TRAIN WRECKERS HANGED.

They Pay the Penalty for Kill-a Conductor.

CARPENTERS STRIKE IN INDIANA.

General Coxy Gets a Cool Reception.

ST. LOUIS, April 6.—Three train robbers, J. L. Wyerck, Thomas Brady and Albert Mauser were hanged at New-Port today. They robbed a train on the St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern at Oliphant, November 3rd last and killed the conductor, W. R. McNally. Padgett, who turned states evidence, is now awaiting trial.

Railroad Decision.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 6.—Judge Jenkins today rendered a decision on a motion made by the chiefs of the railway organizations for modification of his Northern Pacific strike order. The decision modifies the injunction orders by striking out the clause which reads: "And from ordering, recommending, approving or advising others to quit the service of the Northern Pacific railway on June 1st, 1894, or any other time." All other modifications were refused.

MILWAUKEE, April 6.—In a decision Jenkins said: "If danger to the state exists from a combination of capital or labor, it is within the province of the legislature to determine the necessary remedy, but it is the duty of courts to restrain warring factions so far as their action may infringe upon the declared law of the land. Interference with the operations of a railway, if carried into effect, would result in paralysis of business."

THE INDUSTRIAL ARMIES.

General Coxy Gets a Cool Reception—Getting Hungry.

HOMESTEAD, Penn., April 6.—The homesteaders became excited over speeches made by Coxy and Brown. The number of recruits here is estimated at 5000. They camped over night in ice houses. Several members were discharged for quarreling over a sack of tobacco.

Men Without Food.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 6.—General Frey and his men were forced to leave the city. They stopped outside of the limits to await developments, as the railroad won't carry them. The men are practically without food.

The Army Coming.

OAKLAND, Cal., April 6.—About 4 o'clock this morning eight box cars were drawn out of Oakland destined for Sacramento. In these cars were huddled six hundred of the Industrial army, which for the past two days caused the good people of Oakland so much uneasiness.

More Industrials.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 6.—A California regiment of the Industrial army to the number of 800, arrived in Sacramento at noon today.

QUIET IN THE COKE REGION.

The Strike Liable to Be Resumed With Vigor.

CONNELLVILLE, April 6.—Everything is quiet in the coke regions. Further trouble may occur, but operators claim the backbone of the strike is broken. A number of plants are now operating. The strikers do not think the strike is broken, and are recovering from their confusion, caused by the arrest of the leaders. Strikers say when fully recovered, the strike will be resumed with vigor.

Carpenters Strike.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 6.—The union carpenters struck. The union is composed of 1200 men, and half this number has stopped work. The men are receiving 25 cents an hour and demand 30 cents and eight hours' work a day. The contractors say they can fill the places.

Shoe Factory Strike.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 6.—A general strike among the employees of the shoe factory is threatened on account of a 10 per cent reduction. About 300 men are out.

Alaska Appointment.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—L. R. Woodward, of California, has been nominated commissioner for Alaska, to reside at Unalakleet.

THE ENGLISH BILL.

To Carry Out the Behring Sea Awards is Unsatisfactory.

LONDON, April 6.—In common, the Behring sea award was discussed. The award of the court was very satisfactory from the British point of view. It settled questions of jurisdiction in accordance with the view which our government had first put forward, and provided proper regulations of the fisheries as well as redress for the British subjects who suffered injury. The bill is drawn practically on the lines of the modus vivendi, but the area to which its provisions apply is somewhat wider. It applies only to British subjects as the American bill applies only to Americans.

MORE OF THE DEBATE.

Balfour, leader of the unionists, said that the government had pursued a wise course in not losing a moment in fulfilling the British obligations. In doing this work of international justice the ministers would have the support of himself and colleagues. Balfour protested that the bill had many flaws and was the reverse of protection of fur seals. It was a grave omission, he said, that it did not provide for a close season, above. The slaughter of seals ashore led to the extinction of the animals in certain regions. Bowles found fault with the court of arbitration. Its decision, he said, had given Great Britain the shadow without the substance in Behring sea. One effect of the award would be that the British people would be taxed in order to subsidize one of the greatest monopolies that the world had seen. Sir Richard Webster, one of the British counselors for the Paris tribunal, rebuked Bowles, saying: "Neither the time nor the place is fitting for a challenge of the tribunal's decisions. The legislatures of the two countries are bound in honor to give effect to the award. All in all, the regulations will suppress the evils which both governments objected to so strenuously. The award has proved a reasonable solution of a difficult question. I, myself, regard the result of the arbitration as a long step toward the settlement of international disputes by peaceful means. The award is a monument to what can be done by fair argument toward settling international differences."

After Sir Richard Webster's speech the bill passed its second reading.

Not Satisfactory.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The English bill to give effect to the Paris agreement on the Behring sea fisheries, is not entirely satisfactory at the capital. Senator Davis, of the committee on foreign relations, said today that the bill was inadequate and does not go as far as does the bill which passed the senate yesterday, looking to the prevention of seal poaching. He took special exception to the clause, providing the act shall not be enforced against vessels that may have sailed previous to the publication of the act, because the Pacific is now covered with Canadian sealing vessels.

Political Points.

PORTLAND, April 6.—In the Republican primaries the straight ticket, commonly referred to as the "Joe Simon's ticket," was elected throughout the city.

COLUMBIA, April 6.—A dispatch from Darlington says that the opinion in the dispensary cases has already been drawn and signed by two justices of the supreme court. The dispatch says the opinion declares the act unconstitutional.

DES MOINES, April 6.—Action of great importance to the women was taken in the legislature. The senate passed the house bill, offering women the right to vote for town, city and school officers and on all questions of issuing bonds. Several days ago the lower house of the legislature passed a joint resolution for the submission of a constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of liquor in Iowa. Today the senate amended it to allow the manufacturing of liquor and passed it.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—In the senate, Hill, of New York, gave notice that at 2 o'clock next Monday, he would submit a few remarks on the pending tariff bill.

Some amusement was created by the introduction of the following resolution by George, of Mississippi: "Resolved, that in view of the present depressed financial condition of the people, the low price of agricultural and other products, the indebtedness of the people, and the increased value of money, the committee on judiciary be directed to prepare a bill to reduce by 20 per cent, all official incomes not protected by statutes of the United States." The resolution was referred.

BRECKENRIDGE THE FATHER.

Recognized as Such by a Colored Witness.

LATEST PHASE OF THE SCANDAL.

As Received from Washington City Today.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Louise Lowell was recalled and over the objection of the defense, permitted to tell the substance of a letter to "To My Dear Sister Louise." She said: "He spoke of his great love for her and I think used the expression that he never knew two of the same family, of such different ages, who loved each other so well. He told how impatient he was to get away from the duties which kept him from her, and described in glowing terms the meeting they would have when he returned."

Mary Yancey, a colored woman, was called. She had cooked in the house of Mrs. Thomas at 1819 H street last May. Mary did not know the meaning of the word "plaintiff" but did know Miss Pollard, and also she knew Col. Breckenridge, "who visited Miss Pollard there." "Did you ever see that basket, Mary?" Mr. Carlisle inquired, handing up a basket, once the property of the late Mrs. Breckenridge. "Oh, yes," was the answer "seen it thousands of times. That's Miss Pollard's work basket." Ojections made but overruled, and Mary proceeded to tell how, on a certain day in May, Colonel Breckenridge had lunched with Miss Pollard; the Col. said to me, "Mary," that was an excellent lunch; one of the nicest lunches I ever have eat in all the days of my life." Miss Pollard said to me that "you cook like that all the time, and I would like to have you come and cook for us when we go to housekeeping next fall."

She testified that Breckenridge called on Miss Pollard at the house and would often throw his arms around her, and would always bring a bunch of flowers to her." He called "sometimes every day, sometimes twice, and sometimes three times a day. The Colonel said they were going to housekeeping in the fall. He kissed Miss Pollard when he called during the month of May (this was after his marriage to Mrs. Wing.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 6.—In the Breckenridge case today Mary McKenzie, a colored lady, testified that the baby "Dietz Downing" was born in her house, the mother giving her name as Mrs. Hall.

"Did Mr. Hall ever visit Mrs. Hall?" "Sometimes." "Did you ever see him?" "Not until today when I recognized him by the child," responded the colored woman, looking directly at the gray-haired congressman, who sat before her. The defense did not care to cross-examine Aunt Mary.

Linn County Republicans.

They held a large convention at Albany Thursday.

Committee on platform reported, declaring in favor of protection to American industries, condemn the Wilson bill as against the interests of this coast and that British free trade is the policy of the Democratic party. Alleges that the present condition of trade is due to the railroad commission, denounces the repeal of the mortgage tax law and the repeal of the deductions for indebtedness, and favors the reenactment of such laws.

S. A. Dawson was elected delegate at large to the state convention.

The following delegates were elected to the state convention:

Joseph Yates, F. J. Miller, C. P. Glover, B. A. Stafford, John R. Smith, A. J. Johnson, D. E. Borden, J. R. Wyatt, D. R. N. Blackburn, A. C. Hausman, E. C. Russell.

A number of them are for Ford for governor.

J. N. Duncan was elected delegate at large to the congressional convention.

The following delegates were elected to the congressional convention: M. Cunningham, John Robson, P. B. Marshall, J. R. Davis, Dr. W. H. Booth, J. R. Whitney, W. A. Templeton, W. W. Parrish, L. Flinn, G. B. Hartness.

The delegation to the state convention was instructed to use all honorable means to secure the nomination of J. R. Whitney of the Albany Herald for the office of state printer.

State Senators—S. A. Dawson and A. J. Johnson were nominated by acclamation.

Representative—T. F. Smith, W. A. Templeton and J. N. Scott were nominated.

Capt. Jas. McFeron, former city marshal of Albany was named for sheriff.

Clackamas Republicans.

At their county convention they adopted the following:

We demand a constitutional convention at the earliest possible date for the purpose of revising the constitution of Oregon and including therein the initiative and referendum in its strongest form.

We demand that all our candidates pledge themselves in writing to accomplish this result, and hereby instruct our delegates to the state convention to use all honorable endeavors to make this resolution a plank of our state platform.

We are in favor of electing precinct road supervisors and each electing precinct expending the funds belonging to it within its own boundaries.

We are in favor of immediate legislation restricting foreign immigration so as to prohibit the introduction of the foreign pauper and criminal class into our country and we demand that such laws be rigidly enforced.

We are in favor of changing the assessment laws so that all assessments shall be made by precinct assessors elected in each voting precinct.

We recognize the great obligation we owe to the defenders of the republic and we would recommend to the Republican state convention to take suitable action in reference thereto.

The Oregon City Enterprise has the following on joint senator: "The counties of Clackamas and Marion are associated together for the election of a state senator. Mr. Alonzo Geener of Marion county appears to be the choice of a large number of the delegates from that county, for the place named. He is a pioneer, a 'true blue' Republican, and has enjoyed much experience to qualify him as a lawmaker. Having been raised upon a farm and spent most of his life in that occupation he is the farmer's friend. He was county surveyor of Marion county for many years and has been U. S. deputy surveyor and successfully conducted a newspaper, the Statesman, several years in the interim. If Mr. Geener is selected he will make an able and efficient officer."

The Musin Concert.

Among the popular events of the coming week will be the concert given by the Orville Musin concert company, under the direct auspices of the Y. M. C. A. of this city at their hall on Tuesday evening next, Musin as a violinist, is a host in himself, but supposed as he is on the present trip, by four artists with a reputation almost as world wide as his own, the combination is one of far more than ordinary excellence. Mrs. Musin, as a soprano, has few peers, and a less number of superiors, her staccato singing is wonderfully clear and she creates a sensation wherever she appears. Miss Bessall the phenomenal contralto, is a source of pleasure and surprise to all who hear her. Mr. Elliott possesses a rich tenor voice of unusual sweet and flexible power, while the pianist, Prof. Scharr, displays remarkable power and technique. All in all the entertainment offered is one of rare excellence, and we are fortunate, as residents of Salem, to be afforded an opportunity of listening to its melodies. Ours is a music-loving community and it is to be hoped that sufficient encouragement will be given the association on its efforts to provide first class entertainment for its friends to warrant it in securing other attractions. General admission, 75 cents, members, 50 cents, reserved seats, $1.00. Remember the date and do not fail to attend.

A. R. Price, a farmer and stock raiser at Weston, is the Republican candidate for senator in Umatilla.

Thos. Tongue heads the delegation to the state convention from Washington county.
