VALLEY LOCAL NEWS.

Brooks.

Last Sunday Mr. S. A. Jones, the teacher of class No. 4 in our Sunday school invited his class to his home for dinner. After partaking of a sumptuous feast the class was taken to Parkersville to visit the Sunday school at that place.

Bruce Jones went down to Portland Sunday returning Monday.

Quite a number of the good brothers turned out and grubbed for Rev. Royal Saturday.

Saturday afternoon class No. 3 of the Sunday school came with many nice pies and cakes for a surprise on their teacher, Grandma Harris.

Mrs. Frank Harris is visiting her parents at Elverton.

Rev. Wood and wife returned to their home near Portland Wednesday, after a month's stay.

Mrs. Crook has moved to Salem where she will remain for six weeks under the care of the doctors.

Miss C. L. Royal is visiting in Salem this week.

Several of our people have been to hear Mr. Yatman. All should hear him.

Rev. Royal preached on Howell prairie Sunday, and by the aid of Mrs. Royal they organized an Epworth League with twenty-five charter members.

Little Ada Harris fell from the upstairs window Sunday morning, a distance of 16 feet striking on her head, but suffering no serious injuries.

Mr. J. W. Shaffer and wife spent Sunday in Brooks.

Clinton Music of Salem is working for M. Krebs.

Johnnie Imlak quit school last week and returned to his home at Fairfield, where he will assist his father on the farm.

Dr. Reynolds was called to see Mrs. A. G. Perkins Saturday.

Police Court.

The necessary witnesses, Alex Jordan and Capt. Bell, in the case of James Butler, charged with assault with a dangerous weapon, were present at the examination when he resulted in the defendant being bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $200, in default of which he was placed in the county jail.

Remove Suffering.

None are so quick to see the advantage of a remedy as those who may be called at any minute to avail themselves of it. In witness of this J. E. Sullivan, Secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union, President of the Franklin Athletic Club, and Athletic Editor of The Sporting News, writes: "For years I have been actively connected with athletic sports. I always found it to my advantage to use Allen's Pink Pills for Pale People. I have noticed that most athletes of the present day use nothing else but Allen's Pink Pills. BLENKINSOP'S PILLS remove all impurities."

SALE FURNITURE.—A large stock of cheap furniture, with inside table, crochets, iron beds and would be suitable for country schools or bank. Can be seen at state capital, Salem. Will be sold at a bargain. Inquire of J. F. Mays, 211 North street, Portland, Me. 222 1/2.
