LITTLE LOCALS.

J. W. Brown and wife are in Eugene. Capt. and Mrs. H. L. Hatch went up to Eugene on the afternoon train yesterday. Another perfect day in June. Best strawberries still 75 cents a crate. Mrs. P. H. Dawson and daughter, of San Francisco, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Miller on South Cottage street. They will spend the summer in this city. Mrs. Dawson is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miller. Salem has a splendid double electric car service to the state fair grounds. Mr. and Mrs. George Watt, who have been East, are on their return to Salem. The last information from them indicated that they were in New York City and would soon start west. Miss Ella Carey, of McMinnville college, went to Seaside today. Miss E. Carothers, of Albany public schools, returned home today, from Mornmouth commencement. Rev. R. M. Messick went to Turner today, to take part in the great campmeeting. Miss Alena Mellen, an East Salem teacher is visiting in Independence. Mrs. Tom Van Dayn returned to Coburg today, after a visit at the home of Thos. Caulfield, Jr. Falling barometer indicates rain.

K. G. AT WOODBURN.—The Independent says: We stepped into the school house on Wednesday to watch the Kindergarten. About thirty happy little ones were just as busy as bees, threading cart-wheel figures on cardboard. They seemed to enjoy the work. Miss Ballou was assisted by Miss Bessie Stettinier, Miss Ida Mills, and Miss Lida Boynton. They have made a good beginning.

CORRECTION.—In the court proceedings an error of the types made THE JOURNAL say the result of the suit of C. J. Schreyer, vs. Turner Flouring Mill Co., was a judgment of only $95.22 for Schreyer. The fact is, he got judgment on a thousand dollar note, with interests and costs.

MR. MOREY.—Deputy Sheriff J. K. Mount, of Portland, came up last night with Geo. Morey, the murderer of Gus Barry. Morey was turned over to the prison authorities and will wear the stripes during the remainder of his life.

SENT UP.—The following were sentenced and committed to prison to-day: Sam Robinson, three years; Jas. Boggan, two years; H. B. Leroy, two years and a half years—the first two for burglary, the last for forgery.

WISCONSIN ORGANIZED.—All Wisconsin people are requested to meet at the store of George F. Smith, No. 120 State street Saturday evening at seven thirty to arrange for the States picnic.

ANOTHER JUNE DAY'S RACES.

Finest Weather in the World and Growing Crowds.
THURSDAY'S RACES.

A much better attendance was present at the opening of the special trotting races Thursday than the day before. The entries were Delta owned by Barrows Bros., Clatawa by O. J. Seely, Jack The Ripper by Merritt & McDonald. Bloomfield was reported sick and withdrawn. Clatawa led the first heat, time 2:31; and also the second in 2:27, giving him two best out of three and the race announced in favor of Clatawa. Purse 125.

Between heats came the one mile handicap bicycle race with the following entries:
 C. L. Home, Portland; M. O. Collins, Portland; C. A. Sears, Albany, H. B. Hewitt, Portland. The first prize $8.50 was captured by Hewitt, the second $5 by Home, Collins coming out third and Sears fourth.

The second race dash running was called at 3:15 with the following entries: Mowitza owned by L. H. Wellmore, Andine by J. B. Case, Oregon by Jones & Payne, Dottie Reid by J. J. Solgor.

Jim Crow, b. g., by Frank Hastings, Jr., by R. Maid, owned by W. Gilmore, of Grand Dalles.
 Rockland Boy, b. s., by Montana, dam R. Maid, owned by J. P. McNary, of The Dalles.
 George Dickinson, b. s., by Glen Dudley, owned by Phil Painter, of Brooks.
 Paddy Ryan, b. s., by Glen Dudley, dam Woodbury, owned by R. Tartar.
 Bicycle race, half mile, open; 1st prize, value $6; 2nd value $2.50. H. B. Hewitt and M. O. Collins, of Portland, and C. A. Sears, of Albany, are to ride. This is the contest that was called for Wednesday. It will be called between heats of the trot.

2:35 CLASS.
 This race was called at nearly 2 o'clock, and resulted in the following order:
 Little McCarty. 3 3
 Jack the Ripper. 2 2
 Clatawa. 1 1
 Time, 2:32; 2:30.
 Half mile bicycle race in 14, three entries.

 Shoe Sale, at 118 State Street.

The lighthouse tender Maudsanta has set the new whistling buoy at the mouth of the Columbia river, to take the place of the one carried away some time ago.

BICYCLE RACES.—Contributors to a bicycle race medal met last night.

The races are to be held on the fair grounds track and the first will be on Friday, June 24th at 10 o'clock. Entries for that race close Saturday night, June 23rd at 10 o'clock and must be handed to the committee, which is as follows: H. S. Jordan, Dr. W. B. Morse, Del Diamond, Hal D. Patton and Jas. R. Davis. The referee is C. M. Lockwood. The judges are H. S. Jordan, H. W. Meyers, Jas. R. Davis. The timekeepers are Dr. W. B. Morse, A. S. Brasfield, S. W. Thompson. The starter is Hal D. Patton. All amateur wheelmen eligible. The wheels will be limited to not less than 25 pounds in weight. The races will take place every two weeks.

COMMITMENTS.—The following state wards were received yesterday: To the asylum, Lydia Evaline Weimar, aged 6 years, and her sister, Mary Elizabeth Weimar, aged 7 years, both idiotic, from Gilliam county; John Shraum, from Douglas county, aged 61 years, and S. F. Warren from Marion county, an imbecile, aged 60 years. The state prison received Wm. Brown, from Umatilla, convicted of an assault with a dangerous weapon, one year; Frank McGetrick, same county, convicted of larceny in a dwelling, one year. The asylum commitments are a fair sample of the way that institution is filled up.

THE BEST RACE.—The race that makes a dollar for everybody who invests is to get a real good bargain in clothing. When you buy at G. W. Johnson & Son's, you do that.

QUADRUPLE RUNAWAY.
 North Commercial street was thrown into great excitement this afternoon. John Walling, of Polk county, was driving over the big bridge about 2 o'clock when he was followed by a runaway team coming to town. He got out of the way as fast as he could, but was struck by another team at Cusick's corner and thrown out, but not badly hurt. His horse with dog cart proceeded to Court street, where it struck John Mauer who was on the street at the time, knocking him senseless and wrecking the cart by colliding with a capital city ice wagon. Mauer was taken in a cab to his home. The ice team ran wickedly scattering the ice all over the street. They broke the wagon some.

Mauer is probably injured internally but the extent is not known. He was struck on the back and has a bad bruise on the abdomen. The Polk county team that started the runaways was caught on Chemekete street, but another team they started ran and suspended itself over a hitching post, one of the horses falling in the harness. The ice team was captured at Yew Park school house.

SALEM'S NEW POSTMASTER.

B. F. Bonham is one of the Democratic landmarks of Oregon. Of Southern birth, he came to the state when it was a territory, teaching school and reading law on French Prairie when that was a center of population. Then Marion county was called Champoe county, after a village built about a steamboat landing on the Willamette of that name. It was the Indian word for Sand-Camp, and the Indians named it correctly for old mother Wallamutt in one of her watery rampages got up one night and swept away Champoe. All that was left after the flood was a sandbar and the Indians camped there as of yore. But this is not the history of Judge Bonham, which was founded on something more than sand, for he was soon a practicing lawyer and appointed territorial librarian. The office was not exactly a sinecure. There was not much salary and still less library. The former was $250 a year. Delazon Smith, with that contempt for the federal government which animated many of the earlier statesmen and does some still, went in to raise the salary to $500 a year. But the department at Washington refused to recognize the right of the earlier statesmen and does some still. A succeeding legislature decided it was just to pay that sum and the judge got it. But the legislature got mad and refused to re-elect Bonham. J. C. Peebles, then chief clerk of the legislature was chosen, but Bonham filled the office for him until along in 1860 when they parted company politically. Both had been Democrats, but Peebles went off after what young Bonham and his friends then called false gods, to-wit, the union cause which was embraced by such men as Benjamin Harding, R. P. Boise, A. Bush and others. Peebles and Bonham remained friends personally, if not politically, and the former had P. S. Knight, then a green young Congregational theologian, installed as librarian. Peebles was elected county judge and Bonham went to Eastern Oregon, where he practiced law in Union county, returning after several years and again making his home at the state capital.

Judge Bonham has served almost constantly on the Oregon bench and bar since then, interrupted only by his four years in the foreign service. He has always been an uncompromising Democrat, but rather inclined to scholarly tastes, and declining to be offensive in his partisanship. As a counselor and pleader he has few superiors in Oregon. Inclined to progressive views of the civil service, Judge Bonham as postmaster will seek first to give the people a first class administration of the mail service in the second city of Oregon, and second to serve his party as far as is consistent with his duties as a public official.

OPINIONS ABOUT THE P. M.
 Said by Republicans and Democrats About Bonham's Appointment.
 M. L. Chamberlin: "Probably the most satisfactory appointment that could have been made."
 Scott Bozorth: "It is first-class."
 D. J. Fry: "It is a good appointment. I am well pleased with it."
 W. G. Westcott: "The selection is as good as could have been made, and will tend to party harmony."
 P. H. D'Arcy: "A good appointment."
 J. J. Dalrymple: "Everybody is pleased with the appointment."
 T. Holverson: "Very Good."
 R. H. Leabo: "Judge Bonham is competent and worthy."
 Geo. G. Bingham: "The appointee is no mugwump or Populist. He is the right sort."
 A Democrat: "He will make a good postmaster if he has the right sort of a deputy."
 Dr. Cusick: "Eminently satisfactory; not identified with any faction; has a clear record."
 A. I. Wagner: "It is a good appointment. It is unobjectionable. I am glad the president selected so good a man."
 Amos Strong: "All right; could not be better."
 Fred Hurst: "Just so we get our mail all right."
 H. V. Matthews: "Eminently satisfactory."
 E. P. McCracken: "A happy solution."
