IN THE SOCIAL REALM.

GREAT ATTRACTIONS AHEAD.

The well known favorite with the Salem public, Joseph Grosser and Phoebe D. Ross, will appear at the opera house on May 9th in their celebrated play "The New South." A great audience will greet them.

INTER-EDGE ENGAGEMENT.

The wedding of Mr. Henry W. Myers, son of Jos. Myers, of the "White Corner," and Miss Helen Eden, daughter of Mrs. Rhoda Eden, will take place at St. Paul's Episcopal church in this city on Wednesday, April 25th. Cards announcing this marriage have been issued.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE.

Last Thursday evening about a score of the friends of Miss Lottie Sherman surprised that young lady by coming to her home in East Salem in a body and demanding hospitality for the evening. It was the occasion of her 19th birthday, and the young people had a most enjoyable evening.

FROEDER'S BIRTHDAY.

Yesterday the Salem Kindergarten observed the great fête day in their work, the birthday of the founder, of that growing system of education, Frederick Froebel, who was born in 1782. The children devoted the morning to songs, games and plays, embracing the Froebel thought. They were given a surprise by receiving a visit from the Highland kindergarten under Miss Gossy. The room was neatly decorated and a happy time was enjoyed by the children. Mrs. P. S. Knight, of the training school, told to the children one of her charming stories and the enjoyment was brought to a close by serving a picnic luncheon in the circle.

The kindergarten spirit in Salem is receiving a healthy growth in its past year. Mrs. Knight and Miss Ballou have conducted a successful training class of young ladies and mothers of a class. A good kindergarten has been conducted in Highland, at the Polytechnic institute, for some months, and others are now being established in East Salem by Miss Rose Dickerson and Miss Lulu Conover. One of the young ladies in the training class, Miss Mary Farmer, has been given a position in the male school, and is making good use of her knowledge of child training there. A kindergarten will also soon be placed into the orphan's home, and in fact the demand for trained teachers is growing every day. Mrs. Carrie Ogle remains with Miss Ballou's kindergarten and will next year conduct the primary classes.

THE BROWNIER.

Miss Vanderoel scored a great and deserved success in her benefit presentation at Reed's last night of Palmer Cox's "Brownies." People had read of their antics, have seen them in pictures, and even figured in the shop windows. But to realize all their cuteness in the living reality was a revelation to everyone. The names of each one of the petite actors deserves to be published but they were not indicated on the program. Everybody recognized the Dude, the Policeman, the Chinaman, the Indian, the Dutchman. They are more familiar to American people than their public officials. The various scenes depicted, as the Brownies at school, Trip through China, at Sing Sing School, Kite Making, Leap Frog, and concluding with grand march and ball, were each and all applauded.

Miss Vanderoel has always been popular as an entertainer at Salem, and last night added much to her local fame. The accompaniment of the Elite orchestra was suited to the Brownie mood of the whole audience. The recitation with whistling accompaniment was deferred to some future time, Miss Vanderoel having been disappointed in her whistler.

Mr. Kaudert sang with his usual pleasing effect, responding to an encore with "Shells we gathered years ago." The recitation by Miss Mamie Babcock was excellent and showed careful training, she being a pupil of Miss Marie Vanderoel. Ernest Vanderoel also did well in "The Ship of Faith." Miss Ethel Raymond recited "The Boat Race" in good form. Mrs. J. H. Strickler received an encore for her vocal solo, and sang "Down the Shadowy Lane." Mrs. Strickler is one of Salem's most effective public singers and has lost none of her force or art of expression.

The crowning individual effort of the evening was Miss Gracie Suter's recitation "The Minuet," with dancing accompaniment in old fashioned costume, pauser and powdered hair. One of our great grandmothers in her sweet sixteens had stepped upon the stage the audience could not have been more gracefully surprised. The dance was repeated in graceful and modest evolutions and Miss Suter has indubitably impressed herself on Salem audiences.

All appreciated Miss Vanderoel's effort, and her many friends, who have watched her slowly building herself into prominence without any artificial aids, were gratified beyond measure at the phenomenal success of "The Brownies."

At Marion.

The Marion Republican club conducted a successful rally Friday evening—the first of the season. The school house was well filled. The Populists commenced last fall organizing a club and have had a number of meetings all winter. They were well represented, but their speaker, Hon. Chas. Miller, did not appear. There was much demand for C. B. Moore, of the Republican legislative ticket. He has more requests to speak than he can fill, and is popular in the country. There is quite an interest in this neat, clean Quaker town in fruit and poultry. Mr. Cook's breeding Black Leghorns. A. B. George has five Black Minorcas. Mr. White, a little north of town, has a big duck and chicken ranch. A. H. Cornelia has his orchard in the best shape of any we have seen, and showed some samples of dried apples that were beautiful, and dried Bartlett pears as sweet and palatable as Scymra figs.

If families would learn to save and cure their fruit more, they would buy less and be more prosperous. Home dried fruit always sells better than the manufactured. One big farmer near here has five hundred acres, has scores of scrub horses and cattle, has to buy all his meat, potatoes and butter, and is land poor and in debt. Better and fewer cows and horses, better and fewer poultry, and better use of the vast fruit product, would help out many a man who is struggling hopelessly in debt with a big grain farm.

The Republicans of Marion will have several more meetings of their club before election and will make a good report in June for the whole ticket.

MARCHING, 5000 STRONG.

The Cozy's, the Fry's and Kelley's are still marching toward Washington, and in the meantime everybody is invited to walk up to John G. Wright's store and try some of these choice dried smelt and salt fish. The best grocerie and the most for the price ever offered in Salem, for cash.

FOR A REUNION.

T. T. Geer, of Macley, this county, has been selected to give the occasional address at the coming reunion of Oregon pioneers at Portland on Friday, June 15th. This will be the twenty-second meeting. T. H. Tongue, of Hillsboro, Washington county, will deliver the annual address.

JUNE RACES.

Some of the speediest animals on the coast will no doubt be here, but their racing is no greater than the race for bargains at G. W. Johnson & Son's clothing house.

NEW HOUSES.

J. C. Goodale, the timberman, is building two new cottages in Yew Park. Mr. Ault, the contractor, is building a new one in that enterprising addition also.

Low Steamer Rates.

Parties intending visiting the Midwinter Fair should patronize the Union Pacific steamers, as this company has placed in fleet from Portland the low rate of $22.00 to San Francisco and return, which includes meals and berth. Full particulars can be obtained by addressing W. H. Harburt, A. G. P. A., Union Pacific System, Portland. 1-26-14

The New Spring Hats

Extravagance

May lie in paying too much for a thing or in paying too little. If you buy groceries for less than we ask you'll not get as good quality—that's poor economy. If you pay more, you pay too much because we sell the best there is.

PRICES THAT TALK.

Jo. Clark, the Court street grocer, offers the following bargains in canned goods for a few days:

Sugar corns.....10 cts
Tomatoes.....10 "
Peas.....10 "
Oysters, three 2-pound cans.....50 "
Maine Blueberries.....20 "
Many people are laying in a supply under these remarkably low prices.

My friend, look here! You know how weak and nervous your wife is, and you know that Carter's Iron Pills will relieve her, now why not let her take it and try her a box?

A woman who is weak, nervous and sleepless, and who has cold hands and feet, cannot get on like a well person. Carter's Iron Pills equalize the circulation, remove nervousness, and give strength and rest.

A man who should always be the same, is probably a live husband, but if she is weak and nervous, and uses Carter's Iron Pills, she cannot be for their maker her "red line" a different one, so they all say, and their husbands say so, too.

Our Grandmother's Way

Was to steep root and herbs and use it every night. We can do the same by using Park's Tea. Nothing acts so promptly and without discomfort. Not a pill nor a cathartic but moves the bowels every day.

The Home Boat

The home boat Elwood arrives on Sunday and Wednesday; leaves from Corvallis down Tuesday, and Saturday for Portland; built for Salem route; patronize Salem merchants; rate always reasonable. F. J. Smith, agent. Wharf foot of State street.
