VALLEY LOCAL NEWS.

BROOKS.
On last Thursday T. J. Clark and family moved from this place onto their new place near Salem. Mr. Clark's have been residents of Brooks for the past year. On Wednesday evening a number of the young folks of the vicinity gathered at the home of Miss Myrtle and spent evening by playing games until about 11 o'clock when a lap supper was partaken of after which the young people retired to their respective homes. Somehow Charles and Willie were out a little later than usual that night.

Miss Ottilie McClard left for Chemawa Thursday where she will assist her mother in the mess hall.

Mrs. Hoover has a brand new cook stove.

E. H. Anderson, of Oregon City, has moved into Grandpa Beatty's little building that has been previously occupied by Prof. Myers, and is prepared to take all kinds of pictures.

Mrs. Wm. Blanton and her sister, Miss Flora Anderson, left here Tuesday for Eugene, having received the intelligence of the serious illness of their sister Lethe. Miss Anderson spent last winter here with her sister.

Geo. Stinges' have moved into the house vacated by Mr. Clark's.

Chas. Chauncey, of Lafayette, began work for Geo. Massey Monday.

Mrs. Collard and wife spent Sunday with Mrs. C's parents.

Geo. Massey and family spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. M's brother, Mr. Baehor, at Aumsville.

Our school began Monday.

Mr. Hoover has built a new porch on the east side of his dwelling and Charlie is now busy erecting a wood house.

JEFFERSON.
T. W. Van Buren, whose house was burned at Marion a few days ago, has moved to this city.

Miss Ada Thomas, of Turner, will teach both vocal and instrumental music in our city this winter.

School opened Monday October 1st with quite an increase over last year's enrollment on the first day.

Quite a large crowd witnessed the following program which was rendered at the M. E. church Saturday evening September 29, for the formal opening for commencement of the school:

Song.
Opening remarks by T. M. Witten.

Song.
Lecture, "Practical Hints to Young People," by Prof. Buzze.

Both the opening remarks and the lecture were highly appreciated by all. Prof. Barzee deserves much credit for the good advice given to the young people and we hope that it will be a great benefit to them.

STAYTON.
Miss Susie Kerns is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. David Wyatt and son, Harold, are the guests of Mrs. Balsey this week.

Mrs. Briggs and Laura Derbyshire returned home from a short visit at Newport Saturday.

Miss Minnie Magers was quite ill the last of the week, but is able to be about again.

Miss Hunt returned Saturday from a visit with friends in Salem.

DIRECT NEWS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 4.—The steamship Gaelic arrived this morning from Asiatic ports, bringing the following advices from special correspondents of the Associated Press:

YOKOHAMA, Sept. 21.—All Japan is ablaze with enthusiasm over the victory at Ping Yang. Although the reports of the desperate fighting telegraphed from the field say the contest cannot possibly have been a severe one, the losses on the Japanese side are not reckoned above a few hundred, killed and wounded. The Chinese loss is not known, but a majority are understood to be prisoners.

Four Chinese generals surrendered, with all the troops they could control, as well as the entire store of arms and munitions and treasure, variously estimated as worth from one hundred to four hundred thousand dollars.

Yesterday, September 20, while the excitement caused by the victory was at fever heat, but meagre news was received in Tokio of the brilliant naval success in Korean waters near the mouth of the Yalu river. At a point 35 miles northeast of Hai Yung Tao the Japanese and Chinese fleets met, the latter consisting of eleven men-of-war and six torpedo boats. After an engagement of several hours the Chinese fled, leaving four ships sunk and one burned. The latter is said to have been destroyed by the crew. The Japanese fleet is reported entirely unimpaired. Authentic reports are not yet at hand.

The Japanese emperor's progress from Tokio to Hiroshima, where he will supervise the army and navy movements, was the occasion for an unprecedented display of loyal enthusiasm.

Twenty-five years ago the sovereign of Japan could not be looked upon by his people. When he passed all heads were bowed and all bodies prostrated. His name could not be uttered by the masses. Now he comes and goes freely, and listens with obvious pleasure to the acclamations of the populace, and turns his countenance in response to every demonstration.

NO OBJECTIONS FROM CHINA.
BERLIN, Oct. 4.—The Frankfort Zeitung: "The Chinese minister at London proposed to the British government that Russia, Great Britain and France dispatch troops to the treaty ports of China to protect the interests of foreigners, and he has given assurance that China would raise no objections."

BRITISH SUBJECTS PROTECTED.
LONDON, Oct. 4.—The cabinet council met today with most of the ministers present. Sir William Harcourt, chancellor of the exchequer, was absent. The meeting lasted one hour and a half. It is understood that a perfect agreement was reached respecting the plan submitted for the protection of British residents in China.

SHANGHAI SAFE.
TOKIO, Oct. 4.—The Italian minister has obtained a pledge from the Japanese here that their forces will not attack Shanghai.

ADVERSE REPORT.
LONDON, Oct. 4.—A dispatch to the Times from Shanghai today says: According to the Chinese reports no pitched battle was fought at Ping Yang, Corea. The Chinese forces only numbered 12,000 men and they were greatly outnumbered by the Japanese. The Chinese general Yen was prostrated with dysentery, and withdrew his forces. General W., the Chinese say, did the same leaving only General Tso with a force of 200 men to fight against overwhelming odds, and all were killed except 80, who were taken prisoners.

Nothing is known at Shanghai to-day.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma.

garding the reported insurrection and mutinies of Chinese troops. Native vessels from Nang Poo report five Japanese warships lying off the Chusan Islands, 500 miles from Nang Poo. The presence of ships near Nang Poo has caused a scare.

Japanese Progressive.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The Japanese minister of finance has officially announced that the war will not be allowed to interrupt the internal improvement of Japan. Consequently railway construction is to proceed with the same vigor as in peaceful times. The minister has arranged so that the treasury shall keep separate accounts of war expenses and those for internal improvements in order that the former may not overshadow the latter. The late customs house reports in Japan show that her trade with the United States is greater than with any other power. The total trade last year was about 4,000,000 yen. British trade, which comes second, is 500,000 yen. The Japanese people and press are reporting to the Chinese emperor's proclamation, directing that the Japanese "wo-jin," meaning pigmies, should be driven to their lairs. The Chinese are being called "chau chau," meaning perillity, "tongpau," meaning pig-tailed vagabonds. China is referred to as "mei-so-koku," the country in which the people cannot make up their minds. The Japanese papers are already printing cuts showing the route of the Chinese on land and sea.

Pekin's Weak Defense.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The Herald has the following special from Shanghai. It is reported that the Japanese have captured Kiu Lien Cheng, on the eastern side of the Yalu river, nearly opposite Wu Ju.

One hundred and fifty thousand men have been gathered at Peking for the defense of the city, but of this number only 7000 are effectively armed.

Only 50,000 soldiers are available for the defense of Chi Li, that of Li Hung Chang—and these are raw recruits.

The Japanese army has landed to the north of the Yellow, or Hoang-Ho river, in the southern part of the Gulf of Pe-Chi-Li, to intercept the transport of troops from the south, via the Grand canal, to Tien-Tsin.

A Japanese fleet of seventeen ships is now blockading the Gulf Pe-Chi-Li. Prince Kung is favorable to foreigners and the western development of the Chinese empire.

French troops are massing at Tomquin.

Gold Pirates.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Additional advices were received yesterday by the steamer Madiara, which arrived from West Indian ports, regarding the gold fever in the disputed country between Brazil and French Guiana. The colonists in the latter province are on a hunt for gold, and there are thousands of pirates and free booters waiting for them to find it and are ready to rob them of it. The government of French Guiana is powerless to protect them because of the international dispute over the country. Already the pirates have begun their work, according to news received.

Dufferin Interviewed.

BELFAST, Oct. 4.—Lord Dufferin, British ambassador to France, who is spending his vacation here, was interviewed and said he was prepared to be recalled at any moment; nevertheless there was no reason for immediate alarm in the relations between Great Britain and France.

Murder Rewarded.
LONDON, Oct. 4.—The general whose soldiers murdered the Scotch mission ary, James Wylie, in Sine Yang has been promoted to be general commanding the Tartar troops in Fuh Kien province.

Not Blockaded.
PARIS, Oct. 4.—The minister of foreign affairs denies a blockade at Madagascar has been proclaimed by France. The minister of marine declares before such a step could be taken the European powers would have to be informed of the intention of France.

Boilers Turned Down.
LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 4.—Secretary of state decides to recognize the Bryan ticket, named by the state Democratic convention, turning down the boilers' ticket.

Turned Populist.
CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—It is announced today that Judge Lyman Trumbull is in sympathy with the Populist party. Judge Trumbull has long been regarded as a staunch Democrat.

GIVING UP THE DEAD.

Fifty Bodies Cast Up by the Sea.

THE FRUITS OF THE HURRICANE.

More Ghastly Evidences of the Storm Expected.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 4.—A special dispatch from Key West says that fifty bodies have been washed ashore on the islands around Key West. The dead are evidently sailors, from vessels destroyed. The probabilities are that many more ghastly evidences of the hurricane will be brought to light within a few days.

From all obtainable evidence it is now believed that this was one of the worst in history. It was not only one of the most severe in its character and effects, but covered probably a larger area than any other storm of record in these parts of the Atlantic.

Prof. Swing Dead.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Prof. Swing died last night of acute blood poisoning, brought on by an attack of jaundice. Prof. Swing was born in Cincinnati, August 26, 1830. In the sixties he accepted the pastorate of the Fourth Presbyterian church, one of the wealthiest and most influential institutions of its kind in Chicago. In 1871 he was tried before the Chicago Presbytery on charges of heresy preferred by Rev. Francis L. Patton, now president of Princeton college. The charges, which were lapses from Presbyterian doctrine, were not sustained, but the consequent feeling was so bitter that Prof. Swing brought matters to a close by resigning his pastorate.

The Iiwaco Banker.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 4.—Last month a banker of Iiwaco, Wash., named J. R. Morrison, disappeared in a mysterious manner. After several days a letter was received from him from this city, but it contained no reference to anything that had occurred within the last three years. Indeed those years appear to have been blotted from his memory. Inquiry was made at the hotels here, but nobody knew Morrison. Last night a telegram was received from Morrison's home in Iiwaco, stating that he had reached the home of his mother in Ohio. He has evidently been out of his mind.

Reciprocity Stops.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 4.—The local flour millers have been notified that the trade in Cuba which they had worked up under the reciprocity treaty is probably at an end. Under the treaty the duty on flour was $1 per barrel, but since the passage of the Gorman-Wilson bill the treaty has been ignored and the duty raised to $4.50 per barrel.

Shot Dead.

SEATTLE, Oct. 4.—A desperado at 10:20 this evening walked into the Mug saloon and ordered the dozen men present to throw up their hands. Charles H. Birdell, the barkeeper, reached for his pistol, but the desperado was too quick, and shot him through the heart. Birdell fell dead, and the desperado, still covering the crowd with his gun, backed out and escaped. It is rumored that he is the Payssilap murderer.

Will Act.

BERLIN, Oct. 4.—The czarowitz will act as regent should the czar's condition become serious.

THE MARKETS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 4.—Wheat, Cash 72 1/2.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Wheat, Cash 51 1/2; Dec. 54 1/2.

PORTLAND, Oct. 4.—Wheat valley 70; Walls Walls 68 1/2.

Georgia Democrats.

SAVANNAH, Oct. 4.—Returns from the congressional district embracing Savannah indicate 4,000 Democratic majority, a falling off of 1200 in two years. Counties in the Tom Watson district show 500 Populist majority. The heaviest Democratic majorities are returned from counties endorsing the administration's financial views.

ATLANTA, Oct. 4.—Enough reports have been received by the Atlanta Journal up to noon to indicate the average Democratic majority of 20,000 to 15,000. Atkinson, the Democratic nominee for governor, has been scratched in all parts of the state and his majority will not exceed 15,000. Democrats will have thirty majority in the senate and fifteen in the house. Every congressional district except Black's and Watson's went for Democrats. A great surprise is the defeat of Warner Hill, a prominent candidate for speaker of the house. His county went with the Populists.

Farmers' Congress.

PARKERSBURG, W. V., Oct. 4.—The fourteenth annual session of the Farmers' National Congress began yesterday. The attendance is not as large as was expected, though several men of prominence were present. At the session a letter was read from Secretary Morton, saying it was impossible for him to be present. Resolutions declaring for protection for wool and cotton were offered by Judge Lawrence, president of the National Wool-Growers Association, and referred.

STAGE GLINTS.

Richard Mansfield is negotiating for a long lease of Harrigan's theater, New York.

Professor Herrmann, the conjurer, and Manager George W. Lederer have at last settled amicably all their differences.

John T. Kelly, the Irish comedian, will not star this season, but will stay at home to write songs and get a good piece for next year.

In all probability Mrs. Langtry will take Lillian Russell's time at Abbey's theater, New York. The engagement will begin on Nov. 4.

The arena scene in Robert Downing's production of "The Gladiator" is an exact reproduction of Jerome's celebrated painting of the gladiatorial combat.

James G. Blaine, Patrick Egan and Admiral Gherardi are impersonated in "Old Glory," the new play by Charles T. Vincent, which A. Brady has produced.

It requires more electrical apparatus to produce "Off the Earth," in which the American Travesty company is playing, than is carried by any other organization on tour.

Thomas Canary will build a theater in New York. It will be situated on Broadway on the northeast corner of Forty-second street. It will be completed by May 1, 1895.

It is worthy of note that Nat C. Goodwin has never known a failure in his life, and he has played in more pieces and made more productions than has probably any other actor of today.

Fred C. Whitney manages more light opera singers than does any other manager in the world. There are to be 80 people in the Rob Roy company, 67 in support of Louise Bandett in "Chloquette" and 65 in "The Fencing Master."

TURF TOPICS.

Ed Corrigan has bought Senator Irby. Sam Gamble drove Stamboul a mile this season in 2:14.

Thomas Jefferson, son of Toronto Chief, died recently at Charter Oak track.

The 4-year-old, Dr. Rice, has been retired indefinitely, owing to the condition of his legs.

Malcolm Forbes believes Nancy Hanks is not with foal by Arion. Belief is expressed that she is not fertile.

A petition is being circulated for the reinstatement of "Father Bill" Daly, who was ruled off recently at Brighton.

Get There was recently drugged in a heat at Chicago while a hot favorite and lost the race, and investigation is on. The loss on the Charter Oak meeting was $10,000, owing it is said, to the prohibition of betting, which kept people away.

Another trotting bred pair is coming rapidly to the front. He is Ed Easton, who went a mile at Indianapolis recently in 2:07 1/2.

Owners complain that eastern tracks make the big purse programmes so high class that there are not horses enough to go around.
