LITTLE LOCALS.

Showers and mists cut down the church and Sunday school attendance yesterday.....THE JOURNAL proposes to double its circle of ten thousand readers in the next one hundred days. See if it don't.....Prepare to take it the June races this week.....On next Wednesday afternoon from 2 until 4 the ladies of the auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A. will receive and entertain their lady friends in the parlors of the association rooms. A cordial invitation is hereby extended to all ladies whether their interest in the work is much or little. The right of suffrage will, for the first time in the history of Salem, be granted to its lady citizens as an opportunity to cast a ballot for their favorite poet author will be given..... Marriage licenses were issued Saturday to Lewis Mason and Rosa Dickerson; also Grant Barker and Elizabeth F. Dickerson, daughters of W. O. Dickerson.....Rev. Shulze of the South Salem M. E. church preached at the asylum Sunday afternoon and at the Reform school in the evening. He expects to move into his new parsonage August 1st.....Dr. F. H. Gwynne who attended the Presbyterian general assembly lectured to the Salem society last night on his experiences at Saratoga..... Perry Beamer succeeds Wm. Cook at McCorkle's favorite cigar store..... A man by the name of Faulk, working on the Simmons place two miles east of the city, cut his right wrist badly with an ax. Dr. J. N. Smith dressed the wound.....Mrs. G. L. Sroat and Bertha are at Eugene, to attend the University commencement exercises. Irving Sroat is a student there.....Miss May Davis who has been visiting her sister Anna returned to Woodburn today.....That cougar skin killed by the Patton boys can be seen at the Red Corner drug store.

LADIES' ONLY.—Satine and percale waists for ladies, only 45 cents, 60 cents and 75 cents each, worth just double the price, now selling by the Union Hargin Store, D'Arcy block, State st., Salem.

HOT WEATHER.—It will bring some discomforts, but if you get your laundry done at Col. J. Olmstead's steam laundry, and thus avoid the stench of China wash-houses, it is endurable after all.

WANTED.—To trade good seven room house, barn, and lot on Cottage street for farm. Apply at this office. 6 16 st d & w

TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.—Gets a heavy ribbed bicycle hose, down at Holverson & Co's.

THEY ROLL.—Those fine ligum vitae balls at the new bowling alley in Adolph & Bernard's cigar store.

Graduates' Reception.

Last Saturday evening Miss Esther Collins, assisted by the Misses Martin, gave a reception to the graduating class of the Salem public schools and Superintendent Anderson, at her beautiful home on Church street.

Although it was a very stormy evening all members of the class were present except two or three. During the fore part of the evening the Salem public school alumni society was organized with about thirty five members. The following officers were elected: Miss Esther Collins, president; Willie Higley, vice-president; Miss Trista Anderson, secretary; Clarence Bishop, treasurer. It is the intention of the society to give a banquet to every graduating class of the Salem public school.

In the Circuit Court.

In the suit of Ohm & Focht vs. Oregon Land Co., the jury rendered a verdict of $140 for plaintiff. Defendants will ask for a new trial and appeal to the supreme court.

Judge Burnett held a short session his morning and adjourned to 1 p. m. He will close the June term this week, as he opens court at Albany next week. There is a perceptible decline in litigation and a marked disposition to settle.

The Grand jury.

This has been a hard session of work for the grand jury. They have about closed up all their criminal business and visited the Reform school and other state and county institutions. They had the penitentiary, asylum, and State Farm to visit yet today, and will prepare their report this evening. If they get through they will report tomorrow, and go to their homes at noon.

Was Not Held.

Before a boy can be sent to the Reform school he must be proven provokingly bad and incorrigible in many respects. So one Harry Idlewine was before the county court this morning for trial. His mother, Mrs. Barbara Ashford, appeared against him, but was not able to convict her offspring. The boy was shown to be about 13 years of age, but the evidence was held insufficient to commit him and he was released.

Killed a Cougar.

Saturday night's storm drove a cougar, or mountain lion, in from the foothills, and it attacked the flocks of Jack Patton several miles east of Macleay. The dogs got after the lion and drove him into the trees. Sunday morning he killed it not 200 yards from the house. It weighed 95 lbs. Mr. Patton felt proud of his achievement and brought the skin to Salem today. He wanted to see if he could get the county without mutilating the head. The skin is a beautiful one seven feet long.

Young People's Picnic.

On Tuesday evening at the cozy little park in Morningside, the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Congregational church, will give a picnic. The Second Regiment band will be in attendance and there will be singing by the male quartet, solos, instrumental music, etc. A nice luncheon, consisting of sandwiches, coffee and cake will be served for 15c. Ice cream, cake and ice cream soda will also be served. Lunch from 5 until 9 o'clock. This will be one of the most pleasant affairs of June 1894.

Great Inducements.

This week a cut of $1.25 to $2.00 on each trimmed hat in my house—largest stock for the season in the city. Mrs. D. L. Flester, Court street milliner. 6 18 st

GET A JACKET.—For half price, down at Holverson & Co's.

Strawberries retail six boxes for 25 cents. There is still no canning or shipping market. Local dealers say they could ship if they could get them into the Union depot at Portland without re-handling on drays at Portland.

A MONEY SAVER.—Fresh peas and strawberries for canning, lowest wholesale prices, by the crate. Don't forget to call on Joe Clark, 100 Court street, when you want these things. He is a money saver, and you should get the benefit of it.

Articles of incorporation were filed today for a telephone between Enterprise and Joseph.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma.

A ONE-LEGGED ANGEL.—One-legged, Wm. Robinson, the fighting pencil peddler who gets on a drunk in nearly every town in this valley, got too noisy Saturday night and was taken in charge by the Salem police, who carted him to the calaboose on a wheelbarrow. Judge Edes gave him a sentence of twenty days in jail, or privilege of leaving town. He accepted the latter with alacrity, spread his wings and sailed for a milder clime where mercy is tempered a little milder for pencil shavers.

MINISTERS' MEETING.—The regular monthly meeting of the Salem Ministers' association, was held at the Y. M. C. A. rooms this forenoon. Rev. A. L. Hutchison read a paper on the "Inspiration of the Scriptures." He takes a moderate view, holding that the doctrinal portions are verbally inspired, and the historical portions were the result of inspirational supervision. An interesting discussion followed.

A STARTLER.—Saturday night at 9 o'clock a clear ringing clap of thunder lifted a great many people out of their chairs, rattled windows and shook houses. Three electric wire poles in East Salem were severed and car No. 8 on the penitentiary run was grounded for a few minutes. Otherwise no harm was done. It was the startling shock of the season.

THE STORM.—Saturday night a bolt of lightning struck a large oak tree in the road in front of the Lewis Griffith place east of Macleay, killing six fine sheep. The lightning rods on the building vibrated considerably and probably conducted off a great deal of the dangerous fluid.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—The ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal church will give a supper at their Guild room, Wednesday June 20th, from 5:30 to 8 p. m. Coffee, ham, tongue, salad, biscuit, cake, strawberries and cream are to be served, all for 25 cts. 2t

OREGON FRUIT.

The crop is light this year, but in most varieties there is superior quality to offset the shortage of crops. If you propose to put up the usual quantity this season you had best look out for the supply early. Arrangements can now be made for the best in Oregon, and also for sugar to put it up with, by consulting Harritt & Lawrence, the P. O. grocers. d3t-wit

A CYCLONE.—A cyclone has struck the meat-trade of Salem, in the shape of the low prices of meats at the Salem Cash Market, in the Cottle-Cash block, where the choicest of meats are sold, at lowest cash prices. Free delivery.

BUY A CAPE.—At your own price, at Holverson & Co's.

THE WORLD'S HOP MARKETS.

Special Dispatches and Reports from all Hop Centers.
 NEW YORK, June 16, '94.
 Market is sluggish, with no particular change in quotations.
 In interior some few sales are reported at varying quotations.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16.—Quotations are 11 to 13c, and business is nominal.
 PORTLAND, June 16.—Choice hops are quoted at 12@13 1/2c.

PACIFIC COAST.
 Puyallup Commerce, June 14: Shipments from Puyallup station last week were:
 Twelve bales to New York by Uhlman & Co.
 The N. P. Warehouse here contains five bales.
 A few small contracts are reported, and more pending.

H. E. McGowan has contracted two tons to Herman Klaber at 10c, receiving an advance of 3c a pound.

O. M. Annis has been offered 12c to contract, but declined.

Lice are reported as appearing in spots, but growers will all make a vigorous fight and subdue them.

At Sacramento hops are quoted at 12@13c.
 The Oregonian estimates Oregon's coming crop at 50,000 bales, as against 35,000 last year.

CHERRY VALLEY, N. Y.
 Sawyer's Gazet of 7th says:
 The buyers have been around considerably during the week, but trade has been much restricted. One N. Y. dealer has been telling people that they would only get 8c next week, but he would give 10c now as a special favor. Other buyers were evidently anxious to get goods at 12c; 15c was reported paid in some parts of the county. The market is certainly bad enough, but not quite what some are affirming it to be. There is nothing in the foreign market to justify the low figures offered here. Besides, the market is rising abroad while ours is declining, the condition is peculiar; what the result will be is a matter purely of speculation.
 Hops got a fine send off in this state, but from the outset there has been no indications of a large crop. The cold, wet weather of the past two weeks has very much retarded the growth.

ABROAD.

The foreign market is more than sustained. Figures are steadily advancing both in England and on the continent, but it is at a snail's pace. They do not cease to tell us that they are short of goods and that prices must advance. Imports are very light, and unless they have goods in dark closets they can't hold out much longer.

New York export this week 316 bales; import 12 bales.
 Exports since Sept. 1 st, '93, 68,112 bales.

IN CHICAGO.

Chicago quotations of Pacific good to choice are 16 to 19 cents.

IN EUROPE.

The London Hop Grower says:
 May 25.—The trade since the reopening of the market after the holiday has been satisfactory, and as there is a great scarcity of all kinds inquired for, there is a decided upward tendency in values. Both merchants and factors have very little stock on hand, and therefore holders are able to make better prices. Pacific coast hops are not selling so freely, prices are firmer, and there is every prospect of higher quotations ruling.

In the Borough today prices keep very firm and where sales are made more money is obtained; attack of blight continues and some growers have commenced washing.

USBORNE LETTER.
 Thos. USBORNE, of London, writes under date of May 29, '94, as follows:
 Since my last report we have had some very unsettled weather, wet, cold and windy, and hops are not looking so well; fly and lice have made their appearance pretty general, and a few growers have begun to spray; all this does not have any effect on our market; there is no speculation, and brewers will only buy just what they want, and then they must have them at pretty near their own price. On the night of the 20th we had a severe frost—6 to 10 degrees. This spoils our fruit prospects, which were good, and in many cases now we shall not get more than half the fruit expected—hops may be the same—who knows?
