BRECKENRIDGE IS BLISTERED.

Accused of Forgery by Miss Pollard's Attorney.

$15,000 DAMAGES FOR PLAINTIFF.

The Jury Brings in a Verdict for That Amount.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—There was a lively scene in the Breckenridge trial today. Jere Wilson denounced as forger the alleged letter which Breckenridge produced as received from Miss Pollard, and said it had been copied from Wessie Brown's letter, which attorney Stoll carried in his pocket. There were hot words. Stoll making intimation of a physical settlement, Wilson stiffly keeping his ground.

It is rumored that a suit for divorce will be brought by Mrs. Breckenridge immediately upon the expiration of the present suit. It is said that Mrs. Breckenridge turned over a large portion of her fortune to defray the costs of the trial, and that she was nearly prostrated when her husband on the witness stand frankly confessed the nature of his relations with Miss Pollard.

MISS POLLARD WINS.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The jury rendered a verdict in favor of Miss Pollard, awarding her $15,000 damages.

Don't Want the U. P.

WASHINGTON CITY, April 14.—Gen. Wade Hampton, the railroad commissioner, has submitted to the house committee having supervision of the matter sundry memoranda on the various pending bills for a settlement of the debt of the Pacific railroads to the United States. From this memoranda it appears that the commissioner is opposed to the foreclosure of the lien on the roads and the management thereof by congress, disposed to the maintenance of the sinking fund and the payment into it of a larger proportion of the net earnings. He says that on the maturity of the debts of these roads, three forms of settlement with the committee will be presented, from which a choice must be made, viz: Foreclosure; second, maintain the sinking fund and require that a larger percentage of net earnings be paid into it; and third, refund the debt.

The Tariff Debate.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The probabilities now are that the Republican leaders in the senate will not only consent to the continuation of the present agreement for daily limitation for debate on the tariff for the next week, but they will agree to close the general debate by the end of the week.

Harris, on the part of the Democrats, and Aldrich, on the part of the Republicans, had a conference this afternoon, which resulted in a continuance of the present truce in the senate throughout the week, with the understanding that the general debate should end Monday, April 23, when the tariff bill should be taken up and discussed by paragraphs. Senator Quay, of Pennsylvania, addressed the senate on the tariff bill this afternoon.

Still Filibustering.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The filibustering was resumed in the house as soon as it convened today. The first call of the roll showed that the Democrats lacked 33 of a quorum. At 2:30 the house adjourned.

An Oregon Criminal.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—Peter Sullivan, wanted in this city on charges of inducing Lillian Merritt and Belle Meyers, minors, to leave home to engage in disreputable careers, has been brought from Sisson to this city. Sullivan is the man who in 1881 went to Oregon with the notorious Carrie Bradley, and with Billy Hamilton committed a murder celebrated in Oregon. The woman and Sullivan were sentenced to ten years in the state prison. After serving four years they were pardoned. Sullivan returned here, and has since been engaged in the despicable trade of procurer.

Wrecked Bark

COEK, April 14.—The bark Combeian, which left Portland, Oregon, Dec. 7th, for Queenstown, was wrecked in the hurricane last night. Some of the crew are now ashore, and the rest are expected to be saved.

Malnomah Democrats.

PORTLAND, April 14.—The Democratic county convention met today for the purpose of choosing delegates to the state convention. No county ticket will be named today.

The Hop Outlook.

TACOMA, April 14.—Reports from the hop districts in Western Washington show that the hop roots are just beginning to peep above the surface. They seem to be two or three weeks backward, owing to the late spring. Growers say it is yet too early to tell what the outlook is for the crop. Everything will depend upon the state of the weather, they say, during the next three or four weeks.

The acreage this year is largely increased over that of last season. Ezra Meeker, the hop king, after returning from England decided to increase his fields about 50 per cent, thinking the market next fall would be good. Others seem to have taken the same view.

The greatest increase, it appears, is being made in the Yakima valley. The completion of the new irrigating ditches over there seems to give a special stimulus to the hop business.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—Hop prospects to a great extent are dependent upon the amount of rain within the next fifteen days. Sacramento reports in many instances roots in an unhealthy condition and many thousands have been used for replanting old fields. The cause of poor roots is ascribed to late cultivation and poor trimming. The increased acreage is estimated at 29 per cent. Utah reports the wintering plants has been excellent, and all signs point to a yield equal to last year's. The acreage there has been increased at least 5 per cent. With a few spring showers the yield will be very large.

Benton Democrats.

CORVALLIS, Or., April 14.—The Democratic ticket put in the field yesterday is: A. F. Harshner, representative; J. A. Cuthbert, county judge; D. A. Osborn, sheriff; Ira Hunter, clerk; V. E. Winters, recorder; W. A. Buchanan, treasurer; Arthur Johnson, commissioner; W. J. Fitzpatrick, coroner; Asa Alexander, assessor; A. J. Locke, surveyor. Disregard resigned supreme. Last night J. K. Weatherford, Judges McFadden and Burnett, and S. T. Jeffreys tried to harmonize the forces at the opera house, but utterly failed. Judge Burnett prolonged a ten-minute speech into two hours, mistaking ridicule for applause; leaving an empty house for the other gentlemen to address.

The grand jury handed in a joint indictment against Dr. J. M. Applewhite and Lucinda A. Kenyon, charging them with adultery on or about July, 1893. Defendants will plead today. The case promises to be a spicy one, and will doubtless attract considerable interest. Both parties have been well and favorably known throughout the country, and Dr. Applewhite is treasurer of the state agricultural college. Wallish Nash and John Burnett are his attorneys, and W. S. McFadden appears for Mrs. Kenyon, who is said to have turned state's evidence in an attempt to clear herself. Dr. Applewhite's friends allege that it is a blackmailing scheme from beginning to end.

Stabbed to the Heart.

SEATTLE, April 14.—There was a stabbing affray at Edmonds, on the Great Northern road, in Snohomish county, yesterday, between Charles Robertson and Farmer Brown, which may result in the death of the latter. Robertson plunged a pocketknife to the hilt into Brown's left side. The blade barely missed the heart, and the wound as it is, is a dangerous one.

It appears that Robertson recently performed some work upon a road built by Brown and other farmers in that vicinity, and that his pay was not forthcoming at the appointed time. Yesterday morning the two men met at Edmonds, and Brown was dunned for the money. He replied that he could not pay it then, but would do so as soon as another party paid him some money. Robertson flew into a rage, calling Brown a d-d liar, asserting that the money in question had already been paid and that he (Brown) had it in his pocket. At this a fight started, and during the struggle Brown was stabbed in the manner stated. It was supposed at first that he could not long survive; that the blade had penetrated the heart.

Rains and Cloud Burst.

KANSAS CITY, April 14.—Heavy rains in the western and southwestern portions of Kansas insure more than a good crop of wheat.

WABCO, TEX., April 14.—A report received from Troy, 30 miles south gives an account of a cloudburst. Elmore Bottom is flooded, and crops are washed away for miles, and many homes swept away and stock drowned. No loss of life is reported.

ADMIRAL MELLO SURRENDERS

The Brazilian Rebellion Has Fully Collapsed.

GREAT NORTHERN STRIKE GOES ON.

All Is Done Quietly, but No Men Will Work.

MONTEVIDEO, April 14.—Admiral De Mello and 1500 insurgent troops, who disembarked on the frontier of Uruguay, after having been driven out of the state of Rio Grande do Sul, have surrendered to Uruguayan authorities and the rebellion in Brazil may be said to have completely collapsed.

Great Northern Strike.

GREAT FALLS, Mont., April 14.—No railroad in any city was ever tied up more completely than the Great Northern is here. At noon every man obeyed the order of the American Railway union and quit. The trades and labor councils have endorsed the strike and at a meeting merchants offered assistance. The strikers have appointed a committee to protect the property of the company.

ST. PAUL, April 14.—There is no strike on the eastern division of the Great Northern railway, nor is there likely to be one. The strike is confined to the lines west of Minola, N. D.

SPOKANE, April 14.—Everything is quiet on the Great Northern here this afternoon, but no trains are moving on the Kalspell division, east of this city. The west bound passenger train due here this morning, is said to have been abandoned east of the Great Falls. Indications are that the men on the Cascade division will not go out.

GREAT FALLS, Mont., April 14.—Seventeen hundred employes are loyal to the strike. One hundred strikers voluntarily guarded the company's property last night. The mail cars have not yet started.

HELENA, Mont. April 14.—Rumors are current that the Great Northern strike may be extended to the Northern Pacific road, as the men are dissatisfied with the schedule.

Coker's Quiet.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., April 14.—Everything is quiet in the coke region today. Plants generally are running, and there has been no demonstration by strikers. The advisability of declaring the strike off is being strenuously considered by the leaders.

Exporting Anarchy.

PITTSBURG, April 14.—The Lawrenceville district in this city has made another exportation of 200 Hungarians, Italians and Slavs to Texas cotton plantations, making 700 from this district alone. They are fast taking the place of negroes.

Street Car Held Up.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—Two masked robbers held up a street car at a lonely spot on the San Bruno road last night. The highwaymen secured two gold watches and about fifty dollars.

More Unemployed.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., April 14.—The second Los Angeles regiment of unemployed, after leaving this city last night, marched to Colton, and attempted to capture a train on the Southern Pacific.

Marching On.

OMAHA, April 14.—The Industrial army contingent of the Coxy crusade, has reached North Platte, Neb., today.

A Tank Explodes.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 14.—A Union tank line car exploded today. One boy was killed and several men injured.

Gen. Slocum Is Dead.

NEW YORK, N. Y., April 14.—General H. W. Slocum died early this morning.

Applewhite's Demurrer Sustained.

CORVALLIS, April 14.—Special.—The demurrer in the Applewhite-Kenyon indictment was sustained by Judge Fullerton on the ground that a complaint for adultery must be brought by the person charged. In this case Applewhite's indictment has been dismissed, as to the Kenyon complaint the same having been made by Charles Kenyon, her husband. Oregon statutes have never been construed by the supreme court but the court rules are the same and follow the precedence of the Iowa Code, and decisions of its supreme court. The decision is greatly appreciated by Applewhite's friends and counsel. District Attorney Coudon will immediately appeal to the supreme court.

COLLEGE GIRLS EVERYWHERE.

Doings of the College Y. W. C. A. Convention at Willamette.

The delegations from the different colleges now having arrived are as follows: Albany 7, Chemawa 4, Corvallis 1, Eugene 3, Forest Grove 4, McMinnville 8, Monmouth 30, Newberg 4, Portland University 17, in all 83, which, with the membership of Willamette makes over 100 now in attendance.

Promptly at 7:30 the convention was called to order by Mrs. J. A. Dummitt and after the half hour prayer and thanksgiving service, the officers were elected, pres. Mrs. J. A. Dummitt, first vice Miss Helen Brooks Pacific University, second vice Miss Hinehman Newberg, sec. Miss Galbraith Albany. The addresses of welcome were full of soul and Christian feeling and the selection by Prof. Brown was as usual well rendered and appreciated. At about 9:30 the delegates and ladies of the school repaired to the dining hall where an elegant banquet and some very exhilarating toasts were served.

At 9 a. m. the morning session opened and after a most excellent Bible reading by Mrs. McCreery, of Salem, subj. et. "Young Women of Long Ago," the business session opened.

The reports from the different colleges were most encouraging and showed that the college young women of the state are awake and are busily engaged in meeting their responsibilities and opportunities along the line of leading their fellow students to Christ.

The papers were excellent showing much of spirit and preparation, and though we have not space to mention in detail, those of Miss Robbie Hulchman, of Pacific college, "Physical culture from a Christian standpoint," and the "Model membership committee," by Nettie Crosby, Naome Louts, Myrtle Harrington, Helen Holland and Sadie Briggs, of Monmouth, deserve especially our notice.

Miss Reeder brought most enthusiastic greetings from the International committee and set forth very clearly the sphere of the "Evangel" the organ of the Y. W. C. A.

After a paper by Mrs. Dummitt on the "Spirit of giving," Miss Reeder made an appeal for the support of the work on the coast, which was cheerfully and liberally responded to by both associations and individuals, and showed that it was realized that the work on the coast must be pushed.

After the Misses Bradshaw, Frizzel, Harris, Jones and Prescott, in gymnastic costumes, gave an exhibition in Indian club swinging, which was much appreciated and followed very nicely the discussion of physical culture by Miss Hulchman.

A British Scandal.

LONDON, April 14.—A well known instructor of music, having the entree of the most aristocratic society and a member of several prominent clubs, has fled the country as a result of exposure. He taught music in an institution attended by the daughters of the best families, and by casting a religious glamor over his acts accomplished the ruin of ten or a dozen young ladies. The rules of the institution require three ladies to be present when instruction was being given, but this was prevented by two keeping guard so that the professor and the third lady could not be interrupted. This caused the pupils to intrigue with each other for their destruction. His wife was a consenting party, having been persuaded, like the girls, that the old aims were the rites of a new religion of which the professor was prophet. Several girls fled with the professor. The names are kept from the public.

STILL MISSING.—The body of Willis Armstrong, who is supposed to have been drowned off the steamer Elwood, near Oregon City, is still missing. He is a cousin of Mrs. J. E. Murphy and Mr. Desart, of North Salem, and there is a little mystery about it, as they supposed he was still employed on the Latona.
