HUNGARIANS AND ITALIANS

Raiding Mining Stores in the East.

AFTER WORKING MINERS.

Fifteen Hundred Marching to do Violence.

THREATEN TO BOYCOTT PULLMAN.

The American Railway Union After His Scalp.

PUNXSUATANEY, Penn., June 22.—The fifth and sixteenth regiments and the Sheridan troops under the command of Brigadier General John A. Wiley reached here this morning. Troops were marched at once to Walston the scene of the mining strike trouble.

Crowds of foreigners were stationed on the hill overlooking the town. At the approach of the militia they ran to their houses or broke for the woods. This afternoon the coal company notified the foreigners to vacate the company's premises. Those refusing are to be evicted. A collision may be expected before long. Last night the Hungarians and Italians raided the company's stores at Walston and Adrian.

More Violence.

PHILLIPSBURG, Pa., June 22.—Last night a tippie and mine and railroad cars at Colo mines were burned by strikers. About 1500 miners marched to Mountain Dale, where men are working at old rates. They made a thorough search for the working miners but could not find them.

Happy Laborers.

HOLTSDALE, Pa., June 22.—Notices were posted today by the United States Colliers company that the Mount Vernon colliers would start on Monday at old rate of 50 cents gross a ton. The notices were a pleasant surprise to the miners.

May Boycott Pullman.

CHICAGO, June 22.—Unless the Pullman company agrees to arbitrate the difference with the strikers, boycott of all its cars in the United States, Canada and Mexico will be instituted by the American railway union, to take place at noon next Tuesday. Notice to this effect was served on the officers of the company this afternoon.

The Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 22.—Senators Harris and Aldrich, after a conference today, expressed an opinion that the senate would conclude the consideration of the tariff bill in committee on the whole tomorrow and the bill will be ready for its return to the house before adjournment Tuesday.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 22.—The house bill to incorporate the supreme lodge of Knights of Pythias was reported favorably and was immediately passed by the senate today. The following bills were also passed: The appropriating of $40,000 for the tests of American timber by the forestry division of the agricultural department and making the first Monday in September (labor day) a legal holiday.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 22.—The income tax schedule of the tariff bill was now taken up. Kyle made a general argument in its favor. Senator Call, of Florida, shocked the spectators in the gallery by removing his shoes and elevating his "Sky Blue" stockings to a neighboring desk, while he fanned himself with a palm leaf. Teller supported the income tax proposition. He quoted the utterances of the leaders of the Republican party, Oliver P. Morton, Senator Sherman and Senator Morrill who advocated the tax in the past.

Anti-Option Bill.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 22.—Immediately on convening today the house went into committee of the whole on the anti-option bill. Aldrich of Illinois offered an amendment inserting flour in the list of agricultural products affected by the bill which was adopted on division 93 to 33. Committee by vote of 81 to 74 adopted an amendment exempting thirty day options from the provisions of the bill. Hatch and others, amid great confusion, raised a point of no quorum. Hatch said the amendment would destroy the bill. On demand for tellers, vote on amendment was found to be 92 to 92. It thereby was lost by a tie. The house adopted the Cox amendment, excepting the sales for the future delivery from operation of the bill whenever the seller is a bona fide owner of the property. The bill passed the house by a vote of 150 to 83.

Another Silver Move.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 22.—Pence of Colorado, will make an effort to have the Bland free silver bill attached, as an amendment, to the anti-option bill. Under ordinary circumstances the amendment would be ruled out, but as Livingstone, the ardent silver man, is in charge, it is claimed the vote will be secured on the silver question.

Peffer and Hill.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 22.—Peffer offered the amendment of which he gave notice to levy a graduated income tax. Peffer said it was true, as had been charged by Hill, that the income tax was a Populist idea. Possibly he would prefer a graduated land tax to a graduated income tax. "If you will give the senators on this side time," interposed Hill, "perhaps they will report a land tax." "I will give them five years, when this tax expires," replied Peffer, amid laughter.

Peffer said the Western people had been bawled of wood and drawers of water long enough. The Populist party proposed now to make the east shoulder its share.

Hill took the floor when Peffer concluded and congratulated the Democratic majority on its new leadership. The senator from Kansas, Peffer, had announced the income tax belonged exclusively to his party. Before he had made that announcement there had been senators on the Democratic side who evidently had labored under the impression that it was in some way a Democratic doctrine. Peffer was right. The income tax was one of the first principles of the Populist party. The Populists had been consistent in its advocacy and were now about to witness its triumph.

Peffer's graduated income tax amendment was defeated.

AN IMPORTANT ERROR.

Discovered in the Surveyor-General's Office.

PORTLAND, June 22.—Surveyor-General Byars has discovered an important error made in the recent proclamation of the president intended to exclude from the Cascade timber reservation the land lying in the Bohemian mining district. It appears that the description of the land excluded in the proclamation is incorrect, and that instead of the Bohemian district it excludes from the reservation and opens to settlement a tract lying considerably north of the one intended, while the mining district still lies in the reservation as it now stands. The surveyor-general has called the attention of the department to the error, and steps will probably be taken to correct it and to exclude the Bohemian district from the reservation.

About the usual force of deputies and assistants are in the field at the present time under General Byars, and several others will be sent out before the close of this month. The surveys are made only on the petition of settlers in the townships to be surveyed, and after their completion and approval the lands are thrown open for settlement. Most of the surveys are being made in the Cascade and Coast mountain ranges, and while there is more or less cultivatable land thrown open to settlement by them, they are in heavily timbered sections, where a great deal of clearing is necessary before the land can be cultivated.

A number of applications for surveys are now in the hands of the surveyor-general, and he expects to be able to accommodate all petitioners up to date this season, though the work has been hindered somewhat by recent decisions and the apportionment for public surveys has not yet been made for this state.

GOOD GOLD GOING GALORE!

This Week's Shipments Largest of the Year.

BANK OF ENGLAND INCREASING

All its Previous Reserves at Every Possible Point.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Advices from New York state the city banks have deposited $400,000 in gold in the subtreasury in exchange for United States notes. One million dollars in gold was today engaged for export, leaving the net gold reserve at the close of business today $64,127,969; and the cash balance today $116,155,404.

Biggest Gold Drain.

NEW YORK, June 22.—The total shipment of gold for the week is $7,550,000, the largest since January 1.

Bank of England.

LONDON, June 22.—The weekly statement of the Bank of England shows the following changes as compared with the previous account:

Table with 2 columns: Item and Increase. Total reserve 117,000; Circulation 83,000; Bullion 164,400; Other securities 184,000; Other deposits 1,882,000; Public deposits 181,000; Decrease.

The proportion of the Bank of England reserve to liability is 70.46 per cent.

Stabbed His Bookkeeper.

ST. LEWIS, June 22.—Dr. C. F. Simmons, president of the Simmons Medicine company, and superintendent of the Centenary Methodist Episcopal Sunday school, today stabbed his bookkeeper, John McBain, over the heart, inflicting fatal wounds. They quarreled regarding some accounts of the company.

Other Political Points.

TACOMA, June 22.—Chairman Sullivan called the Republican state central committee to meet here July 6th to arrange for the state convention. The convention will probably be held in September and will be the largest convention ever held in the state.

PITTSBURG, June 22.—A call has been issued for a national convention of the colored voter's league, of Pennsylvania, New York and West Virginia, to be held at Newcastle, Penn., on August 28th. The object of the league is to elevate the colored race, protect it from outrages perpetrated upon colored people of the United States and sow the seeds of independent thought and action. It is expected this gathering will be the largest of its kind ever held in America.

NEW YORK, June 22.—A special from Washington says the prediction that the reforms instituted by the Democratic administration of the pension bureau would result in converting 10 to the treasury at the end of the fiscal year several million dollars, is about to be realized. Commissioner Lochren has prepared a careful estimate showing that the surplus will be $25,000,000. Commissioner Lochren's estimate for pension disbursements in the fiscal year 1895 has been reduced from $165,000,000 to $140,000,000 so that the coming year's disbursement will effect a saving of another $25,000,000.

The Wheat Insect.

Rodney Scott reports that the small, green insect, that has been noticed in the Douglas county wheat fields, has appeared in Lane county. Mr. Scott says the insects appear between the rows of grain and are quite numerous in fields in his vicinity. No one seems to know the nature of the pest, but it is feared that it may prove destructive to the wheat crop. It resembles the aphid that is found on rose leaves.

Mr. Willard Simmons, of Harrisburg, stated to us today that the wheat fields in that vicinity, are covered with the insects, hardly a head of grain being free from them. Under a magnifying glass it has the appearance of a green grasshopper. The head of the wheat, also magnified, shows no damage thus far has resulted. Mr. Simmons is of the opinion that the warm weather will cause them to leave the wheat. He says that farmers are greatly alarmed over possible damage that may be inflicted by the unwelcome visitor.—Eugene Guard.

Samoa Rebels Attack the Government Forces.

BRAZIL'S REBEL PRESIDENT SHOT.

Serious Disturbances Have Broken Out at Huira.

AUCKLAND, New Zealand, June 22.—Advices from Samoa, dated June 14, reached here today. The British warship Curacoa and the German warship Buzzard visited the locality of the rebel camp recently and notified them that if 10 chiefs and 50 guns were surrendered no attack would be made upon them by the government forces, and the rebels were also informed that if they resolved to reject this proposition and fight, they were at liberty to have their women and children on board the Curacoa and Buzzard. After some deliberation the rebels sent 10 chiefs and 50 worthless guns on board the warships. After the departure of the warships the rebels reoccupied the forts and openly defied the government forces. On the Sunday following the rebels fired upon the village where Chief Malletoa was supposed to be attending divine services, and advanced upon the village itself. The rebels, however, were repulsed by the government force, with a slight loss on both sides. It was the evident intention of the rebels to attempt to kill Chief Malletoa, but he was absent at the time. When these dispatches left Samoa skirmishes were taking place between the rebels and government forces, but there had been no severe fighting.

THE POPE'S LETTER.

He Invites All to Enter the Roman Catholic Church.

ROME, June 21.—The encyclical of the pope has been approved by a committee of the college of cardinals, and will soon be promulgated. The letter says that, imitating Christ, who on the evening of his ascension prayed that his disciples be united, he, the pope, at the end of his life, desires to invite all men, without distinction of race or country, to enter the church. The encyclical expresses grief at the schisms and animosities which have torn flourishing countries from the bosom of the church, and the hope is expressed that divine pity and omnipotence will bring them back to the fold. The pope then addresses the Eastern churches, recalling the fact that their ancestors recognized the Roman pontiff; admits that they were well disposed toward Catholics, and promises that their rights and patriarchal privileges will be maintained in the event of union with the Roman Catholic church. His holiness then appeals to Protestants, and points out that they have no fixed rule of faith, nor authority, and asserts that many of them even deny the divinity of Christ, the inspiration of the scripture, and ends by falling into naturalism and materialism.

The pope made reference to the friction between the church and state in Italy by deploring the revival of the acts of oppression which animated the ancient royalties against the church. His holiness condemns the freemasons, claiming they are the enemies of religious union, and especially denounces the so-called audacious activity in Rome. Further, he calls upon Italy and France to shake off the despotism of freemasonry, in order that religious concord may exercise the evils of war, holding that Europe presents the appearance rather than the reality of peace and that education in husbandry, the arts and commerce is seriously menaced. The encyclical concludes with recalling a former one on the social question, which declared that liberty and the people can be made to harmonize with power and the rulers, whatever form of government exists, as the right to command and the duty of obedience proceeds from God, to whom the rulers must account for their stewardship.
