BOLD FIREMEN PERISH.

The Detroit Firemen Fight a Losing Battle.

BODIES TAKEN FROM THE RUINS.

A Heavy Property Loss Is Also Sustained.

DETROIT, Oct. 5.—A fire occurred this morning in Keenan & Hahn's furniture store. Keenan & Hahn's loss is $60,000. Insured for $50,000. The loss on buildings, owned by Traugott Schmidt is estimated at $20,000. Fully insured. Three firemen have been taken out dead.

LATER.

The following firemen have since been taken from the ruins dead: Lieutenant Michael Bonogbus, firemen Richard Dely and John Page, Frederick A. Bussey, a spectator, was taken to a hospital and died, Mike Gray was so badly injured that he may die. Mike Hall and Julius Cummings are still in the ruins and certainly dead. These are injured: Lieutenant O'Rourke, fireman F. Stock, fireman C. Cronin. The aggregate loss on building and stock is estimated at $80,000. Fully insured.

The Deadly Wire.

BOSTON, Oct. 5.—Two more employees of the Boston Electric Company have been killed by live wires. One of the men named Day was engaged in fixing a lamp on the top of a pole when he received a shock and fell over lifeless, his body belt, which had been fastened about the pole, holding him in midair. His clothing took fire and he was being slowly roasted. A number of the unfortunate man's fellow workmen were summoned, and one of these named Mantro essayed to save Day. He climbed the pole for the purpose of cutting the wire, but as soon as he touched it with his pinchers he received a shock throwing him from a pole, fracturing his skull. He died shortly after. Day was subsequently taken down but died in a few minutes. A man named McCarthy was thrown by the electric shock from another pole and sustained serious injury.

Not Time To Interfere.

BELGIUM, Oct. 5.—The Independent-Beige says: "The time has not yet come for England to interfere in Chinese affairs. England's differences with France are grave, but if negotiations be prudently conducted a settlement should not be difficult."

Democratic Bluster.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 5.—The Democratic state central committee, knowing that to talk tariff this year is fatal, has resorted to throwing dust into the eyes of the Buckeye voters and sends out the following epistle:

"By the repeal of the McKinley law and the passing of the law now in force, tariff reform has been substantially won and the taxes of the people, especially upon the necessities of life, have been much reduced and their opportunities thereby enlarged. In all probability there will be another general revision of the tariff for years to come; the money question, therefore, is now the supreme issue before the country. The importance of the question whether silver shall be restored to its full money power cannot be overestimated. It affects every interest, great and small."

The address says the business depression has been brought about by the shrinkage in the volume of money relative to population and business. If the amount of money in circulation could be made to bear a direct and steady ratio to the population and business, prices would be maintained at a steady level and, what is of supreme importance, money will not change but little in value.

Murderer Captured.

SEATTLE, Oct. 5.—The murderer of Charles H. Birdwell was captured last evening in the Bayview lodging house by Detective Cudihoe and Officer John Corbett after a desperate encounter, during which Cudihoe came very near losing his life. He gave his name to the police as Robert Blanck, but said it was assumed.

Cudihoe and Corbett went out to the house, Corbett remaining outside, and as Cudihoe entered he saw his man cross the hall and enter a room. He went to the room and asked to have a little conversation with Blanck. Blanck pointed a revolver at Cudihoe and said, "Throw up your hands." Quick as a flash Cudihoe crooked his arm over his head and dived headlong at his antagonist. The desperado pulled the trigger and the bullet grazed Cudihoe's neck. Cudihoe seized him by the waist and threw him on the bed where a life and death struggle ensued. Just then Corbett rushed in and beat the desperado over the head.

At police headquarters the man said robbery was his business and that he shot Birdwell in self defense.

A. P. A. Strength Feared.

DENVER, Oct. 5.—In his October pastoral, Bishop Matz says the church in Colorado is passing through an appalling crisis. He says:

"It is sectional bigotry which, led on by a set of fanatics, bids fair to outdo the followers of Cromwell and the maniacs of the French commune. It is a fact which has called forth the amazement of the most remarkable men of our time that an age like ours, and a country over which floats the American flag, should have fostered this American Protective Association monster, which, while it carries the constitution of the United States in one hand and the Bible in the other, would fain strangle in its fangs the church whose children fought so bravely under the stars and stripes against tyranny and oppression, but nevertheless the fact remains, and is, indeed, more strange than fiction."

The bishop urges Catholics to vote only for men that are above prejudice, party passions and sectarian bias.

Farmer Financiers.

PANAMA, N. Y., Oct. 5.—The farmers' national congress adopted resolutions calling upon the president and United States congress to call an international congress of all nations ready to unite for the free use of gold and silver as a full legal tender without discrimination, and secured the United States congress for repealing the Sherman act without making provisions for the exchange of silver dollars. A resolution was also adopted demanding that equal protection be given to farm products with other industries in all tariff legislation, and that a committee be appointed to confer with a similar committee of congress to secure equal adjustment of schedules.

Postmasters for Oregon Offer.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—Postmasters were appointed for Oregon as follows: U. M. Leitch, at Green Bay, Marion county; W. T. Shier, at K. no, Klamath county; Mrs. Martha Hogan, at Lone Rock, Grant county; J. H. Kessler, at Hamlet, Clatsop county; M. E. Hutchinson, at Bristol, Clatsop county; and Miss Nathan, at Sals, Lane county.

WAR CLOUD SPREADING

China Meeting Rebellion in the Province of Mongolia

PEACE OF EUROPE THREATENED.

England's Intervention May Drag in Other Nations.

TIEN TSIN, Oct. 5.—Riots have reached here of a rebellion broken out in the province of Mongolia. Troops from Peking have been sent to quell the uprising. Serious troubles are said to have arisen within the palace at Peking. Residents of Tien Tsin are taking every precaution possible against an anticipated attack by natives.

PARIS, Oct. 5.—The Figaro referring to British intervention in the Korean trouble, remarks: "The British once landed in China, would not be able to resist the desire to exercise pressure upon the Japanese to prevent them from deriving all the advantages of victory. Troubles may then commence and the peace of Europe be threatened, for Russia, France and even America will certainly intervene."

Patrolling Chinese Ports.

SHANGHAI, Oct. 5.—Chinese merchants are cancelling freight contracts to the Che Foo and Tien Tsin, owing to the report that the Japanese intend to blockade their ports.

Several Japanese warships are patrolling the coast near Wei Wei Hai, a Chinese port on the Shantung Promontory. They approach the coast at night and steam away at day break. It is said the object is to prevent Chinese warships from leaving Wei Wei Hai or Port Arthur on the opposite side of the Yellow sea. It is also stated that the Japanese do not intend to interfere with the export of coal to China.

An International Affair.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—St. James Gazette says the interest of England, France and Russia are closely involved in the possible breaking up of the Chinese empire, and it is believed that Russia has signified that she cannot any longer regard the progress of events in the far east with indifference. The Manchester Guardian is informed that Russia and Great Britain have definitely decided that a settlement of the war must be an international and not a Japanese affair. Germany and France are said to have acquiesced to this decision, while the policy of the United States is still regarded as uncertain. Russia, according to the Guardian, has already warned Japan that the future of Corea concerns the Russian government.

Li Hung Chang May Hang.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5.—Advice from Yokohama state the efforts of Li Hung Chang to bring about foreign intervention through the agency of diplomats at Peking had been completely nullified by the warlike relations of his superiors. That the aged statesman is in a position of some danger is admitted on all sides. The ruler he has so faithfully served for fifty years, giving them power and security when their very existence was menaced, and sacrificing ambition and even personal honor in their cause, are now exasperated at a mishap for which they hold him responsible, that they are ready, according to the best authority, to inflict humiliation if not heavier punishment upon him unless the tide of disaster can be turned.

An Official Denied.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—Officials of the Chinese legation here deny the story printed in the Frankfurt Zeitung that the Chinese minister in London has proposed to the British government that Russia, Great Britain and France dispatch troops to the treaty ports of China to protect the interest of foreigners.

U. S. Warships.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—The Chermon has arrived at Yokohama. There are now five United States warships in the East, the Charleston, Baltimore, Manassas, Concord and Fattel, and this force will be increased to eight vessels by the addition of the Detroit, Mantua and Yorktown.

THE RECORD BREAKER

Flying Jib Again Passes a Mile in Less Than Two Minutes.

CHILLICOTHS, O., Oct. 5.—The grand stand and ground on the fourth day of the Driving Park meeting was filled to overflowing, over 10,000 people being present. The chief feature of the day was the special in which Flying Jib was to go against the world's pacing record of 2:01 3-4, which was made by Westmont at Chicago. Monroe Sallsbury, owner of the pacer, drove out Jib and his running mate attached to a pneumatic tire in the afternoon and the Californian and his flyer were greeted with immense cheers by the immense audience. After making the turn of the track, Andy McDowell, the only driver that ever drove a pacer in less than two minutes, mounted the seat and took the reins. He got away immediately and it was apparent to every horseman present that the clip was a record breaker if he kept it up. At the first quarter the pace was unbroken and as he lit out for the half his speed was manifestly increasing. The flagman was not at the quarter post owing to a misunderstanding and the judges' watches were pressed for the first time at the half, which Jib reached in 59 flat. At the three quarters the great pacer appeared to falter, but his time was also lost and if any speed was to be made it was on the stretch. The last half was made in 59. When the wonderful pacer darted under the wire, Starter Loper had to ring the bell to quell the riot of cheering throats.

Once it was quiet Starter Loper said: "We have witnessed something which no audience in the world has seen before. You have seen the fastest mile ever paced. Flying Jib has beaten Westmont and made the mile in 1:58.1."

THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.

Government Directors Try to Tell What Caused the Bankruptcy.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The government directors of the Union Pacific this afternoon made public their report to the secretary of the interior of the operations of the system for the year ending June 30, 1914. After reviewing the causes which led to the appointment of receivers in October last, they discuss the difficulties experienced by the latter, and add:

"We feel that we are entirely within bounds in saying that the result of the guaranty traffic and construction contracts entered into by the Union Pacific Railway Company since 1887 have caused that company a loss exceeding $7,000,000, and have been an important, if not the controlling, factor in causing the bankruptcy of the company."

Oregon Press Officers.

PENDLETON, Or., Oct. 5.—Officers were elected by the Oregon Press association at the eighth annual meeting yesterday as follows: President, John R. Beagle, St. Helens; first vice president, C. C. Doughty, Dallas; second vice president, Frank G. Hall, Milton; secretary, Albert T. Foster, Pythias, Portland; treasurer, Charles Nickell, Jacksonville; historian, George H. Himes; sergeant at arms, Ira L. Campbell, Eugene; guard.

Newport has been selected as the next place of meeting.

Bank Robber Captured.

BLOOMFIELD, Ind., Oct. 5.—The robbers who dynamited the Bloomfield bank safe Wednesday night, and got away with nearly $5000, were run down with a posse and a pack of bloodhounds last night. There are three, one of whom was shot down. He gave his name as Charles Rivers. He had $1,100 of the stolen money. He is badly wounded and will die. The other two robbers eluded the posse.

About the Car.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—Alarming reports reached the stock exchange today about the czar's health. They had but little effect upon the market, as they were denied.

RELAPSE DENIED.

Officials of the Russian embassy discredited the report that the czar has suffered a relapse.

HE IS THE BOY.

McMurray, at Tacoma, Formerly in the Oregon Reform School.

It has now been definitely ascertained that Fred McMurray, who is connected with the murder of Jeffries at Puyallup, is the boy who escaped from the Oregon reform school at Salem last May. The Tacoma Ledger thus describes him:

He was a nice looking boy that a Ledger reporter was admitted to see at the county jail yesterday. The boy's name is Fred McMurray and he was the companion of Hamilton, the desperado, when the latter shot and killed Constable William Jeffery at Puyallup last Sunday afternoon.

Of unkempt appearance, with shifty eyes, downcast look, slouchy figure and general air of carelessness, the lad is a perfect specimen of the country town tough boy. Of such material are tramps and criminals made. Just such types fill the reform schools and houses of correction.

McMurray is a prolific, but not an expert or artistic prevaricator. In his conversation with the reporter yesterday he admitted as much. "It don't make no difference," said he defiantly, "what I tell all these people. When I get before the judge I'll tell my story straight. The others don't count."

"But is what your are telling me about yourself true?" was asked.

"O, yes, that's straight now. You've just asked questions and I've been answering them right."

McMurray is attired in a black cotton shirt, ragged trousers that are split up over the ankle from the bottom of one leg and a worn pair of shoes. He answers the description given at Puyallup perfectly. The mark under his left eye is not a scar, but a birth mark and extends down on his cheek.

Here is McMurray's own story of himself:

"I was born in Ellensburg, Or.," said he, "and will be 16 years old the second day of next July. My father's name is James H. McMurry. My family now resides at Hillsboro, Or. When I was born my father was a farmer. We all went to Kansas when I was between 3 and 5 years old and settled at McPherson, where my father ran a dray for a time. When I was about 9 years old we went to Beaver City, Tex. There my father ran a dairying business for about a year and then we went to Hillsboro, Or., where we stayed a short time. My father went back to Kansas and my mother and us children went to Sumner, near here, to visit my uncle, Will Barret, who was a sawyer in Paddy Ryan's mill that was burned. We stayed there a year and then we went to Yakima, where my folks ran the Old Yakima hotel up to about two years ago, when we went back to Hillsboro, Or. My folks are living on a farm there. About a year ago I left home."

"Did you run away?"

"No, just walked. There wasn't any running away about it. I went to a place just below Chehalis on the line that runs to Ocosta. I worked in Crossie's shingle mill there up to about a month ago. Then I left and went to Yakima on the train, and I've been working there picking hops."

Continued Ovation.

NEOLA, Ia., Oct. 5.—Governor Jackson introduced Governor McKinley at Council Bluffs this morning to several thousand people to whom he made a political speech. Along the route of his journey through Iowa, crowds had assembled to greet him and everywhere was displayed the flag of which he speaks in every address.
