

PUSH THE STATE FAIR.

The Salem Statesman has the following: As considerable has been said of late relative to an exhibit at the coming state fair showing the advancement of the children of the forest...

As the editor of the Statesman is secretary of the state fair, he is the right man to take hold of this and make it a success. The farmers and the public generally want more entertainment at the fair.

The Ex-Rev. Harry Watkins, who stopped the state for Penneyer, is still preaching to public crowds at Portland. If Penneyer had won he would probably have had one of the highest places in his kitchen cabinet...

We pity a man who does not know vigorous old English proverbs from profanity. The editor of the Independent is evidently not a believer in hell.

Nonconformists Make Trouble. A correspondent says that the nonconformist farmers of Wales, in order to convince the government of the necessity for the early introduction of a bill for disestablishing the state church there...

A Well Worn Bond. A curiosity in the shape of a Delhi town bond for $500 was turned in to the town treasurer a few weeks ago. It was punctured so full of pinholes as to be almost unreadable...

An Historic Pen. Whenever the ex-empress of the French writes about her lamented husband, she invariably uses the diamond pen which signed the treaty of Paris. Each of the 14 plenipotentiaries wanted to keep the pen with which he signed the Paris treaty...

That Tired Feeling. Is a dangerous condition directly due to depleted or impure blood. It should not be allowed to continue, as in its debility the system is especially liable to serious attacks of illness.

Our Grandmother's Way. Was to steep root and herbs and use it every night. We can do the same by using Park's Tea. Nothing acts so promptly and without discomfort.

SUGGESTED COMMENT. Everybody can get THE ONE CENT DAILY for the same price—50 cents a month in advance. No tally taken in payment.

The only illustration of Mt. Hood the night of July 19th probably originated in the brain of some enterprising hotel keeper at its base.

That renowned journalist of world-wide fame, Col. U. C. Day, of the Dallas Observer, heads his letters from the national editorial association, "The Nation's Editors." He is there himself.

It was just the best bit in bad taste for Judge Thom. M. Cooley to write Cleveland that "God Bless You" letter has yet written him any such letter, but probably would if they held a fat office like Cooley.

All the Oregon editors are prominent at the meeting of the National Editorial association at Asbury Park, N. J. There is Day, of the Dallas Observer, and Col. Eddy, of the little fellows like Harvey Scott and Bob Hendricks, have to stay at home.

Arbitration Not Necessary. Arbitration is not now necessary for the A. R. U., the Knights of Labor and all other people have come to an understanding and say that they can buy good goods cheaper at THE FAIR, 108 Court street, than any other place on the Pacific coast.

There is hopes for Fletcher of the Independent, so long as he reads THE JOURNAL. He should not look to it for pety or he is lost. It prints the news and expresses the sentiment of the hour it is published, whatever that may be.

"How Well You Look"

Friends Surprised at the Great Improvement. "I take pleasure in writing the good I have received from Hood's Sarsaparilla. Every spring and summer for six years my health has been so poor from heart trouble and general debility that at times life was a burden. I was so emaciated and

Weak and Pale that my friends thought I would not live long. I could do scarcely any work at all and had to lie down every few minutes. I began getting worse in January, losing my flesh and feeling so tired. I thought I would try Hood's Sarsaparilla and I am happy to say I am in better health than for

Hood's Pills cure River ills, constipation, biliousness, sick headache, indigestion.

21 Street Car Incident.

It was in a street car, and the usual motley crowd gathered on one of these public conveyances was at its best. The front part of the car was filled with men who were coming from work—clerks, most of them, and all fairly dressed. One laborer, with mud splashed overalls and a tin bucket in his hand, was squeezed between two portly passengers and was the only one of his class in the car.

Clean Streets. We must have more of the sense of beauty and aesthetic fitness entering into our domestic, civic and national life. The present municipal officers of our different American cities care but little about it. The condition of our American streets was the occasion of the most caustic comment from foreigners during the World's fair period.

Colorado is a splendid place for people with weak lungs, but thousands of people in that condition cannot possibly go to Colorado. There is not one, however, who cannot keep a supply of Alcock's Porous Plasters. The moment any one feels that he has taken cold, one of these world-renowned plasters should be put on the back between the shoulder blades, and another on the chest.

Short Breath, Palpitation. Mr. G. W. McKinney, postmaster of Kokomo, Ind., and a brave ex-soldier, says: "I had been severely troubled with heart disease ever since leaving the army at the close of the late war. I was troubled with palpitation and shortness of breath. I could not sleep on my left side and had pain around my heart. I became so ill that I was much alarmed, and fortunately my attention was called to Dr. Miles' Heart Cure I decided to try it. The first bottle made a decided improvement in my condition, and five bottles have completely cured me."

Cable From Queen Lili. Dear Graham—One more boon I crave, 'Tis not to murder Dole, the Knave, Or put down insurrection; 'Tis not my crown, but to save, I write in deep dejection, And so a package I must have Of Park's Tea for my completion. GUSHMAN'S ANSWER TO QUEEN LILI. When I received your Cablegram I thought I sure would faint; For though I loathe use Park's Tea 'Tis not for your completion. I feel that Mrs. G. we think would about our connection 'Till on her dresser there I saw Park's Tea for her completion.
