LITTLE LOCALS.

More glorious weather. Mrs. A. G. Coleman will defer her musical visit to Salem until next fall. The Symphony entertainment netted $40 for the band of charities. Mrs. Percy Willis has returned from her home visit near Zena. Miss Marie Tongue, of Hillsboro, who is the guest of Misses Litchfield, went to Eugene today. Dr. Bunn went to Lyons today for a week's outing having been preceded by Mrs. Bunn and party. Geo. W. Davis came up from his farm at Hubbard this morning. Mrs. E. Hofer went up to Mehama today for a short visit. Chas. Craven went up to Mehama today to take part in the Democratic canvass. J. E. McCoy returned this afternoon from his ranch upon the Santiam.

AID NEEDED.—A committee of the W. R. C. and one from the G. A. R. were appointed last night to meet like committees from the K. of P. and Good Templars for the purpose of arranging an entertainment for the benefit of Mrs. Frank Cooper. These committees will meet at the residence of Mrs. Lizzie Smith, No. 403 High street at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow. Mrs. Cooper has been an invalid for some time and is in need of financial aid. The county court has been allowing her $12 a month for a few months past and that has been increased to $1 a night extra for a night nurse. Mrs. Cooper's two sisters who have been caring for her are also ill from the effects of the constant attention demanded of them. Something effective should be done, and that at once, and with a generous hand.

JASMINE BUDS.—H. S. Gile and Tom Reynolds today received a box of jasmine buds from an old time friend and Wells Fargo agent at Alvin, Texas. They are of the grand de flora variety, and are very fragrant. Quite a business is done on the gulf supplying these exquisite buds to the merchants as souvenirs for special sales days. Y. editor's desk is today graced with a bouquet of the white beauties.

ASSIGNMENT.—Mrs. M. S. Skiff has made a general assignment of her stock of millinery and fancy goods to Eugene Willis for the benefit of all her creditors. Mr. Willis has filed his bond and taken charge of the stock and will proceed to close it out. The ladies will now have a chance to get the summer hats at their own price. Come at once and select the choice hats and trimmings.

LIKE YOUR MOTHER MADE.—Get a loaf of Huber's bread at Hellenbrand's restaurant, Harritt & Lawrence or Alken & Palmer's grocery or at the Bakery 388 Chemeketa street near the railroad. Try it and see if it isn't something like Mother used to make. A big loaf for 5 cents.

THEY CONGREGATE.—These days of political activity, it is no uncommon thing to meet dense crowds on the sidewalks. At Johnson & Son's clothing store, however, the crowd is always on the inside. Their spring suits interest the multitude.

NEW THINGS IN GLASS.—The grandest lot of glassware ever brought to Salem now opened at J. G. Wright's, including attractive new designs in rose bowls, fruit dishes, salts and peppers, etc. Ladies, do not fail to see them.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder
World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma.

THE W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

The State Meeting Being Held at the M. E. Church.

The afternoon session was addressed by Revs. Lee, of Shedd, and Granulis, of Salem, the latter welcoming the convention to Salem.

The report of the corresponding secretary was read, showing a marked progress notwithstanding the great financial pressure through which everything is passing; ten new unions reported; five unions sent in discouraging reports, Ashland reports more honorary members than active, showing that the men are alive to the good work; several unions reported the saloons kept out of their localities by remonstrances; La Grande union reports a Loyal Temperance legion of 223 members—no the children are coming to the front; Moro reported while their active membership (women) was 18, the honorary (men) numbered 30—they also sent the note that the same God was leading them in this far away burg that led those more favorably situated. The summary was as follows: Number of unions reported 65, active membership 37,456, honorary members 92, Y's 139, L. Y. L. 825, schools of method 12, lectures given 372. Seven unions have prohibition by law; five keep saloons out by persistent efforts; eleven unions have headquarters; 209 copies of the national organ, the Union Signal; 156 copies of the White Ribbon, the state paper; 31 Demorest contests held during the year.

At the evening session Mrs. Royal of Salem presided. Mrs. Mead read a scripture lesson, Jeremiah 51 and prayer was offered by Mrs. Lida Rounds. The address of welcome was given by Mrs. R. S. Wallace, of Salem, in behalf of the W. C. T. U.; it was a cordial earnest welcome, a forcible illustration on depicting the horrors of the liquor traffic and the power of the movement for their overthrow, and with a pleasing salute with a beautiful flow of shimmering white ribbon, she expatiated her words of welcome (Rev. Shulse, of the South Salem M. E. church gave a welcome in behalf of the church); the great advancement of womanhood is of God; he welcomed the delegates as co-laborers of the ministry and many words of earnest commendation were forcibly spoken. The response was given by Mrs. Lillian Amos, of Portland, in a sweet womanly way.

A solo and course followed, rendered in a most pleasing manner, the title being "Pity the Boy." Mrs. Anna R. Riggs gave her annual address. It was a comprehensive review of her work as state president and of the work in general. The importance of working to get temperance before the great summer gatherings was enlarged upon. She would add to the watchword: "Agitate, agitate, organize, consolidate." The work of the "refuge home" of Portland has been most satisfactory the past year. In fifteen states the department of homes for homeless children has been taken up; fifty-five departments are carried on by the women of Oregon; each is important—the evangelistic department is interlarded in them all. The world needs not only mothers but fathers. The speaker made forcible points on the need of equal rights for man and woman. Statistics were given showing a few of the dark spots, but the bright side was more largely dwelt upon. The great Indiana victory was spoken of. The fact that great fraternal bodies are shutting out saloon men, is a straw not insignificant. The woman question was treated of at length, and the arguments used were most convincing. The choir then sang the world's W. C. T. U. song "Around the World Are Bands of Ribbon White."

MORNING SESSION.
The devotional meeting was conducted by Rev. Mrs. Reese. The business session opened with Mrs. Riggs in the chair, who sent up a prayer for guidance to the great Divine. The report from Linn county was read by the recording secretary, in the absence of the county president. Revs. Royal and Bowsox were introduced and responded acceptably. Reports from Lane, Multnomah, Marion, Polk, Sherman, Tillamook, Clatsop and other counties reported progress. Father Parish was introduced and spoke to the delegation. Routine work of the department took up the time of the morning session. The evangelistic report was one which proved the fact of this organization being carried on by the power of God.

There will be a Demorest contest this evening with six contestants for a beautiful gold medal. Admission 10 cents.

ANOTHER WITHDRAWAL.—A. F. Beard the Populist candidate for sheriff has also decided to withdraw from the field, and assigns the following reasons: "I, A. F. Beard of Stayton, Marion county, Oregon, the person receiving the nomination for sheriff of Marion county, Oregon, on the People's party ticket and nominated by the People's party convention held at Salem, on the 10th day of March A. D. 1894, do hereby withdraw from said

ROSES AND STRAWBERRIES.

The Annual Fair Will Come Off in Fine Shape.

The Salem Floricultural club has been busily engaged for some weeks perfecting arrangements for the annual rose and strawberry show. It has been decided to hold it in the opera house this year, and some attractive entertainments will probably be given in connection with it.

OUR WHITE ELEPHANT.

The City Council Meet to Consider City Hall.
Last evening the city council met in adjourned session to confer on matters pertaining to the city hall. Alderman Albert presented the report of the building committee and moved to consider the first proposition of the report, which was that $10,000 of the general fund to be received from the tax collector be set aside for use on the city hall. City Attorney Condit was called upon and reported that after warrants outstanding were paid there would still be a deficiency and that the council did not have the power to appropriate the money on which outstanding warrants had the prior claim. After these were all paid, money then received might be used for that purpose. Then followed a discussion of the situation that now confronts the council; that of an uncompleted city hall on hand and no money to furnish contractors. A number of plans were proposed. That of issuing more warrants was not feasible because of the illegality of city warrants outstanding to the amount of more than $20,000. A proposition was made to provide by ordinance for the setting aside of four mills for the next four years for building purposes. This would be an additional burden of taxation and would not be agreed to. After other plans not considered feasible were discussed, Alderman Albert moved that a committee be appointed by the mayor to confer with the contractors and subcontractors and see what kind of an agreement could be made toward either laying the work over till next year, or enclosing the building and going ahead with the work—the committee to report the next meeting—carried. The committee on inspection of the opera house asked for further time to make its report, which was granted. Alderman Albert moved that the city engineer in conjunction with the city attorney report an ordinance on the width of sidewalks in the residence portion of the city, same providing for the building of a cement walk narrower than the prescribed wooden walk. Motion was carried. On motion of Alderman Gray, council then adjourned.

Watching the Hour Glass.
As a miser counts his gold night and day, so I count the minutes I spend in the glass. My eyes are dim, my hair is thin and gray, and I know I'm growing old as they pass. When we approach "the mere and yellow leaf" of our days, we are prone to look back regretfully. A clear conscience and sound health will enlighten our gloomy reflections. Health is the greatest blessing—Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery the greatest medicine. It arrests the progress of lung and scrofulous diseases, and cures consumption, or lung scrofula, if taken in time. It is the king of liver invigorators and blood-purifiers, and a powerful tonic, building up the debilitated patient to perfect health. Contains no alcohol.

Housekeepers!
Whatever you want in the way of Groceries and Household supplies remember that the Post Office grocery always keeps the best, cleanest and freshest goods. Our prices are below any competitor, and bring us many patrons. Fresh bread every morning.
HARRITT & LAWRENCE.

Don't Delay.
It is your duty to yourself to get rid of the foul accumulation in your blood this spring. Hood's Sarsaparilla is just the medicine you need to purify, vitalize and enrich your blood. That tired feeling which affects nearly every one in the spring is driven off by Hood's sarsaparilla, the great spring medicine and blood purifier.

Housekeepers!
Hood's pills become the favorite cathartic with everyone who tries them.

PERSONALS.

O. McGilery and A. L. Brown, of Seattle, are visiting friends in the city.
Chas. Hoberg, of McMinnville, passed through the city today en route for Coos county.
Hon. Thos. Tongue passed through the city today on the canvass. He speaks in Salem on the 31st.
Prof. P. A. Getz, of Monmouth, has been elected president of the Washington state normal school.
Hon. W. H. Holmes started this afternoon for Eastern Oregon to assist in the Democratic canvass.
Joint Senator-elect A. Gesner went up to Turner this morning to attend the canvass having been delayed by a sickness in his family.

Meeker's Good Sense.
E. W. Meeker, the hop king of the Pacific coast has the following suggestive thoughts in a letter to the Tacoma Ledger. What he says of the Yakima is true of the Willamette valley, except that we have plenty of water: "Forty years ago next September I first saw the Yakima valley, having come through the Naches pass on the back of Jonathan McCarty's white bob-tail pony. My outfit consisted of a sack of hard bread, a bit of bacon and some tea and my saddle blanket for my bed. I was alone and camped where night overtook me. The old emigrant road led me across Naches river thirty-two times and finally over the divide to the Wenas creek and on down to the Yakima."
"This great Yakima county is now, with water, becoming a great garden. And yet men tramp, tramp, tramp, with nothing to do, and hundreds of thousands of acres of this same fruitful land awaiting the touch of the industrious hand to make them yield—land that 3 days' labor will make ready for the plow with an assured crop the first year—land that a man may obtain upon almost his own terms as to time and price, and yet men are struggling to get out of the country, and people are ready to help them by material aid and sympathy—wonderful to think of, isn't it?"
"What Washington state most needs is people to develop her resources. In pioneer days people employed themselves. They hewed out farms and were willing to work a day here or there as they could catch it in a timber camp opening a road, and home Sunday to grub out a bigger patch for potatoes. I knew a man who worked four days for a sack of flour and pack it home on his back six miles. Men didn't beg in those days—they worked for what they got."
