Several Buildings Completely Destroyed This Morning.

THE LOSSES AND INSURANCE.

All the Structures on One Side of a Block.

Special to THE JOURNAL.

CORVALLIS, Jan. 28.—The grocery store of Pease, Clarke & Co., the Palace saloon, adjoining on the south, and Zels building, (empty), embracing all the buildings Skipton's livery stable to the corner north of the Occidental Hotel, were this morning almost a mass of ruins.

The loss at this time is not known, but it is believed that it will foot up fully $10,000, insurance perhaps $3,000.

Saved from the Chocora.

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., Jan. 28.—When the Chocora went out of St. Joseph on her last trip there was a dog aboard. Yesterday the dog was brought into the city alive. Tuesday night the dog was heard whining at the door of a road-house at Pottawattomie Park. It was covered with ice. The finder, connected the visit of the strange dog which had evidently just come out of the cold water, with the loss of the Chocora.

It was recognized as the animal that was aboard the Chocora when it left port. The return of the animal indicates that the Chocora was within half a mile of shore Tuesday evening, the second night out. The dog it is believed, could not swim more than half a mile. The place where the dog came ashore is eight miles north of here. Many are inclined to think the vessel must have sunk not far from there.

Another Hog Pest.

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 28.—A short time ago Dr. C. N. Hewitt, secretary of the state board of health, was led to suspect the existence of erysipelas in swine at various localities in Minnesota. Together with Dr. Reynolds, Dr. Hewitt made post-mortem examinations in a number of these cases and developed cultures of the disease in his laboratory.

Samples of the tissues and cultures were forwarded to the bureau of agricultural industry of the department of agriculture, at Washington, and the bureau decided Dr. Hewitt's opinion in regard to the nature of the disease was correct. So far as known, this is the first identification of the disease in the United States, although it is common abroad.

U. S. Jackson, receiver of The National Bank of Fond du Lac, has been authorized by Comptroller Eskie to declare a dividend of 25 per cent.

Medical men preparing to celebrate a religious festival in Bangon Sunday and were forbidden by Mr. Fleming, British minister, to sacrifice a cow near the Hindu temple. When the police appeared with Mr. Fleming's order, the Mohammedans fought with sticks and stones. The police got into confusion, and Mr. Fleming ordered them to fire. Several Mohammedans fell dead, and many more were wounded severely. The Mohammedans still refused to disperse and the military were called out. Four companies charged on the double quick with bayonets. Many Mohammedans and Hindus were killed and some wounded.—Bangon.
