SUGGESTED COMMENT.

Waln.

Lincoln county holds her count convention April 4th.

Col, Kelsey is talked of as a Republi can caudidate for attorney general.

The Oregon Pacific pay roll amounts to only $4,495.20, but it is met with the cash under Receiver Clark.

Benator Sherman made this point against the coinage of the silver seigt iorage: "We have standard silver dolars to the amount of $364,758,231 lying idle in the treasury. What in the name of Heaven would induce any sane man to desire to add to this hoard of $364,758,231, which lies there untouched except by the hands of the coiner, which have lain there for year. and will lie there longer? Way should we add to this hoard?" Before more silver is coined it seems as though some thing should be done to force more of it into circulation. Hoarding it there public affairs. With such a man at is a national folly,

THE TARIFF DEBATE.

The senate has begun debate of the Wilson bill and may occupy sixty days with the discussion. In the mean time the country will suffer all the debilitsting exhaustion of a sick man in whose presence the doctors are conducting > long-winded controversy as to whether they shall bleed him or give him stimulants. After the senate debate is over. and if the bill is not defeated, the measure will have been so amended that it will have to go to a conference committee of the two houses and after wards be passed by both. Three months may roll around before the bill reaches the president.

If President Cleveland had called deal with the tariff, as he did with the on him. silver question, he would have had the industries of the country on a better footing than they are at the close of his first year. He could have argued hops. His place is not for sale. strongly for immediate action and months more of tariff agitation are before the country. Not a woolen mill will buy wool, or a merchant stock up his wares, until it is known whether the tariff bill will be voted up or down. The factories will lie idle, farm products will be a drug, people of all classes will live from hand to mouth until that question is settled. The greatest evil greeted him as a "Peffer" and now his about a revenue system is its uncer-

It is estimated that the wool required to the Bland Seigniorage bill, and the produce these goods was over three more ignorant they are, the more they pounds of unwashed wool per dollar's know, worth of goods. This would therefore make a total consumption by the American people of nearly 650,000,000 pounds of raw wood, equal to about 27 per cent. of the world's supply. As the American people are only 5 per cent of the world's population, and as they use 27 per cent. of the world's production of wool, the per capita consumption is Di pounds, which is the largest by any nation in the world. It is therefore not surpris-Ing that foreigners are jubilant over the prospect of being able to secure a greater share of the United States market, which advocates of the Wilson bill declare will be the result of its becom-Ing a law, depriving the American producer of just so much of the American market as this bill proposes to give to the foreigner; for whatever additional employment is thus given to the foreigner, to that extent is the amount of work for our own people lessened -American Economist.

OUR NEXT GOVERNOR.

Whatever our next governor of Oregon may have, he should be a good business man and enough of a lawyer and man of affairs to be not easily hoodwinked or influenced for wrong. John H. Gear won a deserved compliment as governor of Iowa in earning the soubriquet of "old business." He has just been made United States senator from Iowa. He was in the habit of pouncing down unannounced upon a state institution at any day in the year, or any hour in the day, and going through its books, or exploring it from cellar to garret, in a manner that was a terror to evil doers. When the state treasurer brought for approvahis monthly statement of the financial condition of the state-a matter tha had been only formally complied with by his predecessor-Governor Gear before signing went to the vaults and personally checked over every item of he million and a half of cash and se urities. It took him twelve hours of steady work in the hot, close vault, buse would not attach his signature until be had personally satisfied himself that what he approved as a fact with his dgnature was a fact in reality. No wonder the people of Iowa loved John

What Oregon needs just now is not a olitician, or reformer, but a thoroughgoing business man for governor. The JOURNAL has refrained from "bringing out" a man for the place. The people are ready to show appreciation for the right kind of a man by voting for him if he is presented. The ideal governor should fearlessly champion economic reform, and himself live up to the standards of economy. He should deplication of business principles to our be a mere self-advertising demagog, Oregon would be a happy common wealth.

Too Late.

Perhaps Tennyson has written noth og that appeals to the hearts of all who ad his poems more than the lyric of Too Late." The burden of the sad refralu comes home with telling force o the hearts of those who have lost friends by that dread disease con-sumption. They realize "to late," the result of neglect. They feel that the dear one might have been saved if they had heeded the warning of the back ing cough, the pallid cheek, and weakmore keenly because they see others being rescued from the grasp of the destroyer, and they think what is saving others might have saved their oved one. A Mr. Kirbell, who had never been out of England until he went to Vienna, seems to have been a typical Briton and stubbornly insular to the extent of refusing to alter the time of his watch as he traveled eastward from England. No argument would induce him to budge and when at Vienna he arose at unearthly hours and perambulated around the city alone, having persisted in being that the foreign clocks were all wreng.
