THE SUSQUEHANA FLOODED.

Hundreds of Families Driven from Their Homes.

TRAINS AND TELEGRAPH PARALYZED

Dozens of Pennsylvania Towns Inundated by Water.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., May 21.—With the horrors of the disastrous flood of '89 which spread death and destruction throughout this valley, brought back to memory by the threatened danger of a swoop of water that promises to be as great as that of five years ago, the people of this city and throughout the west branch of the valley are in a state of panic that turned the usually quiet Sunday into one of remarkable excitement. Since Friday night a steady and almost continuous downpour of rain has been swelling all the streams, and late last night numerous cloud bursts along Pine creek and other tributaries of the west branch of the Susquehanna have made it impossible to confine the water within the banks of the streams. It has therefore spread out over the country, and at every point is pouring into the main river.

Darkness last night settled over the city, and the rain, which had been falling all day, was still coming down in torrents. The river is coming up rapidly.

The Worst Known.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., 1 P. M., May 21.—The water reached thirty feet above low water mark, one foot higher than the disastrous flood of 1889. The entire city is under water from four to twenty-five feet. The rain is falling in torrents and the water is still rising six inches an hour. All the logs at the boom, which broke this morning at 1 o'clock, have been swept away as well as many saw mills and houses in the lower part of the city.

The loss already has reached more than a million dollars. Unless relief soon comes it will be three times as much. No trains have arrived or departed in 24 hours.

The Flood in Pennsylvania.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., May 21.—The river continued to rise during the night and nearly the entire business portion of the city is under water. There has been no telegraph communication with Lock Haven since 5 o'clock yesterday.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 21.—The flood has stopped traffic completely. The business portion of Johnstown is under water. The damages will amount to $700,000. Two lives were lost.

WARREN, Pa., May 21.—Row boats took the place of street cars here today.

All Trains Stopped.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., May 21.—All trains on the Dunkirk & Alleghany Valley road have been abandoned owing to the damage to its tracks by the storm. A portion of the large bridge at Loana is washed away. There is a heavy landslide covering the tracks for quite a distance between Falcione and Reggy, and the railroad bridge at Frowersburg is washed out.

Communication Cut Off.

PHILADELPHIA, May 21.—At 5 p. m. last night, the Western Union force at Lock Haven was driven out of the office by the flood and since then nothing has been heard from there. The office is located in the center of town, some distance from the river, and the destruction must be very great.

Terrible Flood

BRADFORD, May 21.—The worst flood in Bradford's history is rushing through the Tuna valley today. Twenty streets contiguous to the creek are inundated, and hundreds of families are in the swim. The east and west branches of the Tuna are both transformed into good-sized rivers.

Mills Stopped.

PHILADELPHIA, Penn., May 21.—At Manunk, the mills have stopped. Water is rushing through the streets and the inhabitants are huddled about in boats. The water is about four feet deep in the stockyards of West Philadelphia.

Abandoning Homes.

NEWPORT, Pa., May 21.—Junata is 25 feet above low water mark. The families on Front street have abandoned their homes. The water is flooding the first stories of the houses.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder World's Fair Highest Award.

Streets Submerged.

PITTSBURG, May 21.—Dispatches from many points along the Alleghany river report great damage done at Etina and Sharpburg. The streets are submerged and thousands of dollars worth of garden truck is ruined. Adrian Wichel, aged fifteen, when trying to rescue a team near Etina, was drowned.

Heavy Losses.

DANVILLE, May 21.—In the Genesee valley the water is two feet above the high water mark of the great freshet five years ago. As far as the eye can see is an expanse of water, timbers, and wreckage. The farmers will lose hundreds of thousands of dollars in crops.

City Filling Up.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 21.—The Genesee river is within a foot of the high water mark. Cellars in the business portion of the city are filling with water and the river is on a level with several of the railroads. It is still rising.

Johnstown's Loss.

JOHNSTOWN, Penn., May 21.—Johnstown is experiencing the most disastrous flood since the big flood May 31, 1889. The damage will amount to at least $800,000. The Pennsylvania railroad is the heaviest loser.

River is Falling.

JOHNSTOWN, May 21.—At 1 p. m. the river is falling rapidly. Three buildings were carried away in the central part of the city, and many others were badly damaged.

Flats Inundated.

OIL CITY, Pa., May 21.—In this city, the flats are inundated and the barements are flooded. This is the district that was wiped out on June 5, 1892, with a loss of sixty-nine lives.

COXEY, BROWN AND JONES

Sentenced Today for Trespass on Capital Grounds.

OFFERED $14,000 FOR HIS VOTE.

Two Witnesses Testify Against Senator Kyle.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Judge Mills today sentenced Coxe, Browne and Jones to twenty days imprisonment in jail for displaying banners on the capitol grounds, on the occasion of the May day demonstrations. Coxe and Browne were also sentenced $500 fine or ten days imprisonment for trespassing on the capitol grounds.

Forty Rearrested.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., May 21.—Late Saturday night General Saunders and his army of 50 commonwealers were rearrested, individually, to be arraigned for preliminary hearing today.

$14,000 for His Vote.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 21.—Before the senate committee today Senator Huston and son testified that Senator Kyle told the committee about two months ago that he was approached by Buttz with a proposition to pay him $14,000 for his vote.

Tariff Tinkering.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—In pursuance of an order adopted Friday the senate met at 10 o'clock today. The metal schedule of the tariff bill was taken up. The first amendment was that reported from the finance committee, placing a duty of forty cents on iron ore.

THE MARKETS.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—Wheat May 97; Dec. $1.05.

CHICAGO, May 21.—Cash, 53; July 57.

PORTLAND, May 21.—Wheat valley 83@85; Walla Walla 75 @77.

AT MILL CITY.—Saturday, County Assessor Coffy and Hon. Geo. G. Bingham went up to Mill City, and held a Republican meeting in the evening. Mr. Bingham made a good speech to a fine audience.

NEW FACTORY.—The Cornelius Wood Working company filed articles of incorporation today, with a capital stock of $4000.

TAKE A SWING.—The grand horse swing will start up tonight at 478 High street. Try it.

Hon. T. J. Black, collector of customs at Portland, is in the city.

SAVED FROM THE GALLOWS.

A Divorced Wife Saves a Man's Neck.

SEVEN ANARCHISTS EXECUTED.

The Coxeyites Taking Their Medicine Everywhere.

YREKA, Cal., May 21.—The cloud which has hung over George Decker, the Yreka rancher, for two weeks, was cleared up Saturday by the arrival of his wife and daughter, whom he was accused of murdering years ago. The case is a remarkable one, the murders charged to him by credulous citizens numbered ten and he was looked upon by his neighbors as a monster of iniquity. They were barely prevented from lynching him after his arrest. Decker claimed innocence, and his attorney set to work to find the missing woman and child, whose bones some boys were alleged to have found. He found them living in Colours not two hundred miles away, totally ignorant of Decker's peril. They arrived at Yreka and Decker was discharged from custody. Both he and his wife had married again and raised families and tonight a family reunion was held at which Decker's escape from peril was celebrated.

Powderly Expelled.

PHILADELPHIA, May 21.—Terrance V. Powderly, ex-general master workman of the Knights of Labor, T. W. Wright member of the general executive board of the knights, and F. H. Quinn, master workman of District Assembly No. 90, an ardent supporter of Powderly, have been unceremoniously expelled from the Knights of Labor. It is alleged that they were expelled for attempting to break up the order and unite it with the Federation of Labor. Although a chance of appeal is given Powderly, the Knights of Labor feel confident that he will never again be a member of the organization.

The Wool Crop.

HEPNER, May 21.—It has rained for the past 18 hours very hard. It may do some damage to wool that is sheared and not properly covered, but will be of incalculable benefit to the grain and fruit crops. There is over 500,000 pounds of wool in the warehouses here ready for sale. The first sales of the season were made yesterday. Two clips of about 15,000 pounds each were sold. The price paid has not yet been made public, but did not exceed 9 cents.

The Tall Sycamore.

HARRISBURG, Or., May 21.—Hon. T. T. Geer spoke in our city hall Saturday to a large audience upon the political issues of the day, and especially upon the demagogism of Governor Penneyer and the fallacies of Populism with telling effect. He was frequently interrupted with uproarious applause. He left an impression that will be the cause of many votes for the Republicans of June 4.

Strikers Give Up.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., May 21.—The strikers made an effort to rally today in spite of the storm, but it was a failure. They seem to have given up the fight. All the plants are running with increased forces.

Seven Anarchists Executed.

BARCELONA, May 21.—Cordina, Carzuela, Bogas, Bernat, Villa, Rubia and Mir, anarchists, were executed at four o'clock this morning.

THE JOURNAL'S CAMPAIGN.

At this critical time it is not in order for the editor of THE JOURNAL to say what he will do for the people of this county or state if he is elected to the legislature. Promises and professions, whether in moral, religious or political matters, are repulsive to people of intelligence. A man's every day life and work is better evidence of what to expect of him than any campaign promises.

The campaign of THE JOURNAL and its editor, whether in print or on the stump, or the work of either in connection with public affairs in city, county, state or nation, are and will remain what they have been—responsible to the people only. As we have upheld or criticised men in public office, and policies heretofore, we expect to do so in the future. With increased circulation and influence THE JOURNAL hopes to be of more service to the people. It does not believe in sensationalism or demagoguery, and will not flatter men for favors, or gush over them for votes, or fawn upon those in power. It believes the poorest man in the county is as much entitled to his rights and to consideration as a citizen as the richest. THE JOURNAL has never engaged in tirades against the wealthy nor in demagogic appeals to the poor. It has always appealed to manhood and humanity regardless of creed, sect, party, race or social position. These are broad views to hold, and they meet with opposition among some who are incapable of taking broad views. THE JOURNAL has criticised Governor Penneyer. It has almost alone and singlehanded in the newspaper field fought what it conceived to be great abuses in the management of some of our public corporations. It expects to continue to do this. It expects to be called upon to criticise public officials in the future as in the past, not from personal or political motives, but for the protection of the people. What protection have the people against abuse of power and trusts, extravagance and corruption, on the part of public officials, except the press? Will they allow a man to be struck down at the behest of a politician like Penneyer because he has held him up to public censure when he has gone wrong? We think not.

THE JOURNAL'S campaigns are in the interest of the people. It is clean-handed. It has never received a dollar in any manner from the public treasury for any service but legitimate business advertising. It has never asked for clerkships, public salaries, fees or emoluments, and has never "struck" a man on the ticket for money. It believes in reducing the profits of political activity to the lowest limit possible.

It is clearly necessary in Oregon to reduce the expenses of state government materially to abolish all clerkships in the legislature and elsewhere that can be dispensed with, and in hard times and financial stringency very few can be retained. The commissions, game and fish warden, etc., are unjustifiable luxuries, and now is a good time to rid our state of them forever. The office of attorney general and many other offices are needless, unconstitutional, and now is the time to let them off. "Man's impotency is God's opportunity," is an old camp meeting maxim. A period of pecuniary distress is a favorable opportunity for reforms. Those whose interests lie in opposing reforms we expect will oppose a candidate who stands earnestly for reforms. Those who enjoy securities in our state affairs at the expense of the taxpayer will not help take burdens off the shoulders of the people. THE JOURNAL will labor to this end with any honest men who are sent here to the legislature. This work will have to be done by the people's representatives elected June 4th. It cannot be done by the state officials then chosen. They merely carry out, help or hinder the work of reform. That work must be carefully and thoroughly done in the legislature. The work done next winter by the legislature will be for ten or twenty years to come. The state officials who are once in power, unless they are far above the average office holder, cannot be relied upon as a check upon extravagance in public affairs. Their influence is to increase the burdens of the taxpayer rather than to lighten them. If they have further political ambitions they will consent to almost anything rather than oppose any man's scheme. THE JOURNAL is tied up to no man's personal schemes in politics. It is no man's organ or of any set of men. It has never depended upon any political plunder, but has sought to exist as an independent Republican newspaper. It is not even prostituted for any gain for any man connected with it. Often it has been the case that its treasury would have been replenished by veering from the course of public duty for private gain. That opportunity comes to all newspaper men. It has never been embraced by THE JOURNAL. Its record in this respect challenges scrutiny. It has not succeeded at all times in securing reforms as it had wished. But it has fought to the best of its ability in this direction at all times and shall continue to do so. That is THE JOURNAL'S campaign.

WORTH CONSIDERING.

The only argument ever used against Frank Waters for Recorder, was against his Republicanism. That cannot be questioned. He was born, bred, and raised a Republican, besides being a man of Republican convictions himself. His father, Col. W. H. H. Waters was a life-long Republican, only a few years before his death joining the Democratic party. It is important to the people of Marion county that they have their work well and carefully done, and that Mr. Waters is competent and painstaking no one can question. As a native son of Oregon, Marion county should take pride in making him recorder.

MONEY COMING.—Rev. Shule today received $10 more for the parsonage fund from friends in the east. He says the money will be raised without asking the Salem people for much.

Watching the Hour-Glass.

As a miser counts his gold, night and day, so I count the minutes told in the glass. My eyes are dim, my hair is thin and gray. And I know I'm growing old as they pass. When we approach "the red and yellow leaf" of our days, we are prone to look back regretfully. A clear conscience and sound health will enlighten our gloomy reflections. Health is the greatest blessing.—Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery the greatest medicine. It arrests the progress of lung and serofulous diseases, and cures consumption, or lung serofula, if taken in time. It is the king of liver invigorators and blood-purifiers, and a powerful tonic, building up the debilitated patient to perfect health. Contains no alcohol.

As old as the hills" and never excelled. "Tried and proven" is the verdict of millions. Simmons' Liver Regulator is the only Liver and Kidney medicine to which you can pin your faith for a cure. A mild laxative, and purely vegetable, acting directly on the Liver and Kidneys. Try it. Sold by all Druggists in Liquid, or in Powder to be taken dry or made into tea.

The King of Liver Medicines. "I have used your Simmons' Liver Regulator and can conscientiously say it is the king of all liver medicines. I consider it a medicine chest in itself.—Geo. W. Jackson, Tacoma, Washington.
