing the salaries of employees of corporations, the house bill makes it the duty of corporation to pay the tax of each employee and then deduct it from their salaries. The senate bill relieves the corporations from becoming taxpayers for their employees and compels the latter to make direct payments to the collector.

The time when returns on the income taxes is made, is changed from the first day of March to the first Monday in March. The section making it perjury to falsify any proceedings under the income tax is stricken out. The duty on hops is now 20 per cent. ad valorem, in the Wilson bill it is 8 cents per pound. Fish, smoked, dried, salted, pickled, 15 per cent, Wilson 3-4 cent per pound. Precious stones of all kinds, cut, not set, 15 per cent, Wilson 30, if set, 15 per cent. Wilson 30, if set 30, Wilson 35.

The free list is not so much changed as was supposed it would be, and the abstractions from it are far more numerous than the additions. Apples of all kinds are stricken from the free list and placed on the dutiable list, as are also beef, mutton and pork. Bituminous coal, shale, coal slack and coke are transferred to the dutiable list, leaving anthracite on the free list. Diamonds and other precious stones, rough or uncut, are added to the free list, and iron ore and sugar are moved to the dutiable list.

There is a touch of reciprocity in the provision attached to the paragraph admitting agricultural implements free, the proviso being to the effect that all articles mentioned in the paragraph when imported from any other country which lays an import duty on like articles coming from the United States, shall be subject to the duties existing prior to the passage of this act." The administrative features of the bill are substantially identical with those of the house bill. The exception in the Wilson bill as to personal effects not subject to duty is enlarged to read, "and personal and household effects specifically enumerated in the new list of this act." The sections covering the tax on spirits are new throughout.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

PERSONALS.

J. & P. Coat's thread, at the New York Racket. D. H. Looney returned to Jefferson this morning. Supt. Anson, of the electric company, is at Portland. S. W. Osburn, of Eugene, was today appointed notary public. President J. M. Wallace, of the water works, is in Portland on business. Mrs. E. E. Waters went up to Brownsville this morning, to spend a few days among friends. The Altona on her trip to Portland this morning carried 25 passengers from Salem. Rev. V. Marshall Law, of Walla Walla occupies the Episcopal church next Sunday morning and evening. President Chapman who lectures on English literature at the Salem Y. M. C. A. rooms tonight is a guest of Dr. and Mrs. S. R. Jessup at Hotel Willamette. The friends of ex-Senator J. B. Dimick, of Hubbard, who was a member of the upper house of the Oregon legislature in 1887 and 1888, are again demanding that he allow the use of his name. He is an active grand army man and declares himself strongly in favor of retrenchment all along the line. He has the endorsement of Senators Looney and Cross, the latter of whom he hopes to succeed. When in the senate before he was the author and champion of a bill to raise the county liquor license from $100 to $400, which is the present law. Senator Dimick has been before the people of this county in many capacities, and is one of the best known men in the county.

A NOTED DIVINE.—Rev. F. W. Gunsaulus, D. D., of Chicago, one of the ablest and most eloquent ministers in the Congregational denomination in the United States, will preach for the First Congregational church, of Portland, next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Dr. Gunsaulus as a pulpit orator he is without doubt the peer of any man in our country. He is the pastor of Plymouth Congregational church in Chicago, one of the largest in that great city, and it is utterly inadequate to accommodate the multitudes of people who desire to hear him. It was chiefly to accommodate the great crowds who made up his audience, especially on Sunday evenings, that the great Auditorium of Chicago was constructed a few years ago. In this it is not uncommon for an audience of 10,000 to give the most earnest attention for an hour and a half while he discourses upon the great themes pertaining to Christian living with tremendous power and eloquence.—Oregonian, March 8th.

That won't bear off. This hawking and this spitting. And this hawking cough. I've lost my sense of smug. And taste's going, too. I know catarrh's what ails me, But—what shall I do? My hawking and my hawking Keeps up a steady din: I'm haunted by the fear that Consumption may set in. I feel supremely wretched; No wonder I'm thin. I know my health's ailing, But—what can I do? Do? I'll tell you what to do, my friend, if you will lend me your ear a minute. Go down to the drug store and buy Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and take it according to directions given and you'll soon find that this miserable headache is a thing of the past; The hawking, hawking and spitting, so disagreeable to others as well as yourself, will come to an end, and in a short time you will feel like a new man. A new man—think of that—and all for fifty cents, which is the price of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the unfailing cure for this terrible disease.

THE LEGISLATIVE TICKET. The success of the Republican party in Marion county is not called in question seriously at the coming election, unless there should be a strong Penoyer fusion. It now looks as though there would be but three tickets in the field, Republican, Fusion and Probi. The latter will not be as strong as heretofore as many have united with the Populists.

But Republican success has one greater enemy to cope with and that is Republicans themselves. The taxpayers are aroused as never before, and a ticket hastily thrown together by the extravagant influences that prevailed in the organization of the last legislature, will not meet with popular favor, if indeed it is not repudiated altogether. The Republican taxpayers are going to demand that the Republican representatives and senators from this county engage in no repetition of last session's log-rolling, extravagance and disregard of the people who pay the bills. The delegation should not only be publicly pledged to economy, but it should be made up of that kind of men. The wisdom of General Odell's remarks to the Salem Republican club is apparent to all. He cautioned along these very lines, and while THE JOURNAL believes the party should be open to all worthy aspirants, still the times and the conditions demand that safe, intelligent and economical men be nominated.

Tacoma News, Dem: Senator David B. Hill, the one man who claims pre-eminence in public life as a simon pure Democrat, proved his Democracy yesterday by introducing a resolution declaring that it was the sense of the senate that the Wilson bill should be amended by striking out the income tax and raising all our revenue by the tariff.

Mrs. E. R. Cox, 60 years of age, died Tuesday at Athena. Mrs. Cox crossed the plains in the '50s, and has been a resident of this part of the section for the past 15 years. She was prominent in W. C. T. U. work, and leaves a husband and son and a large circle of friends.
