

FRIDAY, MAY 11, 1894.

SUGGESTED COMMENT.

"No brass bands," but "brass," pure and simple, is what Pennoyer relies upon.

GOVERNMENT CONTROL.

Railroads are slipping unconsciously into government control. These corporations have always resorted to the courts to protect themselves against attempted control and regulation by the state.

THE PROPER CAPER.

New tea gowns of rose colored india silk are trimmed with ecru guipure lace.

STAGE GLINTS.

Mrs. Bernard Beere is recruiting her strength in Cornwall.

Edwin Hoff will probably not be heard again in comic opera for many months.

"Janey Jane Shore," the new burlesque at the Strand, London, is being licked into shape.

Ada Marie Vallean, the society beauty, did not appear in "Willie" with Charles Dickson.

Mrs. Langtry, Rose Leclercq and Fred Kerr will have parts in the new comedy by Robert Buchanan and Henry Murray soon to be acted at the Opera Comique, London.

Julius Knight, who played the Hon. Julian Belford in the American production of "The Prodigal Daughter," is now acting Valentine in "Faust" with Henry Irving.

Frank Harvey, the author of numerous plays, has just produced a new one called "Shall We Forgive Her?"

Lady Violet Greville's adaptation of "Le Gendre de M. Porrier" under the title of "An Aristocratic Alliance," is poor stuff.

Alice Pierce, the remarkable child actress, was not permitted to appear in the title role of "Hannele," the vision play which the Rosenfeld brothers produced at the Fifth Avenue theater, New York.

Narrow widths of water silk ribbon are used for alternate bands, with lace and jet insertions, forming handsome dress and cape garnitures.

A velvet ribbon edged with a tiny, single row of cut jet spangles makes an effective and very becoming flake trimming for silk or sheer woolen gowns.

Alpaca is this year used for bathing suits, this fabric, it is claimed, being in every respect better for bathing in the surf than serge or the heavier wools that absorb a great amount of water to no purpose.

Very pretty tennis and yachting costumes are made of cream white hop-sacking finished with white silk machine stitching, the short open jacket showing a blouse of white fayetta striped with wool lace insertion.

Very wide turn over collars and cuffs of linen are worn. They are not universal becoming by any manner of means, but they are made less "trying" by the addition of very fine torchon lace to the edges of both collar and cuffs.

Covert cloth and shepherd's check fancy suitings, in 50 inch widths, are used by ladies' tailors for walking and traveling costumes for the present season.

Black velvet ribbon is the chosen garniture for these gowns.—New York Post.

TURF PHILOSOPHY.

Why should not blacksmiths be licensed?

There's many a slip 'twixt the jock and the whip.

There is as much difference in horses as in anybody.

It is the "purse proud" meetings that draw the horses that draw the people under which the receiver was appointed.

The corporations have awakened a dangerous power here which, if they cannot control it, will end in absolute government control.

The struggle will be transferred to the control of the courts. Let the people once understand what powers a judge has over a public corporation and the question of electing men to the bench becomes important.

Young Prize Fighters.

CHICAGO, May 10.—Two 10 year-old prize fighters, with their fathers as seconds, today were arrested for engaging in a ring battle.

The boys, James Kitley and John Dawey, fought 13 hot rounds in a grove at Vincennes and Second street before a good sized crowd last night, and were seconded and urged on by their fathers.

The principles and their paternal seconds were heavily fined.

THE JEWELER'S WINDOW.

A new spoon has an Egyptian design of lotus leaves on the handle.

Mucilage bottles and perfume bottles seem to vie with one another in new and attractive forms.

An aquamarine with an antique head in high relief was set in a frame of rubi spinels and olivines connected by small diamonds. This was a work of art.

New white morocco purses and card-cases have flat borders of gold or silver gilt, not ornamented, but highly burnished. These are marvelously elegant and quiet.

Jewelers of romantic fancy provide deep-petaled flowers which inclose little white ring boxes for the presentation of jewels. These floral emblems are chiefly used over the footlights.

Fancy pencils for the watch chain seem from their frequency to be much sought after. Some of them are very ingenious, the pencil running through rings, dogs, monkeys and other animals.

The New York Basket to the Cash Block is the place to buy shes.

Was; waits at Holmerson & Co's.
