MORE STATE BUILDINGS.

A $20,000 Addition to the State Prison Now in Progress.

The state prison board is busy closing arrangements for an addition on the south wing of the penitentiary buildings.

Architect Knighton, who has so successfully planned the Soldiers' home and Reform school buildings for the state, has been ordered to prepare plans and specifications for the same, which will be about 42x50 feet, to be built of brick.

The money for this improvement was appropriated in part by the last legislature, when it looked as though the additional room would be needed at once. It amounts to about $20,000 and although the room is not needed just yet, the frame work will be put up now and the building enclosed. The cells and the inside finishings will be put in when needed. This addition is to conform in style to the one on the north wing, and will add greatly to the appearance of the institution.

The specifications will be ready within a week, when bids will be advertised for, and the contract for building let.

Clark's Bargains.

Three cans of best French sardines for 50 cents.
One quart of tomato catsup 25 cents.
One pound sun dried tea for 30 cents.
Three pounds extra soda crackers for 25 cents.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Local Correspondence from Towns in the Valley.

JEFFERSON.
J. C. Selgund went home on a visit Tuesday.

There is some talk of a ladies' brass band in this city.

Judge Bellinger, of Portland, was in the city on business Saturday.

A Demorest medal contest will be held at the M. E. church next Tuesday evening, May 1st.

Rev. E. B. Sutton, of Seattle, gave a lecture at the M. E. church Tuesday evening, and was well attended.

The young men's Republican club, of this city, will meet at Smith and Jones' hall, Friday evening, April 27th. Good speakers will be present, and everybody is invited to attend.

DIED.—At Jefferson, April 22, 1894, of consumption, T. H. Sheppard, aged 18 years, 3 months and 11 days. Deceased was a son of Mrs. Reife, and a step-son of Mr. Reife, of this city. The funeral services were held at the Evangelical church Tuesday, April 24th, at 2 p. m., by Rev. Longworth, which was witnessed by a large concourse of people who had assembled to pay a last tribute to their esteemed friend. The casket was covered with beautiful floral offerings. The remains were laid to rest in the Jefferson cemetery, on the hill overlooking his home. Henry will be missed by his young associates and friends, who loved him so well.

FROM SUBLINEITY.
Mr. Goody and family have removed to Jordan.

Geo. Krause was visiting at Mt. Angel last week.

Miss Mary Gehlen has returned to her home in Stayton.

Hermann Schellberg was up to 3 e-hams Sunday visiting relatives.

Frank McGinnis and family have departed from here to Turner where he will locate.

Miss Etta Dickerson, of Albany, stopped here a few days, on her way to McMinnville.

A social evening party was held at the residence of Wm. Smith, Tuesday evening. Those present enjoyed themselves hugely by dancing, and were delightfully entertained by the esteemed host and family.

The school directors of this district are very ambitious to have the school property and grounds in good order. We are glad to see the good work go on, but it grieves us to think of the fact that our talent in workmanship is not appreciated. When they hire a workman from Portland to build an out-house instead of giving the contract to our own mechanic, who has already shown his ability to handle the hammer and saw, by the magnificent work on the new post-office, they have our sincere sympathy because we know that the man who could build a post-office could build a public school out-house.

GOVERNORS AND COXIES.

Confound the governors!
Governor Waite, of Colorado, is hand in glove with the Coxies.

If Governor Penneyer of Oregon does not declare openly for them, he is known to sympathize with the movement to harness Cleveland.

If he does not advocate Coxyism on the stump it will be because they have no votes to help make him United States senator.

The Populist Puffer introduces a new bill in the senate of the United States every day for the relief of Coxy and his men, as though they had any more claims upon the public treasury than millions of men who stay at home, obey the laws and endure the hard times like true Americans.

Cleveland nor Penneyer are to blame for the existence of Coxyism. But their political vagaries are. Cleveland on one hand represents an administration that, whatever its policies of government are, he has been unable to apply them to restore order and prosperity to our country.

Waite and Penneyer are apostles of unrest, discontent, calamity, in whose following all the political soreheads, malcontents and cranks expect to march into offices. The great army of discontented and unemployed office-seekers, who pander to ignorance, who stoop to chicanery and demagoguery to get votes, are a greater menace to the welfare and safety of our country than the marching columns of Coxies.

The American people must arouse themselves and regardless of minor differences throw themselves into the breach against a do-nothing administration at Washington and a mischievous, meddling lot of dangerous state-rights demagogues who are encouraging Coxyism all over the land.

IN THE SOCIAL REALM.

INNOVATION AND SURPRISE.

A very pleasant surprise was given Father and Mother Dollarhide, Friday April 20, 1894, by a few friends who met at the home of Mrs. Bennett and marched in double file to their home headed by a loaded wheelbarrow propelled by James Roberts. The door was thrown open and in went the whole brigade wheelbarrow and all nearly loaded down with groceries, canned fruit, dried fruit, cakes, pie, chicken and everything imaginable, and soon the long table was loaded down with a beautiful wedding dinner, it being their fifty-first wedding anniversary. The good neighbors took in everything ready cooked, so all present enjoyed a lovely dinner and it made every one happy to see the old couple enjoy themselves so well. After dinner all gathered in the parlor and listened to an appropriate address by Father Dollarhide. He said he would be 74 years old the 24th day of next August and his companion would be 67 on the same day, that they were the parents of 12 children, 7 of whom have paid the last great debt and gone to inherit their possessions in the land of Beulah, yet he said they had lived a life of happiness and that he would not want to exchange, or go back if he could, that they were perfectly satisfied to continue in the same relation unto the end. "O, he said, if we could all realize the blessings we enjoy as we go along, how happy we would be, that we should love our neighbors as ourselves and this means just what you have all done today." "I realize," said he, "the meaning of this is to help your neighbor if he needs help." He could hardly find words to explain how thankful they were. They sang "Nearer My God to Thee" and were led in prayer by the speaker. All were pleased and went to their homes feeling they had only accomplished one more duty. However, before they separated, on hearing of the poor health of another neighbor, (Mrs. Huntly and two orphan children), who live one block north of the residence of Supt. Downing, there was a paper passed and signed by nearly all present that they would assist her in some way, take her something in the way of food on Tuesday, April 23. Anything any one can do in this direction will be thankfully received. She is a highly respected lady and greatly deserving. This little gathering is one long to be remembered.

PERTINENT PERSONALS.

Editor Hatton, of the Washington Post, is better.

The Populist M. V. Rork is "organizing" in California.

Gen. Granger, U. S. A., died at Washington.

Governor Penneyer opens the Populist campaign at Ashland next Saturday.

The federal courts will imprison one too many editors and then the federal courts will go.

Governor Flower, of New York, has vetoed the bill allowing Sons of Veterans posts to carry arms.

Editor Rosewater, of the Omaha Bee, will win in his case of being imprisoned for contempt of court.

Governor Penneyer will not talk free trade this year. He is after finance, Harvey Scott and Grover Cleveland.

Geo. S. Downing, Senator Matlock and Geo. E. Chamberlain are Democrats who do not believe it is a good year for their party to win.

A matter which gives President Cleveland concern was the permission a local real estate dealer who gave Coxy to encamp in "Woodley Park," which adjoins the president's country place.

Some of the Populists and Penneyer Democrats of the state are going to have Penneyer's first speech in the campaign stereotyped and furnished free to all papers of the state that will publish it. THE JOURNAL will publish it in full.

Nelson Bennet owns no bank stock in this city, save in the defunct Merchants' National. He is rustling a hundred per cent. assessment on what he owns in that concern and is making no noise about it.—Tacoma Ledger.

Here is a suggestion to the proprietors of the Portland Savings bank. Some of them are millionaires and should put up "the stuff."

We should have compulsory arbitration between railroad managers and laborers. The proposition made by Governor Knute Nelson, of Minnesota, to President J. J. Hill, of the Great Northern road, is that the differences between the railroad and the strikers be submitted to arbitration. Yesterday J. J. Hill had consented to arbitrate.

Pops and Pops.

SALEM, Or., April 25, 1894.
ED. JOURNAL: In yesterday's JOURNAL appears an interview of a "Prominent farmer," that it is about the time of Republican "rootbacks" yet out. Your man says too much.

When a Populist says he does not believe in paper money, but does believe in bonds and gold alone as currency, he exposes the cloven hoof.

If a man claims to be a Christian and then says he does not believe in a God and thinks Jesus Christ a humbug and delusion, where would you place him?

If your man ever claimed to be a Populist and believed what you now report and believe him as saying, then he is or was probably the same kind of Populist as the two anarchists who I understand were hired in Portland the other day to lecture among the farmers of this state as representative Populists. It went work, as their doctrines are too well known now. Give us a rest.

HELPING THE LABORING MEN.

Here are the arguments that have helped put the laboring men of our country in their present deplorable condition:

Down with the capitalists!
The bankers are conspirators against labor!
Down with the gold-bug!
The protected manufacturer is a robber!

The argument is highly effective, but it has not materially helped the laboring man. And it never will.
