HIGH TIDE AT PORTLAND.

Water the Highest Ever Known at That Point.

BOATS ARE USED FOR VEHICLES.

And Business Is Done Under the Greatest Difficulties.

PORTLAND, Or., June 1.—The river now stands at twenty-nine and two-tenths feet above low water mark. It is almost at a stand still. Reports from the upper Columbia indicate a further rise however. At Umatilla there is a rise of one foot and a tenth. At Riparia eleven inches. The situation in this city is practically unchanged.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the water at the foot of Stark street stood just 29 feet and two-tenths above the extreme low-water mark.

The water in the Willamette river is higher today than ever before in the history of Portland, and twenty-two streets, between Front and Yamhill and Thirteenth and Marshall, was more or less under water. Front street is inundated from Yamhill north to the river; First street, from Morrison to the river; Second street, from near Alder to the river; Third, except in the center of the street where the pavement is raised, from Stark north; Fourth, from Oak north; Fifth, north of Aukeny to the river; Sixth, from Burnside north; Seventh, north of Aukeny; Eighth, from Burnside to the river; Park street, from Glisan north; Tenth, north of Hoyte; Eleventh, from Johnson to the river; Twelfth, north of Northrup; and Thirteenth, from Marshall north.

Yamhill street is under water at Front; Morrison as far west as First; Alder to near Second; Washington to half way between Second and Third; Stark to Third; Oak to Fourth; Pine to Fifth; Ankeny to Seventh; Burnside to Eighth; Couch to Park; Everett to Park; Flanders to Park; Glisan to west of Park; Hoyt to Tenth; Irving to Eleventh; Johnson to Eleventh; Kearney to Twelfth; Lovejoy to Twelfth; Northrup to west of Twelfth, and Marshall to Thirteenth.

EVERYTHING IS AFLOAT.

The North Pacific terminal grounds from the river to south and west of the union depot are under water, as are also the freighting yards and the coach and car-cleaning yards are overflowed. Looking north and east from the intersection of Eleventh and Lovejoy, the water resembles a great lake with a building rising out of the water here and there. Thousands of feet of plank sidewalk is afloat in this section and hundreds of wet feet have been caused today by persons stepping unwarily on loose boards. Ladies wearing gum boots and wading out of their houses are not uncommon. The water reaches the railroad bridge across the river, but is not over the tracks. Row-boats are unable to pass it except when the draw is open. The third-street electric cars are unable to turn onto Glisan.

At Denver.

DENVER, June 1.—The Platte river continued to rise until 3 o'clock a. m. today, and a raging torrent is rushing through the city. Three hundred families have been compelled to flee to higher ground, and one boy was drowned. The damage is not heavy, but the inconvenience is great. The loss to the railroads will prove the heaviest ever experienced in the state.

Five hundred families have been made homeless by the flood in and around Denver. Over one hundred persons have applied to the county commissioners for aid. Forty families are imprisoned in a school house at Jerome, but are not thought to be in danger.

Houses Washed Away.

BOULDER, Colo., June 1.—The pipe factory, five houses, railroad tracks and all city and railroad bridges have been washed away by the flood of Boulder creek. The Grisman and Salina mining camps, in Boulder canon, are wiped out of existence. They had a population of about 200, but no lives are lost. Many placer mines are ruined. The loss in and around Boulder is estimated at $500,000.

Crops Destroyed.

LONGMONT, Colo., June 1.—All the crops of St. Vrain valley, one of the richest grain regions in the state, have been destroyed. The loss will be very heavy.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder Contains no Ammonia or Alum.

Flood Abating.

PUEBLO, Col., June 1.—The rain ceased about midnight and the river is now going down rapidly. A large force was put to work by the city cutting through the levee to drain off the water. Only two bodies have been recovered, although five persons are known to be drowned. The losses to business firms is estimated at a hundred thousand dollars. The loss to railroad bridges and tracks is very heavy.

Frazer Valley.

VANCOUVER, June 1.—The Frazer river is three inches above the highest known record and is still rising. Frazer Valley, for a distance of one hundred miles, is devastated. It is estimated that over two thousand families are homeless. The property loss is three millions.

Awful Cloud Burst.

CONCONULLY, Wash., June 1.—Another awful calamity has befallen the town, this time in the shape of a big cloudburst and a log jam on the Salmon river. Everything went, trees, houses, and rocks came in a resistless torrent upon the beautiful flat. There are deposits of logs and dirt as high as 15 feet in places. The loss will be greater than by the fire which swept the town in August, 1892, for this time nothing was left standing except part of W. Briggs' saloon, B. Wehrfritz's saloon, W. M. Shufelt's barber shop, and E. D. Simmons' law office in the block below. The flood was within a half mile of town when it was first seen, and every one fled to higher land, forgetting all else. All succeeded in escaping except A. Spencer, of Walla Walla, who was struck by drift on Main street and was carried to the lake, where he was rescued.

PRES. CLEVELAND WRATHY.

The Tariff Bill Is Too Full of Jobbery.

SECY CARLISLE MAY BE RETIRED.

War Almost Inevitable With the Cripple Creek Miners.

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 1.—A Washington dispatch says President Cleveland is angry at the way in which the tariff bill has been bungled in the senate, and tainted from top to bottom with suspicions of jobbery and corruption. He is particularly angry with Senator Gorman. Within a few days an interview will probably be given out voicing the president's sentiments. It may result in Mr. Carlisle leaving the cabinet, for while there is no evidence to show that the secretary of the treasury has done anything from improper motives, he has been connected with the preparation of the Gorman compromise from its earlier moments.

Cripple Creek Insurrection.

DENVER, June 1.—Army officers here believe it will be necessary to call out regular troops to suppress the insurrection at Cripple Creek. The leading mining attorneys have advised mine owners to ask President Cleveland to protect them in their rights, as the state officers have refused to do so.

NO DEPUTIES ARE PRISONERS.

There is no truth in the rumors that the miners have a number of deputies prisoners. The strikers, however, are making prisoners of men who they consider dangerous to their safety, and it is stated that 50 persons are held in custody. The strikers surrounded the Summit mine today, captured four nonunion miners and destroyed the telephone with bullets. Mrs. W. D. Snell, wife of one of the miners employed in the Strong mine, has been driven from the camp. The strikers threatened to kill her and destroy her property if she remained. Her husband, who had incurred the enmity of the mob, suddenly disappeared several days ago, and she believes he has been murdered. She was not permitted to look for him before leaving for Colorado Springs.

FIERCE RIOTING IN SOFIA.

Supporters of Stambuloff and the Opposition at War.

RUSSIA HONORS AN AMERICAN.

Anti-Cruelty to Children Progressing in England.

SOFIA, June 1.—Rival meetings of the supporters of Stambuloff and of the opposition party were held last night. After the meeting the two parties came together and a conflict followed. The fight, while it lasted, was fierce, and a number of revolver shots were fired. One man was shot and a number of others injured. The Stambuloff party was victorious, and proceeded to the home of their leader, where they made a demonstration. Stambuloff then asked them for their loyal support, and made a speech in which there were many significant references. After the fight, the troops arrived and occupied the streets in the vicinity. At a late hour the rioting was renewed and the rioters were charged on by the police before they could be dispersed. Minister Peteroff appeared at a window of the palace while the fighting was going on, and announced that the prince begged that the police would refrain from a demonstration.

Killed With an Umbrella.

LONDON, June 1.—An American, who gave the name of General John Hewstone, charged with causing the death of George Burton, an itinerant musician, yesterday by thrusting the point of an umbrella into his left eye, was remanded today for a week. General Hewstone is about 69 years of age, and describes himself as a chemist. He was charged with manslaughter, in causing the death of Burton. By direction of the United States consul-general, he was defended by Solicitor Ricketts. Benjamin Bowing testified that at 4:45 p. m. yesterday he saw three street musicians carrying a harp, a tin whistle and a camp stool across Acton street, Gray's Inn road. Hewstone was walking on the opposite side of the street. As the musicians passed the harp caught in his arm. Hewstone thereupon pushed the man carrying the harp, who protested. Hewstone replied, "You hit my arm," and holding up his umbrella said: "I'll poke your eye with this." The man carrying the camp stool responded: "Well, do it." The general then thrust the umbrella into the man's eye and walked away. Witness stepped away. Shortly afterward the police took the general into custody. Upon cross-examination Ricketts asked Bowing whether the man carrying the stool had not threatened the general with it, remarking, "I will poke your eye with this." Witness replied, "I did not hear him make such a remark; he held up the camp stool in a threatening manner, and the prisoner thrust the umbrella very quickly, his arm almost brushing my face."

An American Honored.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 1.—The presentation of the silver table service to ex-Consul-General Crawford, as a Russian testimonial of his efforts to improve the Russo-American relations, was made by a deputation headed by Minister of Finance Witte. During the presentation, several felicitous speeches were made by the members of the deputation, and an appropriate reply was made by Mr. Crawford.

Fund for Irish Nationalists.

PARIS, June 1.—It is stated on the highest authority that the Irish national party will probably very soon come into possession of the fund deposited in Paris by Parnell and his fellow trustees of the Irish parliamentary fund. It is asserted that all of the contestants, including Mrs. Parnell, have agreed to sink their differences, and judgment in the case will be given by the Seine tribunal.

In Commons.

LONDON, June 1.—The whole time of the house of commons yesterday was occupied with debate on the prevention of cruelty to children bill. The Parnellites hoped to be able to push the bill to repeal the coercion act, but the speaker declared his inability to bring it up.

Interrogate the Cabinet.

PARIS, June 1.—It was decided at a meeting of a party of the extreme left last night, that Goblette and Polatin should interrogate the cabinet upon its policy at the earliest moment.

Fire at Sodaville.

ALBANY, Or., June 1.—A fire broke out at midnight, in the hotel at Sodaville, and consumed the main business block of the town. Loss about $10,000. The buildings burned are: R. W. Hardman's hotel, loss $5000. Insurance $3000 in the Northwest. Store building, owned by Dr. J. L. Hill, loss $4000; no insurance. This was occupied by R. W. Fisher, with general merchandise and the postoffice; also by Dr. A. G. Prill's drug store. The old Sodaville hotel and adjoining residence, owned by J. P. Cherline, was also burned. Loss $1200; no insurance. The fire originated in the kitchen of the hotel, it is thought from a defective stove.

Distillery Explosion.

NEW YORK, June 1.—A terrible explosion occurred yesterday in a distillery on the ground floor of a double tenement house, at 129 Suffolk street, resulting in the death of Lizzie Yaeger, aged four years, and seriously injuring four others. Twenty families rented the building. Fire cut them off from the stairs. Some older persons escaped by creeping on a narrow ledge from the second story to a window in the next house. Two men used a blanket as a net to catch children dropped from the windows above. Fifteen were dropped through a sheet of flame, which was leaping from the side of the building; the elder ones jumped. Meyer Dietrich, aged 41, was badly burned. Several persons on the top floor, overcome by smoke, were carried out by firemen. Three persons were burned to death in the same building two years ago.

Cash Balance.

WASHINGTON, D. C. June 1.—The cash balance in the treasury at the close of business yesterday was $119,062,893, of which $79,280,015 was gold reserve. Advances from New York say the gold engaged for shipment tomorrow will leave the gold reserve on June 1st little in excess of $77,000,000. The cash balance will also be reduced by interest, and other payments, due today, to less than $117,000,000. This will be a reduction in the available cash balance, during May of about $8,000,000.

The excess of expenditures for the eleven months of the fiscal year will exceed receipts and leave a deficit of something over $74,000,000.

A Triple Tragedy.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 1.—An old grudge, growing out of a love affair, resulted in a triple tragedy at Village Springs Wednesday. In a fit of rage and jealousy, Tom Earley went into a mine where Washington Bailey was at work and shot him to death; then going to Bailey's house, the murderer shot and killed the dead man's wife, with whom he had been in love and who had rejected him for Bailey. Both murders were cold blooded, and soon the officers and citizens were after Earley, who fled. The posse fired upon him and he fell, dying an hour later. Both men were miners.

Gored by a Bull.

VALLEJO, June 1.—Moses Heyman, employed on a ranch about three miles north of town, while teasing a bull so infuriated the animal that he gored his tormentor. He tossed him in the air, and after whirling him around on the point of his horns threw him to the ground and would have trampled him to death but for an open gate near by, through which he escaped. His wounds are several inches in depth, and the laceration shocking. Heyman, although dangerously hurt, is resting well.

Big Money.

NEW YORK, June 1.—The Evening Post's London cable says: Yesterday's bank return was the strongest in every particular ever published. The total of coins and bullion was £36,000,000, the largest since 1879. The increase during the week was £1,786,000, of which £1,199,000 were in gold and United States coin bought.

CHASING DESPERADOES.
PORTLAND, June 1.—The attempt made by the fusionists yesterday to restrain the county clerk from issuing the official tickets has proven a failure. Judge Shattuck granted a hearing on the writ and after some consideration he denied the injunction and the tickets will remain as printed.

PENNOYER'S FRAUD EXPOSED.
Thursday's Oregonian shows up in fine style, in the most forcible form, what a consummate fraud Oregon's Populist governor is. It publishes a facsimile of the compact of the lumber trust, written by Mr. Pennoyer's own hand, and signed by him for his company. We give a copy of the matter below, and anyone wishing to see it in the governor's own handwriting, can do so by calling at the JOURNAL office.

The undersigned hereby agree from and after January 1, 1878, to sell lumber at not less than the following rates, viz.:
Per 1000 ft.
Rough street, sidewalk and wharf lumber..... $10 00
Rough house bill lumber..... 11 00
Edged joists, studding, surfaced sheathing, roofing and surfaced sidewalk lumber..... 12 00
Roofing, flooring, ceilings, casings, finishings..... 20 00
Siding..... 18 00
Add for planing on 2 and 4 sides..... 2 00
Lath..... 2 00

The above rates are for gold coin except 25 per cent of the same, which may be in silver. And it is agreed and understood that no contracts have been entered into by us with contractors extending beyond January 1st, nor will we between this and that date enter into any in conflict with the above rates. These rates are for the cities of Portland and East Portland.
