LITTLE LOCALS.

The candidates are gone, but there are some good men left in Salem yet.

Good Republican weather, this.

Mrs. S. N. Wilkins, of Corvallis, was the guest of Mrs. Wm. Cyrus and went home today.

Ira Erb took a trip to the state reform school today.

Miss Cady Scott, of Marion, returned home today after a visit with Miss Ella Welch.

Miss Olga Hewitt returned to Albany today.

Rev. C. H. Lea returned to Philomath today.

Jared Tuck, who was a well know character in Salem for many years, is reported dead for sure at last. His son Thomas is authority for the statement that Jared fell off a train at Yreka, Cal.

Mrs. E. W. Carr went to Turner today.

Mrs. J. W. Cannon visited at Turner today.

Sam L. Kerr, of St. Paul, is in town.

Judge Straham went to Yaquina today.

Fred Close, of Harrisburg, returned today after a visit with his father, Henry Close. Fred will move to Salem after harvest.

Mrs. Hugh Thompson, of Salem, is visiting at the residence of her parents, in this city. She is accompanied by Mrs. Lee Steiner also of Salem.—Eugene Guard.

Gid Steiner has caught the spirit of progress and is having a plate glass show window put into the corner of his fish market.

Mrs. W. B. Barr, of Albany, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. E. McAfee. Mr. and Mrs. Sparks, of Colfax, are also guests at the McAfee home.

N. Miles, of Scotts Mills, spent Sunday in the city.

John McCrow, the Salem market man, went to Coburg today.

Mrs. A. McAllaster is at Turner visiting C. F. Hull's family.

SALEM WINS.—Quite a large crowd of Salem people took a pleasure trip on the steamer Altona to Independence Sunday, some going to play ball and others to see the game while others who did not care for baseball went for a pleasant outing. All had a good time. Salem's baseball team came off victorious by a score of 12 to 14 in its favor. These Sunday trips are becoming quite popular, some of Salem's best people are taking advantage of the opportunity of having a pleasant Sunday outing.

THE CANVASS.—Today the canvass of the candidates of the county was begun. The Republicans opened at Marion this afternoon, and will appear at Jefferson tonight. The Democrats open at Detroit tonight, while some of the Populists and Prohibitionists will appear with the Republicans at some points.

LIKE YOUR MOTHER MADE.—Get a loaf of Huber's bread at Hellenbrand's restaurant, Harritt & Lawerence or Aitken & Palmer's grocery or at the Bakery 388 Chemeketa street near the railroad. Try it and see if it isn't something like Mother used to make. A big loaf for 5 cents.

NEW THINGS IN GLASS.—The grandest lot of glassware ever brought to Salem now opened at J. G. Wrights, including attractive new designes in rose bowls, fruit dishes, salts and peppers, etc. etc. Ladies, do not fail to see them.

GOING EAST.—About twenty families start East this evening via the Southern Pacific—some to live and some to visit. Among them are the Hocketts, David, Brown, Sandercoch, Cartwright, Linn and others of Salem.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder
World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma.

A HOWLING HOWLER.

That Was the Republican Demonstration at Salem Saturday Night.

The Republican demonstration at the capital city Saturday was the most magnificent campaign gathering ever held here. At least five thousand people participated. Four carloads of uniformed Republicans came up on a special train from Portland. A thousand stalwart Republicans were in from the country towns. Cities like Silverton, Woodburn, Jefferson and other towns sent full delegations. It was perfectly evident that not everybody has joined the People's party in Oregon. The procession reached around four sides of our large squares. The excitement did not die away until after midnight. It was so great it was carried over in gentle reflections into the Sabbath and more than one congregation was found listless and unappreciative at the Sunday morning service.

THE YOUNG VOTERS.

Salem turned out nearly a hundred first voters who have formed a Republican club. The boys were cheered more than any other feature of the parade, and marched with proud steps to do their first political duty. They carried lantern torches and made a fine appearance.

BANNERS.

How do you like the change?

We don't like the change!

Figures won't lie, but liars will figure. To the Populist leaders.

How many extravagant appropriations were vetoed by Pennoyer?

Free trade means: Wool 6c, wheat 35c, wages 50c.

First vote for Lord.

Vote for Cleveland and get $1.25 for your wheat.

Stand by the party of progress!

Nothing but a lumber trust for me—Pennoyer!

The Lord is on our side!

Judge Lord and a sound business administration.

Protection means good wages!

The lumber trust needs the sawyer, we don't.

THE SPEECHES

Were delivered from the east steps of the court house, as five opera houses of the capacity of Reed's, which will hold nearly a thousand, would not contain those who wanted to hear. Fulton's address was a masterly effort. The members of the state ticket were present and Judge Lord was called for and merely arose to thank the vast assemblage for calling on him.

The second Regiment band of Salem added to the enjoyment of the evening with their fine music. The Independence clubs with their band and Monmouth and Rickreal arrived on the steamer Altona. But this is only the beginning of public enthusiasm in Marion county. The committee in charge deserve great credit.

Chris. Houck Drowned.

Saturday evening, while en route to Salem, Chris. Houck, a passenger on the steamer Altona, fell overboard and was drowned at a point in the river above S. D. Gibson's place two miles from here. At the time he went overboard he was leaning against the starboard lifeguard at the foot of the stairs. Immediately upon touching the water Houck was sucked under the boat and was last seen back of the wheel. The mate of the steamer, A. Geer, and A. W. Graham were standing on the bow of the boat and saw the unfortunate man go over. "Man overboard!" was the signal to the captain and the boat was immediately stopped and a life boat lowered with three of the crew to search for the drowning man. The steamer backed up to where the body was last seen, but finding no trace of it she continued on her way to Salem. About half an hour after arriving here the men in the row boat returned, having seen nothing of the drowned man with the exception of picking up his hat. Captain Graham engaged two expert river men to grapple for the body and they with a searching party were out all day yesterday and today dragging the river, but with no results as yet, and it is feared the body of the unfortunate man will not be found until it comes to the surface.

This is the first accident of the kind from the Altona during her nine years service on the Willamette. Houck was a single man, 30 years of age, and has lived in and around Independence for the past fifteen years.

ART PORTFOLIOS.—The finest pictures of the World's fair given to all patrons of Clark's grocery store. Tickets given with every purchase, and a portfolio given free with every $3.50 of goods bought.

EXERCISES FREE.—The public is cordially invited to all the closing exercises of the School for the Blind at University chapel tonight and tomorrow night.

$1.00 A YARD.—The best value in cape cloth you can imagine. All shades of tan and brown, blue, black etc., at Holverson & Co's.

How Nice

Miss Bell is looking, Addie. Yes, Laura. Why, only a year ago her face was completely covered with pimples, blotches and sores. She told mother that she owed her nice, clear complexion to her using Sulphur Bitters. Well, Laura, I shall try them too.

PERSONALS.

R. P. Boise and H. E. Hayes went to the State Grange, which meets at Albany today.

Mr. Patterson paid a fine for a Sunday drunk. No cases came in for arrest Saturday night.

Hon. T. T. Geer was in the city Sunday, and left today to make a few speeches in Linn and Benton counties.

Tilmon Ford returned home Sunday morning from his visit in San Francisco and Southern California. He is much improved in health and was pleased with his trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Cooper, of Michigan, who have been spending the winter in California, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sampson Jones, on Liberty street, and will remain several weeks. Mr. Cooper is a nephew of Mr. Jones, but several years his senior.

State Blind Institute.

The closing exercises of the Oregon institute for the blind will take place on Monday and Tuesday evenings at the chapel of Willamette university, beginning at 8 o'clock.

An annual address by Rev. W. C. Kantner, A. M., of Corvallis on Monday at 8 p. m., to be followed by the following program:

Chorus—"Patriotic Glee".....School
Piano duet—"Philomel".....Kunkel
Josie Watkins, June Dickinson.

At the institute on Twelfth street, near the woolen mill, an exhibition of the work of the pupils will be held on Tuesday afternoon between the hours of 2 and 5.

At 8 o'clock of that evening the closing exercises proper will be given at the university chapel, the following being the program:

PART I.

"To all these exercises the public is invited," says the superintendent of the institution, E. S. Bollinger.

ALBATROSS.—All shades for graduating wear at Holverson & Co's.

In Memoriam.

At the last regular meeting of the W. R. C. a committee was appointed to draft resolutions regarding the death of B. F. Smith, husband of our worthy president.

Whereas, As by the hand of death our dear sister has been called upon to mourn the loss of a kind and loving companion, and the G. A. R. of a loyal and respected comrade, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with our dear sister and the family in this their hour of bitter trial, and sore bereavement, and that we do commend them for consolation to Him "who doeth all things well" and who remembers His sorrowing children in mercy; and be it further

Resolved, That this expression of our compassion be transmitted to our grief-stricken sister, and also furnished the daily papers for publication.

Mrs. Southwick,
Mrs. Burton,
Mrs. McElroy,
Committee.

WITHDRAWN.—T. E. Murphy, the Populist candidate for county clerk, has withdrawn from the race, his chief reason being the fact that he will not have resided in the county a full year before election day. A. B. Schwab, Democratic nominee for assessor, has also withdrawn, as he says, "for the good of the party." This will necessitate blanks on the tickets for these candidates.

ROD AND GUN CLUB.—The regular semi-monthly club will occur at Morningside, Tuesday afternoon. The club is this year shooting for a Lafever gun, and some interesting times are looked forward to.

QUARTERLY MEETING.—The regular quarterly meeting of the Friends closed at Highland church Sunday. About 200 visitors were here and all report a good time.

EXACTLY HALF PRICE.—Our jackets we have too many and they have to go. We only reserve a few recent arrivals. Everything else goes. Holverson & Co's.

Ladies' and childrens' summer long sleeve and sleeveless ribbed vests, at close prices, at the New York Racket. Also gents' summer underwear of all kinds. e o d 2t 1w

LOST.—On May 15th, a gentleman's cravat pin. The finder will please leave it at this office and receive a reward. 5-21-6t

THE W. T. C. U. CONVENTION.

The State Meeting Being Held at the M. E. Church.

White Ribbon forces were abroad in our city on Sunday.

In the pulpits of the M. E., C. P., Christian, South M. E. ,earnest sermons were given the people. Madams Riggs, Harford, Round, Addition, and Rev. Lida Romick, were the speakers.

The Presbyterian Y. P. S. C. E. was addressed by several White Ribbons. Several also went with the Rev. Shulse to the penitentiary.

At 3 p. m. a childrens' meeting was held, at the M. E. church, under the management of Mrs. Ada Unruh, state secretary of L. T. L.

Rev. E. B. Sutton spoke at a mass meeting at the W. C. T. U. hall at 4 p. m.

MONDAY.

The twelfth annual convention of the W. C. T. U. met at 8:30. As is the custom of this organization, the first half hour was passed in reverent bowing down before the Almighty God.

At nine o'clock President Mrs. Anna R. Riggs called the convention to order. Rev. E. B. Sutton was introduced to the convention by Mrs. Riggs and gave a stirring, earnest, forcible address. He said the W. C. T. U. was a necessity, spoke forcibly of the tremendous forces of satan, which we were combating, our only salvation being in the Almighty arm, of which the W. C. T. U. had firm hold.

Mrs. Romick of Sunnyview and Mrs. Hyde of Ashland, were appointed to carry greetings to the ministerial association meeting in Salem this morning.

Mrs. Allen of Yamhill county was appointed assistant secretary for the convention.

Roll call showed some twenty-five state officers and superintendents present.

The seating of delegates in alphabetical order was next carried out.

Mrs. L. A. Daughery of Antelope was introduced to the convention. This delegate rode 70 miles by carriage to the nearest railroad station.

Committee on courtesy, Madams Hyman and Royal, of Salem.

Committee on credentials, Madams Scott and White. The Revs. Lee, of Philomoth, and Rork, of Salem, were here introduced and Rev. Rork spoke briefly words of encouragement. After the hour of prayer Miss Kirk, paternal delegate from the Y. P. S. E., was introduced and said the organization she represented were working for temperance and intended in the future to do even more.

On motion the committe on credentials were to report the first thing afternoon.

Noon tide prayer by Mrs. Riggs.

Adjournment for lunch.

WILLAMETTE COMMENCEMENT.

Preparations for Salem's Great Annual College Event—Personals and Preparations.

A committee is busy upon the Association Hand-book for '95 and '96.

"Willamette" has the best five-lap to the mile, bicycle track in the county. The boys are making some good time too.

The congenial countenance of Rev. C. H. Lea, a student of last year, was seen in chapel last Tuesday. He is now married, and preaching at Philomath, and with Rev. Gould, of Corvallis, was on his way to the conference at Silverton.

The entertainment given by the literary societies in the chapel Friday night, was fairly well attended, and fully ten cents worth of fun was participated in. The parts were well given and much credit was reflected upon the work of the organizations.

Messrs. Jno. R. Fitzhugh and Short left on the early boat Thursday morning, Mr. Fitzhugh for Covella, Wash., and Mr. Short for Pendleton, Oregon. They both expect to be back next year and to bring others with them.

The lecture given by President Hawley, in chapel, and taking up a part of the first two bells, on the "Nicaragua Canal," of which subject he is master in all details, and sees in it the downfall, or the gaining of the former commercial prestige of the United States, was listened to by a very appreciative audience. All who heard it said that President Hawley ought to be allowed to bring the subject before congress, in its coming discussion of this question.

Much preparation is being made for a most successful commencement season. The young ladies to take part in Prof. Brown's Art recital are taking daily practice, much work is being put upon the cantata and correspondence is being had with Mrs. Hallie (Paush) Hinges to take a leading part. The boys are busy on four afternoons in the week drilling for their gymnasium exhibition and the campus is a place of increased activity in preperation for Field day. Bicycling, running, jumping, pole vaulting, shot putting, hammer throwing, tennis, and croquet are the most conspicuous. Some private practice is being done besides this. It will indeed be a gala day for Willamette.

NO ROORBACKS.

Republicans never had county and state tickets so deserving of all around support as this year.

The man who says he would vote his ticket if there was a yellow dog on it need not scratch a single Republican candidate. There are never any yellow dogs on the Republican ticket.

No Republican should be misled into scratching a single name on his ticket this year by the roorbacks set in motion, some of them by Republicans. Republican voters should remember that an opposing office-seeker will often lie both ways.

Men who have been turned down in the race for spoils, and whose Republicanism is badly flyblown, are not men to be heeded in times when the only avenue to prosperity lies in a Republican victory.

A Practical Man.

Of all practical men of whom America is justly proud no one holds a higher place than the late Cyrcus W. Field. His son shows that he has inherited the shrewd common sense of the man who laid the Atlantic cable. He writes:

8 EAST 56TH STREET.
NEW YORK, May 8, 1883.

Several times this winter I have suffered from severe colds on my lungs. Each time I have applied Allcock's Porous Plasters, and in every instance I have been quickly relieved by applying one across my chest and one on my back. My friends, through my advice, have tried the experiment and also found it most successful. I feel that I can recommend them most highly to any who may see fit to try them.

The public is cordially invited to attend the closing of the state school for the Blind, on Monday and Tuesday evenings, May 21st and 22d, at the University chapel. Rev. W. C. Kantner, of Corvallis, will deliver the annual address on Monday evening. There will be an exhibition of school work at the Institute on Tuesday afternoon, from 2 to 5 o'clock.

IN LINN.—Senator Jeff Myers came in Sunday from Linn county Democratic canvass. He says the Democrats are sure to carry that county. Pennoyer made six speeches against them, and there is no fusion. The Republicans are equally confident and have a strong ticket in the field. J. A. McFeron, Republican candidate for sheriff is making a very strong race.
