May 4, Friday—Republican county convention at Dallas.

BEAUTIFUL SALEM.—At a meeting of the Salem board of trade at the Willamette parlors yesterday afternoon the late addition of 5000 illustrated pamphlets of the city, recently published by the E. M. Waite company, was accepted and ordered paid. This is, by the way, a beautiful work of art, and a credit to the city. Such advertising will be read and treasured by all who receive it. Arrangements have been made to dispose of the books at 10 cents apiece or $8.00 per hundred, which is actual cost. They can be had by applying to A. I. Wagner, the secretary.

THE NEW FASHION.—A Cottage Grove Leader man says that these new fangled double decked shoulders that the ladies are wearing makes it impossible for a near-sighted man to know whether he is meeting a woman or a load of hay. If the craze continues, some of our narrow-gauge walks will have to take the middle of the road.

FAMOUS PICTURES.—Cherrington Bros. are now making their best pictures at special prices, the Y. W. C. A. rush, notwithstanding.

FOR JUNE RACES.

The Salem Horsemen's Association
Pushing for That End.

The Oregon breeding and speed association held their regular annual meeting in Salem yesterday and the following officers were elected for the coming year: Geo. Collins, president; W. J. Irwin, vice president; Jap Minto, secretary; E. S. Lamport, treasurer; W. Claggett, E. S. Lamport, Geo. Williams and F. N. Derby, directors.

An assessment of $2.50 per share of stock was levied for the purpose of paying up a few claims that were not allowed last year and a committee consisting of Messrs. Collins, Claggett and Minto was appointed to collect the assessment.

A committee was appointed to confer with the Independence association as to date, and will report to a meeting to be held next Monday.

At Aurora.

There was a large assemblage of Aurora people Friday to witness the closing exercises of the public schools. A picnic dinner was served in the large room of the primary department from the well filled baskets of the good women of this town, who are justly famed for being cooks par excellence. All declared that such a dinner was never served before, and there was enough left to fill the vacuum in several Coxey's armies if they had happened along. After dinner Prof. Barr, Mr. Cole of the Board, and Mr. Day of the Woodburn Independent, delivered addresses to the assemblage. E. Hofer delivered an educational address at the close. Prof. C. W. Barr principal, and Miss Birdie Cole assistant, have been conducting a large and successful school, teaching some of the sciences besides the regular English branches. Chris. Cole and Fred Will received diplomas, the first ever issued from the Aurora graded schools. They are also the first graduates in Marion county under the complete system of graded schools introduced and established all over the county by County Superintendent Graham. The present school board are Chris. Zimmerman chairman, J. P. Cole and Honty Kraus.

In the evening the Aurora Republican club held its second regular meeting. Mr. Stephen Smith, as president, presided. This Republican stronghold shows signs of giving an increased majority for the whole county and state ticket. There will be some independent voting as usual, but few men are going to throw away any votes on side issues. The restoration of property and economic reform in state affairs. The old home of John Knight and Lorenz Ehlen, the two leaders on the Republican county ticket, will make itself felt in the June election.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a meeting of the insurance underwriters of Salem, held at the office of the State Insurance company on April 12th, 1894, a committee of five was appointed to draft suitable resolutions on the death of George M. Beeler to be presented to his family, and a copy to be published in each of the daily papers. The committee adopted the following:

Be it resolved, That in the death of George M. Beeler, who died on the evening of April 10th, 1894, there passed away a member of our fraternity, who on account of his sterling qualities, had our entire respect and esteem, as well as our admiration for his ability as an underwriter.

He was a man of unusual merit; large-hearted and generous; a good citizen; a faithful husband; a tender-hearted, father, and was honored by his fellow-men. We, his fellow-members of his chosen profession, shall miss his genial face from our midst, and we hereby tender our sincerest and warmest sympathy to his faithful and loving wife and family in their bereavement.

Pleasure Ride.

Steamer Alton will make two round-trips between Salem and Independence Sunday, April 15, leaving Salem at 2 p. m. and 5:50 p. m., leaving Independence at 1 p. m. and 4:30 p. m. These trips will not be made if weather is stormy. Round trip 50 cents.

TAX EXTENSION.—The county court of Multnomah county is considering whether or not it can extend the time of paying taxes. It is claimed by some that this power is lodged with the sheriff, and that he may at any time after the first Monday in April return all taxes not then paid as delinquent. The county court has referred the question to counsel who will thoroughly examine the question and report soon. It is understood the time will be extended for some time by the court in case it has the power.

UNIVERSITY CHAPEL.—The entertainment Tuesday evening, at the University chapel will consist wholly of vocal music with orchestra. It will be the most interesting of any local entertainment of the season. Come and see Dr. Epley and Earl Sharp represent David and Goliath. The cantata of Ruth is well rehearsed, and the parts will be exceptionally entertaining.

IN THE SOCIAL REALM.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE.

Tuesday April 10 was the eighteenth birthday of Miss Nellie Bell. Quite a number of her many friends gathered at her pleasant home on Salem Prairie and made the evening pass very enjoyably to her as well as all present. The affair proved a genuine surprise. At the usual hour refreshments were served and were discussed with a hearty good will.

At a late hour the guests departed for their several homes. Mr. John Allwood, in behalf of the young men present, spoke a few very appropriate words thanking Mr. and Mrs. Bell for the kind hospitality shown all, and wishing Miss Nellie many happy returns of the day in the future. Those present were: Miss Fannie Bell, Miss Irma Maulding, Miss Laura Jack, Miss Florence Bell, Miss Orpha Jack, Miss Nellie Bell, Miss Anna Partch, Miss Bessie Gesner, Miss Pearl Partch, Miss Maud DuBois, Miss Myrtle DuBois, Miss Emma Pickens, Miss Jessie Gesner, Miss Vera Hall, Messrs. Dave Miller, John Allwood, Ethelbert Miller, Ben Miller, Morris Mogesson, John Miller, Chas. Horner, Smith Miller, John Teckenberg, Dave Griger, Clarence Beaver, Frisby Maulding, John Hosteter, John Bowerman, Ulisse Gesner, Frank Gesner, Charles Ransden, Lee Weaver, Claude Jack, John Hurley, Earnest Partch, Claude M. Buser.

THE CANTATA.

A most unique and pleasing entertainment was given last evening at Channing hall. The first part of the program consisted of piano and vocal solos by Mrs. W. A. Danton's pupils, who did admirably well and reflected great credit on her. The second part of the program was a beautiful cantata, entitled "Grandpa's birthday." The cantata was exceedingly good, everything done in perfect style, and Miss Anna Strong played little Maud as good and as perfect as any one could. She spoke her words clear and distinct and with much feeling, and her little solo called forth great applause.

George Han sang his little solo with much feeling and effect. Miss Grace Rieeman, as May, was very winning and played her part well. In fact all the characters were well taken and it would be an exceedingly difficult matter to find a more talented and better trained company. Much credit is due Mrs. Denton and Carl Denton for their untiring work in training and bringing out the Cantata in so perfect a manner. The entertainment was given for the benefit of the church.

There is a demand to have the entertainment reproduced.

SURPRISE.—The pupils of Miss Smith, a popular East Salem teacher, tendered her a happy surprise last evening, at her home in Highland.

My friend, look here! You know how weak and nervous your wife is, and you know that Carter's Iron Pills will relieve her, now why not be fair about it and buy her a box?

A woman who is weak, nervous and sleepless, and who has cold hands and feet, cannot feel and act like a well person. Carter's Iron Pills equalize the circulation, remove nervousness, and give strength and rest.

A man's wife should always be the best, especially to her husband, but if she is weak and nervous, and uses Carter's Iron Pills, she cannot be, for they make her feel like a different person, so they all say, and their husbands say so, too!
