Years ago I preached a sermon on another phase of this very subject, and I got a letter from Houston, Tex., the writer saying that the reading of that sermon in London had led him to God. And I received another letter from South Australia, saying that the reading of that sermon in Australia had brought several souls to Christ. And then, I thought, why not now take another phase of the same subject, for perhaps that God who can raise in power that which is sown in weakness may now, through another phase of the same subject, bring salvation to the people who shall hear and salvation to the people who shall read. You might as well take a frail churning thunderbolt of waters and expect to work your way up through the lightning of the foam into calm Lake Erie as for you to try to pull yourself through the surf of your sin into the hope and pardon and placidity of the gospel. The Willingness of Christ, But while I have shown your help essness I want to put by the side of it the power and willingness of Christ to save you. I think it was in 1686 a vessel was bound for Portugal, but it was erous hearted race, and they resolved to fare of his children! He rowed hard to driven to pieces on an unfriendly coast, The captain had his son with him, and with the crew they wandered up the beach and started on a long journey to find relief. After awhile the son fainted by reason of hunger and the length of the way. The captain said to the crew, "Carry my boy for me on your shoulders." They carried him on, but the journey was so long that after awhile the crew fainted from hunger and from weariness and could carry him no longer. Then the father rallied his almost wasted energy and took up his own boy and put him on his shoulder and carried him on mile after mile, mile after mile, until, overcome himself by hunger and weariness, he, too, faintdied, and the father, just at the time rescue came to him, also perished, living only long enough to tell the storysad story indeed!

But glory be to God that Jesus Christ is able to take as up out of our shipwrecked and dying condition and put as on the shoulder of his strength, and by the omnipotence of his gospel hear us on through all the journey of this life and at last through the opening gates of heaven! He is mighty to save. Though your sin be long and black and inexcusable and outrageous, the very moment you believe I will proclaim pardon-quick, full, grand, uncoudi-tional, uncompromising, illimitible, infinite. Oh, the grace of God! I am overwhelmed when I come to think of it. Give me a thousand ladders, lashed fast o each other, that I may scale the height. Let the line run out with the anchor until all the cables of earth are exhausted, that we may touch the depth. Let the archangel fly in circuit of aternal ages in trying to sweep around this theme.
