AGRICULTURAL REPUBLICANISM.

Farmers Rule the Day at Portland.

NAME THE WHOLE TICKET

A Clean Sweep from Governor Down.

WORK OF RURAL SLATE SMASHERS.

Seen in Making Up the Entire Ticket.

PORTLAND, April 12.—The Republican state convention adjourned shortly after midnight until 10 a. m. today, having completed the state ticket except state printer.

THE BALLOTS.
The platform was adopted and after Lord was nominated on the second ballot for governor, following proceedings were had:

For secretary of state E. Hirsch of Marion, H. R. Kincaid of Lane county, and O. C. Applegate of Klamath, were placed in nomination.

First ballot—Hirsch 115, Kincaid 108, Applegate 57.
Second—Hirsch 115, Kincaid 130, Applegate 38.

The following was the third and last ballot for secretary of state: H. R. Kincaid, of Eugene, 155; Hirsch, of Salem, 108.

The convention at 8:30 adjourned until 8 p. m. and re-convened at 8 p. m. and at once took up the nomination for state treasurer. No one appeared to contest with Phil Metcham and he was re-nominated by acclamation.

For supreme judge, Cleland of Multnomah county presented the name of Charles H. Carey, of Multnomah county. J. R. Wyatt of Linn county presented the name of C. E. Wolverson of Albany. The ballot resulted: Wolverson 137, Carey 117, Mallory 9. Wolverson was declared the unanimous choice of the convention.

A. F. Sears Jr. of Multnomah, C. M. Idelman of Multnomah, and F. P. Mays of Wasco, were placed in nomination for the office of attorney general. The first ballot resulted: Sears 100, Idelman 82, Mays 78. The second ballot stood: Idelman 143, Sears 80, Mays 45. Idelman, in response to repeated calls, addressed the convention. At this juncture Chairman Tongue read a telegram from W. P. Lord, nominee for governor, returning thanks for his appreciation of the nomination, and promising, if elected, to endeavor to secure an economical and efficient administration.

For superintendent of public instructions, Wright of Union placed in nomination G. M. Irwin of Union. McCamant of Multnomah, nominated Professor Frank Rigler of Portland, Connor of Umatilla, seconded the nomination of Irwin. Cornelius of Washington, nominated J. H. Stanley of Hillsboro, Cross of Clackamas, nominated H. S. Strange of Oregon City.

The first ballot resulted: Rigler, 76; Irwin 102, Strange 29, Stanley 59. At the conclusion of the ballot a motion to adjourn was voted down. The second ballot stood: Irwin 169, Rigler 71, Stanley 24, Strange 12. It was again moved to adjourn, but the motion was lost by a vote of 95 for to 97 against.

For state printer, Platt of Multnomah, nominated F. C. Baker. D. P. Thompson, of Multnomah, presented the claims of W. S. Dunway, of Portland. McCamant, of Multnomah, named J. W. Beveridge. Vawter, of Jackson county, made a plea for Southern Oregon in the person of W. H. Leeds, of Ashland. Scott, of Multnomah, county named George E. Good, of Salem.

Hill, of Multnomah, named E. M. Clark, of Portland. Smith, of Tillamook nominated Robert J. Marsh, of Tillamook. The first ballot resulted:

Leeds 76, Baker 60, Dunway 59, Beveridge 15, Good 37, Clark 21, Marsh 2. Second ballot: Leeds 108, Baker 46, Dunway 54, Beveridge 1, Good 48, Clark 4, scattering 5. Third ballot: Leeds 137, Baker 23, Dunway 75, Good 38. This ballot contained five votes too many and another ballot was ordered. At this point the adjournment was had.

Leeds, State Printer.
PORTLAND, April 12.—The Republican state convention reconvened at 10:20 a. m. today. Chairman Tongue announced that the convention would proceed with the fourth ballot for state printer. Geo. E. Good's name was withdrawn. The fourth ballot resulted as follows: Dunway 122, Leeds 145. Leeds' nomination was made unanimous. This completed the state ticket. A resolution that the veterans of the Ludian wars in Oregon should receive the same consideration as regards pensions, that is accorded veterans of the Mexican war, was unanimously adopted. The convention then took up the district nominations.

DISTRICT NOMINATIONS.
The following district nominations were made: First judicial district—prosecuting attorney, E. L. Benson; member board of equalization, A. C. Audon.
Second district—Attorney, G. M. Brown; board of equalization, S. E. Gibson.
Third district—Judge, H. E. Hewitt; attorney, Jas. McCain.
Fifth district—Attorney, W. N. Barrett; equalization, G. Wingate.
Sixth district—Judge, J. A. Fee; attorney, John L. Rand.
Seventh district—Attorney, A. A. Jayne; equalization, W. C. Willis.
Joint senators—Clackamas and Multnomah, Alonzo Gossett.
Grant, Morrow and Harney, A. W. Gowan.

Benton and Lincoln, T. Carter, Baker and Multnomah, C. A. Johns. Joint representative for Grant and Harney, O. Patterson.
Kamath and Lake, J. S. Ott.
Benton and Lincoln, J. P. Day.
Wasco and Sherman, T. H. McGreer and T. R. Cook.
Cook and Curry, William Gaublett.

Members state central committee—Clatsop, W. F. McGregor; Marion, D. H. Looney; Umatilla, L. S. Livermore. The convention then took a recess until 1:30.

When the convention reassembled, R. P. Thompson introduced a resolution asking the legislature to abolish the state railroad commission. The resolution was referred to the committee on platform. Thompson also introduced a resolution asking the legislature to pass a bill allowing taxes to be paid in two installments; one-half in spring and one-half in autumn. The resolution was adopted as a part of the platform. The convention, after passing a vote of thanks to the chairman and other officers, adjourned sine die.

The second district congressional convention was then organized, by the election of Rufus Mallory, as chairman.

The temporary organization was made permanent. Nominations for congressmen were called for and Lowell, of Umatilla, nominated J. C. Leasure; Patterson, of Morrow, W. R. Ellis; Ford, of Baker, C. M. Donaldson.

ASSOCIATED PRESS COMMENT.
The Republican party, of Oregon, in convention here, did their work wisely and well. They have placed in the field a ticket weak in no particular. Every man is a runner and they are fresh races, too. From governor down, all are strong men and near to the people. The convention exhibited the principles of the initiative, as it was large, the nominations being directly from the body of the people themselves. The referendum part of the proposition will be apparent in June, in the large majorities accorded the ticket at the hands of the people.

As Oregon sets the pace for the fall elections in the Eastern states, it is a source of congratulations that the Republicans have at this time nominated a ticket that will sound the basis of increased republican majorities.

Judge Lord's nomination was the first one made and the bringing forth of his name proved conclusively, that in Hon. A. N. Gilbert of Salem, Oregon has a speaker of far more than ordinary ability. He surprised himself, did honor to his country, delegation and state, in presenting the name and urging the claims to the governorship, of Oregon's able, honest and fearless chief justice. Lord's nomination was eloquently seconded by McGilton, who touched upon his soldier record in a masterly manner.

Ex Senator Chamberlin seconded the nomination of Applegate. The state went, it had declared for a new deal and as a result, no present, or former office holders, stood a ghost of a show. A second term was unanimously accorded, as due, Metcham. McElroy's name was swept before the cyclone and was not presented for secretary of state, his friends having advised his return as school superintendent. This threw the race to Kincaid and Hirsch and the clean sweep left Hirsch out. As the governor had gone to Salem, it was certain the secretary would go elsewhere. Kincaid is a pioneer in Oregon journalism.

"A new deal." That was the cry, and by the time the convention reached school superintendent, it would have been useless to present the name of any but a new man. The convention didn't want anybody who had been in office before, and consequently McElroy's name was not mentioned. This omission brought out a flood of candidates.

The universal demand for a fresh deck, a new deal and a clean sweep, having governed all other nominations, the same forces played smash with Baker's nomination for state printer, which had been practically conceded since his name was mentioned as a candidate.

The talk among delegates last night, after the state ticket was completed, and during its erection, would indicate that the "new deal" proposition is far reaching. It extends so far in the future as to concern Dolph's successor in the United States senate, to be elected by the next legislature. They say the ticket is good. The "clean sweep" idea pleases them. Geographically, the ticket gives satisfaction. They say every man will be elected.

WILL FORCE REPUBLICANS.
Trying to Formulate a Rule to Crush Filibustering.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The Democratic managers in the house today decided to take heroic measures to force the Republicans to participate in the proceedings of committee on rules. They held a meeting just before the house convened, to formulate a rule to crush filibustering. The rule makes failure to vote, punishable by fine. When the report is presented in the house, a parliamentary fight will be precipitated.

Capture a Train.
OMAHA, April 12.—Kelley's army of industrialists has captured the Union Pacific train at Escaneton, Wyoming, and are now riding east.

A train has been filled with 1200 men. Railway officers have given up all hope of preventing a seizure and will carry the army east as rapidly as possible. The train will be stopped outside of all Wyoming towns.

QUARANTINE COXEY'S.
The Omaha board of health today made arrangements to quarantine Kelley's army outside the city and to vaccinate every man. Several cases of small pox have been brought to Omaha by tramps, the last few days.

Coxey's Army.
CHALK HILL, April 12.—Coxey's army started reluctantly on a walk of twelve miles through the snow. At noon they stopped at Somerfield, and they will camp at Petersburg tonight. The army will cross the line into Maryland Friday.

An Immense Strike.
CONNELEVILLE, Pa., April 12.—The strikers are endeavoring to gather a force of 10,000 men for an assault on the Hill farm works. The operators are prepared for an emergency.

The Big Storm.
NEW YORK, April 12.—The storm has abated somewhat, but there is still a heavy sea running outside. Incoming steamers reported terrible experiences, but no further casualties are noted.

"Breck" Will Run.
FRANKFORT, Ky., April 12.—In a personal letter to a friend in this city, Breckenridge states that he will make a congressional race at all hazards.

An Oregon Land Office.
WASHINGTON, April 12.—The president has nominated James F. Moore, register of the land office, at the Dalles, Oregon.

Douglas Republicans.
In their county conventions adopted the following:
Resolved, That we demand of all officials now to be voted for that if elected they will pledge themselves to carry out the wishes of the people in this respect.
Resolved that it is the duty of the next legislative assembly of Oregon to re-enact the law commonly known as the mortgage tax law, with an exemption clause of all recorded indebtedness.
To abolish all the useless and expensive commissions, such as railroad commissions, food, game and fish commissions.
To repeal the jute mill act.
To pass some law providing for the employment of the state convict labor upon our public roads and highways.
To abolish the state board of equalization.
And that the representatives from this county be and they are hereby instructed to work to that end.

THE TICKET.

For Governor—W. P. Lord, of Marion county.
For Secretary of State—H. R. Kincaid, of Lane county.
For State Treasurer—Phil Metcham, of Grant county.
For Supreme Judge—C. E. Wolverson, of Lane county.
For Attorney General—C. M. Idelman, of Multnomah county.
For Superintendent of Public Instruction—G. M. Irwin, of Union county.
For State Printer—W. S. Dunway, of Jackson county.

The farmers of this state were numerous at the Republican state convention. Republican farmers are always against slates, proxies, tricks, combines and rings in politics. They are against third and fourth terms or arrogations of political power, or abuse of political power, or privilege in any form. That sentiment arrayed itself against all the real and imaginary abuses in Oregon politics and smashed everything before its eyes regardless of past services, present merit, party strength, or political wisdom. Men who deserved nominations went down with the underserving. The unpledged, unmanageable delegates, fresh from the people selected the men most free from the charge of office-holding, or office-seeking, for spoils and put them on the ticket regardless of old time friendships or favors conferred.

The 288 delegates were chosen by not less than three thousand delegates to county conventions, who represented thirty thousand Republicans at the primaries. In nearly every precinct in Oregon the Republican electors turned out to a man to lay the foundation of good government in Oregon. That labor has resulted in the state ticket at the head of this column.

The ticket is well balanced in every respect. Five out of seven of the candidates for state office are men from private life. The head of the ticket is taken from the head of the judiciary of our state. One man is re-nominated—the present state treasurer, who is entitled to a second term. The particular merits and records of each man will be presented later.

At least three men on the state ticket were in the union armies, two going forward as volunteers at Lincoln's first call for troops. Two crossed the plains in the slow caravans of ox teams that braved the perils of savages and desert to settle in Oregon. All are men of experience in public affairs, ability for their positions, and true Republicans.

JUDGE LORD'S ACCEPTANCE.
During the convention last evening Chairman Tongue read the following telegram which he had received from Judge Lord:

"Please accept my thanks and appreciation of the high honor conferred by the nomination tendered and say that if elected it will be my ambition to serve the people with fidelity, and to secure good government, economically administered."

Judge Lord has received hundreds of telegrams, letters and calls from friends for personal congratulation today. During the entire state convention he was on the beach and in the supreme court consultation room attending strictly to business. He will be found attending strictly to business as governor too.

In Police Court.
H. Rutherford, of Marion, was arraigned before Recorder Edes on two charges, carrying concealed weapons and lewd cohabitation. H. J. Bigger as deputy public prosecutor represents the state, Wm. Kaiser, the defense. Trial this afternoon.

Who fixed that Marion county delegation, anyhow?
The Oregonian and Statesman deserve some credit for the result.

Benton County News.

Special to the Journal.
CORVALLIS, Oreg., April 12.—Ninety odd Democratic delegates are in the city and will meet in convention at 1 o'clock to nominate a full Democratic ticket and state and district delegates. Considerable enthusiasm is manifested and the delegates seem confident of being able to put a winning ticket in the field.

In the circuit court yesterday, Harvey Miller pled not guilty to the charge of larceny, was tried and acquitted.

The demurrer to the petition of T. Egerton Hogg, in the Oregon Pacific railroad case, asking for the return of the $25,000 paid to his agent, Zephin Job, as a deposit to the sheriff at the first sale of the property and franchise was argued and submitted, R. S. Sherman and Willis Nash appearing for petitioner and J. R. Bryson for Farmers Loan and Trust company. It will be remembered that by reason of a suit in the U. S. courts and its injunction the sheriff was enjoined from making conveyance to the purchaser, Zephin Job, and which litigation ultimately caused the withdrawal of Eastern capitalists from the agreement, and prevented petitioner from completing the purchase through his agent Job.

The litigation in very lengthy, like all O. P. suits, and recites the good faith of purchaser and petitioner, and therein asks for the return of the amount of his deposit, $25,000 less the actual costs of the sale.

A Good Man.
Taxpayers are interested in the fact that S. B. Gibson, of Polk county, has been re-nominated for a member of the state board of equalization, for this district. He made a hard fight to equalize justly in this county and stood by THE JOURNAL in its battle for reductions of taxes. He will get a big vote and deserves to be elected.

Republicans never felt so good in old Marion as to their state and county ticket at this year of our Lord, A. D. 1894.

R. Lucas, from Lyons, Clinton county, Iowa, arrived in Salem this morning.
