CAPITAL JOURNAL PUB. CO.

Printers Ink, the great Advertiser's Guide, says in a recent issue, "The Salem, Oregon, CAPITAL JOURNAL is the first one-cent paper established on the Pacific coast and the only one west of the Rocky Mountains. Not all the readers of a one-cent paper belong to a one-cent class of people, as many busy men purchase a penny paper because its matter, being more condensed, is more quickly read. The newspaper or magazine which reduces its subscription price will not lessen its value as an advertising medium if the quality of its read matter is kept up to the standard."

TONGUE ON SILVER.

Another Senatorial Candidate Talks on the White Metal.

HILLSBORO, Or., Nov. 3.—(Editor Oregonian.)—I have read with some care your editorial in today's Oregonian, as well as the one of a few days ago, in which you depict the terrible consequences of either the free coinage of silver, or of the coinage of the product of our own mines. It is to be inferred from these articles that the Oregonian approves the present coinage laws of the United States, and is ready to wield its powerful influence in favor of their continuance. Let us look at those laws squarely and see what they are and where they are leading us. Heretofore our silver mines have been a vast source of wealth; they have furnished employment to thousands of men, who became consumers of the products of the labor of others, and have furnished a good share of the increased circulation needed by a constantly expanding population to do its increasing business. Nearly all of this has been overthrown by legislation in the last year. We have reached a condition unknown to our previous history. Our silver mines are absolutely worthless to us as producers of money metal. If run to their full capacity, not one ounce of their product could pass through the mints of the United States, or get into circulation among our citizens as money. Not a dollar of additional silver can get into circulation as money, except by redeeming a treasury note. When the silver is got out the treasury note is redeemed and destroyed, and the circulation remains the same. A vast amount of silver money is lost and destroyed every year by abrasion and by accident, and there is no way to supply the loss. Constantly increased population demands increased silver circulation, and the demand is ignored. On the contrary, as the population increases, the silver coin, by abrasion and destruction, constantly decreases. This will lead inevitably, if long continued, to gold monometallism. With tariff laws designed to increase our imports, while exports are diminishing enormously in value, the products of our gold mines, inadequate even to pay the interest on our public, private and corporate indebtedness to Europe, what will be the end? And where will the supply of money be obtained?

A continuance of this legislation means constant contraction. Hence money means dear money, with increased purchasing power, it means a decrease in the price of every other species of property, real and personal, in the country, and in the city it means decrease in the wages of all classes of labor, skilled and unskilled, manual and professional. But worst of all it means an enormous increase in the indebtedness of every class, public and private, with diminished power to pay. It means confiscation of the property of the debtor, for the benefit of the creditor. It will make the United States a paradise to the class of people who are speculative creditors, but it will make it a hell for everybody else. Since the most generous and least exacting creditor will suffer with the rest, having loaned the money on property with only a fair margin at old time value, when the power of the debtor

CAUSES OF THE LANDSLIDE.

In interviewing several prominent Democrats about what they thought was the cause of their defeat in the elections held yesterday, Governor Penoyer jokingly remarked that the speeches made by Col. Hofer, of the JOURNAL, in Iowa, had evidently been used as Republican literature throughout the eastern states, hence the unlooked for landslide.—Independent.

This comes with good grace from the great Populist leader who made his boast last June that he would "spend just two days speech making in Marion county to kill off young Hofer." Thanks, governor.

At Tacoma Democrats tried to get Republicans to vote for their legislative candidates by promising that there was no possibility of defeating a Republican for the U. S. senate. For once their promise was fulfilled.

What has the Republican party ever done to have Missouri forced into its ranks?
