

25 CENTS PER MONTH BY MAIL.

CAPITAL

JOURNAL

COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER.

VOL. 7. DAILY EDITION. SALEM, OREGON, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1894. DAILY EDITION. NO. 245

THE NEW YORK RACKET

Keeps a full line of the Brown Shoe Co.'s... Shoes of all kinds and sizes. Their prices are... very low, and quality good. Also a full line of... Hats of latest style, and Shirts, Overalls, Jack... ets, Gloves, Suspenders, Hosiery of all kinds,...

E. T. BARNES

333 COMMERCIAL ST.

Competition the Life of Trade.

This is an old saying, yet quite true. Without competition we, like all others, might ask too much for our goods. As it is it drives us to purchase our goods strictly for cash, which we give our customers the benefit of.

Union Bargain Store, - 142 State Street.

M. J. MATSON.

SALEM IMPROVEMENT CO.,

LIME, CEMENT, SAND,

And All BUILDING MATERIAL.

95 STATE ST.

HOTEL WILLAMETTE!

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

IT is the purpose of the Manager to offer special inducements and give particular attention to families who desire Day Board, and to gentlemen who require permanent accommodation, special rates will be made.

A. I. WAGNER, Proprietor.

GRAY BROS.,

Hardware, Wagons, Carts, Road Machinery AND AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.

PERRY & CO.,

Engines repaired. All kinds of Job Work neatly done Near Depot, Salem, Oregon. Correspondence solicited.

GARDEN HOSE!

Churchill & Burroughs,

RED FRONT LIVERY STABLE.

WALLING & HICKEY, PROP. A Full Supply of Horses and Buggies on Hand. Horses Boarded by the Day, Week or Month. Corner Commercial and State streets, SALEM, OR.

MORTON'S COACHMAN.

The Court Says He Must Return to England.

DISGRACED BY HIS SECRETARY.

A Democratic Politician Sued for Services Rendered.

Sued by His Secretary. CHEYENNE, Oct. 19.—Suits were begun in the district court today by I. S. Bartlett against Henry A. Coffeen, the Democrat candidate for congress. Bartlett is Coffeen's private secretary and sues to recover $290, which he claims Coffeen "ducked" from his wages and $242.50 for extraordinary services, such as writing Coffeen's speeches, preparing eulogies, newspaper interviews, puffs, etc.

Morton's Coachman Must Return.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Judge Lacombe today dismissed the writ of habeas corpus in the case of John James Howard, Levi P. Morton's English coachman. Under this ruling Howard must go back to England.

New York's Police Victims.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Before the Luxon committee examination: Captain Copeland, of the harbor police, was called to the stand soon after the recess. He denied that he had given orders to his subordinates to refuse to allow counsel for the committee to examine the station blotter. Moss finally succeeded in procuring the blotter, and called attention to an entry made June 13, which stated that a citizen had reported to the sergeant that H. R. Klein was going around collecting money for excursion parties. The man said he was acting under instructions from Captain Copeland. Copeland claimed he had investigated the matter, but that he could not find any person by the name of Klein. He was then questioned concerning the violations of the excise law in the harbor. He admitted violations were going on, but said it was useless to try to bring the offenders to justice. The patrol operated by the police department is a large boat, and when officers reached any of these excursion boats they could not find any traces of liquor-selling. Mrs. Kittie Canech, a poor Slav woman, told a story of a banker getting her money away from her. She had secured the arrest of the banker, but the case had been postponed again and again, and lawyers and police officers were getting all her money.

Hill Not Arrested.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

Still Yielding Dividends.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Pullman Palace Car company was held here yesterday. Over $25,000,000 capital stock was represented. The directors were re-elected. The usual quarterly dividend of $2 per share was declared from the net earnings and will be paid November 15 to the stockholders. The directors and officers of the company absolutely refused to discuss the meeting further than to say that no action looking toward any change in the officers or policy of the company was contemplated. It is known, however, that the meeting discussed earnestly the chances of legislation adverse to the interests of the company, which it is feared some of the legislatures of the various states may take in the near future.

Base Ballists Unite.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—Baseball men representing six cities quietly gathered here and after six hours' deliberation Frank B. Hunter announced the formation of the American association of baseball clubs with a circuit that will include New York, Philadelphia, Brooklyn and Washington in the East, and Chicago, Pittsburgh and Milwaukee in the West. The eighth club is to be located in St. Louis, Columbia or Buffalo, with the chance favoring the latter. The general admission will be fixed at 25 cents. Buying and selling ball players of all classes is prohibited.

Consecrated a Bishop.

TRAFALGAR, N. J., Oct. 19.—The consecration of the Right Rev. James McFaul, bishop of the Catholic diocese of Trenton took place at St. Mary's cathedral, in this city, of which Father McFaul has been pastor for the last four years. Archbishop Corrigan was the consecrator, assisted by Bishop McLaughlin, of Rochester, and Bishop McDonnell, of Brooklyn. Archbishoppates present were Corrigan, of New York, Ryan, of Philadelphia, and Chaput, of Santa Fe, N. M.

Stood By Breckenridge.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 19.—Prof. J. H. Jones, of Hamilton Dental college, and pastor of Providence Christian church in this city, has been deposed from his pastorate by lay members who objected to his mixing up politics with religion. Prof. Jones took a prominent part in the Breckenridge-Jesse campaign against Gov. Breckenridge, and a majority of the officers in the church were sympathizers with the colored.

Fixed to Make a Trip.

SALEM, Oct. 19.—A dispatch from the Oregonian says that the steamer of the Oregonian line will be fixed to make a trip to the coast of Mexico, and a majority of the officers in the church were sympathizers with the colored.

LATE NEWS ITEMS.

Hillsboro had a $2,000 fire this week with an insurance of only $500. Four boxes of ripe strawberries were to be seen in the Albany market Wednesday. 1,100 head of horses were sold in Malheur county, last week for $2,000, less than $2 a head. The Albany Democrat says: The Wizard Oil Co. has reached The Dalles and will in time be lubricating matters through this valley. Mr. O. Johnson's hop house and entire crop of hops, 13,000 pounds, near Sherwood, were destroyed by fire last week. Building and contents were insured for $700 in the hop growers' association. Origin of the fire is not known. Davidson, for years a newsboy traveling on the Southern Pacific train, reports that the first trip out from Portland with the Morning Sun, he sold 40 to 100 Oregonians. The demand was a popular that he expects hereafter to carry an equal number of each. With regard to the location of the proposed sugar beet factory, the Union Republican, Union county says: The best beet sugar factory, near Pomona, California, paid out $110,000 during August for beets and labor. Here is an idea of the great benefit the sugar factory will be to Union county. We must have the factory. The Portland police commission has over 500 applications for appointments on the police force. Many are from men now holding paying, if not lucrative positions, and it would almost lead a thinking person to conclude that the police of New York are not doing a little side business. It evidently pays to be a policeman. The Wool Scouring & Packing company of Pendleton, a new enterprise, is more of a success than was anticipated. The plant, which cost about $50,000 and gives employment to 55 hands, has handled nearly 4,000,000 pounds of wool this year. It is by the establishment of such an enterprise that Pendleton has become the wool center of the inland empire.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE DALLES, Oct. 19.—Local officers now deny the arrest of N. Hill, agent of the Pacific Express company, Messenger Tibbets and Watchman Gibon for complicity in the robbery of the company's office at this place. Notice was given by one of the city officers and it is supposed to be good authority. The fact remains, however, that Hill is still relieved from duty at the office pending an investigation of his carelessness in leaving the box containing the money on the office floor so poorly protected. The town is full of detectives who are following several different clues, but they seem as far from a solution of the mystery as when the robbery was first reported.

THE WAY OF ALL FLESH

The Czar Soon to Be Gathered Unto His Fathers.

A CHANGE IN STATE OFFICIALS.

The Family of the Doomed Man Awaiting the End.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 19.—There seems to be no longer any reasonable doubt about the Czar's rapidly approaching end. A dispatch from Livadia today announces that his condition has changed for the worse since yesterday, and the imperial family is alarmed. It is reported here this afternoon that an imperial edict will be published Monday, entrusting the agency to the Czarowitz, to General Count Vorontzoff, aide de camp to the emperor, and minister to the imperial house. K. P. Pobiedonostief procurator general to the holy synod, actual privy councillor. Witte, minister of the interior, and General Vannoski, minister of war.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 19.—It is announced here that the condition of the Czar is desperate. Prince-elector Alex of Hesse, the fiancée of the Czarowitz, left Darmstadt this morning for Livadia. Trouble for Hawaii. PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 19.—The barkentine Amella, from Honolulu brings news that Queen Lilioukalan's emissary in Washington, Widemann, had returned with personal assurances from Secretary of State Gresham, that in the event of a revolution in Hawaii, the United States government would remain neutral. Captain Ward, of the Amella, was told by Samuel Parker that similar assurances had been given by an Admiral Walker, of the Philadelphia. This news has been generally circulated through the island and caused a feeling that hostilities between royalists and provisionalists might be resumed at any time. Capt. Ward believes the royalists will attempt to restore her, however, before long and prophesies the next revolution will not be altogether bloodless.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 19.—It is announced here that the condition of the Czar is desperate. Prince-elector Alex of Hesse, the fiancée of the Czarowitz, left Darmstadt this morning for Livadia. Trouble for Hawaii. PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 19.—The barkentine Amella, from Honolulu brings news that Queen Lilioukalan's emissary in Washington, Widemann, had returned with personal assurances from Secretary of State Gresham, that in the event of a revolution in Hawaii, the United States government would remain neutral. Captain Ward, of the Amella, was told by Samuel Parker that similar assurances had been given by an Admiral Walker, of the Philadelphia. This news has been generally circulated through the island and caused a feeling that hostilities between royalists and provisionalists might be resumed at any time. Capt. Ward believes the royalists will attempt to restore her, however, before long and prophesies the next revolution will not be altogether bloodless.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 19.—It is announced here that the condition of the Czar is desperate. Prince-elector Alex of Hesse, the fiancée of the Czarowitz, left Darmstadt this morning for Livadia. Trouble for Hawaii. PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 19.—The barkentine Amella, from Honolulu brings news that Queen Lilioukalan's emissary in Washington, Widemann, had returned with personal assurances from Secretary of State Gresham, that in the event of a revolution in Hawaii, the United States government would remain neutral. Captain Ward, of the Amella, was told by Samuel Parker that similar assurances had been given by an Admiral Walker, of the Philadelphia. This news has been generally circulated through the island and caused a feeling that hostilities between royalists and provisionalists might be resumed at any time. Capt. Ward believes the royalists will attempt to restore her, however, before long and prophesies the next revolution will not be altogether bloodless.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 19.—It is announced here that the condition of the Czar is desperate. Prince-elector Alex of Hesse, the fiancée of the Czarowitz, left Darmstadt this morning for Livadia. Trouble for Hawaii. PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 19.—The barkentine Amella, from Honolulu brings news that Queen Lilioukalan's emissary in Washington, Widemann, had returned with personal assurances from Secretary of State Gresham, that in the event of a revolution in Hawaii, the United States government would remain neutral. Captain Ward, of the Amella, was told by Samuel Parker that similar assurances had been given by an Admiral Walker, of the Philadelphia. This news has been generally circulated through the island and caused a feeling that hostilities between royalists and provisionalists might be resumed at any time. Capt. Ward believes the royalists will attempt to restore her, however, before long and prophesies the next revolution will not be altogether bloodless.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 19.—It is announced here that the condition of the Czar is desperate. Prince-elector Alex of Hesse, the fiancée of the Czarowitz, left Darmstadt this morning for Livadia. Trouble for Hawaii. PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 19.—The barkentine Amella, from Honolulu brings news that Queen Lilioukalan's emissary in Washington, Widemann, had returned with personal assurances from Secretary of State Gresham, that in the event of a revolution in Hawaii, the United States government would remain neutral. Captain Ward, of the Amella, was told by Samuel Parker that similar assurances had been given by an Admiral Walker, of the Philadelphia. This news has been generally circulated through the island and caused a feeling that hostilities between royalists and provisionalists might be resumed at any time. Capt. Ward believes the royalists will attempt to restore her, however, before long and prophesies the next revolution will not be altogether bloodless.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 19.—It is announced here that the condition of the Czar is desperate. Prince-elector Alex of Hesse, the fiancée of the Czarowitz, left Darmstadt this morning for Livadia. Trouble for Hawaii. PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 19.—The barkentine Amella, from Honolulu brings news that Queen Lilioukalan's emissary in Washington, Widemann, had returned with personal assurances from Secretary of State Gresham, that in the event of a revolution in Hawaii, the United States government would remain neutral. Captain Ward, of the Amella, was told by Samuel Parker that similar assurances had been given by an Admiral Walker, of the Philadelphia. This news has been generally circulated through the island and caused a feeling that hostilities between royalists and provisionalists might be resumed at any time. Capt. Ward believes the royalists will attempt to restore her, however, before long and prophesies the next revolution will not be altogether bloodless.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 19.—It is announced here that the condition of the Czar is desperate. Prince-elector Alex of Hesse, the fiancée of the Czarowitz, left Darmstadt this morning for Livadia. Trouble for Hawaii. PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 19.—The barkentine Amella, from Honolulu brings news that Queen Lilioukalan's emissary in Washington, Widemann, had returned with personal assurances from Secretary of State Gresham, that in the event of a revolution in Hawaii, the United States government would remain neutral. Captain Ward, of the Amella, was told by Samuel Parker that similar assurances had been given by an Admiral Walker, of the Philadelphia. This news has been generally circulated through the island and caused a feeling that hostilities between royalists and provisionalists might be resumed at any time. Capt. Ward believes the royalists will attempt to restore her, however, before long and prophesies the next revolution will not be altogether bloodless.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 19.—It is announced here that the condition of the Czar is desperate. Prince-elector Alex of Hesse, the fiancée of the Czarowitz, left Darmstadt this morning for Livadia. Trouble for Hawaii. PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 19.—The barkentine Amella, from Honolulu brings news that Queen Lilioukalan's emissary in Washington, Widemann, had returned with personal assurances from Secretary of State Gresham, that in the event of a revolution in Hawaii, the United States government would remain neutral. Captain Ward, of the Amella, was told by Samuel Parker that similar assurances had been given by an Admiral Walker, of the Philadelphia. This news has been generally circulated through the island and caused a feeling that hostilities between royalists and provisionalists might be resumed at any time. Capt. Ward believes the royalists will attempt to restore her, however, before long and prophesies the next revolution will not be altogether bloodless.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 19.—It is announced here that the condition of the Czar is desperate. Prince-elector Alex of Hesse, the fiancée of the Czarowitz, left Darmstadt this morning for Livadia. Trouble for Hawaii. PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 19.—The barkentine Amella, from Honolulu brings news that Queen Lilioukalan's emissary in Washington, Widemann, had returned with personal assurances from Secretary of State Gresham, that in the event of a revolution in Hawaii, the United States government would remain neutral. Captain Ward, of the Amella, was told by Samuel Parker that similar assurances had been given by an Admiral Walker, of the Philadelphia. This news has been generally circulated through the island and caused a feeling that hostilities between royalists and provisionalists might be resumed at any time. Capt. Ward believes the royalists will attempt to restore her, however, before long and prophesies the next revolution will not be altogether bloodless.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 19.—It is announced here that the condition of the Czar is desperate. Prince-elector Alex of Hesse, the fiancée of the Czarowitz, left Darmstadt this morning for Livadia. Trouble for Hawaii. PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 19.—The barkentine Amella, from Honolulu brings news that Queen Lilioukalan's emissary in Washington, Widemann, had returned with personal assurances from Secretary of State Gresham, that in the event of a revolution in Hawaii, the United States government would remain neutral. Captain Ward, of the Amella, was told by Samuel Parker that similar assurances had been given by an Admiral Walker, of the Philadelphia. This news has been generally circulated through the island and caused a feeling that hostilities between royalists and provisionalists might be resumed at any time. Capt. Ward believes the royalists will attempt to restore her, however, before long and prophesies the next revolution will not be altogether bloodless.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 19.—It is announced here that the condition of the Czar is desperate. Prince-elector Alex of Hesse, the fiancée of the Czarowitz, left Darmstadt this morning for Livadia. Trouble for Hawaii. PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 19.—The barkentine Amella, from Honolulu brings news that Queen Lilioukalan's emissary in Washington, Widemann, had returned with personal assurances from Secretary of State Gresham, that in the event of a revolution in Hawaii, the United States government would remain neutral. Captain Ward, of the Amella, was told by Samuel Parker that similar assurances had been given by an Admiral Walker, of the Philadelphia. This news has been generally circulated through the island and caused a feeling that hostilities between royalists and provisionalists might be resumed at any time. Capt. Ward believes the royalists will attempt to restore her, however, before long and prophesies the next revolution will not be altogether bloodless.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 19.—It is announced here that the condition of the Czar is desperate. Prince-elector Alex of Hesse, the fiancée of the Czarowitz, left Darmstadt this morning for Livadia. Trouble for Hawaii. PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 19.—The barkentine Amella, from Honolulu brings news that Queen Lilioukalan's emissary in Washington, Widemann, had returned with personal assurances from Secretary of State Gresham, that in the event of a revolution in Hawaii, the United States government would remain neutral. Captain Ward, of the Amella, was told by Samuel Parker that similar assurances had been given by an Admiral Walker, of the Philadelphia. This news has been generally circulated through the island and caused a feeling that hostilities between royalists and provisionalists might be resumed at any time. Capt. Ward believes the royalists will attempt to restore her, however, before long and prophesies the next revolution will not be altogether bloodless.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 19.—It is announced here that the condition of the Czar is desperate. Prince-elector Alex of Hesse, the fiancée of the Czarowitz, left Darmstadt this morning for Livadia. Trouble for Hawaii. PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 19.—The barkentine Amella, from Honolulu brings news that Queen Lilioukalan's emissary in Washington, Widemann, had returned with personal assurances from Secretary of State Gresham, that in the event of a revolution in Hawaii, the United States government would remain neutral. Captain Ward, of the Amella, was told by Samuel Parker that similar assurances had been given by an Admiral Walker, of the Philadelphia. This news has been generally circulated through the island and caused a feeling that hostilities between royalists and provisionalists might be resumed at any time. Capt. Ward believes the royalists will attempt to restore her, however, before long and prophesies the next revolution will not be altogether bloodless.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 19.—It is announced here that the condition of the Czar is desperate. Prince-elector Alex of Hesse, the fiancée of the Czarowitz, left Darmstadt this morning for Livadia. Trouble for Hawaii. PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 19.—The barkentine Amella, from Honolulu brings news that Queen Lilioukalan's emissary in Washington, Widemann, had returned with personal assurances from Secretary of State Gresham, that in the event of a revolution in Hawaii, the United States government would remain neutral. Captain Ward, of the Amella, was told by Samuel Parker that similar assurances had been given by an Admiral Walker, of the Philadelphia. This news has been generally circulated through the island and caused a feeling that hostilities between royalists and provisionalists might be resumed at any time. Capt. Ward believes the royalists will attempt to restore her, however, before long and prophesies the next revolution will not be altogether bloodless.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 19.—It is announced here that the condition of the Czar is desperate. Prince-elector Alex of Hesse, the fiancée of the Czarowitz, left Darmstadt this morning for Livadia. Trouble for Hawaii. PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 19.—The barkentine Amella, from Honolulu brings news that Queen Lilioukalan's emissary in Washington, Widemann, had returned with personal assurances from Secretary of State Gresham, that in the event of a revolution in Hawaii, the United States government would remain neutral. Captain Ward, of the Amella, was told by Samuel Parker that similar assurances had been given by an Admiral Walker, of the Philadelphia. This news has been generally circulated through the island and caused a feeling that hostilities between royalists and provisionalists might be resumed at any time. Capt. Ward believes the royalists will attempt to restore her, however, before long and prophesies the next revolution will not be altogether bloodless.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 19.—It is announced here that the condition of the Czar is desperate. Prince-elector Alex of Hesse, the fiancée of the Czarowitz, left Darmstadt this morning for Livadia. Trouble for Hawaii. PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 19.—The barkentine Amella, from Honolulu brings news that Queen Lilioukalan's emissary in Washington, Widemann, had returned with personal assurances from Secretary