LATEST WASHINGTON NEWS.

One of the Noblest of Southern Men Dying.

AN IMPORTANT LAND DECISION.

The House Filibustering Over a Contested Election.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Sayers presented a joint resolution for an appropriation of ten thousand dollars for salaries and expenses of additional deputy collectors of internal revenue, to carry out the provisions of the Chinese exclusion act as amended last December. It was agreed to. Then the struggle over the O'Neill-Joy contested election case was resumed. Waugh raised a point of consideration against the report of the committee and filibustering began.

NO QUORUM.

The Democrats were eighteen short of a quorum. A call of the house followed.

Public Lands.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 23.—The senate committee on public lands will probably soon take up Carey's bill granting the arid land states and territories a million acres each of public lands to be sold to settlers in lots of 160 acres each. The secretary of the interior endorses the bill. The states and territories to which the bill would apply if it should become a law, are: Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington and Wyoming.

New Anti-Option Bill.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 23.—The house committee in agriculture agreed on the amended anti-option bill. As amended it provides that every option or future contract shall have affixed internal revenue stamps as follows: For every 10,000 pounds of cotton, hops, pork, lard, bacon, dried, salt and pickled meats, one cent; for every thousand bushels of wheat, or other grain, one cent; on every cancellation of such contract other wise than by actual sale and delivery, it shall have affixed the following stamps: For every pound of cotton, pork, lard, bacon, 1 cent a pound; for every bushel of wheat, 3 cents; every bushel of corn, oats, rye, barley, two cents.

Colquitt Dying.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Senator Colquitt's condition is much worse. He is unconscious and it is not believed he can live out the day.

Teachers Fined.

CHEWELAH, March 23.—After a sensational trial, lasting two days, before a justice, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Barnes, teachers in the public school here, were fined $50 and costs for beating a son of William Duffy. The evidence showed that Mrs. Barnes wore out switch after switch, and while waiting for more from the adjacent woods stacked the child with her fists. She whipped him until exhausted and then her husband came to her aid. The boy showed marks of his frightful punishment. The Barnes have appealed to the superior court.

Storm Over.

OMAHA, Neb., March 23.—The great storm that has been prevailing over the north-west has entirely abated. The Union Pacific and Burlington lines are open between Omaha and Cheyenne. Twenty-eight carloads of people who had been snowbound on the Union Pacific reached here today.

The Elkhorn line is not yet opened in the extreme northwestern portion of the state. Two trains from Douglass, Wyo., east bound, are still missing in the drifts, but it is believed that they will be dug out before evening.

Women Nominate a Ticket.

ENTERPRISE, Kans., March 23.—At a mass meeting the women nominated a ticket composed entirely of women, headed by the wife of Ex-State Senator Kohler for mayor. They propose to purify town politics.

Raising Money.

MARSHTON, O., March 23.—J. S. Coxe today received in cash and checks $1411 for his commonwealth army.

An Official Address.

DETROIT, March 23.—W. J. H. Traynor, supreme president of the American Protective Association and publisher of the Patriotic American, has issued an official address to the order,

He states that his travels in the West have convinced him "that the A. P. A. is a mighty force which no power on earth is potent enough to restrain, although monopoly, the press, a large proportion of the Protestant clergy—to their shame or ignorance be it said—corrupt politicians and the priesthood have joined issue to suppress it." He reminds members that, despite local victories, the alleged "center of corruption and national danger," viz: the national legislature and government, remains apparently as powerful as ever. He exhorts every member to attend caucuses and, independently of party, elect only trustworthy members of the order, or equally good and responsible citizens, as delegates to the convention.

He refers to the other so called patriotic organizations recently formed as "another ingenious weapon formed by the enemy," and advises that they quietly be let alone. The address exhorts persistent opposition to immigration as a prominent source of financial panics and the "main avenue of priestly supremacy," and advocates taxation of all property, "ecclesiastical policies" included, public inspection of convents and vigilant guarding of the franchise and the public schools against the inroads of foreignism and absolutism. In conclusion the president suggests as a watchword Wendell Phillips' utterance: "The uneducated ballot is the windingsheet of liberty."

GARTER HARRISON'S ASSASSIN.

Gets a Two Weeks Reprieve to be Tried for Insanity.

CHICAGO, March 23.—Immediately after the decision of the court of appeals, Prendergast's attorney developed a new loophole for his client by making an application to Judge Baker, of the state circuit court, under the state statute, to have the question of the sanity of their client tried. Judge Baker granted the application and the trial began this afternoon. Judge Baker's action, it is said, means a postponement of the execution pending the verdict, and if the prisoner is found insane the result will be an indefinite postponement.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 23.—Acting Governor Gill, after hearing arguments of counsel, and examining the petition for a reprieve for Prendergast, decided not to interfere with the execution.

The attorneys for Prendergast last night renewed their efforts by raising the question of their client's sanity. The point now raised is that Prendergast has become insane, since the trial, so they applied to Judge Chetlain and he consented to hear arguments to show that he could properly take the matter up. The judge decided that he could not rightfully take the case. Having heard the arguments, Judge Chetlain announced his decision, extending the time for execution two weeks to April 6th, and setting the commencement of the trial as to the question of the prisoner's sanity at Saturday morning.

CHICAGO, March 23.—An order staying the execution of the assassin Prendergast till April 6th, was made by Judge Chetlain last night, and served on Sheriff Gilbert this morning.

Murderer Hanged.

CHICAGO, Mar. 23.—Thomas, alias Buff Higgins, was hanged at noon for the murder of Peter McCooey, an old city employee, last September.

CHICAGO, Mar. 23.—As the trap fell with a clatter, the prisoners in the adjoining corridors set up a shout, "hang Prendergast, hang Prendergast" and the little assassin cowered further back in his cell, trembling and muttering imprecations.

State of Trade.

NEW YORK, March 23.—In its review of the state of trade, Bradstreet's, today will say: "The increased observance of Good Friday in business circles helps to check the volume of trade, notwithstanding there being practically one less business day to the week than last. The continued springlike weather has further stimulated sales of staples at nearly all the larger cities in the eastern, middle and in some of the western states.

While eastern woolen mills can not meet orders for dress goods, many woolen mills are running on part time, and large stocks of old wool, with the California and Texas clips available within sixty days, depress prices. The continued shrinkage of the total number of business failures each week is another feature of the situation, the total for the past week numbering 197, against 231 last week, 202 in the week a year ago; 191 two years ago, and 200 three years ago."

Thurston, Hawaiian minister to the United States, are now on their way to Washington, and that he will be requested to hurry home as speedily as possible. Its information also is that a permanent republican government is about to be established in Hawaii. The statement is partly confirmed by recent advices from Honolulu.

Hon. C. W. Fulton, of Astoria, is looming up among the gubernatorial candidates and has friends in the Salem delegation.

Linn County Circuit Court.

ALBANY, March 23.—Much confusion has arisen in the city over the payment of city taxes. The city collected taxes for 1893 under the old law and under the new law the sheriff has commenced collecting again for 1893, this upon the city's assessment for 1894. An order was issued by Judge Burnett requiring the sheriff in collecting taxes to write a receipt for 1894 instead of 1893, and the case will probably go to the supreme court as a test case to determine the right of the city to collect taxes for 1893 under the old law.

BANK CASHIER SHOT.

Murdered at His Post of Duty by a Dynamiter.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—A man entered the branch office of the San Francisco savings union, at the corner of Market and Fell streets, and presented a piece of paper to the assistant cashier, A. Herriek. After examining it Herriek returned it. An altercation ensued between the man and cashier, during which the former drew a pistol and fired several shots in rapid succession, killing Herriek almost instantly. The murderer then fled but was soon captured by the police. He gave his name as Fred Borneman and said he was recently from Denver. The paper presented Cashier Herriek, by his murderer, was a note written in red ink, stating that bearer should be given money or he would blow up the place with dynamite. On the bottom was drawn a skull and crossbones.

Brutal Affair Discovered.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—The society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals has discovered a plan which was on foot to have a fight between a lion and a grizzly bear at the Midwinter fair ground, and proposes to put a stop to it. A large, fierce grizzly bear was captured some time ago and was purchased by Col. Boone, the lion tamer. Among other animals owned by Boone is a lion named Parnell. Parnell is a full sized lion and has a record of having killed numbers of his keepers. It is proposed to put Parnell and the grizzly in a big cage together and let them fight to a finish. Tickets were placed at $20 and were selling like hot cakes. The secretary of the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals has had an interview with Mayor Ebert and the chief of police, who assured him every assistance in preventing the brutal affair.

Dynamite Explosion.

PITTSBURG, Penn., March 23.—The dynamite works of the Acme powder company near Hulton, were swept out of existence by an explosion this morning. Five persons, all who were in the building at the time were killed. The bodies of those killed are terribly mangled. Part of them are gathered up in a box. The following were killed: Samuel, Mollie, Nellie and Sadie Remaley, Wm. Arthur. Arthur's house in the vicinity was completely wrecked, and Mrs. Arthur badly injured. There were ten thousand pounds of dynamite in the building.

MARION COUNTY TICKET.

The Republicans of Marion county have nominated an excellent ticket for the suffrages of the people in June. It is well apportioned to all parts of the county, is composed of clear able and upright men, who can challenge the closest scrutiny of the public into their record. The ticket is one that represents all the interests of the people and harmonizes the elements of the party. The officers who have been renominated are men who have been worthy of their trusts and who have conducted their offices without scandal. The new names upon the ticket will add strength to the party and will be a credit to the public service.

THE M'KINLEY CLUB.

The South Salem Republicans held a successful meeting last night at the old school house. W. H. Armstrong presided in good shape. The Populists had an orator present. H. J. Bigger, Judge T. C. Young, Jesse Macy also spoke sound doctrine. E. Hofer, of the Republican representative ticket spoke, and at the close of the meeting H. S. Jory declared himself openly in favor of the American protective tariff system. The meeting was enthusiastic and productive of good results. As usual, William McKinley received a round of applause.

Butteville Republicans.

The Republicans at Butteville have organized a strong club, in conjunction with the Marion county Republican club, with the following signers: W. E. Her, W. R. Soeberer, H. L. Bents, Geo. Vaughan, A. Her was selected as president, H. L. Bents vice president, and E. A. M. Cone secretary. A big rally will be had on the 28th, the Oregon City band will be present and good speeches will be had.

North Salem is slightly jealous of New Park. They say they got the head of the representative ticket, the chairman of the convention, and then got away with the other end of the ticket, the coroner, besides a delegate to the state convention.
