ASIATICS IN HONOLULU.

Japanese Expect Chinese Assistance in a Clean-out.

THE NICARAGUA CANAL WANTED.

Governors, Senators and Congressmen All Want It.

HONOLULU, March 31.—The Japanese question is the absorbing topic of interest here since the arrival of the Japanese warship "Takachiho." The Japs have taken an independent air and are claiming the right to voice in affairs of the government. It is likely the Chinese will join forces with the Japanese. In that case the Asiatics will be stronger by many thousands than the white people of the islands. The Portuguese have also made demands upon their government for warships. Minister Willis' attitude is visibly becoming more and more friendly.

Nicaragua Canal Sentiment.

BOSTON, April 7.—The Traveller, of this city, recently sent out letters to the governors of various states and the more prominent members of congress, asking their opinions of the value of the Nicaragua canal to this country, and whether or not the government should construct and control the water ways. Answers have been received from thirty-one governors and forty members of congress. The governors of Southern states, without exception, either favor the government building and owning the canal outright, or extending aid to whatever corporation builds it. Governor McCraw, of Washington, believes that the United States government should construct, and own and operate the canal. Congressmen, Bynum, of Indiana; Washington, of Tennessee; Kilgore, Bell, and Abbott, of Texas; declare heartily in favor of its construction, but say they would not vote for any measure which would pledge the United States to guarantee the bonds of any private corporation. Senators Dolph and Mitchell, of Oregon, and a number of others of both political parties, say they are in favor and will vote for such a bill as that proposed by Senator Morgan.

The Applewhite Case.

CORVALLIS, Or., April 7.—[Special]—Chas. Kenyon, husband of Dr. J. M. Applewhite's alleged paramour, has filed a complaint against Dr. Applewhite, asking for $5,000 damages, by reason of defendant having willfully and maliciously debauched and carnally known his wife, Permelinda A. Kenyon, without purity or consent of plaintiff, thus depriving plaintiff of the affection and society of his said wife which he otherwise would have had, causing plaintiff great distress of mind and body, to his damage in sum of $5,000, wherefore plaintiff demands judgement.

Benton Republicans.

CORVALLIS, Or., April 7.—[Special]—The Republican county convention elects as state and district delegates: Thos. Cooper, R. M. Davidson, Miles Starr, E. Woodward and Levi Henkle. They nominated for representative, T. Cooper, for county judge, W. S. Hufford, present incumbent for clerk, Henry Kothaner, F. C. Chambers, commissioner; sheriff, G. W. Smith. A full ticket is to be nominated.

Almost Fatal Prize Fight.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 7.—In a prize fight last night, Jack Donovan got a blow over the heart, which nearly killed him. He is still in a precarious condition. His brother was killed in a prize fight at Syracuse a year ago last night.

Multnomah Republicans.

PORTLAND, April 7.—The Republican county convention is in session here today. The forenoon was consumed in effecting an organization. Sol. Hirsch was elected chairman. Joseph Simon was nominated for state senator, by acclamation.

White City Sold.

CHICAGO, Ills., April 7.—All the world's fair buildings were sold today at a private sale to T. G. G. Garrett, a St. Louis contractor, for seventy-five thousand dollars.

Counterfeiters Arrested.

WHATCOM, Wash. April 7.—Two men giving their names as Clinton M. Adams and Frank Darling are in custody here, charged with passing counterfeit money.

OREGON CONFERENCE.

Independent Evangelical Church in Annual Session.

LAFAYETTE, April 7.—The Oregon conference of the Independent Evangelical church met in annual session in Lafayette Thursday, with Bishop C. F. Haman, of Reading, Penn., as president. The bishop appointed C. C. Poling secretary. After the adjustment of a few regulations governing the conference, the moral and official character of the conference members was passed upon satisfactorily without charges. The usual conference committees were appointed. E. E. McVieher received a license as preacher, on probation. B. J. Kelly, of the M. E. church, presented his credentials from that denomination, and was received into this conference, sustaining a similar relation to this body as he had in the M. E. church. In the evening Rev. E. S. Bollinger preached a good sermon to a large audience. Friday forenoon the conference was opened at 9 a. m. by Bishop Haman, prayer by F. J. Strayer and C. J. Coleman. The committee on worship reported B. J. Kelley to preach Friday evening. F. J. Stayer Saturday evening and Bishop Haman on Sunday morning, afternoon and evening. The committee on boundaries made a partial report. The committee on statistics reported a membership of over 1000. The session of the next annual conference was fixed for East Portland, on the first Thursday of April, 1895.

MISS POLLARD ON THE STAND.

Bravely Tells Her Story Without a Break.

MORE THAN A MATCH FOR COUNSEL.

The Case May Drag Along for Another Week.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The stream of testimony in the Pollard-Breckenridge case which had grown exceedingly wearisome, was brought to its close Friday evening after five continuous weeks of sensationalism. Final rebuttal and sur-rebuttal today consisted of details by the plaintiff and defendant, leaving the final status of the case what it had been largely, throughout, a question of veracity between the man and the woman. Madeline Pollard took the stand to purge herself from the stain of a mock marriage with blind Aleck Julian, as well as to repeat with a dramatic emphasis, peculiarly her own, the denial that the agreement to marry between herself and Breckenridge had been anything but a contract made in good faith on her part, at least. She also talked of the merits of her case. Then, with a freedom which would have seemed astonishing but for the matter of fact way in which all manner of usual things have been discussed throughout this unusual case, she was very much mistress of the situation as she had been on her former appearances; determined to tell her own story in her own way and succeeding in her determination as well as in keeping the corps of lawyers for the defense in a flutter of apprehension lest she get away from their control. Col. Breckenridge repeated, in all the various keys of negation in which his silvery tongue is skilled, the denial of the story of Mary Yancy, the colored cook, and other vital details of the case for plaintiff. Arguments to the jury will begin on Monday morning, so the case will probably close by Wednesday night. There will be speeches for both sides. Mr. Carlisle will make the opening one for the plaintiff; he will be followed by Col. Phil. Thompson and Major Ben. Butterworth, for the defense, and ex-Judge Jere Wilson will give the final plea for Miss Pollard. Expectations of a great display of court room oratory from these lawyers will probably be fulfilled.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 7.—

Argument was begun in the Breckenridge-Pollard case today.

The Brazilian Insurgents.

BERNOS AYRES, April 7.—It is reported that the insurgents of Brazil have captured Rio Grande do Sul, after bombardment of that city. Aquidaban is now cruising outside the harbor in anticipation of meeting President Peixoto's fleet, which sailed recently from Rio de Janeiro with the intention of engaging the insurgent's squadron.

CONFRONTED BY COXEYISM.

The Men Are Getting Weary and Footsore.

THE STRIKERS IN THE COKE REGION.

They Still Have Hopes of Renewing Their Battle.

McKeesport, Pa., April 7.—Yesterday was a hard day on Coxey's army. The men are foot-sore, weary and discouraged, and if it were not for strict discipline of the unknown blacksmith, half the men would have deserted, as about a score already have done. The Commonwealers. RENO, Nevada, April 7.—The San Francisco-Sacramento contingent of Coxey's commonweal army, consisting of one thousand men, passed through town this morning. They occupied twenty-three combination cars, besides two cars of rations. About thirty recruits were at the depot with blankets desiring to join the army, but the train was run through so rapidly that no one could get off or on, and the Reno contingent was much disappointed. Fatal Explosion. PITTSBURG, Pa., April 7.—The premature explosion of a blast at the New Westinghouse electric works at Brinor, instantly killed three laborers and seriously injured four more. The bodies of the killed were terribly mangled. The Coke Region. CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., April 7.—There is more activity in all parts of the region today than at any time since the collapse of the strike Thursday. The strikers, however, have not given up the contest. More Trouble Expected. UNIONTOWNS, Penn., April 7.—The plants of the Southern end of this region are resuming operations under the protection of the deputies. No interference has been attempted at any but the Lemont works. Hungarians assailed the men with clubs and stones, driving them from the yards. Hundreds of men are ready to return to work, but are afraid of the strikers at the Oliver plant, who threaten to stop the pumps and flood the mines. Trouble is expected when the company resumes. DAVID B. HILL AND THE TARIFF

A Policy of Delay Instituted by the New Yorker.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The announcement that Senator Hill will deliver his speech on the tariff Tuesday next is received with much interest at the capitol. It is expected that Hill will thrust thorns into the side of the administration. He will undoubtedly inveigh against the income tax and against the policy or lack of such which has given being to the bill. Just how much he will find to object to, and how strongly he will put it, will be one of the factors in determining the case with which the tariff bill will pass the senate. Senator Hill has maintained just enough secrecy about the nature of his remarks to arouse curiosity. The policy of delay of the minority in the senate was manifested Friday. Just after the conclusion of the reading of the journal and the conclusion of routine business. Hill made a motion that the senate adjourn until Monday. The motion was lost, 25 to 28, Hill, Murphy and Irby voted with the Republicans. Brice was paired in favor of the motion. Of the Populists, Stewart voted with the Republicans and Allen, Kyle and Peffer with the Democrats. Senator Morgan's bill for the reorganization of the state department has created considerable comment. The purpose of the bill is to take the foreign service and the department's work out of politics; to provide an educational qualification for appointment, to make the service continuous and to provide for promotions. Positions in the department and foreign service are to be interchangeable on the same grades. Removals can be made only on proof of misconduct or inefficiency. Tariff Bill Delay. ST. JOSEPH, Mo., April 7.—Senator Murphy, of New York, passed through the city today on his way to Glenwood Springs, Colorado. The senator thought the senate would hardly vote on the tariff bill until November.

Geer, of the Waldo Hills, addressed the Republican club in the association hall on Saturday night. We were unable to be present, but our junior typo says he gave the Populists Jesse. He says the reason he fought the Populists was because there was no Democrat to fight. The hall was well filled. Mr. Geer is a ready writer and fluent talker.—Woodburn Independent. At the Polk county Republican convention the following nominations were made: For representatives—Ira S. Smith, of Monmouth, and D. L. Key, of Perrydale; commissioner—Jon. Helmick, of Monmouth; clerk—B. F. Mulkey; sheriff—H. B. Plummer, of Dallas; treasurer—H. B. Cosper, of Dallas; assessor—C. W. Beckett, of Bels; surveyor—E. L. Collins; school superintendent—T. O. Mr. Blair, by his learned and eloquent sermons and his genial disposition, has endeared himself, not only to his congregation, but to our citizens generally, and it is the common expression of regret that he could not have remained permanently with us. Mr. Blair's labors here have resulted in much good and we are sure that prosperity will accompany him in the work he is so well qualified to perform.—Yaquina News.
