NORTHERN PACIFIC ARMED.

Coxeyism Is on the Decline at Seattle.

ANOTHER ARMY MOVING IN OHIO.

Gen. Kelly's Army in Iowa About Destitute.

HIATTSTOWN, Md., April 27.—The Coxeyites were astr today at 6 o'clock as usual but did not begin march until 9:30.

CASBY, Iowa, April 27.—Kelly's army found only a solitary basket of bread and a pound of coffee here. He was incensed at the failure to provide food and issued following appeal to Mayor Bemis at Omaha: "We are entirely surrounded by Pinkertons and railroad detectives who are sparing no pains to break up the movement. Send us supplies by rail as soon as possible. We urge you once more to stand by us and hope to make Des Moines by Sunday."

Trains Are Armed.

TACOMA, April 27.—Every train on the Northern Pacific leaving Seattle or Tacoma is accompanied by deputy United States marshals, armed with revolvers and Winchester. The Coxeyites declare they will ride over the Northern Pacific. Marshal Drake says the men understand that they cannot steal a train without serious trouble. The Seattle army is making no progress whatever, being still encamped within a short distance of the city. The Tacoma army of five hundred strong will start tomorrow. It is thought that it is the intention of both armies to meet at Meeker Junction. A squad of deputy marshals is stationed at that point.

A New Army.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 27.—Calvin's army boarded a Baltimore & Ohio freight train, for Columbus, two miles out of Washington court house, and rode to Mount Sterling, where the train was sidetracked, by order of the company. The men refused to get off. The sheriff says he will not act until warrants are issued.

Protecting the Treasury.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., April 27.—Major Rexford, of the United States army, has shipped to the chief of ordnance at Washington, sixty carbines and one hundred rifle-d. He says he has 200,000 rifles and a quantity of carbines which can be shipped on short notice. The major supposes the arms are intended to protect the treasury from attack by Coxeyites.

On the Coast.

PORTLAND, April 27.—Everything is quiet at Troutdale today. No new developments.

SEATTLE, April 27.—The Seattle contingent of the industrial army started eastward today in a drizzling rain. They will reach Meekers early tomorrow.

Latest from Troutdale.

PORTLAND, April 27.—The local mixed train scheduled to leave at 8 o'clock this morning did not go off. A freight train will be sent out this afternoon accompanied by United States Marshal Grady and four deputies.

Pennyroy Refuses Militia.

TROUTDALE, Or., April 27.—Everything was quiet here last night. United States Marshal Grady with sixteen deputies and Sheriff Kelley with twenty-four deputies arrived here, for the purpose of protecting property.

TROUTDALE, April 27.—(1:30 a. m.)—Marshal Grady, Sheriff Kelley and deputies left for Portland at 1 a. m., their further presence being deemed unnecessary.

Sheriff Kelley sent the following to Governor Pennyroy, late yesterday afternoon:

"I am reliably and creditably informed that there is a crowd of lawless people congregated at Troutdale, in this county and state, which is a menace to the peace, good order and welfare of the community. Property, I am informed, is in danger and I make a request of you as commander-in-chief of the militia of the state for sufficient force to keep the peace and good order of the state."

The governor sent the following reply: "I am in receipt of your request of this day on me as commander-in-chief of the militia for a sufficient force to keep the peace and good order in this state, simply because there is a crowd of lawless people congregated at Troutdale. You do not allege any actual breach of peace. This is a civil and not military government, and it is your duty to exercise the civil power to quell any disturbance when it occurs and not to call upon the militia before it occurs."

IN WASHINGTON.

Since the Tacoma and Seattle industrial army has been in preparation to march, Governor McGraw has been kept in constant communication with the authorities along the line.

Puyallup citizens asked the governor to order out companies of the state militia to be in readiness to meet the industrial army, but until the situation warrants it the governor deems such action a plain violation of the laws. He assured the delegation today that whenever the sheriff of Pierce county should report that he was unable to maintain the law and protect the lives and property of citizens he would promptly take the matter in hand and order out the national guard. Adjutant General O'Brien has received from the United States marshal at Spokane a telegram asking that twenty-five carbines be expressed in all haste to equip a posse for protection against the violation of law.

Debated in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Senator Allen's Coxey resolution came up, and Allen stated there would be no objection on the Democratic side to its passage.

Vest, however, opposed it. He declared the men who were marching to Washington would be protected in their rights, but they would have to learn to abide by the laws of the land, and if congress for an instant compromised with them it would open a crevasse which would end in a flood of final destruction.

Wolcott entered a vigorous protest against passing the resolution. It was to be regretted that governors of certain states had been so unwise as to urge these men to make a descent upon the capitol of the United States. His own state had the misfortune to have one of these governors, whose antics had brought discredit and dishonor to his commonwealth and sullied her fair name. There was today no man who sincerely desired to work for the support of himself and his family who could not get work, or bread to put into the mouths of himself and his little ones, until work could be found. I believe the time has come when those of us who are in public life ought to begin to cultivate more regard for the perpetuity of Republican institutions and to pander less to that misled portion of the labor vote whose labor is with their throats and never with their hands. It is time we stood up for American manhood, for the right of every man to work, if he wants to, if it takes the whole army of the United States to enable him to do so. It is time we had courage to stand together against this socialism, populism and paternalism which is running riot in this country and which must end in destruction of liberties which laws give us, liberties which should be dearer to us than life itself.

Dolph, of Oregon, said: "No one has denied the right of citizens to peaceably assemble to petition congress or to visit the capitol. His objection to the resolution laid in the fact that it was accompanied by a lying preamble which was in effect a censure of the authorities of the District of Columbia."

Sealer Conference.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—British Minister Pannecole, Baden Powell, the Canadian representative and Carleton, coffered again with regard to the sealing regulations. Canada asks more than the United States can concede, but the negotiations are approaching a harmonious agreement.

Clothiers Fall.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Henry Newman & Co., importers of clothing supplies, have made an assignment. The firm is the largest in the trade and the failure is said to involve one million.

San Jones, the revivalist, is expected to be present at the Ocean Park camp-meeting, which is held annually at the ocean beach at South Bend, Wash.

EMPLOYMENT OR SUSTENANCE

The Demand of the Michigan Miners.

PRES. HILL WANTS TO ARBITRATE.

The Coal Mining Strikes Are Still Going On.

ESCANABA, Mich., April 27.—Five hundred unemployed miners are parading the streets of Iron Mountain today, carrying a relief flag and demanding food or work. The mayor will send a committee to Lansing asking the governor for help.

The Toluca Mines.

TOLUCA, Mex., April 27.—The miners arrived at Toluca, at 6 a. m., with bands of brass bands and a drum corps. There were nearly 5400. Most of the colored miners that work here, left for other places last night, to avoid a skirmish. The army from Streator and Kangley arrived later. Gill, President J. A. Crawford and Vice President James W. Murray came in on special train. The miners were addressed by Gill, Crawford and Murray, who counseled peace and urged the army to leave, and told the Toluca miners to decide for themselves whether to strike. Finally this was agreed on, and Devlin at once arranged for a special train to take the army home. It is the general impression here that the Toluca miners will not return to work.

National Guard Out.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 27.—The first regiment Illinois National Guard has been ordered to hold itself in readiness to march to Toluca, the scene of the mine troubles.

Hill Wants Arbitration.

ST. PAUL, April 17.—Contrary to expectations, the Great Northern officials were again in conference with a committee of the American railway union today. Both sides expressed themselves firmly opposed to yielding anything, the men demanding the old wage schedule, and Hill asking for arbitration. At eight o'clock the company started a train for Great Falls.

All Called Out.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., April 27.—The American Railway Union this afternoon called out all men in the employ of the Great Northern in the twin cities.

Trains Abandoned.

ST. CLOUD, Minn., April 27.—The Great Northern's attempt to send freight West, has been abandoned.

Must Maintain a Quorum.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Democratic senate leaders realize the time is approaching when it will be necessary for them to maintain a quorum with but little assistance from the Republicans, and have reinforced the official letter of notification to the members sent out by Gorman, chairman of the Democratic caucus, with personal appeals. The Republican senators do not admit they will resort to dilatory measures, but say if the Democrats attempt to enforce unusual hours or precipitate a test of physical endurance, they will resist in any way the rules may justify.

In the house Hepburn, of Iowa, interposed his daily objection to the approval of the journal yesterday and compelled a roll call which resulted in its approval, 237 to none.

At this point became visible the first effect of the attempt to enforce the law of 1856 to "dock" members absent, except on account of sickness. Mahon, of Pennsylvania, precipitated the matter by raising to question the privilege and offering a resolution directing the sergeant-at-arms to pay members their salaries without any deductions on account of absence unless such absence is first certified by some duly authorized officer of the house. A point of order was raised by Kilgore. The point was sustained by the speaker on the ground that it was a matter of law and not under control of the house. He added that he should decline to certify salaries unless members informed him how much salary was due them.

Meyer's Compromise

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Representative Meyer is confident his compromise proposition on the silver question will pass the house, notwithstanding the adverse action of the coinage committee. Meyer proposes to get the compromise directly before the house as a substitute to the free-coinage bill.

WATERSON AT PORTLAND.

States His Views on the Tariff and on Silver.

PORTLAND, April 27.—Col. Waterston, editor of the Louisville Courier Journal was in the city last night.

Speaking of the tariff, he said: "We Democrats in putting the free-trade plank in the Chicago platform thought we were giving to the people what they had been educated up to expect. We still believe it. The Wilson bill does not meet the requirements of that plank, and is therefore wrong. It is neither one thing nor the other. That is the cause of trouble, and its authors and supporters might have anticipated trouble with and to follow it. The duty of the Democratic party was plain—to follow the lines upon which it came into power and work a prompt and radical change in the revenue system. But I fired my gun at the Wilson bill January 8, and let it go at that."

THE SILVER QUESTION.

Regarding silver he said: "I am a bimetalist and it is as such that I have been criticizing both the radical silverites of Colorado and the Bland measure. I have been urging the legitimate position of silver. The United States cannot hope to carry the load of silver for the world. Silver will have to be restored to the moneys of the world. That is, I think, almost certain to be done. What it wants is strong and intelligent champions. Silver has never had a chance."

"The trouble has been that its advocates in several international bimetallic conferences, while they have been professedly in favor were secretly against it. That's the truth of the matter."

Anarchist Arrested.

PARIS, April 27.—An employe of the French war office, named Fenan, has been arrested on a charge of complicity with the anarchists. In his desk the police found incriminating letters, and at his lodgings caps which could be adjusted to explosive bombs.

Ravages of Cholera.

MADRID, April 27.—A special sanitary inspector, sent to Lisbon by the Spanish government, declares the epidemic is true Asiatic cholera. Two hundred and twenty-five cases were reported during the 24 hours ending last evening.

At Walla Walla, Wn., N. E. McEroy was fatally stabbed by a man named Inley, this morning. They were members of forty immigrants, from Ohio, encamped north of town and had a quarrel regarding cooking.

Ex Governor N. S. Berry died today in Bristol, N. H., of pneumonia aged 91. He was the oldest ex governor in the United States.

The Democrats in the senate today decided to accept the proposition made by Aldrich, to vote on the tariff bill as it came from the house at 3 o'clock today. Harris conferred with Democratic senators on the proposition and all agreed to allow a vote to be taken.

The discharge of the old Fort Canby lighthouse-keeper, Anderson, has created considerable indignation at South Bend, Wash. The old man was, the government claimed, "offensively partisan," when, in fact, he has rarely voted during his long term of service.

Harvey Scott introduced Colonel Waterston at Portland last night in a felicitous manner as "a resident of Kentucky, a citizen of the United States."

PACIFIC RAILROAD DEBTS.

A Plan of Adjustment Said to Be Agreed Upon.

BOSTON, April 27.—The Boston news bureau understands from authoritative sources that the executive authorities at Washington and the Union Pacific reorganization committees have agreed on Attorney-General Olney's plan for the adjustment of the Union Pacific debt to the government. Judge Hoadley, as representative of the United States attorney-general, has been at work upon the details of the matter, and on Friday Attorney-General Olney, it is understood, will submit his bill for the adjustment of the railroad debt to the government to which all parties interested, it is believed, will readily consent. It will remain with congress to take up the question of settlement at this session, and Washington advises are to the effect that under the leadership of the Pacific railroad committee the question will be taken up and passed, probably before the tariff legislation is finished. Attorney-General Olney's bill, it is expected, provides for the full payment of the government debt and accrued interest. The lien will remain unchanged and will be improved by the cancellation of $7,500,000 on the first mortgage bonds of the railroad sinking funds in the United States treasury, which will reduce the first mortgage to $28,000,000. This will be extended by the railroad company for seventy-five years with an annual sinking fund of $450,000. The remainder of the Union Pacific sinking fund will be used for the benefit of the property. Until 1905 the Union Pacific will pay 2 per cent per annum on its debt to the government, and after 1905 it will pay principal and interest adjusted upon a 2 per cent interest basis by means of 100 annual payments to the government of $1,950,000 each. It is provided that the total fixed charges of the company shall not exceed $8,500,000 per annum. To accomplish this, it is understood, the reorganization committee has agreed upon 4 per cent general mortgage bonds of absorption of the junior liens of the company, but many of the prior liens will not be interfered with. This government settlement and reorganization of the Union Pacific will be without reference to the Gulf, Short Line and Navigation systems.
