Louis T. Barin was in town today. Otto Shellsberg, of Sublimity, is in the city. J. A. Carson is at Portland today on business. Governor-Elect Lord went to Portland today. Am. Book Trust Edwards returned to Portland today. N. H. Looney, the Jefferson dairyman, is in the city. Attorney W. H. Holmes went to Oregon City this morning. J. O. Boothby was a passenger for Portland on the morning train. Attorney Geo. G. Bingham was in Oregon City today on business, going down on the morning overland. It now looks as though Hon. C. B. Moores of Marion county would be elected speaker almost without opposition. Harvey Adams and family, who have been guests of Capt. Adams, of North Salem, started today for Indianapolis, Ind. Rev. D. V. Poling, of Albany, came down to sing at Rev. Clapp's special meetings at the Congregational church. He is a noted musical evangelist. A Pendleton paper says: Senator Raley, Representative Shurtum and Representative Gardner will go to Salem on the night of January 10th. Prof. J. M. Garrison, of Forest Grove, master of the art of penmanship in Pacific University, is in the city under an engagement with several institutions of learning, to teach classes. It is announced that Miss Jennie Martin and Mr. Victor Julien, both of this city, will be joined in wedlock on Wednesday evening of next week at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Collins on Church street. Col. J. B. Eddy of the railroad commission is in the city. He says the Umatilla county delegation is divided on the senatorship. Petitions are in circulation asking the Republicans to vote for Mr. Lowell of that county for senator. Mr. Francis Feller, an old resident of Butteville, is in the city today and will be united in marriage this evening to Miss Ida Gierrette, an estimable young lady of that city. The ceremony will probably be performed at the parlors of Hotel Willamette. Hon. Harrison R. Kincaid, of Eugene, arrived this afternoon and will remain in the city until sworn in as secretary of state next Monday. Mr. Kincaid is stopping at Hotel Willamette and is being warmly greeted by his many friends here and Republicans from all over the state. Mr. Kincaid is editor of the Eugene State Journal and from the tone of his editorials will give the people economical administration. One good thing about Dr. Price's Baking Powder is that contents of the cans are always full weight. It stands the test of the scales as well as any other.
