There is perhaps but one strictly spot cash grocery and crockery store in Salem, viz:

The Blue Front, 335 Commercial St.

They carry the best assorted and largest stock of goods in their line in the city. Their prices are always the LOWEST to be found anywhere. Unquestionably they under sell their competitors 15 to 20 per cent. It is now just three years since this enterprising firm made their first bow to the public and asked their patronage upon the only legitimate business basis of the SPOT CASH system. Their enormous trade is evidence of people's satisfaction with LOW PRICES for SPOT CASH. No store ever encountered a more united opposition than did the "Blue Front." They were considered intruders and their LOW PRICE cash system an innovation which was solidly and hotly opposed by every grocery in the city. The Blue Front has not advertised extensively. They have depended largely upon the good will and good words of their customers who freely recommend their friends to trade at

In Police Circles.

State fair week has brought not a few victims to the city, but it must be said few go there for want of something to eat. It is remarkable how few consumers of the necessities of life there are in Salem. What is the cause of this? Who is responsible for it? Here is the plain truth: The low prices of groceries maintained by the Postoffice Grocery store of Harritt & Lawrence. They are the leaders in low prices, and people appreciate their methods.

YOU CAN'T SHARPEN.—A pencil with a dull knife and you can't write with a dull pencil. Nothing to do with the Salem steam laundry you say. Of course not. We merely wish to sharpen your mind in regard to the good work the Salem steam laundry does at a very small expense. No Chinese labor.

It seems that he rode the wheel over into Tillamook county where he disposed of it for a gold watch and $40 in money. The wheel was secured and brought home some time ago. This man Baxter is deaf and will be remembered by many as an employe at the deaf mute school when Mr. Knight was in charge. The platform denounces the American Protective Association.

This is regarded as tant amount to an indirect censure of Brice. Milton Turner, a one armed soldier, was nominated for secretary of state. A dramatic scene occurred during the discussion, upon the proposal to elect senators by ballot. John H. Clarke, of Mahoning, declared in bitter terms that the senate was a millionaires' club. Senator Brice sat upon the platform looking as pale as marble. Tom Johnson said he did not believe that Brice bought his way to the senate.
