SOME APPOINTMENTS.

Major Tuttle Is Made Adjutant General

OF THE OREGON NATIONAL GUARDS

First Changes Made at the State Prison.

Governor Lord made public the following appointments today: Jim W. Davenport, of Silverton, was today appointed land agent, under house bill 64, to select lieu lands for the state board of school land commissions. Major B. B. Tuttle, of Portland, to be adjutant general of the Oregon National Guard.

AT THE PRISON.

Henry B. Brophy was today sworn in and took charge of the office of First Warden at the State Prison. He succeeds Warden I. W. Berry, and was for many years night-watch at the state house and a trusted employe of the state officials. He is not unfamiliar with the duties of the position, as he has seen service under a former prison superintendent. Mr. Berry was a very competent and obliging official and retires with all the honors of the office. Capt. Brophy will prove a faithful and vigilant official.

Capt. Tree, of Klamath county, was today appointed fence guard, the first change made in a minor position at the pen.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remediation. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; once caused, it is permanent, unless cured by the method described above, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.

OVER THE FALLS.

Visitors Crowded Oregon City to See the Sport.

OREGON CITY, April 1.—Five thousand visitors were in Oregon City Sunday, drawn by the announcement that Paul Webb, who, by the way, is a wine clerk from Independence named Stewart, would go over the falls in a barrel, and that Frank Miller would make a parachute jump from a balloon. The program was carried out faithfully. Ten minutes before the appointed time, 4 o'clock, five pistol shots rung out, and the barrel containing Webb was pushed out from the shore at Canemah, about 1500 feet above the cataract. It was borne buoyantly along by the swift current, went through the first rapids without shifting ends, and in two minutes made the plunge down the cataract into the central whirlpool. Then the barrel was lost to sight about fifteen seconds, when it bobbed up and was held 80 long seconds in the whirlpool. Finally it darted out, and lightly rode the most turbulent part of the river until caught, about 400 yards further down, and towed ashore. Webb came out in good condition, seven minutes after making the start.

The barrel was seven feet long and three feet in diameter. It was made of yellow fir staves an inch and a half thick, had a double head in each end, and the inside was padded with moss and excelsior. Webb was suspended in a life harness to prevent injury from the violent tumbling of the craft. The staves were bound together by eleven iron hoops; three of which burst during the trip. One end of the vessel was much marred. The barrel has a center board to assist it to get out of eddies. Webb estimates that it holds enough air to last him half an hour easily.

The balloon ascension was as successful as the plunge over the falls. At an altitude of about 1200 feet Miller cut loose and descended easily with his parachute, landing in the river abreast of his starting point, where a boat soon took him in without mishap. The balloon drifted off to the northward and came down on the Rinearson place.

Paul Webb is the first man to go over the falls of the Willamette and live to tell of it. He deems this as dangerous an undertaking as to leap Niagara, because at the latter place there is abundant sea-room, if the fall is greater, and here the unescapable jagged rocks make the trip a hazardous one.

RIVER NEWS.

Steamer Eugene is expected up from Portland tonight.

Steamer Maria passed through Salem about 8:30 yesterday morning on her way up the river.

Steamer Elmore came up from the metropolis Sunday afternoon with a large load of freight. After making her landing at Salem she proceeded on to Corvallis.

Steamer Gray Eagle remained in the city all day yesterday. She left in the evening for a point above Albany, to secure a raft of logs that she will tow down the river to Newberg.

Steamer Altona left her dock in this city at 8 o'clock Sunday morning for Oregon City with 130 passengers on board, of which forty were from Independence. Upon reaching the mouth of the Yamhill river, the Toledo, which plys on that river, and was also giving an excursion to Oregon City, having on board 30 McMinnville citizens, started out ahead of the Altona. Then followed a race between the two boats, the Altona reaching Oregon City a few minutes after 12 o'clock, about 45 minutes before the Toledo. Dancing and music was the order of the day, the officers of the boat having secured the services of the Second Regiment band, which discoursed sweet music throughout the day. The leap over the falls by Captain Webb was made successfully, being 15 minutes from the time he left the shore above the falls until he reached the shore below. On the return trip the Altona left Oregon City at 4:30 p. m., reaching Salem at 11:45 o'clock. All those who took advantage of the excursion, report having had a fine time, and all hope that this may not be the last of the enjoyable excursions to be given this season.

The Altona returned from Independence this morning with 90 head of sheep for Portland. She took on eight tons of hardware and farm implements for Portland and left for the latter city one-half hour late with fifteen passengers on board.

HIS 80TH BIRTHDAY.

In Honoring the Man of Blood and Iron.

Japanese Victory.

YOKOHAMA, April 1.—Colonel Itos, in his official report of the capture of Pescadore Island, says: "Makul Castle was not taken until two engagements had been fought. The Chinese lost three killed, and sixty prisoners. The Japanese lost one killed and had sixteen wounded."

At Bismarck's Home.

FREDERICKSBUH, April 1.—Since early this morning tins have been arriving here loaded with visitors from all parts of the German empire, desirous of congratulating Prince Bismarck on his eightieth birthday. Among them was a deputation from the Zeydlite Cuirassiers regiment, of which the prince is the honorary colonel, one composed of university professors and another of senators from Hamburg, Lubbeck and Bremen. A dispatch of congratulation which King Oscar of Sweden and Norway sent to Prince Bismarck alluded to the latter as the creator of German unity. Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria telegraphed congratulations today.

HOW HE RESTED.

Prince Bismarck rested today until 10 a. m., when he took breakfast alone with his family. At noon he received the courtesiers of Magdeburg, the rectors of the universities, and other officials who came to offer congratulations. He will not make an address, but one of the delegation of students will deliver a long oration for the prince's edification. After 7 o'clock no one will be received. At 8 o'clock the torchlight procession will take up its march.

Count Herbert and Count William, Prince Bismarck's sons, with their families, arrived Saturday night, and Dr. Schweninger came yesterday.

SOME NOTABLE PRESENTS.

FRIEDRICHSBURG, April 1.—Some of Prince Bismarck's admirers, evidently recalling the story that, when a student, the prince cured himself of a fever, by eating two pounds of sausages and drinking several liters of beer, are sending to the ex-chancellor beer and sausages enough to provision a besieged garrison. The platform of the railway station has been piled up with barrels and boxes, which men have been busy all day carting to the castle. A large Japanese incense-burner, which arrived from Tokio, has been set up in the garden opposite the principal entrance. The sword presented by the emperor lies on a table in the room where the chief presents are displayed. Surrounding it are clocks, pipes, walking-sticks and beautifully illuminated addresses, bound in embossed leather, wooden, velvet and metal cases. Presents are still arriving for Bismarck's famous dog.

LOCK OF WASHINGTON'S HAIR.
BERLIN, April 1.—Among the presents sent to Prince Bismarck is a lock of George Washington's hair enclosed in a little golden box. This is the gift of an American lady.

A sergeant who served in the war with France, has sent Bismarck a tablet shaped like a Prussian iron cross, and consisting of 80 squares, each the size of a postage stamp, on which Bismarck's name is written 20,000 times, being the number of days he has lived.

NORTHWEST NEWS ITEMS.

The Dalles city election occurs next week. Republican and Democratic tickets are in the field.

The people out about Troutdale have been catching smelt by the wagon load to use in fertilizing orchards.

The prospective loss of wheat from freezing in Umatilla county will be small, though in a few cases it may reach 20 per cent.

The Three Sisters has been employed this week in carrying to Corvallis 20,000 bushels of wheat, stored last fall in the Boonville warehouse and owned by the Benton mills.

A young man named Fisher was arrested in Walla-walla county and brought to Union, Sunday, where he will be detained for trial at the present term of court, under an indictment found at the February term, for perjury.

The Pacific can factory now have their full complement of machinery running on cans, and are turning out on an average 120,000 daily. Next year they expect to use nothing but American tin-plate and the San Francisco factory will add a tin-plate dipping department to their business.

Tuesday afternoon the infant daughter of D. W. Pritchard, of Corvallis, aged 15 days, breathed its last. It is said to have been a marvel of littleness, being only about 12 inches in length, yet was perfectly developed, having regular features and a beautiful face. The remains of the little one were interred Thursday.

The two youngest sons of William Jones, a business man and member of the town council of Wilbur were playing with a 38-caliber revolver last Monday, when it exploded, causing the death of Jay, the younger of the two. Just a week previous Mr. Jones buried his eldest daughter, Mary May, aged 16.

Conductor Fred Wall has hauled 111 carloads of potatoes during the present month, on his train alone, and other conductors have each hauled about the same number. These potatoes are being shipped from Willamette valley towns to Arizona, showing that the growers seem to have discovered a big market in the south.

In the unusual storm of last week at Tillamook bay, more or less damage is reported. Al Bunn of Beayer, lost six head of cattle. They were standing under a large tree, which was broken in pieces, and all the cattle under it were either killed by the stroke or by falling pieces of timber. Other damage of minor importance is reported.

Hon. George Turner, of Spokane, said to be one of the greatest anti-corruption attorneys on the Pacific coast, has been employed by the farmers of Walla Walla and Columbia counties to conduct their cases against the O. R. & N. Co. and E. McNeil, receiver, before the interstate commerce commission, which will take testimony in the cases, commencing April 11.

A stabbing is reported from Rice Hill, Douglas county. It seems that it was the regular date of the weekly prayer meeting at the school house, but owing to the stormy weather only five or six boys got together. As they were waiting for the people to come in a quarrel arose over a trivial matter, started as a joke, and ended in Bob Moser stabbing Henry Caster with a pocket knife, cutting seven gashes. The injured man is seriously hurt, but will probably recover in due time.

"Judge."

This comic paper has someimitable cartoons. But no one of them is more forcible than the testimony of its proprietor, W. J. Arkell, to the value of ALLDICK'S POROUS PLASTER. He writes:

"JUDGE BUILDING,
Cor. Fifth Ave. and Sixteenth St.,
New York, January 14, 1891.

"About three weeks since, while suffering from a severe cold which had settled on my chest, I applied an ALLDICK'S POROUS PLASTER, and in a short time obtained relief.

"In my opinion, these plasters should be in every household, for use in case of coughs, colds, sprains, bruises or pains of any kind. I know that in my case the results have been entirely satisfactory and beneficial."

Fatal Boiler Explosion.

WOBURN, Mass., April 1.—The boiler of Loring's tannery exploded this morning. Five bodies have been taken out of the ruins. It is not known how many are killed. The dead are: Alvin Clements, foreman; Patrick Lally, fireman; Thomas Patterson, night foreman; Patrick McGonagle, oiler, and Samuel Tracy. The injured are six in number. A big iron smokestack on the boiler house was blown high into the air and fell across the roof of the shop and a tall brick chimney fell into a thousand pieces, crashing the engineer beneath it. Patrick Riley died at the hospital at 12:40 p. m. making the 6th victim.

Spring Forest Fires.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., April 1.—Forest fires have burned over 600 acres of timber in this county. The homes of Henry Eiler, O. T. Smith and James Walters were destroyed. The families escaped on horses. Henry Eiler was fatally burned and a negro farm hand perished on the Eiler farm. William F. Ward, colored, was burned to death while fighting fire near Annetta, in the Southern part of Grayson.

The President in Favor.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The president this morning received representative delegations of Chicagoans in behalf of leading citizens of Chicago, irrespective of party affiliations, to invite him to a public reception to himself and Mrs. Cleveland as an expression of appreciation of his steadfast insistence on the preservation of the "sound national currency." The president expressed gratitude but gave no assurance of his acceptance.
