CAPITAL JOURNAL PUB. CO.

LITTLE LOCALS.

A little more of cool and cloudy weather. - E. S. McNulty and C. W. Weller are Portland asylum arrivals.

Wild flowers are now glorious. - Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Thompson are now living in the cottage on the north side of Center street, between Commercial and Front, just west of the home of Mr. Thompson's father.

Poor hay weather. - They do say that Presbyterian picnics lay over them all.

Miss Anna Haas has closed her Hazel Green school very successfully.

Mrs. Fannie Thomas, maiden name May, was not committed for insanity a second time after examination by Dr. Bradshaw and A. O. Condit before Judge Hubbard.

The old game law permits the killing of deer after July 1st. A new law passed at the session of the last legislature makes the open season begin August 1st.

Sportmen can take their choice. - Mrs. Peter Runey and family, of Eugene, are at Foley springs. Mr. Runey has so far recovered that he expects to be able to follow in a few days.

A Medford man enjoyed a meat runaway on State street this morning, breaking his buggy, but no bones.

NOTHING PERSONAL. - Some people are thinking THE JOURNAL, in its criticisms of the state fair, is hitting at Mr. C. B. Irvine, the temporary secretary.

This is an error. Mr. Irvine only gets $40 a month, and if he were paid sufficient to devote his entire time and attention to the fair, would no doubt make it much more of a success than it has been.

There will always be some who construe everything a newspaper says as springing from a personal motive, or to gain a personal end.

True journalism does not strike an individual until it becomes absolutely necessary.

What is wanted by the people is that our state institutions shall be a source of pride. To make them such is the true object of our criticism.

Ys PENNSYLVANIANS. - The enthusiastic meeting of Pennsylvanians at Dr. W. B. Mott's office last night selected Dr. Freeland, of the Congregational church, to deliver the address at the states picnic on the Fourth of July.

Arrangements will be made for all Pennsylvanians to group together during the dinner hour. Stove and table room will be provided.

To prepare ample space, all expecting to attend will please register at Fry's drug store or Osborn's Racket store, stating number in families.

No REST. - The attendants of the Salem cash market are kept busily at work all day long, waiting on their numerous customers.

Try their choice cuts of meats sold cheap for cash, and you will always leave your orders there. Cattle Cash block.

NEBRASKA. - All natives of the state of Nebraska are requested to meet on Saturday at 7:30 p. m. at the office of E. R. Ryan on Commercial street to make arrangements for the States picnic on July 4th.

REFORM THE STATE FAIR.

For the amount of property invested and the amount of money it receives, the state fair is the worst failure of any state institution. Unless the management can be reformed and new life put into the fair it is doubtful if any increased patronage can be secured for it in the future.

What can be done? It has been the custom in the past to employ a secretary who had some other business, and a few days before the fair he would come to Salem and pay what attention was absolutely necessary to transact the business.

Specialization and organization of the different departments, the fruit interest, agriculture, sheep, live stock, horses, manufactures, poultry, every important interest, worked up systematically and persistently from now until the opening of the fair, might make a fair a success in Oregon.

Gold Medal Bicycle Races.

Friday evening at 7 o'clock sharp will occur the first contest of Salem bicyclists for a gold medal, to be held under sanction of the league of American wheelmen.

This medal was raised by a popular subscription, and the grand stand will be absolutely free to all who wish to attend.

The following named young men have entered for the medal and as the entries have closed no more can get in: Jo Albert, R. S. Miller, Perry Card, E. E. Eller, Chester Murphy, A. A. Jessup, A. T. Steiner, A. B. Gardner, T. J. Hoover, Frank Howe, C. Lawrenson, P. H. Sroat, Paul Hanson, H. J. Singleton, Chas. Winters, Geo. P. Russell.

The distance to be made is ten miles. The best record known is about twenty-seven minutes and while it is not expected that the Salem boys will make this time, a time limit will be set to give impetus to the race.

INCORPORATIONS. - The First Spiritual society of Astoria, for teaching spiritualism and occult sciences. - Also drygoods house of Lipman, Wolfe & Co., Portland, capital stock of $300,000, filed articles with the secretary of state today.

GOOD AS GOLD. - That is the name of the famous boys' shoes sold at Osborn's Racket store for $1.40, but they are worth $2.00 per pair.

LEAVE. - Leave your orders with J. A. Van Eaton for canning cherries. The May Duke and Kentish will be in their prime all this week.

GREAT IS OXFORD. - So is that line of ladies' Oxfords just opened at Osborn's Racket store. Complete assortment, and never before so cheap.

Ho! for New England. All natives of the New England states are requested to meet on Thursday at 7:30 p. m. at the office of Gov. Chadwick in the Murphy block to make arrangements to take part in the States picnic.

TIPPED. - Ladies' cloth top, patent leather tip shoes for $1.75, at Osborn's Racket store, worth $2.50.

WHICH. - Some people say "oats is" while others say "oats are," but Brewster & White say oats were never before so plentiful cheap as now.

STRANGE CASES. - Of all the strange cases on record none compare with those numerous cases of new shoes just being opened at Osborn's Racket store.

CONSOLIDATION. - The Brasfield clothing stock is being consolidated with that of E. C. Small on the corner.

WHEAT APHIS. - W. T. Ramsden, came down from Albany today by team and left at THE JOURNAL office some samples of wheat heads which are infested with the green aphid. He says he examined many fields of fall grain along the road and finds nearly all inhabited. The heads are well covered with the lice, but they seem to be doing no particular damage, as the heads are apparently too hard for the little fellows to get into.

PURE AS SNOW. - We don't have to say much about our laundry work, simply because it advertises itself. We use only filtered water and white labor. You know the rest. The Salem steam laundry.

WILL CELEBRATE. - The Fourth of July will be observed at the State Reform school with marching, exercises, plenty of flags and a match game of base ball. Sunday all the boys will march to the Turner campmeeting.

INSANE. - Mary L. Embree, of Clackamas county, a woman of lewd habits and unsound mind, was committed to the state asylum today.

WEATHER FORECAST. - Precipitation, Thursday and Friday showers, stationary; barometer.

Rent Tax Raised. - The chamber of deputies, by a majority of 68, has approved the proposition to raise the tax on rents twenty per cent.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Local Correspondence from Towns in the Valley. FROM BETHEL. Frank Lapp is on the sick list. Thomas Trice will soon have his new barn ready for hay.

Fire was discovered in the J. B. Early home, on Friday, of last week, which originated from the pipe upstairs. Loss amounting to about ten dollars. The musical entertainment given by D. W. Early and class was pronounced a success.

A number of people from this place attended campmeeting at Turner, on last Sunday. A great many samples of green wheat have been brought to town showing the different kinds of lice.

C. Carlton and wife, of Salem attended campmeeting Monday. W. J. McGinnis came home Sunday from the June races.

Miss N. Quinn is on a visit at Sublimity. Miss Myrtle Johnson is one of the many campers from Salem this week.

Mr. Browning and family took their departure for Maryland, where they will make their home. Mr. Holemand, a minister attending meeting here, returned from Portland today with a lovely bride. A charivari is talked of tonight.

Rev. Mr. Hank, the China minister, preached to a large crowd last night. He told of his trip to China last summer and how his mother thought she would see her son no more and that he was lost because he had joined the church. He says China people are dull but when they join the church they are never known to be called backsliders.

Quite a large crowd attending campmeeting here, returned from Portland today with a lovely bride. A charivari is talked of tonight. We Ran No Blue Book. ROSEBURG, Or., June 27.
