RIVER NEWS.
 Altona will be up tonight. Steamer Eugene will be up from lower river points tomorrow evening or Monday morning.
 The river is not falling as rapidly now as during the first of the week, having fallen only an inch since 4 o'clock last evening.
 The Shaver made her last trip down the river Thursday as she has been placed on the Yamhill route, the Hog to take the place of the Shaver on account of deep draft.
 Steamer Hoag came up last night in place of the Shaver and will hereafter run instead of the Shaver. She went on up to Albany last night and will endeavor to reach Portland today in order to leave on her trip up the river so as to reach Salem late Sunday night.
 There will be a musical and literary entertainment given at the United Brethren church, in Yew Park, on tomorrow, Saturday, evening, beginning at 8 p. m. Admission 10 cents. A good program. Everybody invited. 9:21

OUR SOCIETY DEPARTMENT.
SOCIAL NEWS OF THE WEEK.

A "MUM" DINNER.
 Thursday evening of this week a little dinner party was given at the home of Chief Justice R. S. Bean, on East Court street, in honor of Associate Justice and Mrs. C. E. Wolverton, who has lately come from Albany to make their future home in Salem. The event was not literally a mum affair, for a most pleasant social hour was spent, but the home was tastefully decorated with magnificent chrysanthemums, the favorite flower, of which the hostess is a successful grower. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wolverton, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown.

A NEIGHBORHOOD PARTY.
 Friday evening, Miss Minnie Colwell, the efficient cashier of Gilbert B. Co., extensive banking business, entertained a few of the neighborhood friends at the home of her mother, Mrs. H. L. Colwell, on East State street. The amusement of the evening was a list and et cetera. The first prize of the evening was carried off by Mrs. W. H. Downing, while Mrs. J. Stapleton was given the reward for ability to make the fewest points. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Bean, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Downing, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Downing, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stapleton, Mr. and Mrs. Al Burton, Miss O. Ballou, Miss Stella Sherman, Messrs. Jas. Culver, J. W. McKinney, Roy Burton and A. F. Hofer.

A BANKER SURPRISED.
 F. N. Gilbert returned this week from Moscow, Idaho, where he has been for some time looking after banking interests. Tuesday evening he was greeted by a delightful surprise party at his residence on Cottage and Marion streets. The party was given under the auspices of his Sunday school class, which proved to be a good manager. About forty guests having met at the residence of T. Holverson, were soon gathered at Mr. Gilbert's home, taking him by complete surprise. After a prelude of a few minutes spent in a social way, a point was reached in the events of the evening when the evening program was called into play which seemingly proved serious enough "in its way," viz: "The wedding." The knot was tied by Miss Zebulon Zephaniah Mahor-Shah-Hash-Baz, represented by Hal Hibbard, and Miss Clementina Hepzibah Zenobia-Green, represented by Miss Lizzie Holverson, Miss Georgia Giltner, maid of honor, Wm. P. Babcock, best man, and Miss Harbord, page, Clifford W. Kauter officiated. The costumes and everything were beautifully arranged to suit the occasion of a high-toned country village wedding, the parts being acted out perfectly. After that some good instrumental music was well rendered by Messrs. Breyman, Giltner and Williams, followed by some well rendered vocal music by Clifford W. Kauter. All the events of the entire program seemed much appreciated. Delicious refreshments were then served, after which some lively and interesting college songs were sung in unison, being led by Hal D. Patton. The merry guests dispersed at a late hour.

YOUNG FOLKS' PARTY.
 The home of Dr. Gwynne, on Cottage street, was a scene of joy and mirth last evening, the occasion being a party given by Misses Alberta and Georgia Gwynne, to about thirty of their young friends.
 After indulging in the usual games, the guests were served a delicious lunch, after which the fortune of each present was told in a novel manner.
 A short verse was neatly written on a small piece of paper, folded, placed in a nut shell, neatly tied and passed around to the guests. Some were very laughable and were the cause of a number of innocent jokes.
 During the evening two prizes were awarded to the two best natural history scholars present, which was determined in the following manner. Indifferent members of the party drew the picture of some animal upon a small blackboard, while the rest guessed what it was. The one guessing the largest number correctly, received the first prize, the second largest, the booby prize.
 For best prize Miss Margaret Parkhurst and Paul Vandercloot tied, but upon resorting to the "straw" method, Miss Parkhurst won the prize, which was a combination lead pencil. Otto Metschan carried off the booby prize.

 After engaging in social intercourse until a late hour, the guests returned to their homes, having spent a most enjoyable evening. The young hostesses did themselves proud and royally entertained the guests. Those who had the pleasure of being present were: Misses Oda Chapman, Winnie Cherrington, Dell Harritt, Cora Rotan, Edna Purdy, Margaret Parkhurst, Emily Theateber, Mildred Kinn, Gertrude Hirsch, Edith Sroat, Olive Gwynne, Ethel Van Eaton, Laura Kirk, Hattie Litchfield, Messrs. Zidoc Riggs, Willie Highley, Jimmie McIntire, Willie Hodgkin, Charlie Hodgkin, Otto Metschan, Tony Metschan, Paul Vandercloot, Willie Evans, Aleck Moor, North Cherrington, Carl Morris, Floyd Dayton, Clarence Bishop, John Cochran.

CHRYSANTHEMUM TEA.
 The young ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal church of this city, will some evening next week give one of the now popular chrysanthemum teas in the guild room.
LEGBEE OF HONOR.
 The ladies of the Salem Degree of Honor gave a good all-round entertainment at the insurance hall Thursday evening of this week. The following musical program was rendered:
 Zither solo.....Mr. Doublemeyer and son
 Vocal solo.....Miss Lena Hutton
 Instrumental solo.....Miss Nettie Bekker
 Vocal solo.....Miss Edna Knight
 Instrumental chorus.....Elite Orchestra
 Vocal solo.....Miss Lena Benoit
 After the program a most acceptable luncheon was served by the ladies and the evening was closed by dancing. This latter amusement was not confined to the young people, as the music by the Elite orchestra made it interesting for all.

At every fashionable club, what? Why, Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.
AN ATTRACTIVE PLACE.
 Olinger & Riedon's Undertaking Business Moved to New Quarers.
 During the past week the undertaking business of the firm of Olinger & Riedon has been moved into the new building on Court street adjoining their old stand, and the place has been put into such fine shape as to be worthy of mention. Salem has now undertaking and embalming rooms of which she can be truly proud. They are not so pretentious, possibly, as could be found in larger cities, but the place is new, neat and attractive. Caskets are so stored that nothing is in sight, but the firm has a very convenient way of displaying goods, and plenty of stock to meet the demands of a larger trade. This establishment has been conducted in Salem the past fifteen years, and is well known to the people as a reliable house. All modern methods are used in embalming and other departments, and the most prompt, reliable service can always be had. Calls attended day or night.

WOMEN ALWAYS TIRED

Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher Says She Has Known
But Half a Dozen Women Who Were Thoroughly Well.
The Routine of Domestic Tasks Overdrains Their Nervous Force.
 "Among all my friends—and the number of my acquaintances has necessarily been rather large," says Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher, "I can recall but half a dozen thoroughly well women."
 So many, in order to obtain the reputation of being good housewives, work from morning till night, cooking, sweeping and overhauling.
 "What would the house look like," they ask, "if I were not constantly looking after it?"
 It would certainly look a good deal homelier if the wife and mother kept her health and high spirits instead of growing old and careworn from the struggle with dust and the neglect of their tired, aching nerves, and pale, watery blood that daily becomes more and more badly nourished.
 It is not the healthy weariness of muscle and brain, so easily forgotten after a good night's sleep; but it is the weariness that remains till morning.

A SERIOUS GASH.—Wesley Vandercook, who lives eight miles south of the city had the misfortune yesterday to drive an ax through the fore part of his right foot in such a manner as to cut a gash three inches long on the under side. The wound was dressed by Dr. Bradshaw, and this morning he was brought in to the home of his aunt, Mrs. E. N. Cooke, where he will remain for treatment. Mr. Vandercook is a new comer, and a member of the Grand Army as well as the K of P order.
 Gift prizes with baking powders means that they are inferior. Gift powders invariably contain alum or other adulterants. It's real economy to use Dr. Price's.

Died.
JONES.—At Brooks, Oregon, November 9, 1894, Elsie Jones, aged 2 years and six months.

Derby, F. A. Turner, Judge Geo. H. Burnett, Thos. Reynolds, G. W. Davis, James Davis, and a number of others left for Portland this afternoon, to attend the doings of the Mystic Shrine in Portland tonight.
PRESBYTERIAN.—Services at 10:30 and 7:30. Morning subject, "The Safeguards of the Church." Evening subject, "Starting in Life"—Sermon to young men by request. Sunday school at 12. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:15.

Safe, Quick and Effective.
 The valuable curative properties of Alcock's Porus Plasters are due to the employment of the highest medical and chemical skill. They are purely vegetable, and in ingredients and method have never been equalled; safe, quick and effective in their action; they do not burn or blister, but soothe and relieve while curing, and can be worn without causing inconvenience.
 All other so-called Porus Plasters are imitations, made to sell on the reputation of Alcock's.
 Brandt's Pills, the safest purgative known.

REBATE ASKED.—P. H. D'Arcy appeared before the county court for Willamette University, with a claim for rebate of taxes to the amount of $288 on the part of the campus used as a nursery. He showed in the petition that while the land was being used as a nursery, the rental of $150 per year was used to pay the debt of the school, and that the land was being planted to trees and shrubbery for the beautifying of the grounds. The petition was not granted by the court. Steps will be taken to enjoin the sheriff from selling the property at delinquent sale.
