REVOLUTION OR BLOODSHED.

How Voorhees Opens His Tariff Speech.

ADVOCATES TAX ON SUGAR.

Reduced Taxes and Increased Revenues Will Result.

HE DEFENDS FREE TRADE IN WOOL

And Also Duties on Manufactured Woolens.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 2.—In the pending debate on the Wilson bill as amended by the senate finance committee Voorhees said the great abuses are never totally eradicated except by resolution, or by bloodshed. Practical reform is of a reasoning and progressive spirit. By the provisions of the pending bill the paradox of a reduction of taxes and increase of public revenues will be reconciled when it becomes a law. It reduces tariff taxes seventy-six million dollars per annum. The bill provides for full and ample revenue, largely in excess of the present supplies with which to meet all requirements of public credit. Such a consumation as this may well atone for imperfections and shortcomings alleged against the pending measure. Voorhees defended the ad valorem system as fairer, honest and more easily understood than specific duties. On the subject of the sugar schedule, he said: "Absolute free trade in sugar is an attractive thing, but no such thing has ever existed since the organization of the government. A moderate duty has always been imposed on sugar, and it has been a staunch revenue support of the government."

One of the wisest, safest, most useful and necessary provisions in the pending bill, is that of increasing the tax on distilled spirits and granting an extension of bonded time. Voorhees upheld the income tax feature. Referring to the wool schedule, he said: "If I believed wool on the free list would hurt farmers I would not vote for the bill. It is a matter of actual demonstration, that free wool, accompanied by such reduction of rates as then can be placed upon manufactures of wool, and which are placed on them in this bill, is not the greatest loss that can befall farmers. If the farmer should get an increased price for his wool, by reason of a tariff for its protection, he will pay it all out and much more to the manufacturer, as the duty on woolen goods, when he buys a flannel shirt, an overcoat or a pair of trousers."

WASHINGTON, April 2.—On motion of Senator Harris the tariff bill was made unfinished business, and Senator Voorhees opened the debate. In the house the struggle over the O'Neill contested election case was resumed today.

The President Appoints.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 2.—The president appointed James A. Munday receiver of the Vancouver land office.

INDUSTRIAL ARMIES GROWING.

General McCook Thinks 150,000 Will Reach Washington.

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., April 2.—Coxey's army is in good spirits. Fine weather and better discipline. There is a slight increase of numbers.

DANGER OF A CRISIS.

DENVER, Col., April 2.—General McCook thinks Coxey's movement is dangerous, by May 1st, he believes that the number of 150,000 half clad men will be around Washington, and the country is approaching a crisis such as has happened only at the time of the rebellion.

The Industrial Army.

LITTLE ROCK, April 2.—Fry's industrial army is beginning to assume serious proportions in the southwest and awakening serious thought in the minds of the people of this state. Two hundred more of the army arrived today and joined their comrades, who were camped at Little Rock; 900 more are a San Antonio awaiting transportation. At 8:30 tonight 85 joined the force and left for Memphis, via the Bald

Knob branch of the Iron Mountain railway, nearly 1100 strong. Their discipline is remarkable. There was no drinking, and while the army was camped General Fry addressed at least 500 people on the financial situation. His language was temperate and mild. He avows the movement is just starting; that in less than thirty days 400,000 men will be in Washington for a common purpose. They mean to be peaceable in their actions, and demand government employment, the stoppage of immigration for ten years and the prevention of alien owning land in the United States. It is their serious and orderly demeanor that appeals to the people.

Breckenridge Case.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—In the Breckenridge-Pollard case today Breckenridge resumed the stand.

At noon Attorney Butterworth announced the direct examination finished. Jere M. Wilson took Breckenridge in hand for cross examination after a recess. The first question was directed towards eliciting from defendant admissions that in his early law practice friends were obliged to make sums good for money by him improperly appropriated from clients. Colonel Breckenridge was compelled to explain his connection with the Presbyterian church, which has been passive rather than active. He had lived at Lexington within four squares of the house occupied by Sarah Coss. He had known the character of the place for twenty years and also admitted that he had visited the house before he went there with Miss Pollard.

ISLES OF THE PACIFIC

The American-Union Party Is Stronger Than Ever in Hawaii.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—A correspondent at Honolulu, under date of March 13th, per barkentine S. N. Castle says:

After much hard and faithful labor on both sides, the dissenting wings of the government party have come to a mutual agreement and formal union. This favorable result naturally followed the concession made by the conservatives in the councils on the 8th inst. In the election to a vacancy in the advisory council by a large majority of D. B. Smith, the candidate of the American League, which represents the more radical element. As matters stood last week, the conservatives led a strong and well-developed organization—the union party. With them there were a considerable proportion of the members of the American League. A majority of the league, however, led by radical members, were dissatisfied and much inclined to set up opposition tickets to those which the union party would make. Such actions, however, would defeat the league's aims and play into the hands of the common enemy. The league was strongly organized and much irritated by the success of the conservatives in gaining a somewhat controlling position.

A NEW PARTY FORMED.

Meetings were arranged by committees of the two bodies. The union committee, as the stronger, waited for the league men to approach them with propositions. They met them, however, in a spirit of conciliation and concession. Much good and earnest work was done by both sides. A satisfactory result was reached on the 11th, as follows:

The amalgamated party takes the name of the American union party. The existing national committee of the union party is increased to twenty-one by the addition of eight new members chosen by the American League. This committee has only a temporary existence. It is to be succeeded by one chosen by the district committee. The present organization of the union party is to continue under the new name, with all its officers and membership and its district clubs as already organized. A few changes were made in the platform adopted by the union party. The plank referring to Chinese and other Asiatic labor was changed to a more positive and distinct declaration against the further admission of such labor. A new plank was inserted, urging the extension of government education, so that ultimately a university education would be available for the youth of these islands. Other planks of the platform were unchanged.

SOUTH CAROLINA DISPENSES.

Riots, Militia or Anything but Liquor.

SEN'R IRBY EXPRESSES AN OPINION

In Favor of a Militia Ready to Shoot.

CHARLESTON, April 2.—Nine spies who escaped out of a swamp arrived here yesterday.

CONTROLLING DISPATCHES.

DARLINGTON, April 2.—General Buckberg has ordered the Western Union telegraph office here placed under military control. Inspectors are appointed to examine all messages.

THE TROOPS HAVE ARRIVED.

DARLINGTON, April 1.—Governor Tillman's military train bringing 230 men, arrived at 9:30. Governor Tillman has wired citizens that the presence of troops is required to arrest those who participated in the riot three days ago. If the governor desires to make the arrest he will have to send at least five times the number of troops. It is believed, if the military is called on to arrest citizens, that at least half, if not all, the soldiers will lay down their arms and assist the citizens, should trouble occur.

Seven Still Missing.

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 2.—Governor Tillman received a dispatch tonight that nine fugitive constables boarded the train at Lake City on the Northeastern railway, and within a few hours will have arrived safely at Charleston. There are seven constables unaccounted for. Governor Tillman thinks the escape of these nine men will greatly relieve the tension.

TWO FOUND DEAD.

DARLINGTON, April 2.—A courier has just arrived from the country near Timmonsville, announcing two spies were found dead in the woods near there this evening.

SENATOR IRBY'S OPINION.

It is a mere farce for South Carolina, or any other state government, to keep up military organizations that are hostile to the enforcement of the state laws, and their refusal to uphold Governor Tillman in his effort to maintain the supremacy of the law is a disgrace to South Carolina, and the sooner Governor Tillman calls the state legislature together and reorganizes the militia by the enrollment of loyal farmers the better it will be for the maintenance of law and order. Brass buttons and gray clothes and parade are all very pretty to look at, and for the women to bestow flowers upon, but the kind of militia we need at this time is one like that of Pennsylvania, with slouch hats, and who are ready to kill if necessary to force the law.

ANOTHER BLOODY RIOT.

Coke Operatives Striking and Destroying Much Property.

PITTSBURG, April 2.—Dispatches received at Uniontown, Pennsylvania, this afternoon report rioting and destruction of property in the coke region, being among foreigners who struck today. The men started to work, but were driven off by armed bands of strikers. At Morell's work, Dunbar, a large quantity of dynamite was used and considerable property destroyed. Calls have been made on the sheriff and deputies sworn in. A dispatch reports two-thirds of the works closed. A number of persons are reported injured, while rioting at the Farm mines, Dunbar.

SHOT FROM AMBUSH.

A Sheepman Murdered by Owners of Cattle.

POCATELLO, Idaho, April 1.—News has reached here of the assassination of Hugh Fleming, at American Falls. He was one of the firm of Fleming Bros., large sheep owners. He was shot four times from ambush. There is no clue to the perpetrator. Fleming was herding his sheep when he was killed. It is reported that the killing was done by some one connected with the stock ranches, as there has been trouble existing between Fleming Bros., and some cattlemen, on account of cattlemen not being satisfied with Fleming herding sheep in that vicinity.

A STEAMBOAT WAR.

The Union Pacific Forces the Independent Boat to Seek a New Wharf.

The Union Pacific has begun a retaliatory warfare on the independent steamer Elwood. In the past the Union Pacific has favored the Elwood. Until recently a favorable rate arrangement was also extended to the Elwood. But a few months ago the U. P. Co. put the Modoc on and since then have tried to crowd the Elwood off. Yesterday the Union Pacific notified their agent at Salem by telegram to not allow the Elwood to discharge freights at the Union Pacific dock at Salem, thus seeking to further discredit the home boat that has served Salem loyally. The Elwood people secured another wharf at once and are now doing business at the Oregon Pacific floating wharf. G. E. Abernathy, the manager of the Elwood, has in the past done a great deal to give Salem low competing rates to Portland, and Salem business men fully realize what it would mean to them to have the old Union Pacific rates restored. The Elwood people say they have really been benefited by the fight that has been made upon them and are in better condition to serve the shippers at this point than they were before.

Salem River News.

The river marks 10.7 above low water and is slowly falling. The Elwood arrived up Sunday with a cargo of dry goods, groceries, lime, lath and 200 feet of lumber.

The Altona went down on time this morning.

The Modoc arrives up tonight from Portland.

The steamer Eugene left here Sunday morning for Portland, having made a successful trip from Eugene. This boat has been rated as a slow boat, but is developing surprising speed. Capt. Jones and Pilot Wand are proud of their craft.

The Elwood goes down Tuesday at 6 a. m. F. X. Hofer leaves on her to return to his farm in Dakota. He has spent his second winter in Oregon with his brothers of THE JOURNAL.

Campaign Notes.

Wm. H. Savage is organizing a big Republican club in Eaglewood.

The McKinley Republican club of South Salem meets Tuesday evening for a joint debate.

General Odell is home from holding political meetings at Mehama and reports the Santiam alive with enthusiasm.

There will be a political meeting Tuesday evening at Sunnyside schoolhouse, seven miles south of Salem. Prof. Jory, W. H. Holmes and E. Hofer will speak for the three parties.

At Scotts Mills.

The new church of the Friends society at Scotts Mills was dedicated Sunday, the services being conducted by Rev. Elwood Scott of Newberg, assisted by Rev. J. H. Douglas, superintendent of church extension work for the north Pacific coast. It was the first anniversary of the organization of the Friends society at Scotts Mills and the exercises were of an anniversary nature as well. The new church is a fine one and the society is in a flourishing condition. H. J.

The Journal Endorsed.

The publishers of this paper are gratified more than they can express within the bounds of modesty at the expressions of confidence which are coming to them from men and women regardless of party. For going on six years this paper has advocated what it believes was right for the best interests of the people of Oregon, and it will continue to advocate such policies.

Gen. Odell returned this afternoon from his trip to Stayton and Moham.

Railroad Commissioners Macrum and Eddy, and Clerk Lydell Baker are in the city.

Mrs. J. E. Edridge, of Champcoer, is in the city and returns tomorrow on the Elwood.

Ovide Musin, the violist, has been engaged with his company, to appear April 10, at Y. M. C. A. hall.

Rev. Geo. Whitaker, late president of Willamette university, passed through the city south this morning.

Rev. Hugh Wallace, of Portland, arrived in the city this morning, to visit his brother and at the Willows farm.

J. M. Pierce, who has been visiting at the home of his father-in-law, M. A. Bently, left today for his Nebraska home via San Francisco.

C. E. Rummelin, of Portland and Capt. H. L. Wells, of Portland, state secretary of Republican clubs are in the city, looking after those organizations.

Railroad Commissioners Macrum and Eddy and Clerk Baker were in the city today. Gen. Compton will arrive this evening, and a session will be held tomorrow.

C. L. Glenn, special agent of the Mutual Union Life Insurance Co. of Portland, Maine, has returned to Salem with his family after spending the winter in Klamath county.

The new minister of St. Paul's Episcopal church of Salem, Rev. Lawrence Sinclair, of Evansville, Wis., arrived Saturday, and delivered his first sermon, Sunday. Mr. Sinclair is a man of a ability, and doubtless will remain in Salem.

Too Late.

Perhaps Tennyson has written nothing that appeals to the hearts of all who read his poems more than the lyric of "Too Late." The burden of the sad refrain comes home with telling force to the hearts of those who have lost friends by that dread disease—consumption. They realize "too late," the result of neglect. They feel that the dear one might have been saved if they had heeded the warning of the hacking cough, the pallid cheek, and weakening system. They feel this all the more keenly because they see others being rescued from the grasp of the destroyer, and they think what is saving others might have saved their loved one. When the first signal of danger is seen take steps to avert the catastrophe. Be wise in time. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will drive away consumption. Do not wait until it is too late before putting its wonderful efficacy to the test. It succeeds where other remedies fail.
