APPENDICITIS MUST GO

The Oregon Railroad Commission Fight.

NO ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION.

Is that Official Standing in With Corporations?

Attorney General Idelman is still in Portland formulating and holding out his opinion on the Railroad Commission case asked for by Governor Lord. The corporations have their lawyers at work and have retained counsel to make a fight to retain the present commission.
It begins to look very much as though Attorney General Idelman is in very little haste to get rid of a commission that there is very little law to retain. The cases cited by THE JOURNAL have been examined by the best lawyers in Oregon and do not give the old commission any ground upon which to hold over. The commission itself had so little confidence in its own standing that it neglected to again qualify or take any oath of office. It is the unnecessary verbiage of the Oregon body politic, the corporation appendicitis that must be cut off.
Awaiting an opinion by the attorney-general, Governor Lord has been furnished briefs in the case of the strongest character, going to maintain the position that, as the legislature failed to elect, there is a vacancy, of all the commissioners.
It is not known whether Governor Lord will wait for an opinion from the attorney-general, or that he will be guided by it when it is given.
Of course, the present commission would carry their case into court if they were declared out of office and the governor should appoint. They will do that anyhow, relying upon the corporation to defend them.
In that case the state would be defended by the attorney-general and if he was disposed to do so he could make a weak defense and let them down easy. If there is any way to accomplish it, the present commission should be abolished and none whatever appointed, and save the state $20,000 now as good as thrown away.

Boats are doing a good business at present and the river between Salem and Portland is a good boating stage. The upper river is a little low but not enough to hinder the boats from making schedule time. The river at Salem this morning registered 4.5 feet above low water mark and is falling very slowly.

STATE FAIR BOARD

Meets to Revise Premium Lists and Arrange Races.

The question of holding the annual state fair is a very important one to the people of Salem.

As there will probably be no industrial fair at Portland this fall, there is some prospect of there being a demand for a ten days or two weeks state fair this year.

The state board of agriculture met at 2 p. m. President Galloway, Secretary Irvine, J. P. Anderson, David Gullie, S. H. Holt, Z. P. Moody, G. A. McCallister, Jeff Myers, J. H. Albert, and D. H. Moody, members of the board were present. The meeting is called to consider the annual program, arranging a splendid program, routing the track for the June race, and other business.

FIRES AND PUNISH.—The work turned out at the Salem steam laundry is better in quality and first in price than any other laundry in the world. White labor does it.

Senator Shoop of Idaho, was formerly a student at Willamette university. That school does not seem to render men well for practical life.

THE YATMAN SURPRISE

He Has Twelve Hundred People Shaking Hands.

Rev. Yatman, the New York evangelist, continues to hold forth and is proving a continued surprise to the vast crowds.

THURSDAY NIGHT.
Last night the attendance was sufficient to fill every nook and corner of the vast auditorium of the First M. E. church, many standing in the aisles and galleries. The choir, composed of fifty of Salem's best singers under the direction of Mr. Dickinson, opened the services with singing "Praise Him," "There Is Sunshine in My Soul," and "Rescue the Perishing." Mr. Yatman then took for his evening lesson the 23d Psalm, the entire congregation repeating it in unison. "A Charge to Keep I Have," was sung by the congregation without organ accompaniment. The evangelist took for his subject the evidences of Christianity under the three heads: 1st: The witness of the spirit—God's high testimony to the sinner that he is saved; 2d: Testimony of God's word; 3d: Testimony of fruit bearing. A brief after-service of about twenty minutes was held at the close of the sermon. Today's announcements are: Services at 8 and 7:30 p. m. Doors open at 8 sharp, not before. No one will be seated during prayer or the singing of a solo and no one will be seated up front after Rev. Yatman has begun his discourse.

About two-thirds of the entire audience remained to the after meeting. An innovation at revivals was introduced by the evangelist last night. When the whole audience were on their feet he requested them to all shake hands with four of their next neighbors, then with six neighbors. By the time this was well under way the ten or twelve hundred people present presented a queer sight. People went from one side to the other of the whole house and shaking hands with people they never met before and perfect strangers. It produced a great deal of good humor which was taken advantage of by the speaker in a highly effective manner. No one was called upon to make any religious demonstrations and no opportunity was offered to anyone to "come forward." Yatman seems to be different from all other revivalists ever in Salem. His methods are a continued surprise and no one knows what will come next. Mr. Yatman himself is learning to ride a bicycle and is an enthusiastic about that as about his special services.

Died.
KNIGHT.—At the family home on Mission Bottom, March 7, 1905, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Knight, of pneumonia.
Funeral will be held at McMinnville tomorrow.

VESSELS IN COLLISION.

Two Steamers Collide in the Chesapeake Bay.

BALTIMORE, March 5.—The B. Y. line steamer Danville crashed into the St. Mary's near Fort Carroll last evening. The Danville was bound out for Norfolk, with a large passenger list. The steamer St. Mary's was bound up with 75 passengers aboard. The heavy fog prevented the look-out from seeing lights, and the vessels were not sighted until too late to avert a collision. Fortunately both vessels were proceeding slowly. The pilot of the St. Mary's threw her head to port, and the Danville crashed into her side. The shock was the first intimation the passengers had of impending danger, and instantly all was confusion. The officers of the St. Mary's quickly discovered that the glancing blow of the Danville did not seriously injure the vessel, and reassured the excited passengers. The Danville stood by until informed that the St. Mary's was in no danger of sinking. $2000 will cover the damage.

A VIOLENT CONVICT.
Policeman Given a Bloody Nose in Open Court.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—In the superior court this morning, John Wilson an eighteen year old criminal, was sentenced by Judge Wallace to forty years in the penitentiary on two charges of highway robbery. John Smith, Wilson's accomplice, pleaded guilty on one charge and was sentenced to twenty years. Before they could be taken out of the court room, Smith cursed and abused Judge Wallace in the vilest language and finally attacked Policeman Ryan, who arrested him, giving Ryan a bloody nose and knocking him to the floor.

Another charge of robbery is pending against Smith, who is a mere youth.

PENNOYER ON DOLPH.

The Ex-Governor Rejoices Over the Victory.

SAVED THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

From Going to Pieces by Electing Mr. McBride.

Ex-Governor Sylvester Pennoyer has been in the city attending the funeral of Mrs. Phil. Metcalf. He left for Portland on the 1:40 train, after seeing many old friends about the State house.

Ex-Governor Pennoyer greeted THE JOURNAL editor quite cordially, and said:

"I want to congratulate you on the fight you have made and won for the people of this state in helping defeat that man Dolph for U. S. Senator.

"You have said some awful rough things about me in the past, that made me feel hard towards you, but I cheerfully forgive it all for what you have done in this instance. It is all past and I thank you.

"You have saved the Republican party of Oregon from going to pieces in the election of McBride. Next year all three parties will put free coinage of silver in their platforms and under those circumstances the Republicans stand a chance of carrying the state. The old Simon ring at Portland seems completely broken up and will hardly reappear in state politics."

WE DEAL IN ELEPHANTS.

HAVE YOU AN ELEPHANT FOR SALE?
