BLOODY LIQUOR LAW BIPPED

In South Carolina over the Dispensary.

BLOODSTAINS ARE ON TRACK of the Constitute and Militia Bells in Come to Oval.

COLUMBUS, R. C., March 21.—The war in Columbus is not over, it only changes its form of progress. The various outrages which have been committed in the city have been called upon to appear before the court of inquiry at Washington, and their perpetrators will be dealt with according to the severity of the crimes.

A few citizens were seized and taken to the courthouse, where they were fined $500 and $100, respectively, for their participation in the events. The case has been referred to the proper authorities for further action.

The city is still in a state of alarm, and the inhabitants are urged to remain calm and orderly. The military are patrolling the streets, and the inhabitants are requested to cooperate with the authorities in maintaining the peace.

THE MARKETS

San Francisco, March 20.—The market is in good condition, and the prices are reasonable. The supply of fresh produce is ample, and the demand is steady.

Portland, March 21.—The market is also in good condition. The supply of fresh produce is ample, and the demand is steady.
