MARY WASHINGTON HONORED

Cleveland Assists at Unveiling Her Monument.

STANDING IN WITH COXEYISM.

Gov. Lewelling of Kansas Favors the Train Stealers.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., May 9.—A special train with the president and party left Washington at 9 o'clock to attend the ceremony of unveiling the Mary Washington monument.

An immense crowd surrounded the station here when the train arrived. As the procession wound its way from the station to Green Knoll, where the sons and daughters of the revolution and the distinguished guests were assembled, it was cheered by thousands. President Cleveland responded to the address of Governor O'Ferral, saying: "I speak for those who are today greeted as official guests of Virginia and Fredericksburg. We have assembled on equal terms to worship at a sacred national shrine. Nothing can be more important to those who have assumed the responsibility of self-government than cultivation and stimulation among themselves of sentiments which enoble, elevate and strengthen humanity. Purity and moral health are in nothing better exemplified than in love and reverence for motherhood."

Trouble at Spokane.

Spokane, Wash., May 10.—The Spokane Coxeyites are very much disturbed. The traitorous conduct of Leader Dolphin and the vigilance of the authorities have crushed their spirits, and desertions are numerous. Deputy United States Marshal Vinson went out to Hilliard at noon today to serve papers of injunction issued by Judge Hanford, restraining the common wealers from interfering with the property of the Great Northern railroad.

A committee from the Spokane trades council with Jumbo Cantwell, commander of the Tacoma army, at invitation of Dolphin, went out to Hilliard this morning to investigate the charges of the attempted desertion. The trial of Dolphin will be in the form of a court martial. It is thought Dolphin asked this for protection, until he can get out of town as there are threats of lynching.

Lewelling's Twaddle.

TOPEKA, Kansas, May 10.—Governor Lewelling has sent the following telegram to James Hurt, the sheriff at Horace Kansas: "Your telegram, asking for troops for the arrest of the 500 men who have stolen the Missouri Pacific train, is received. Was the train stolen in Kansas? Have any depredations been committed in your county? Have warrants been issued and has the process been resisted? Are the men still in your county?"

Steal Another Train.

TACOMA, Wn., May 10.—A special to the News says: Sixty commonwealers stole a train of coal cars at Clealum at noon and turned it on the main line of the Northern Pacific railroad. No engine is on the train but it is down grade eastward and the cars are easily started.

The men say they will stop at Ellensburg, twenty-five miles east of here, but it is feared that they will not be able to keep control of the train.

Deputies With Rifles.

NORTH YAKIMA, May 10.—There has been no further encounter between the deputy United States marshals and the industrialists. The latter say they will take the first East bound freight. Deputy Marshal Ed. Minch, of Tacoma, is here in charge of about fifty specials, and Joe Warren arrived this morning from Spokane, with twenty-seven men, all armed with rifles.

Protecting Coxey.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—In the senate today, Allen of Nebraska, introduced a bill to repeal the act regulating the use of the capitol grounds, under which Coxey and his lieutenants were prosecuted.

Armed With Clubs.

HOBINGTON, Kan., May 9.—The Coxeyites reached Horace at noon. They turned the engine, which before had been running tender first, and started east. There are about 300 men on board armed with clubs.

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 10.—Fetter introduced a resolution for the appointment of a special committee to investigate the condition of the country, with special reference to the prevailing business depression, and as to what legislation would afford relief. Allen's resolution to investigate the police clubbing May 1st, then came up.

Double Lynching.

TOPEKA, Kan., May 10.—A special to the Capital from Sharon Springs, Kansas, says: One of the most determined mobs that ever congregated in this portion of the state, on Monday lynched William McKinley and his son Lewis, for the murder of Charles Garley, committed one week ago.

News of the double lynching reached the outer world for the first time today. About a week ago Charles Garley, son-in-law of William McKinley, was murdered. Investigation revealed the fact that Fred, the 17-year-old son of McKinley senior, committed the crime. The boy, when arrested, made a confession, stating that he had been induced to kill his brother-in-law by his father and his older brother, Lewis.

The motive for the murder seemed principally revenge and hatred. The murdered man had only a few weeks before, married McKinley's daughter. It had been stipulated before the marriage that the groom was to pay the bride's father $200 for the privilege of marrying. The groom refused to pay this money after he was married and thus incurred the enmity of his wife's father and brothers. The boy surprised Garley while asleep, cutting him horribly with a garden hoe. He was found dead and horribly mutilated. On Monday the three were arraigned in court, where Fred pleaded guilty as charged, but his father and Lewis pleaded not guilty; waived trial and were placed in the county jail. Late on Monday night a mob of several hundred men took father and son to a railroad bridge, about half a mile west of town and lynched them.

Dynamiters at Work.

JACKSON, Mich., May 10.—An attempt was made last evening to blow up the prison with dynamite. As the convicts were marching to their cells, Edward Huntley, John Demant and Arthur Lawrence broke from the ranks. One seized a guard and another sprang up into a window and attempted to light a fuse in connection with a dynamite bomb. Deputy Northrup and Captain Stone arrived in time to quell the disturbance, and the convicts were soon locked in their cells. The warden says there have been rumors of dynamite in the prison for over a year, but no trace of it could be found.

Fatal Collision.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., May 10.—A head on collision between a passenger train from Minneapolis and a freight train, occurred near Menominee junction. The trains were running slowly and approaching a bridge. The express messenger and mail clerk were killed outright. The fireman had both legs cut off and died. Several others were badly injured.

Oregon's Endeavors.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL
CORVALLIS, Oregon, May 10.—The seventh annual convention of the Oregon Cattle Ender Union, convened here today at 2 p. m. Two hundred and fifty delegates, from throughout the state will be in attendance during the four day's session. J. H. Will a Bar, of Boston, Mass., will deliver two addresses, and a number of other noted Christian workers are in attendance.

Horr Opens the Ball.

PORTLAND, May 10.—The campaign in this city was opened last night by Hon. Roswell C. Horr, of Michigan, on behalf of the Republicans, at the Marquis Grand opera house. He spoke for about two hours to a crowded house. His speech was principally devoted to tariff and a scattering review to the present administration.

COXEYITES MAKING WAR.

Several Deputy Marshals Shot at North Yakima.

STOLEN TRAIN WRECKED IN KANSAS.

The Men Growing Desperate and the Situation Worse.

TACOMA, May 10.—A fight took place at North Yakima at 7:30 last evening between marshals and industrialists. Deputy Marshals Chidester and Jolly, of Tacoma, were shot, the first named in the leg and the latter through the bowels. He is bleeding internally. Twenty shots were fired in the melee. Three Seattle Coxeyites, received flesh wounds from revolvers. "Buck," a Seattle Coxeyite, who was the leader of the crowd, had two fingers broken with a club. Intense excitement reigned at Yakima. The fight was the result of the determination on the part of the Coxeyites not to leave a train which has been held there since 10 o'clock this morning. At 2 o'clock 13 deputies attempted to take out the train, Chidester being in charge. The industrialists swarmed over the train and outnumbered the marshals. The latter gave up after two attempts to oust the army and stamed back to Yakima, two miles from the scene of the scuffle, and sidetracked the train. Ten deputies from Toppenish responded to Chidester's demand for reinforcements, and 25 more went from Ellensburg. At 7 in the evening the train backed to the bridge over the Yakima river a mile from the town. Half the population followed.

THE FIRST OVERT ACT.

The Coxeyites boarded the train to the number of 150. Chidester says one of them attempted to set a brake. A deputy ordered him to stop. On his refusing, the deputy pulled him away. The Coxeyites then began clubbing the deputy, and shooting commenced. Then the Coxeyites retreated, breaking a switch and piling rocks on the track, but afterwards removed them. When the fight began stones were thrown at the engineer and firemen, attempting to dislodge them. The train backed into Selah station after the fight, where it is now. Surgeon Hill went from Yakima to attend the wounded. Chidester was secretary of the Tacoma city Democratic committee in the recent campaign. The industrialists in Yakima had been in a disturbed state all day. They were much incensed in the afternoon by a marshal clubbing a Coxeyite, and threatening to lynch him. Some citizens say that some of the Coxeyites have been proclaiming that they had guns and did not propose to give them up. The industrialists deny this, and claim the marshals shot themselves. During the melee this evening, several industrialists were slightly injured by being thrown from the train.

Adjutant Fitting, of Seattle went to Yakima from Ellensburg this evening and demanded food and shelter for the army. The city council granted leave for the members to sleep in the city hall tonight, and food will probably be given in the morning. All along the line the industrialists are in an ugly mood. Thirty of them left Ellensburg tonight to walk over the mountains to Wenatchee, on the Great Northern, where they hope to secure transportation to Spokane and possibly St. Paul.

Will Prove Fatal.

ELLENSBURG, Wn., May 10.—Jack Jolly and W. C. Chidester, United States deputy marshals, who were shot at Yakima last night, were brought here on a freight train early this morning. Jolly is resting easy but it is generally believed his wounds are fatal. Yakima people who came up say that Chidester shot himself.

There are nearly three hundred wealers here, and all greatly excited over the affair, but there is no demonstration of any kind except open denunciation of the deputies. All are very bitter and receive much sympathy from the citizens. It is feared if the deputies remain here trouble will result. Men continue to arrive from the west but mostly aloof.

Coxeyites Wrecked.

ABILENE, Kansas, May 10.—The Coxeyite train is ditched west of Belkirk, and cannot be moved by its possessors. General Attorney Waggoner's special train, with United States deputy marshals, left Salina about 11 o'clock, to capture the party.

THE TARIFF STRADDLE.

The Wilson bill as amended in the senate is a tremendous straddle. It is revenue inconsistency enacted into a bill. It is a free-trade-protection monstrosity that should bring the blush of shame to every tariff reformer who has been operating with the Democratic party on that question. It is an unblushing fraud, that cannot be defended. That sugar should be taken from the free list in the McKinley law, a consistent protective measure, and put on the dutiable list to the amount of forty million dollars as a measure of tariff reform is an inexplicable political mystery. Yet such is the daily diet of the reform Democracy. The people cannot stand much of this sort of diet at present. Thirty-six cent wheat, free wool and forty millions tax on sugar is tariff reform with a vengeance.

No wonder Senator Hoar, of Massachusetts said Tuesday in the tariff debate that Democratic senators who would support such a bill would thereby violate the constitution and their oaths of office. For men who subscribed to the doctrine of the Chicago platform that a tariff for protection was robbery, who went as candidates before the people declaring that such a tariff was unconstitutional and a fraud—for such men to seek to get the benefit of protective duties for their states—this appeared to Hoar as reaching the pinnacle of political cupidity. It is idle for these men to excuse the sugar tax as a duty for revenue. The McKinley bill supplied plenty of revenue with sugar on the free list. The tariff straddle ought to be trampled under foot by all honest men. The breach between the two legs it stands on is too wide to be bridged without dishonor.

Honest men of all parties ought to begin to realize that there is no consistent honorable ground to stand between the two theories of tariff-free trade and protection. It is impossible to occupy any middle ground and have a prosperous country. As Lincoln said our country must be all slave or all free, so the tariff policy of the United States must be all-around protection or all-around free trade. If the Pacific coast wants protection for prunes, hops and wool we must concede the right to protect all other great self-sustaining national industries. Whatever can be produced in sufficient quantities here at home in our country must be given the first choice in the home market. Tariffs must be laid for protection first, revenue second. To raise the four hundred millions required for expenses of our national government, duties must be levied on imported goods. The constitution requires that revenues be so raised, and the right to favor, protect, encourage and foster American industries cannot be denied successfully, when at the same time, the men denying the protective principle are seeking to give some special locality, or some special interest the benefit of protection. Consistency and honesty requires that men who are mean stand somewhere. They must stand for protection as a principle or for free trade as a theory. They are afraid of the latter one, by their straddle they confess the correctness of protection.

Henry Watterson, the great Kentucky journalist, was recently in Oregon, and when asked about our state said: "I was surprised to find so marked a difference between California and Oregon, and which is decidedly in Oregon's favor. Particularly is this true of its climatic conditions. I am a lover of perpetual verdure, and from the time I approached the Oregon line until I arrived here I found a continuous vision of landscape beauty, and I was impressed with the fact that the fertility of the soil of the Rogue river and Willamette valleys surpasses even the picturesqueness of the scenery."

POSTOFFICE THIEVES CAUGHT.

The Men Who Took the Stamps at Aumsville Caught.

Yesterday Sheriff Knight received word from Portland that the officers there had captured what they believed to be the men who robbed the store and postoffice at Aumsville. He went down after his men and today brought them up for trial. They are James Boggau and Sam Robinson, and are now in the county jail awaiting trial. Mr. Knight also brought up the postage stamps taken from the men, as evidence of their crime, amounting to about $10 in one and two cent Columbian stamps. There is little doubt as to the identity of the men as one of them is known to have been seen at Aumsville the day before the robbery. Sam Robinson was brought before Squire Batchelor this afternoon and pleaded not guilty. Later he withdrew the plea and waived examination. He was bound over in the sum of $800, and in default to furnish bail, was jailed. James Boggau was next brought up. Waiving examination he received the same treatment as his partner.

Meeting of Presbytery.

The Presbytery of the Willamette, of the Presbyterian church, met in this city yesterday afternoon, with Rev. Hutchinson, the moderator, in the chair. The relationship of Rev. Dr. Townsend and the Independence church was dissolved on account of the health of his family, and he was placed at Newport.

Arrangements were made for the installation of Rev. Hutchinson as pastor of the Salem church. Mr. D. H. McCullough was given temporary license to preach and will be under the presbytery.

Mr. Bert Wright, of Lebanon, was taken under the charge of the Presbytery while preparing for the ministry. —Albany Democrat.
