LITTLE LOCALS.

Cool weather continues favorable to fruit, grains and grasses. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Saubert, business manager of the Statesman, May 15th, a son. The twelfth annual convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Oregon will take place in this city on the 19th to 21st in the Methodist church. The executive committee will hold its annual session Saturday afternoon and evening, the 19th. The statesman has a new business manager. Ask Geo. Saubert about it and you will get a cigar. The political air begins to fairly bubble. Mr. and Mrs. John Vanderpool have had the misfortune to lose their infant son, aged nearly four months. Funeral from their residence on Oak and Bellevue streets, Thursday at 2 p. m. Miss Fannie Condon, who has been visiting a week at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. S. Bean, returned to her home at Eugene today. Mrs. Adelle Allen, nee Bowersox, went to Corvallis today, after visiting a week with her parents. R. C. Reed went to Portland this afternoon on a business trip. Lee Steiner, the druggist, is in Portland for the day. J. W. Wilson returned from Brownsville this afternoon, where he left his family for a short visit.

THE KINDER SYMPHONY.—The program presented by the Kinder Symphony club at Reed's last evening pleased as fine an audience as often assembled in Salem. Rapt attention was held from the first number until the last, and all who attended were pleased throughout. The combination work by the young women of the club was exceptionally pleasing and well wrought, displaying great artistic skill on the part of all performers. Mrs. Biely's recitation pleased her friends intensely, and greatly increased that lady's fame as a public speaker. The crowning event of the evening was the violin solos by Miss Blanche Beatrice McCord, as her repeated encores amply testified. She is an accomplished artist, and while her selections did not cater to the popular demands, they were every note appreciated. Many expressed the hope that Miss McCord would at some future time favor Salem with her sweet music. Mr. Fagan's vocal solo acquainted many Salem people with an excellent new voice in our midst.

Mrs. Kloetsch Dead.—Many friends of Jacob Kloetsch, a prominent farmer in this county (three miles from Stayton), will be pained to hear of the death of Mrs. Kloetsch on May 12th. She has been a constant sufferer from rheumatism for many months and died surrounded by all the care and comforts of a loving husband and devoted children could place about her. All that human aid could render was done for her, and a noble Christian mother sleeps in peace.

A FINE COLT.—Mel Hamilton's fine inauguration mare dropped a perfect horse colt by Rockwood on Monday. It is a perfect animal and the very picture of the dam.

A FOOT RACE.—The greatest foot race that ever took place in Salem is the daily race for those bargains at Geo. W. Johnson & Son's clothing house.

CAMPAIGN BALL.—A grand campaign ball, given by the Macleay Republican club, on the night of Friday, June 1st. All are cordially invited to attend.

The Salem steam laundry is gaining ground every day for good work and public appreciation.

No scarcity of feed at Brewster and White's. Chop, oats, wheat, hay, flour, etc. Prices bed rock.

It will pay you to look out for those special bargains at The Fair every Saturday.

Sand, gravel and building material of all kinds to please patrons and close buyers.

Columbia shoe store selling out everything going at cost.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Toose returned to Woodburn this afternoon.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma.

THE POLITICAL CAMPAIGN.

Hastings Resound With the Pleas of the Orators.

Chairman Crohan is extremely busy at his headquarters answering correspondence and arranging public meetings. There is great demand for speakers in all parts of the county.

SOUTH SALEM.
Walter L. Toose and C. B. Moores addressed an enthusiastic meeting at the old South Salem schoolhouse last night. The university band put in an appearance and played some stirring tunes. Mr. O'Flynn, the Populist leader, asked a series of questions of the Republican speakers, who answered promptly. This is one of the precincts the Populists claim to be able to carry.

EAST SALEM.
A large meeting was held last night at the R. E. Wands schoolhouse, three miles east. D. E. Swank and E. Hofer had a joint debate. Lon Gesner, Republican candidate against Mr. Swank for joint senator, made a fifteen minute talk that surprised all. Mr. Gesner showed himself to be a man of solid thought, clear views and good ability to express them. Geo. E. Allen spoke a few minutes for the Democratic side.

THE FULTON MEETING.
The Republican rally to be held at Salem on Saturday evening, the 19th inst. will be an affair of more than usual merit. The arrangements are in charge of Hon. D. H. Looney, member of the state central committee from Marion county, and it will be a rousing Republican ratification. The speaker of the evening will be Hon. C. W. Fulton, of Astoria, but all the nominees for state and county offices on the Republican ticket are expected to be in attendance. There will be music by several bands and an excursion by steamer from Independence. The Republican club and several bands will meet the speakers at the train and escort them to the city. The Multicolor quartette of Portland will be here and sing during the evening and everything will be done to make the meeting a grand one. People will be here by the thousands from all parts of the county.

THE HORN MEETING.
Thursday evening will bring people to Salem from many miles out. The ladies alone will almost fill the opera house. It is a noticeable fact that the women of our country are quite enthusiastic Republicans this year. Very few ladies have embraced the cause of Populism and they are naturally opposed to fusion with any third party.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.
The silver king and Populist of Nevada, Senator Wm. Stewart, is expected to arrive in Portland on next Sunday for the purpose of beginning a campaign of the state for the Populist party. He will speak at Silverton on Monday, May 22nd, at 1:30 p. m. and will be in Salem for a speech at 7:30 o'clock of the same day.

The Salem Republican club meets at the city council chamber this evening to make arrangements for the proper reception of Messrs. Horr and Fulton at this city.

Geo. G. Bingham will speak at Mill City Saturday evening May 19th. A good meeting is planned, and all should turn out and hear a good talk.

Geo. W. Dimick, the Prohibitionist, and Warren Cradston have a joint debate at Silverton next Tuesday evening, May 23.

That Macleay Shooting.

A game of baseball occurred at Macleay, Marion county, Sunday, between what are known as the Union Hill and Shaw nines, which did not result in a very noticeable manner, says a Salem paper. A new ball was purchased for the occasion, and an agreement was entered into between the clubs that the winners were to claim and thereafter own the ball. The game resulted in favor of the Union Hill boys, but the Shaw nine would not abide by the agreement and kept the ball, which precipitated a free-for-all fight. In the melee two of the Shaw boys drew revolvers, but were quickly divested of their shooting irons and a warrant sworn out for their arrest. One pleaded guilty and the fine and costs amounted to $14. The other preferred to have his case come before a jury.

The above was printed in a Marion county paper and copied in the Portland Telegram. H. Smith and A. N. Lewis of Shaw were in the city today and say it is incorrect. The game of baseball was between the Macleay and Union Hill clubs. The Shaw club never played at all.

They say the ball was put in a young man's pocket, not of their crowd, for the purpose of causing a row. No revolvers were drawn and the report is otherwise exaggerated to the detriment of some of the young men who were present.

QUESTIONS FOR PENNOYER.

A Marion County Farmer Asks the "Pop" Governor Some Questions.

A plain cloth-hopper farmer called at The JOURNAL office today and asked us to print these questions addressed to Governor Pennoyer: You claim to be the friend of the poor man. Why was it that you joined a lumber trust at Portland two years ago and raised the price of lumber $2.00 a thousand and shingles 5 cts. a thousand?

You claim to be the friend of the poor taxpayer. Why is it that you draw nearly four thousand dollars a year as governor when the constitution allows you but $1500 a year? When plenty of towns in eastern Oregon offered an asylum site free of cost to the state, why did the governor favor paying one of his political friends $25,000 for a site?

Can you tell a time in the history of our country when the tariff was attacked that it did not bring about a financial depression and hard times?

A New Railroad.
SAN FRANCISCO, May 16.—Barclay Henley and J. T. Johnson, of this city, together with Calvin Stewart, of Fort Bragg, G. W. Hunt, of Walla Walla, and R. S. Strahan, of Portland, have filed articles of incorporation for a railroad line in Mendocino county. Capital stock is placed at $2,510,000.

Missouri Democrats.
KANSAS CITY, May 16.—In Missouri the Democratic state convention today a substitute for a minority report, was adopted. Then the platform as originally presented by a majority of the committee, was adopted by a vote of 423 to 110.

THE MARKETS.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Local Correspondence from Towns in the Valley.

BROOKS.
Miss Nellie Brown, of Jefferson, came down Sunday.
Squire Evans was a passenger to Salem Saturday.
Elam Shaw and Jack Brooks "biked" it to Salem Sunday.
J. W. Shaffer's were the guests of Geo. Massey's Sunday.

Guy Looney is able to be out again. His little sister Iris is sick at present.
Rev. Royal and wife are attending the conference at Silverton at present.
E. M. Savage and family spent Sunday with Mrs. S's parents on Salem prairie.

S. A. Jones and Elton Shaw attended the teacher's examination at Salem last week.
Little Archie Massey was kicked by a horse which has kept him from school for the past two weeks.

The Gervais, Parkersville and Brooks Sunday schools are making preparations for a union picnic, at the Jones' grove, on Decoration day.

The meeting held here by Mrs. Hatch, of Salem, on last Sunday was well attended. She will speak here again Sunday, May 27th, at 2 o'clock. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

Frank Evans had an accident one day last week that might have proved serious. His horse became uncontrollable. Frank was thrown from his cart and left behind. His friend with him was left in the cart with no means of guiding or stopping the horse and he soon abandoned his unpleasant position, and left the horse and cart to take care of themselves. The cart and harness was soon torn loose from the horse. Luckily no serious damage was done. Frank has a somewhat stiff neck.

FROM AUMSVILLE.
Mr. D. E. Swank has gone to Oregon City.
Andy Hanson's house is receiving its roof.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Anderson are slowly gaining strength.
Mr. Weaver is getting ready to commence working roads. Be very careful and not work them too much.

Frank Pound is fighting the rheumatism every day and sometimes he is boss and sometimes the rheumatism gets the best of him.
All are glad that the Aumsville post-office robbers have been caught, for every one felt as if they individually were suspected, for all are so hard up both for money and for postage stamps.

At church Sunday Rev. Bonnell preached, the subject being, "The plan of Salvation." It is believed that everybody learned something new. The reverend gentleman is full of sound ideas and has a good way of imparting them to his hearers.

Two Republican meetings are announced for the coming week at Aumsville. All parties get a good welcome at this place. No hands, feet nor lungs are spared in making noise whenever anything half good is said. We think that we can beat any town of our size in applauding a speaker, and we will make a very poor speaker believe that he has actually said something smart.

We are all very thankful for the good weather but not very thankful for the late frost. The good Christian people say that the "Lord does all things well" and what seems to be a punishment may be a blessing. I heard one Christian man say that he hoped the frost was hard enough to kill the Sharpless berries and not the Wilson. He had Wilson and I said "Amen" as I had Wilson also.

FROM STAYTON.
Miss Starr left for her home in Salem Monday.

Mr. Jim Davis has gone to Pendleton for a week.

J. W. Dunnivin went to Albany on a business trip Monday.

Miss Williams of Albany, preached at the Baptist church Sunday.

Deputy Sheriff Cooper spent Sunday with his parents.

Miss Mary Wilson left for Salem Monday, to spend the summer.

Gov. Pennoyer will speak at the opera house Wednesday night.

Professor Geddis's brother has been visiting him for the past week.

Rev. Bonnell came over from Silverton to preach Mrs. Kloetsch's funeral sermon.

One of the professors from the Albany college delivered a lecture on "Education" Saturday night; also gave the graduating class a few encouraging words.

Last Wednesday night Professor and Mrs. Geddis gave a very pleasant informal reception, in honor of his graduating class. A few friends and directors and families, being present. Those who were fortunate enough to be present were: Mr. and Mrs. Elder, Dr. and Mrs. Kitchens, Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard, Misses Pearl Hobson, Bertha Anderson, Lucy Robertson, Susie Kerns, Alice Davie, Cora Cooper, Maud Kress, Nellie Starr, Ollie Robertson, Lena Montgomery, Alice Balsley, Dean Kitchens, Minnie Mangie, Daisy Geddis, and Minnie Dunniven, Messrs. B. Cooper, W. Richardson, B. Davis, Y. Richardson, H. Mack, G. Titus, R. Savage, E. Huntley, Ed. Keen, Bert Keen, Davy Smith, George Brown, and Fred Landreth.

The principal event of the past week was the commencement exercises at the opera house Friday night. No event in all Stayton's brilliant past has outranked in beauty of environment and delightful experiences the exercises tendered the public on Friday evening by the students of the graduating class of the high school. The opera house and stage was transformed into a palace of floral beauty by the artistic taste and skill of the young ladies. No one could suppress exclamations of delight as they entered the familiar hall so wondrously changed by the use of flags, evergreens and the richest blossoms of spring. Promptly at eight o'clock the exercises opened with song, "America" after which the graduating class marched in from the main entrance, to the sweet strains of a march played by Miss Dean Kitchens, lead by the professor onto the stage where they were seated. Rev. Spangler of Jefferson addressed the class in a very appropriate and impressive manner, following the essays of the graduates were read which proved quite interesting. The five young ladies looked very charming in their pretty gowns and lovely bouquets, while the ten young men were equally as interesting in their new black dress suits and white badges. And no doubt the scene will live in the memory of all present as one of the most pleasing features of the season. Some very excellent music was rendered by Mrs. A. Smith. The entertainment closing with a few pleasant remarks from Professor Geddis.

FROM MARION.
W. J. Hadley and J. C. Hundly went to Albany last Thursday on business.

Rev. C. R. Scott attended the state Christian Endeavor at Corvallis last week, and returned home last Monday at 1 p. m.

Mr. Cole, of La Camas, Wash., who is now on his way to Iowa, stopped off here and spent last Tuesday visiting his brother-in-law, W. C. Webb.

M. D. Ellis, Republican candidate for justice of the peace in this district, clerked in Hadley & White's store last Thursday, during Mr. Hadley's absence.

Roy Gardner, a grandson of Asahel Gardner, is here visiting his grand parents. He is one of the employees of the Oregon Land Co., and is off for a vacation for a few days.

A. L. Patton and L. F. Wiseman have a contract for furnishing the S. P. R. R. Co. a large amount of oak lumber and are now engaged in hauling the logs to Forsythe & Hunter's mill.

Mrs. A. J. Aekerblad, of Shreveport,

La., daughter of Stephen Fread, has been here for some time, visiting her parents and other relatives, and expects to remain here until about the 1st of June.

Mary Cook and Lena C. Hinshaw, have been in Salem for several days past. They were called there on account of the illness of Mrs. W. F. Ohms, of Highland, who is the daughter of the former and sister of the latter.

Somebody broke into J. W. Winslow's residence last Thursday, but nothing of much importance was taken, and no damage done except a stove hook being broken, it is supposed, in trying to open a trunk that was locked.

TURNER.
Mr. Raymo Hillary of Iowa is visiting his uncle, W. M. Hillary.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Miller of Stayton were visiting their son "Jacky" last week.

Two members were received on probation in the M. E. church Sunday morning.

The citizens of Turner see the crane hanging upon the door of their saloon. It is closed.

Judging from the size of the lunch baskets, the Grangers have a pretty good time.

A Union Temperance meeting was held at the Baptist church Sunday evening. There was a good attendance and an entertaining program.

Mrs. Geo. Perrin and family, lately from Japan are visiting their relatives and friends while Mr. Perrin attends the convention in the east.

Walter Willis drove down from Creswell last Wednesday to spend a week at home. He seems to be well pleased with the country up there.

Rev. Townsend and family were visiting their many friends in Turner for a few days last week. They expect to make Newport their home this summer.

The Grange met here last Saturday and judging from the attendance it seems to be prospering. Mrs. J. Duncan and Mrs. Cornelius were invited to spend lecturer's hour with them.

TURNER.
Mr. C. F. Catterlin, real estate agent of Salem, passed through here Friday.

Mr. L. Gesner finished a survey in the Waldo hills and gave us a call last Wednesday.

Mr. Linsey, the proprietor of the Exchange hotel, took a trip to the county seat Friday.

Mr. L. Cavenaugh went to the capital city on business last Saturday accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. Browning.

Mr. T. Miller has purchased a new outfit and set up a barber shop in J. Witcheson's back room on Second street.

Miss Mary Galen, of Stayton, is a visitor at Mr. and Mrs. Browning's who are making arrangements to start back East.

Mr. C. H. Dairymple, an Albany Populist, addressed the people on the political issues of the day on Wednesday night.

The grand entertainment given in the Baptist church on Sunday evening was a great success. The program was rendered by Miss H. Thomas, Miss E. Watson, then a song by the little girls and Mrs. J. C. Robertson read a declaration showing and telling why we should be Prohibitionists, then three cheers were given by the audience for the crane hoot on the saloon door after which it was closed.
