LITTLE LOCALS.

Those who have had 20 to 30 years experience say now is the time to garden. Born, to Mrs. A. J. Murphy, a son, April 9th, 1894, at the home in Albuca. Mrs. Murphy is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. McAllister. Miss Edith Lewis went to Portland this afternoon. Miss Giltner went to Portland this afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. John Holman returned this afternoon from a visit in California. They were accompanied by Miss Emma Meyers, of Sausalito, Cal., who will visit several months with her brother George Meyers.

CRUSHED ROCK.—The crusher is doing its work to perfection. Roads made from the rock are said to be everlasting, much like the clothing from G. W. Johnson & Sons.

BOUND OVER.—Ed. Stewart was today bound over by Judge Egan for willfully and lewdly exposing his person and private parts in a public place.

GROVER CLEVELAND'S ORPHANS

A Detachment of Industrials at Salem.

Co. E, Third Regiment, Industrial army, of California of Sacramento, marched into Salem at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening. Chas. E. Kain, commanding. They carried the American flag and encamped at and near the Southern Pacific depot. Hundreds visited them.

City Marshal Minto had his eye on the men, but they were perfectly peaceable and orderly. The 41 men stayed together. They did not disband and seemed to be under good discipline. Over sixty left on the 3120 freight for Portland. Salem contributed about twenty men to swell the army.

Agent Skinner says they were a decent lot of men, and that any of the men would work if they could secure employment. They were from 25 to 40 years of age, as a rule, of fellows as one would meet anywhere. They were not, Mr. Skinner said, "tramps, but respectable American citizens, many of them men with families." The leader said they were going to Washington to show the government what it had brought American laborers to by encouraging foreign immigration. The men are peaceable and galling guns will never solve their problems for them.

It cost the city $5.25 to feed them. Mayor Gatch at first refused to feed them. He told their committee that they would have to rustle "the same as the rest of us." But he was finally persuaded to order them a meal at the Boston and P. Q. restaurants. They will take their next meal at Portland. Mayor Gatch evidently concluded it was better to send them along than to force them to prey upon private citizens.

About Entertainments.

THE JOURNAL is not responsible for failure of local entertainments not announced in these columns. There are so many amusements in these days by the different churches, social orders and societies that for any one to be a success it must be well advertised. It must not only be advertised, but it must be fully, carefully and well advertised. It better be well advertised in one newspaper of established circulation than poorly advertised on handbills or merely announced in all papers. Some thing merely having a small notice in each city paper that a crowded house will be assured. That is a mistake as many have learned to their sorrow. An entertainment must have merit, it must be backed by an organization and friends, it must be worked up by personal effort, but all these often count for nothing unless the date is announced in advance and the merit of the performance or program kept before the mind of the public.

THE JOURNAL aims to be generous to all home entertainments and to the churches and fraternal orders. At the same time, these bodies when entering the entertainment field cannot ignore business principles or business methods.

THE JOURNAL has an established carrier and mail circulation, as we believe, larger than any newspaper in the capital city—and our mail lists and carrier books are open to inspection of anyone. Another point—THE JOURNAL is taken by more people and by more persons and families who take no other local paper than any other paper printed in Salem. It is delivered in the suburbs where no other paper is taken. Owing to its cheap price more copies are taken from the postoffice than of any Salem paper. THE ONE CENT DAILY by mail at 25 cents a month has a larger circulation by mail than the total circulation of any other paper printed in Salem—except one, as can be easily demonstrated. THE DAILY at that price, and not a copy is sent that is not paid in advance, has attained a larger circulation in the postoffices up and down the valley on both sides of the river than any newspaper ever printed at Salem. Come in and satisfy yourself on this point if you have any doubts. When you advertise, do it as a matter of business. Do not blame the people for not patronizing you or turning out to your entertainments, if they have not been well informed as to its merits in THE JOURNAL. And remember our rates are lower for the service rendered than any paper printed at Salem. THE JOURNAL has only one desire and that is to be helpful to Salem and Salem people, and to all its readers. It believes it has the support of the public regardless of class, party or creed as fully as any one newspaper can have. If you properly present your case in its columns whether it be business or pleasure, you cannot but meet with success if what you present has any merit. It is impossible to make a tin whistle out of a pig's tail, but lots of tin whistles can be sold by being properly advertised. THE JOURNAL has readers enough, if they are properly appealed to, to make a success of any legitimate business or amusement. It is not the only advertising medium in Salem but it has reason to believe it is the best, and the people look to it for reliable information about business and pleasure.

Ed. Hall, coast agent for the Connecticut fire insurance company, of Portland, is in the city.

A Professional Man.

Dr. R. Cartwright, who has been practicing his profession in our city for several years past, associated with Dr. S. E. Jessup, has decided to abandon general practice, and devote his time exclusively to general surgery, diseases peculiar to women and the rectal complaints, and has established himself in a handsome suite of rooms in the D'Arcy block, which he has tastefully fitted up with elegant furnishings, and has all the latest improvements in the shape of instruments, electrical appliances, etc. The doctor believes that much better work can be done by a man devoting himself to a certain line of work; that the day is past when a physician is expected to be a specialist in every branch of his calling, and has chosen this line to be the object of his life. Salem is to be congratulated, upon having in her professional circles a surgeon so able and devoted to his work, as Dr. Cartwright.

New County Bridge.

Seven bids were opened yesterday by the county court for the construction of the bridge across Pudding river on the site where the old Traxel structure formerly stood, being about ten miles northeast of Salem. T. J. Cocking and Henry Kephart had estimated that they could take the job for $575; E. Arnold's figures were $988 for a pile bridge and $689 for one with bents; A. R. Finlay offered to construct it for $500; J. B. Tillotson $555; C. F. Royal had estimates at $580 and $507; L. C. McCoy's bid was $429 for a pile and $471 for a bent; and Peter Steffen, of Howell, proposed to build the structure for $475. The plans of the latter suited the court, better so far as the length of span was concerned and the contract was awarded to him. When completed the bridge will have a sixty foot span and with the approaches will be 350 feet in length.

State Sunday School Convention.

At a meeting of the Sunday school superintendents yesterday preparations were made for entertainment of the delegates who are expected to be present at the state convention beginning May 2nd. From reports received there is reason to believe that two hundred delegates will be in attendance. These have been distributed among the various churches as follows: Methodist 47, Presbyterian 37, Baptist 36, Congregational 26, Christian 17, Friends 12, Episcopal 9, South Salem Methodist 9, Independent Evangelical 3, Cumberland Presbyterian 7, United Brethren 7. It is expected and urged that the superintendents will appoint committees on entertainment to secure places for the visitors. It is essential that these committees be able to report to their respective superintendents by Monday April 30th, as on that date another meeting will be held to make final arrangements. Let every one feel a personal interest in making this convention a decided success.

PLATFORMS OF 1890.

The state platforms of 1890 are now interesting reading. The Republican platform endorsed Speaker Reed for his courage in counting a quorum of members present and denounced the Democrats in congress who refused to vote under that rule although in fact present and in duty bound to do so. The Republicans did not then dream that the Democrats would four years later enact Reed's rule for their own protection as they have been forced to do.

The Democratic platforms of Oregon, and other states too, contained these words: "We denounce the action of Speaker Reed in counting Democrats as present who had not voted," etc.

The Republican and Democratic platforms demanded free coinage of silver. The State Union Party, as the third party was called that year, demanded that money in "necessary quantity shall issue direct to the people."

The Democratic platform contained a plank saying: "We point with pride to the wise, conservative and clear administration of Governor Pennington." When that was read the convention received it with the wildest enthusiasm. It turned itself loose and cheered and cheered again. Treasurer Webb received a similar ovation. Both are this year fighting under a different banner. But times have changed and platforms do not always mean what they say.

All platforms contained a demand for an eight-hour law, and the Republicans severely denounced employment of convict labor.

Oregon Crop Report.

Statement for Western Oregon on general crops, made April 18th, 1894, by the U. S. weather bureau:

The weather conditions were unfavorable to the advancement of crops in the coast counties, also in the northern Willamette valley counties. A frost that injured fruit bloom occurred in Clackamas county on the 10th and another less destructive occurred on the morning of the 7th in Benton county. The rain which occurred was not desired except in the southern counties, where they were looked upon with favor. All fruit trees are blooming, except the apple and pear, on the higher elevations. Peach and cherry bloom was injured by the frost all other trees are reported uninjured. Seeding spring grain continued, notwithstanding the rain. Fall wheat on high ground continues its vigorous growth and healthy color. Wheat on low lands, not having recovered from the effects of the excessive rains, made slow progress last week. The acreage of fall grain is about the average and with favorable conditions the average acreage of spring grain will be sown. The barley crop is growing nicely. Hops are making a vigorous growth; the acreage has been greatly increased. Garden work was delayed last week owing to too much rain. Cattle and sheep are in good condition; there is sufficient grass for their support. The prospects are still good for grain and fruit crops.

Rev. Wm. Rollins, of Butte, Mont., is expected to arrive in the city today.

According to the official statement now made public, the reduction of protective duties will cut off $78,670,000 of the revenue derived last year. In place it is proposed to add $41,900,000 taxes on sugar, $20,000,000 to the tax on spirits, and the $3,000,000 tax on playing cards, or about $65,000,000, of which the laboring people will have to pay by far the greater part. Then there is added the $30,000,000 tax on incomes. Not over $15,000,000 can be gained by this offensive tax, against the $78,000,000 taken from the sums now paid by the luxury-loving class or by foreign manufacturers and their important agents. The remaining $61,000,000 is to be taken from those who consume sugar and whiskey.

FOR SALE.—One twenty acre tract, with six acres into hops, four acres into young orchard, and balance to pasture, one house, and all well under cultivation. Will sell $4 acre, including the above tract, with all the implements desirable to make a good farm. Call on or address, D. H. Miller, Salem Or. 4 1/2 miles east of town on the Macleay road. My friend, look here! You know how weak and nervous your wife is, and you know that Carter's Iron Pills will relieve her, now why not be fair about it and buy her a box?

A woman who is weak, nervous and sleepless, and who has cold hands and feet, cannot feed and nurture her child. Carter's Iron Pills quiver the circulation, remove nervousness, and give strength and rest.

A man's wife should always be the same, especially to her husband but if she is weak and nervous, and uses Carter's Iron Pills, she cannot be, for they make her feel like a different person, so they all say, and their husbands say so, too!

FAMOUS PICTURES.—Cherrington Bros. are now making their best pictures at special prices, the Y. W. C. A. rush, notwithstanding.

A Successful Concert.

One of the most successful amateur home entertainments of the season was that given at the First Presbyterian church last Friday evening. The program was good in all its parts, and particularly the number by Mrs. Dr. Walter Babbitt. This Independence lady had played at Salem before and was so highly appreciated that her presence on the program increased the attendance and she was accorded an encore. The recitation by Mrs. Chas. Riley disclosed to her friends great progress in the art of elocution. The duets by Mrs. Skiff and Miss Wooden, and Mr. Giles and Miss Beamer, were well executed and highly appreciated. Miss Lutter's recitation was well memorized and well rendered for one so young. Mrs. Junk sang one of Kuhn's difficult compositions very correctly and pleasingly. She will be in demand in the future at Salem. Mr. Wooden played a cornet solo well, and was ably accompanied on the piano by Miss Wooden. Miss Blanche Albert sang as sweetly as usual, but did not respond to an encore tendered her. The social and lunch that followed were as successful as the recital, considering so many other attractions had the same date.
