A CLEAN SWEEP

Chicago Gives a 40000 Plurality.

REPUBLICAN TO THE CORE.

Civil Service Reform Is Adopted There.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION CITY.

The Stock Yards District Goes Republican.

CHICAGO, April 3.—Complete returns give Geo. B. Swift, for mayor, a plurality of 31,110, the largest ever known here in a similar contest. The civil service law was carried by a majority 45,570. Other candidates on the Republican city tickets were all elected, although Trude, Democratic candidate for city attorney, ran nearly 20,000 ahead of his ticket. Republicans also made a clean sweep of the town offices of south, north and west Chicago, and in the annexed districts of Hyde Park and Lakeview, while in the town of Lake, the Stock Yards district, one of the supposed Democratic strongholds, the Republican landslide is remarkable. The election gives the Republicans a complete control of the city council, which will contain fifty Republicans and only eighteen Democrats. Dr. Holmes, the People's Party candidate for mayor, received 14,000 votes, less than half as many as were polled by the third party last fall. About the only non-Republican who squeezed in, was ex-Congressman Frank Lawler, Independent, who, owing to a quarrel between the Republican factions, captured a seat as Alderman by an exceedingly narrow margin.

MISSOURI MIXED.

ST. LOUIS, April 3.—Of 44 municipal parties in Missouri heard from, Democrats are successful in 25, Republicans in 9, and citizens' ticket in five, while in five other cities there is a mixed result. Among larger cities, in which Democratic tickets are elected is Springfield, Mexico, Independence, Nevada, Moberly, Joplin, Centralia, Paris, Poplar Bluff, Salem, Monet, Carrolton, Fayette, Neosho, Gallatin, Richland and Bowling Green, Sedalia, Mason, Carthage, Lebanon and St. Joe are the principal Republican cities.

RETURNS UP TO 11 o'clock last night indicate the election of six Republican members of the city council by a majority of from 5,000 to 10,000. Two-thirds of the members of the house of delegates will probably be Republicans. Moses Graves was elected in the Fifteenth ward. He will be the first colored man to sit in municipal government.

MORE REPUBLICAN VICTORY. DETROIT, April 3.—Today's reports of elections show steady increase of Republican majority for Justice of the Supreme court and regents of the university. It is now believed that Moore, a Republican, is elected Superintendent of Justice by 5000. In the Third congressional district the latest returns indicate the election of Millard, a Republican, by 1000 to 1000 majority over Leed, the candidate of the other four parties.

LIBERTY. SPECIAL SESSION. ANTI-POOL SELLING.

CHICAGO, April 3.—Columbian liberty bell was rung today at noon in honor of Rev. Samuel Francis Smith, author of the national anthem "America."

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., April 3.—Governor Stone, today, issued a call for a special session of the legislature to meet April 23.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 3.—The assembly bill prohibiting all pool selling, bookmaking, bets and wagers has passed the assembly. It now goes to the senate.

Boat Wanted.

Reliable business men will be in the city in a few days and will propose to the business men to operate a boat between Salem and Albany throughout the summer. The proposed boat is to cost about $4500, the owners of which will subscribe $2000, asking the business men to contribute the remaining $2500. The boat would prove a success, should it be built, and would be liberally patronized by the merchants and farmers along the river. The proposed steamer will carry about thirty tons of freight and 200 passengers, and with an average load will draw less than twelve inches. It is hoped the new enterprise will materialize.

A GLORIOUS MISTAKE.—Last evening THE JOURNAL had an advertisement of "twenty bars of soap for 25 cents at Joe Clark's grocery." Of course that was a mistake, as it would be an impossibility; but Clark has so many bargains in his line, that customers are not surprised to find anything cheap at his store.

AN OUTSIDE JOB.—Chas. H. Burgraft, the architect, has just received an order for a $1500 school house at Grant, Sherman county. He makes a specialty of school houses, and by intelligent advertising pushes his business into all sections.

FUNERAL.—The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Ramage will be held at the family home, corner of Asylum avenue and 21st street, Thursday at 2 p. m., conducted by J. L. Parrish. Burial will take place in the Odd Fellow's cemetery.

KINCAID'S FIRMNESS.

The Secretary of State Refuses to Pay

RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS SALARY

Tells Them if They Have a Claim They Can Sue.

Nothing has been so widely read and commented upon in the state press and by public men as THE JOURNAL'S dissection of Attorney General Idelman's opinion the same day it was printed, and so far it has not been controverted or criticized successfully. The commission felt much elated over the opinion, and Col. Eddy and Gen. Compton were fairly jubilant over their victory. The sleeping beauties of the sleeping car commission were doomed to short-lived happiness.

IDELMAN'S OPINION.

Closer examination of Idelman's opinion and authorities shows that he relies entirely upon the decision of Judge Bean in the case where the legislature failed to make provision for new police commissioners, and decided that Joseph Simon could hold over under the old charter. Idelman cites the cases referred to in Judge Bean's opinion.

KINCAID'S ULTIMATUM.

The persistence of the commission in the most important part of their duties, drawing their salaries, has drawn from Secretary Kincaid an ultimatum. The commission demanded warrants for pay up to April 1st, which was refused at the secretary of state's office, but warrants were allowed for the period to the 23d of February. The members of the board pressed Secretary Kincaid for a final ruling as to whether he would abide by the opinion of Attorney-General Idelman or reject it. Kincaid said: "I am not ready yet to make a final decision; it took Mr. Idelman a month to make up his mind and put it in form, and I am certainly entitled to reasonable time to study and digest it." The commissioners insisted upon having a final decision by next Saturday, but Mr. Kincaid said "No." "Well, in ten days, then, sure?" "No." "In fact," said Mr. Kincaid, "I will name no special time, but will give you my decision just as soon as my duties will permit me to get ready. If this does not suit, or if I am too slow, of course you have a remedy and can exercise your pleasure."

In other words, Mr. Kincaid says: Gentlemen, if you have any lawful claim against the state you will have to establish it.

I have taken an oath to issue no state warrants unless for services lawfully rendered under a contract with the state. I will not pay your bill until I am satisfied that you are legally entitled to draw it.

Secretary of State Kincaid thinks there is no reason to accept Mr. Idelman's opinion as conclusive, and thinks the opinion is entirely lame in reference to the bond of the commission, which the opinion says does not need renewal. If they had been released by the legislature, Mr. Kincaid says there would be no question but what they would be compelled to give a new bond. Surely, he thinks, if they held over, the same proceedings would be necessary. He thinks the whole question hinges upon how the language of the law and constitution is construed and that the matter is not by any means settled.

He has had an elaborate brief prepared by Col. F. V. Drake, of Portland, citing more cases to show that the commission have no right to hold over, than the attorney general has cited for them.

DRAKE'S CONCLUSIONS.

On the facts presented in this case two points are presented: First, that by reason of the failure of the legislature to elect a vacancy occurred on adjournment of the legislature which the governor should fill. Second, that by reason of the failure of the present incumbents to file a new oath and bond a vacancy has occurred which the governor is authorized to fill.

The present incumbents cannot be in any better position than they would have been in case of their re-election. If they had been re-elected for the present term a new oath and new bond by each would have been necessary.

Claiming to be their own successors, and claiming to hold for a statutory second term, they must signify acceptance by giving security to the state in the form of approved undertakings, and oath of office.

They are now acting without the bond, contrary to the purpose of the law; the state has not the protection it demands. The conditions precedent to the occupancy of office are wanting. It follows that a vacancy exists. If the secretary of state shall certify that no new bonds or oaths of office have been approved, renewed, or filed, I hold that the governor should appoint persons to fill and discharge the duties of the office of railroad commissioners.

OSCAR WILDE A LILLY.

Marquis of Queensberry Kneocks Him Out.

THE RESULT OF A FILTHY MESS.

Malodorous Self-Advertisers Publish Their Vile Affairs.

LONDON, April 3.—Every available inch of the Old Bailey was occupied this morning when the hearing of the libel suit, brought against the Marquis of Queensberry, by Oscar Wilde, was opened before Justice Collins. The Marquis answered to the indictment by pleading first, not guilty, and second, that the libel is true and that it was published for the public good.

Wilde and the Marquis of Queensberry's son are accused by the Marquis of unnatural practices.

The interest in the case increased when the cross-examination of Wilde began. When the council read passages from one of Wilde's novels to show that the author upheld vice, cross-examination then touched upon Wilde's immoral relations with various boys and men and the questions were so pointed as to be unprintable. Wilde, however, emphatically denied he had done anything improper, but was troubled and confused under the terrible cross examination to which he was subjected and frequently drank water. In fact, he seemed ready to faint and a chair was placed inside the witness stand for his use.
