The home of the Landons is in the hills between Coburg and Mohawk. The father and brother had been away during the day, yesterday, doing work and as they were late getting home and Miss Landon supposed they would be very tired, she concluded to drive up the cows. Taking the nouse dog along with her she started up a mountain trail in search of the cows. Not finding them close at hand she continued the search, and wandering quite a ways from home finally became bewildered and lost, and wondered about through the woods all night long, valuly trying to find the way opening near Mr. A.
