Take the One Cent Daily

An Oregon Newspaper—California news does not suit you—Eastern papers will not answer—This is distinctively the Oregon Newspaper entirely covering Oregon interests.

SUGGESTED COMMENT.

Make Salem a home market.

Push the state fair, 'n'n or shine.

THE ONE CENT DAILY has ten thousand readers.

Go to the state fair. Take your wife. Bring your exhibits.

This damp weather illustrates the value of having a home fruit dryer.

The school book trust should not be legalized in Oregon for six years to come.

Push that dairy exhibit gentlemen. Oregon is naturally the Pacific coast queen of dairy states.

People read THE ONE CENT DAILY because it is a cheap, reliable and independent newspaper.

Business men advertise in THE ONE CENT DAILY because more people read it than all other Salem dailies put together.

One of the main reasons why the Pacific railroads employ chinamen, Japs. and Malay Islanders, is because they can't vote.

The Union Pacific railroad company has issued notice to all employees in future to abstain from any participation in politics; all men not willing to keep out of politics are requested to resign.

The Salem Democrat ought to have kept on in its crusade against Dolph. It should now get some bloodless, sweatless mugwump to join. That would make a very pretty team, a sorrel mule and a kicker.

Iowa State Register: Of course Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt is responsible for her husband's escapade with Nellie Newtrett! Who ever heard of a husband being personally accountable for his own capers of that sort!

There were 330 convicts in the penitentiary at noon September 1. One year ago, on September 1, 1893, the number was 345. With a declining prison population will some one explain why it is necessary to begin building that on additional new wing to the state prison?

The Oregon railroad commission: "These men are all right. It is the ignoramuses who passed the law who need to be prodded."—Albany Democrat. That is right; cuss the legislature. The men who take $10,000 a year of the people's money to fix rates to suit corporations, they are all right. That is about the size of the Democrat as a reformer.

The Vermont Election.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Sept. 6.—Returns from the election thus far received show a probable Republican majority for the state ticket of 30,000.

The Old Man Was Game.

HERNDON, Ky., Sept. 6.—A party of young men near Kirksville, started to conduct a charivari against a newly married couple, Stephen Giles, a widower of sixty, who married a Miss of sixteen. ## IN POLITICAL FIELDS.

Ex-President Harrison Delivers a Speech.

WILSON'S OPPONENT IS NOW CHOSEN

Republicans Called Upon to Do Their Duty.

ELKINS, W. Va., Sept. 6.—The Republicans of the second congressional district never had so large a convention as the one that nominated Alton Gordon Dayton, of Brighton county, to run against W. L. Wilson, chairman of the house ways and means committee. Ex-President Harrison arrived at 1 p. m., and is the guest of ex-Secretary Elkins. A committee was appointed to call upon the president and invite him to address the convention. He was greeted with loud applause. Mr. Harrison, after stating that he had not expected to make a speech, said in part:

"You are assembled here to discharge a public duty, and will not, therefore, detain you with a long speech. This district will be before all eyes this autumn. The contest is not local. It appears your present representative has been chosen to represent the tariff bill and has attached his name to it. It is therefore expected his conduct will be subjected to a severe and carefully scrutiny. Fortunately, the proclamation has been made by Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Wilson that the tariff bill is not a finality, but a distinctive warfare to go on. If you approve this, show it by returning Mr. Wilson to congress; but, if on the other hand you have felt the effects of the depression, if you think more of those who prefer to lead the country through the sloughs of despondency, show it by defeating him. I cannot say much of the last administration; delicacy forbids me to say much, but if you consider the heads of departments and subordinate officers, you will see there was an attempt to act for the best interests of all people. I cannot say how we have succeeded, but only that we have done the best we could. If the people of Elkins this fall condemn the recent action on the tariff, we shall have an end of tariff tinkering. When the tide of immigration started from the southward it turned to Ohio and the interior valleys, but it is now turned toward West Virginia. Now the spring of commerce is coursing through our fertile valleys. The pick and shovel are busy. Is this a time through cheap ocean rates to bring into competition with your products the cheap coal of Nova Scotia? I speak as a patriotic American who feels an interest in the honest people. To your judgment by the November firesides this question must be settled, and may you have the courage to do your duty."

The ex-president was received with enthusiasm and his brief speech was applauded at various points. SECRETARY VILAS SPEAKS. MILWAUKEE, Sept. 6.—At the Democratic state convention today, Senator Vilas delivered a long address. It was an attempt to show that the panic last year was the result of Republican misrule. He said tariff reform was delayed but not defeated. NEVADA'S SILVER TICKET. CARSON, Nev., Sept. 6.—At the opening of the silver party's state convention the announcement that Senator Jones had withdrawn from the Republican party was greeted with rousing applause. The convention unanimously nominated F. G. Newlands for congress, and the following: State ticket: Governor, John E. Jones; lieutenant-governor, R. Sadler; associate justice of the supreme court, M. S. Bonfield; secretary of state, Eugene Howell; attorney general, Robert Beatty; controller, C. A. Lagrave; treasurer, W. J. Westerfield; surveyor-general, A. C. Pratt; state printer, Jos. McCarthy; superintendent of public instruction, H. C. Cutting; regents of the state university, long term, W. E. Deal; short term, H. S. Starratt. The platform adopted denies the right of the government to restrict the coinage of gold and silver at a ratio of 16 to 1; demands the abolition of national banks, the collection of the Pacific railroad debt, and the government ownership of telegraph and railroads.

IS IT CHOLERA?

A German Immigrant Said to Have Died of It.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—A telegram was received today by Surgeon General Wyman, of the Marine hospital service, from Cumberland, Maryland, announcing the death there of a German immigrant with symptoms of Asiatic cholera. Dr. Wyman said: "I do not believe the man died of Asiatic cholera. There is no cholera in Bremen port from which he is said to have come."

DEMPSEY-MCCARTHY FIGHT.

A Purse of Two Thousand Divided on a Draw.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 6.—Jack Dempsey and Billy McCarthy, of Australia, fought a draw battle last night. Both men were carefully trained and entered the ring promptly at 9 o'clock, followed by their seconds. Each received applause. The contest was confined to twenty rounds. John Duffy was referee. Dempsey was the first to weigh, fixing the scales himself. He weighed 168 pounds. McCarthy weighed 164 pounds. Time was called at 9:15.

DETAILS BY ROUNDS.

Round 1.—McCarthy led for the stomach and Dempsey scored a body blow. Dempsey landed with the right on the head, and then both landed heavy swings on the head and lefts on the jaws.

Round 2.—McCarthy scored with the right on the body. Both landed on the head and McCarthy caught a heavy left hand swing on the jaw, the round closing in Dempsey's favor.

Round 3.—Dempsey landed another right on the jaw which nearly knocked McCarthy down. He received terrible punishment in this round which closed with Dempsey landing with the left on the nose.

Round 4.—This was Dempsey's round. Round 5.—Both men missed and nearly fell to the ground. Dempsey was now the aggressor and landed right and left on the face.

Round 6.—McCarthy was the aggressor, but Dempsey landed on the jaw. Dempsey seemed to score heavy blows at will. McCarthy did the heavy swing and nearly lifted Dempsey off the ground.

Round 7.—The Australian forced Dempsey to the ropes and landed with the right without getting a return. Dempsey then returned with rights on the face and head and had much the better of the round.

Round 8.—McCarthy clinched. He missed with the right on the jaw and nearly fell through the ropes. Dempsey continued his terrific rights on the body, both landing lefts on the head and fell on the ropes. There were several clinches in this round, mainly due to Dempsey's generalship. Dempsey landed two rights on the jaw just as time was called.

From this until the 20th round, Dempsey did all the execution but he could not knock out his game opponent. The purse of $2,000 was divided.

IOWA SOLDIERS MONUMENT.

Corner Stone Laid by the Masonic Fraternity.

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 6.—The laying of the corner stone of the Iowa soldiers and sailors monument took place today at this city. The parade was second only to that of the great Battle Flag Day celebration. Governor Jackson was president of the day and made the principal address. The ceremony of laying the stone was in charge of the masonic fraternity. There has been much comment about this, many members of the G. A. R. objecting and insisting that their order was the only one that could properly be called upon to perform that ceremony. But the masons carried the day and conducted the affair very successfully.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 6.—War operations are making slow progress. It is reported that the Japanese have threatened to withdraw their promise not to molest Shanghai if the Kiangnan arsenal here is not closed. This threat is supposed to be an indirect move which may possibly provoke the interference of Great Britain, as the arsenal is pronounced unimportant.

A Southern Revolution.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—A very unsettled state of affairs apparently exists in the principal cities of Venezuela. An encounter between 300 revolutions and 900 government troops is said to have taken place in August in which the rebels were defeated.

EASTERN OREGON CRIME.

One of a Band of Robbers Captured by a Poss.

CONDON, Or., Sept. 6.—Monday morning at 10:40 Myron Hamilton was shot and killed at this place by James Barnard. Both are residents of the south end of this county. Barnard was tried and convicted here last spring for cattle stealing, and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. After being there a few days he was released by the supreme court for a new trial at Condon this month. Hamilton was a witness against him, and was at Sheriff Wilcox's house. Monday, when Barnard rode into town, he put his horse in a stable, walked up to Wilcox's and shook hands with Mrs. Wilcox. He called Hamilton out, walked up the street with him, then back, and when near Wilcox's front gate, drew his revolver and shot Hamilton in the back of the head twice, once in the back and once in the left arm. One shot went by and struck the residence of G. W. Rinehart. Five shots were fired. Hamilton fell dead against Wilcox's gate. Barnard then ran to the stable, mounted his horse and rode out of town, waving his revolver at the citizens to frighten them back. A posse started in pursuit.

News came in late Wednesday night that Barnard was, at 2 o'clock p. m., 25 miles from here, his horse nearly fagged out and the posse within a mile of him. Barnard was within a mile of his brother Elmer's Cant Zachary's and his brother-in-law Brown's, beyond Butte creek and West Fork.

The Barnards and Zachary's are the same chaps that earned fame in connection with the Roslyn bank robbery. Indictments are out against two or three of them now in this county.

The coroner's jury returned a verdict of "premeditated and deliberate murder," and named James Barnard as the murderer.

PORTLAND, Sept. 6.—A special to the Evening Telegram, says John Barnard, who shot and killed Myron Hamilton, at Condon, Oregon, last Monday, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head.

A THREATENED UPRISING.

Indians in the Northwest Preparing for an Outbreak.

BATTLEFORD, N. W. T., Sept. 6.—We are threatened with an Indian uprising. Saturday a settler named Day brought word that the Indians around Jackfish lake had risen, and seized all the guns and ammunition and horses belonging to settlers in the neighborhood. It is said Gabriel Dumont is there and is inciting the Indians to make trouble.

That story, however, is not sustained by any evidence and may have no foundation in fact. Thirty of the mounted police went out there late Saturday night and nothing has been heard as to their movements since their departure. Much anxiety is felt. The Indians are non-trusty Indians and belong to the Sotos. All the white women have been removed to one large house, which is in itself a sign of danger. Six of the young Indians in the industrial school ran away two days ago and are supposed to have joined their brethren who are threatening trouble.

INDIANS IN IDAHO.

BOISE, Idaho, Sept. 6.—Agent Van Arsdale has returned from Owyhee county. He reports three lodges of Fort Hall Indians there and a number from Duck valley. He thinks all will return to the agencies at once. He makes no report to the state authorities about alleged depredations.
