CAPITAL JOURNAL PUBLISHING CO.
Printers Ink, the great Advertiser's Guide, says in a recent issue, "The Salem, Oregon, CAPITAL JOURNAL is the first one-cent paper established on the Pacific coast and the only one west of the Rocky Mountains. Not all the readers of a one-cent paper belong to a one-cent class of people, as many busy men purchase a penny paper because its matter, being more condensed, is more quickly read. The newspaper or magazine which reduces its subscription price will not lessen its value as an advertising medium if the quality of its reading matter is kept up to the standard."
BROUGHT FORTH A MOUSE.
Wednesday evening a self appointed committee of citizens met in the Y. M. C. A. rooms to put up a so-called "independent" or "citizens" ticket for next Monday's city election. Who appointed this committee, or to whom it is to submit its report cannot be learned. From the best information that can be obtained Rev. G. W. Grannis and L. H. McMahan were leaders in the movement.
They were evidently very much troubled to find available candidates, for the various offices, that is, men who were willing to be slaughtered to satisfy the whims of a few self-styled representatives of an uncertain constituency. After skirmishing about until nearly midnight this "committee" brought forth the name of Geo. Griswold as an "independent" candidate for marshal.
The men who took part in this movement were no doubt sincere in their purpose, but to a man up a tree the Democratic hand is plainly visible in the background, and it was not a very adroit Democratic hand, either. To judge from the number of Democrats seen urging on the matter of an "independent movement" during the day, and the number of the light-weight untried running up and down the Y. M. C. A. steps in the evening from 9 to 11 o'clock, one not posted, would have concluded that a Democratic meeting was being held.
Up to the hour of going to press it cannot be learned when or where this "citizens' committee" will report.
The Republican ticket was not set up as a star-chamber proceeding. It was nominated unanimously by an open convention of the best citizens of Salem.
Salem is to be congratulated upon its acquisition in the city council of such legal ability as is possessed by J. J. Morphy and G. O. Bingham.
A more perfect Thanksgiving day could not have been asked, and every thing considered the Oregon people had not a little to be thankful for.
Salem's poor fund well yesterday, and if our efficient board of charities keeps up at its present rate there will soon be no more poor to provide for.
W. F. Higdon has always been a successful business man. He has good knowledge of parliamentary usage, and will make a good councilman.
Calling himself an "independent" cannot change the true character of a Democrat. A leopard cannot change his spots.
Few empty houses in Salem now.

Salem wants no raise of taxes. Mayor Gatch and every man on his ticket is opposed to any such an outrage upon the people.
"Law and morality" cannot come through self-appointed star-chamber committees. It must come from the people.
The Republican party is not afraid to accept the results of an open meeting. It countenances no star-chamber methods.
The Republican party has no self-appointed committees that try to dictate to the voters.
The Republican city ticket is not a ticket for the select few, but for the masses.
An "independent" ticket with Democrats forced onto it will not catch the wide-awake Democratic voter.
Every man who was a candidate at the Salem primaries is supporting the Republican ticket.
The Salem Republicans are happy, cheerful, confident, unanimous and progressive.
A Republican year is a poor year for the "independent" and "citizens' lodge.
There are no soreheads among Salem Republicans.
With Hiram Smith in the council, there can be no such a thing as a "job." Salem needs many improvements, but we want them in a business way.
FAMOUS NICKNAMES.
Socrates was the Bearded Master because of his long, ragged beard.
Sir Joshua Reynolds was the Bachelor painter and the Raphael of England.
Charles II was the Mutton Eating King from his fondness for spring lamb.
Lord Brougham was called Blundering Brougham from a political mistake.
James Fenimore Cooper has been called the Scott of the Seas from his stories of marine life.
Athenius was called the Father of Tragedy from the fact that he was the first great Greek tragic poet.
John Knox to his friends was the Apostle of Scottish Reformers; to his enemies was the religious Machiavel.
Albert III, duke of Austria, was Albert With the Tree from the fact that he always wore twisted about his head a lock of his wife's hair.
Abraham Lincoln was the Rail Splitter from his farm work. He was also called Honest Old Abe, the Martyr President and Father Abraham.
Alexander the Great was denominated Macedonia's Madman because of his rashness. He was ever ready to attack, and disparity of numbers made no difference with him.
Louis XV of France was by his subjects nicknamed the Well Beloved in derision. His death was welcomed with genuine enthusiasm by his people, who were tired of his long reign and vices.
Homer was called the Blind Bard from his supposed infirmity. He has also been dubbed the Father of Poetry, the Swan of the Meander, the Prince of Poets and many other complimentary names.
Ben Jonson was the Bricklayer from his occupation. He was also designated Father Ben, Honest Ben, Old Ben, Rare Ben, Young Horace, the English Juvenal, the Father of Poets, the King of Numbers and the English Coryphaeus.—St. Louis Republic.
STAGE GLINTS.
The stately and colossal Harriet Vernon is quite seriously ill of bronchitis in London.
Jennie Yeaman has been engaged for "The Twentieth Century Girl" at the New York Bijou.
Clyde Fitch, the playwright who has been abroad for the past three months, has returned to New York.
Sardon's father has just died at Canons at the age of 93. He was a school teacher and wrote some educational textbooks.
Ernest Reyer, the composer of "Salomé" and "Sigurd," has agreed to write the score for Frederic Mistral's poem, "La Bohème Juive."
Hood's Is Wonderful.
ROXBOROUGH, Ont., Oct. 20, 1894.—Mrs. C. W. Lambert, writing to C. J. Hood & Co., of Lowell, Mass., says: "My mother has been a constant sufferer from sick headaches all her life and found nothing that would give relief except for a short time, until she tried Hood's cathartic. It is a wonderful medicine."

"Almost as Palatable as Milk"
This is a fact with regard to Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. The difference between the oil, in its plain state, is very apparent. In Scott's Emulsion you detect no fish-oil taste. As it is a help to digestion there is no after effect except good effect. Keep in mind that Scott's Emulsion is the best promoter of flesh and strength known to science.

Skin Cancer Cured.
Testimony from the Mayor of Seaside, Ore.
Seaside, Ore., January 14, 1895.
Messrs. Lippman Bros., Savannah, Ga.: Gentlemen—I have tried your P. P. P. for a disease of the skin, usually known as skin cancer, of thirty years' standing, and found great relief; it purified the blood and removed all irritation from the seat of the disease and prevents any spreading of the sores. I have taken three or four bottles and feel confident that another course will effect a cure. It has also relieved me from indigestion and stomach troubles. Yours truly,
