THE COUNCIL AND BONDS.

A Lively Meeting Held, and a 5 Per Cent Ordinance Passed.

The council met last evening in special session on petition of Cross, Dun-done. He thought it might be necescan, Klein, Kay and Holman. All sary for him, if elected governor, to members were present.

Albert asked that the records made to show that the council had met ib adjourned session to consider city hall matters as per adjournment, but was declared out of order.

The special committee to whom the new bond ordinance was referred, reported that the same be passed after mending by changing the rate of interest from 6 per cent. to 5 per cent.

Albert suggested that insamuch as the mayor had vetoed all previous bond ordinances, he had reason to believe that he would not sign this ordinance He also stated that the former ordi nance was a contract with Rollins & sons, and that to repeal it would be o repeal a contract. He thought the souncil ought to take counsel on this ubject before acting, also that the pas age of this bill would be to repudiate the ity's credit. He arged upon the memers that they seriously consider this natter before yoting for the ordinance. and that they act in this matter as they vould for themselves.

Alderman Smith spoke against the new ordinance and stated that it was nis belief its passage would permanent y injure the credit of the city.

Mr. Albert stated that inasmuch a to ne of the council had misunderstood the Rollins bid, he would take it upor h meelf to ask the firm by wire to nike the concession; of the accrued nterest to the city.

Mr. Duncan said he believed that al the members who favored this ordi nance were acting in good faith, and purely in the interest of the city. He believed that not more than one mem ber of the council had understood the Rollins bid as interpreted,

Mr. Holman moved that the question be deferred to Thursday evening. Aye, Smith, Holman, Gray, Albert: Jon. no, Dunean, Cross, Kay, Klein, The chair voted no and the motion was

Mr. Albert again appealed to the council for an opportunity to advise R dlins & Co. of the action of the council, when the following vote was had on the new ordinance: Ayes, Duncan, She is winning a name for herself by Cross, Kay, Klein, Holman; noes Smith, Gray, Albert. The ordinance passed, Adjourned.

ANOTHER SESSION.

The council was now re-convened to consider city hall matters. On motion tie members went into committee of the whole, and Alderman Duncan was called to the chair.

Contractor Southwick was upon mo tion invited to address the council, He stated that his firm was willing to A. M. E. ## The Democratic Rally.

Last evening at the opera house ocaudience greeted the speakers, J. K. Weatherford, candidate for congress, made the opening address, and was followed by D. V. S. He states in all his speeches that he will not accept more than the constitutional salary of governor, if elected. He does not allow himself to discuss Gov.
